8-1.1.3. the income obtained from depositing in banks, whose criteria for safety indicators of the insurance reserve are determined by the body (institution) determined by the relevant executive authority;

8-1.1.4. other sources not prohibited by law.

8-1.2. Insurance funds are used in the following directions:

8-1.2.1. the provision of state compulsory personal insurance payments;

8-1.2.2. to create an insurance reserve;

8-1.2.3. financing measures related to social protection and social security of war-related disabled persons and families of martyrs in cases determined by the body (institution) determined by the relevant executive authority;

8-1.2.4. management costs;

8-1.2.5. to other directions determined by law.

8-1.3. Management costs are determined in the amount of up to 5 percent of the insurance premium, and the expenditure of these funds is carried out in accordance with the duly approved cost estimate.

8-1.4. The procedure for using insurance funds, including the insurance reserve, is approved by the body (institution) determined by the relevant executive authority.

8-1.5. When the insurance reserve is equal to the annual forecast volume of insurance premiums, the increase of the insurance reserve is stopped, and the income obtained from its deposit is directed to the financing of measures related to social protection and social security of persons with war-related disabilities and the families of martyrs.

8-1.6. As a result of a sharp increase in the number of persons entitled to receive insurance payments, if the annual expected expenses for insurance payments exceed the annual expected income from insurance premiums, the deficit between the expected expenses for insurance payments and the income from insurance premiums is financed by the insurance reserve.

8-1.7. At the end of the current year, the unused balance of the insurance fund, the insurance reserve and the income obtained from its deposit are directed to the financing of expenses for the next year.

Article 8-2. Deductions from fines imposed by the body (institution) determined by the relevant executive authority

For violation of the requirements of this Law, 43 percent of the funds collected from the fines imposed under the Code of Administrative Offenses of the Republic of Azerbaijan shall be transferred to the account of the body (institution) determined by the relevant executive power body for the purpose of improving the material and technical base of the body (institution) determined by the relevant executive power body.

Article 9. Supervision and responsibility for violation of this Law [22]

9.1. The implementation of state compulsory personal insurance is supervised by the body (institution) determined by the relevant executive authority.

9.2. The insurer submits a report to the body (institution) determined by the relevant executive authority on the work done in the field of state compulsory personal insurance.

9.3. Persons who violate the requirements of this Law are liable in the cases provided for in the Civil, Administrative Offenses and Criminal Codes of the Republic of Azerbaijan.

Article 10. Taxation [23].

~~The amount of insurance premiums paid to the state insurance bodies (except for the profit received from the provision of insurance services and insurance) is not taxed on the insurance payments given to the beneficiaries.~~

Article 11. Procedure for consideration of disputes

Disputes related to the state compulsory personal insurance of employees of judicial and law enforcement bodies are resolved in accordance with the laws of the Republic of Azerbaijan, including in court. [24]
