The Anguilla Constitution (Amendment) Order 2019

Made - - - - 10th April 2019

Coming into force in accordance with article 1(4)

At the Court at Windsor Castle, the 10th day of April 2019

Present,

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Her Majesty, in exercise of the powers conferred on Her by section 1(2) of the Anguilla Act 1980⁽¹⁾ or otherwise in Her Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered as follows:

Citation, construction, interpretation and commencement

1.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Anguilla Constitution (Amendment) Order 2019 and shall be construed as one with the Anguilla Constitution Order 1982⁽²⁾ (in this Order referred to as “the principal Order”).

(2) The principal Order and this Order may be cited together as the Anguilla Constitution Orders 1982 to 2019.

(3) In this Order, “the Constitution” means the Constitution set out in the Schedule to the principal Order.

(4) Subject to article 4(7), this Order comes into force on such day as the Governor, acting in his or her discretion, may appoint by proclamation published in the Official Gazette.

Amendment of references to Chief Minister in Constitution

2. The Constitution is amended in sections 23, 24, 24A, 25, 26 (including its title), 27, 28, 33, 35, 40A, 63, 65 and 66 by substituting for the words “Chief Minister”, wherever they occur, the word “Premier”.

(1) 1980 c. 67.

(2) S.I. 1982/334, as amended by S.I. 1990/587; there are other amending instruments, but none is relevant.

Amendment of references to persons who belong to Anguilla

3. The Constitution is amended—

- (a) in sections 36, 38 and 43, by substituting for the words “a person who belongs to Anguilla”, wherever they occur, the words “an Anguillian”;
- (b) in section 5(3)(c), by substituting for the words “does not belong to Anguilla” the words “is not Anguillian”;
- (c) in section 13(4)(a) by substituting for the words “do not belong to Anguilla” the words “are not Anguillian”; and
- (d) in section 35, by substituting for the words “persons who belong to Anguilla” the word “Anguillians”.

Amendment of the Constitution relating to nominated members of the House of Assembly

4.—(1) Section 35 of the Constitution (House of Assembly) is amended by omitting subsections (2)(d) and (3).

(2) Section 24A of the Constitution is amended by omitting the words “or nominated”.

(3) The heading of section 37 of the Constitution and section 37(1) of the Constitution are amended by omitting the words “nominated or”.

 - (b) in subsection (2)(b) by inserting after the word “district” the words “apart from the single electoral district”.

Amendment of section 46 of the Constitution

11. Section 46 of the Constitution (laws as to elections) is amended—
- (a) by renumbering the existing text as subsection (1); and
 - (b) by inserting after that text the following new subsections—

(3) Section 2(3) of the British Overseas Territories Act 2002 (c. 8) provides that references to a British Dependent Territories citizen in any other enactment passed or made before the commencement of that section shall be read as a reference to a British overseas territories citizen.

“(2) Notwithstanding anything in this Constitution, the Legislature may enact legislation providing for—

- (a) Anguilla to be a single electoral district, in addition to the single-member electoral districts into which Anguilla is divided;
- (b) the number of members to be returned to the House of Assembly in elections in the single electoral district;
- (c) registered voters to have the right to vote in the single electoral district in addition to their right to vote in a single-member electoral district.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), no legislation enacted under subsection (2) shall come into force before the dissolution of the House of Assembly next following its enactment.

(4) Provisions of any legislation enacted under subsection (2) which concern the registration of voters and other preparations for elections may be brought into force before the dissolution of the House of Assembly.”.

(3) The Commission may withdraw the status of Anguillian from any person referred to in subsection (2)(e)(ii), (2)(e)(iv) or (2)(e)(vi) if that person is convicted of an indictable offence by a court of Anguilla.

(4) A withdrawal of Anguillian status under subsection (3) does not prejudice the status of an Anguillian who obtained such status by virtue of a relationship to the person whose status has been withdrawn.

(5) Any reference in this section to a period of residence in Anguilla is to be construed as a reference to residing lawfully in Anguilla and not in breach of Anguilla's immigration laws and will be calculated in a manner determined by law.”.

Modification of Anguilla laws

13. In any law in force in Anguilla—

- (a) any reference to the Chief Minister shall be construed as a reference to the Premier;
- (b) any reference to the Anguilla Belonger Commission shall be construed as a reference to the Anguillian Status Commission; and
- (c) any reference to a person who belongs to Anguilla shall be construed as a reference to an Anguillian.

Transitional provision regarding office of the Premier

14. The person who, immediately before the date of commencement of this Order, holds the office of Chief Minister shall, on and after that date, hold the office of Premier in accordance with the Constitution.

Richard Tilbrook
Clerk of the Privy Council

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order amends the Constitution of Anguilla. It changes the title of Chief Minister to Premier and introduces a limit of two consecutive terms for the Premier. It substitutes the term Anguillian for a person who belongs to Anguilla, and revises the categories of people who qualify as Anguillians. It also makes some changes to the qualifications for elected membership of the House of Assembly and the qualifications of voters, and enables the establishment by legislation of an island-wide single electoral district in addition to the single-member electoral districts into which Anguilla is divided. With effect from the next dissolution of the House of Assembly, it abolishes the office of nominated member of the House of Assembly.
