PART V – A. PROTECTION OF WAGES

Payment of wages 32. (1) Unless otherwise provided under this Act, the wages of a worker are payable to the worker in the currency of the country where payment is made –

- (a) in cash at or near the place of employment; or
- (b) by cheque or bank transfer but with the worker's consent where the wages are less than R.2000 a month or such other monthly sum as may be prescribed.

(2) Wages payable in cash are payable at regular intervals as agreed between employer and worker but not less than once a month and not later than the fifth day following the date on which they fall due.

(3) Wages payable by cheque or by bank transfer are payable not less than once a month before the date on which they fall due.

(33) (1) An employer may make deductions from the wages of a worker in respect of - Authorised deductions

- (a) any amount which the employer is required or empowered to deduct from the wages under any written law or court order;
- (b) the recovery of the cost of any damage done to, or loss of, any property lawfully in the possession or custody of the employer occasioned by the willful default of the worker;
- (c) any amount paid to the worker in error as wages in excess of the amount of wages due to the worker;
- (d) an amount equal to the amount of any shortage of money arising through the negligence or dishonesty of a worker, who, by virtue of the occupation of the worker, is entrusted with the receipt, custody and payment of money;
- (e) such other amounts as the worker may in writing authorise.

(2) Without prejudice to any right of recovery of any debt due, the total amount of all deductions which, under subsection (1) (b), (c) and (d) may be made by an employer from the wages payable to a worker at any one time shall not exceed one quarter of the wages unless the worker authorises a higher amount in writing.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2) where any sum of money is due from a worker to the employer of the worker at the time the worker ceases to be employed by the employer, the employer may deduct that sum from any sum due from the employer to the worker as wages or any other benefit under the Act.

Disposal of wages 34. (1) An employer shall not limit or attempt to limit the right of a worker to dispose of the wages as the worker deems fit.

(2) An employer having a shop, store, or place for the sale of commodities to the workers of the employer shall not directly or indirectly, bind a worker to make use of any such shop, store or place.

Record of Wage Payments 35. (1) An employer, other than an employer solely employing part-time, casual or domestic workers, shall keep a record of the wages due to each of the workers in the employment of the employer, of the deductions made therefrom and of the amounts actually paid.

(2) The record shall be kept at the place of employment and shall be available for inspection by the competent officer.

Evidence of Payment 36 (1) An employer upon paying the wages of a worker shall keep a record of the payment made together with evidence of receipt of payment by the worker.

(2) Where an employer fails to keep a record as required under subsection (1) and there is a dispute over the fact of payment, a presumption that the employer has not made payment arises against the employer.

(3) Where the receipt of payment is not recorded on the record kept under section 35 (1), the receipt of payment shall contain the particulars of wages together with deductions made therefrom.

Workers as privileged creditors Cap. 33 37. Notwithstanding any other written law, privileges and rights in respect of wages of servants under Articles 2101, 2104 and 2105 of the Civil Code extend to –

(a) the wages of all workers;

(b) their holiday pay;

(c) payment in lieu of notice due to them upon termination of employment; and

(d) compensation due upon termination, up to an amount of R30,000, or any larger amount prescribed, in respect of any one claimant.

38. (1) Where an employer or former employer of any worker is about to leave Seychelles or to alienate his property or to do any other act –

(a) without having paid or made satisfactory arrangements to pay –

- (i) any wages due to the worker; or
- (ii) any other moneys owed by the employer or former employer to the worker; or.

(b) with the intention, as may be presumed from the circumstances surrounding the business or finances of the employer or former employer, of foregoing the obligations, past or future, to the worker under this act, then, unless the employer or former employer furnishes sufficient and good security for the full amount of the wages and moneys due under paragraph (a) and of the obligations under paragraph (b), the competent officer may apply to the Supreme Court for an order preventing the employer or former employer from leaving Seychelles or alienate his property, or doing such act.

(2) An order of the Supreme Court under subsection (2) preventing the employer or former employer from leaving Seychelles or alienate his property, or doing such act shall be sufficient authority for the Director of Immigration from preventing the employer or former employer from leaving Seychelles or alienate his property, or doing such act.

(3) Where the Supreme Court is satisfied that an employer or former employer in respect of whom an order has been made under subsection (2) has paid the amount of wages and moneys and discharged the obligations or furnished sufficient and good security for the payment of the amount of wages and moneys or for discharge of the obligations, the Supreme Court may vacate the order.

(4) The Chief Justice may make rules of the Supreme Court for the purposes of an application under subsection (1).

When wages not due 39. Where a worker –

- (a) is absent from work without leave and without good cause;
- (b) is in prison or otherwise detained in lawful custody, no wages are due to the worker, and the employer may, at the discretion of the employer, withhold payment for the period of absence, imprisonment or detention.

- (g) facilities to be granted to the worker for training or for social, sport and cultural activities;

(h) generally improved living and working conditions.

Calculation of wages 41. (1) Subject to subsection (2) and unless regulations made under subsection (3) otherwise provide, wages are calculated on an hourly basis.

(2) Wages may be calculated on a task or a piece work basis wherever the Minister is satisfied that such calculation will encourage productivity, but where wages are so calculated, the worker shall not receive less than the national minimum wage.

(3) The Minister may, by regulations, prescribe the manner of computing wages either generally or in respect of any class or category of workers.

Deduction For food or housing 42. (1) Where a maximum sum to represent food or housing or both food and housing has been prescribed, the employer may deduct from the worker's wages, if in excess of the national minimum wage, in payment thereof –

(a) the maximum sum prescribed;

(b) the actual cost of the food or housing or of both food and housing; or

(c) the difference between the worker's wages and the national minimum wage, whichever is the less.

(2) Where no sum has been prescribed under subsection (1), no deduction from the worker's wages is allowed in respect of food and housing or both food and housing except with the written approval of the competent officer.

Effect and enforcement of regulations 43. The statutory wages prescribed under section 40 (1) (a) and the conditions of employment prescribed under section 40 (1) (b) are deemed to be part of every contract of employment to which they relate, whether the contract was entered into before or after the commencement of this Act save that –

(a) where the contract provides for a wage higher than the national minimum wage, that higher wage, if not itself in excess of any mandatory wage applicable, or, if that higher wage exceeds the mandatory wages, the mandatory wage, shall apply;

(b) where the contract provides for conditions of employment more favorable than those prescribed, those conditions more favorable shall apply unless otherwise prohibited under this act.

44. Where the competent officer is satisfied that a worker or person

Exemption

Seeking employment is suffering from some disability, which makes it difficult for the worker or person seeking employment to compete on the labour market, the Competent Officer may issue to the worker or person seeking employment, a permit exempting the person who employs the worker or person seeking employment from any regulation made under section 40 (1) (a) subject to such conditions as the competent officer deems fit to include in the permit.

in case of disabled persons

45. The competent officer may, where the officer deems it necessary, require an employer to give security for the payment of the wages of, and for the discharge of any other obligations which the employer may have or incur towards the workers engaged or to be engaged by the employer, the security to be in such form as the competent officer may demand or as may be prescribed.

Security for wages

46. (1) Workers under contracts of continuous employment are entitled to all employment benefits under this Act from the date of employment until lawful termination of the contracts.

Employment benefits

(2) Workers under contract of employment for a fixed term are entitled to all employment benefits up to the day the fixed-term contract expires or the earlier lawful termination of the contracts, as the case may be.

(3) Where the lawful termination of the contract as referred to subsection (1) or (2) is immediately preceded by a period of suspension without pay, the termination is deemed to take effect as from the date the period of suspension began.

PART VI – PROTECTION OF EMPLOYMENT

Restriction on termination of contract 47. (1) Subject to Part VIII, an employer shall not terminate, or give notice of termination of, a worker's contract of employment except under section 49 or 50 unless the employer first initiates and complies with the negotiation procedure.

(2) Where, consequent upon the negotiation procedure initiated under subsection (1), the competent officer determines that –

(a) a contract of employment should not be terminated, the contract shall continue to have effect;

(b) a contract of employment may be terminated and the cause of the termination is no way attributable to the worker, the employer shall pay to the worker compensation calculated at -

(i) the rate of one day's wage for every month of service in the case of contracts of continuous employment;

(ii) double the rate in sub-paragraph (1) in the case of fixed term contracts; or

(iii) such higher rate as may be prescribed;

(c) a contract of employment may be terminated and the cause of the termination is partly or wholly attributed to the worker, the employer shall pay to the worker a lesser rate of compensation than at paragraph (b) or none, as the competent officer may assess.

(3) The reference to every month of service in subsection (2) (b) (i) includes service with a previous employer where the service is continued by the new employer without termination by the previous employer.

(4) For the purpose of computing compensation under subsection (2) (b) or (c) –

(a) no account is taken of any period of service in respect of which a pension or a gratuity was earned and is payable under the Pensions Act or the Seychelles Security Guards Service pensions Act; cap 159 cap 222

(b) the wage shall be the wage payable to the worker at the time the contract of employment was terminated.

(5) For the purpose of this section, "wage" includes any responsibility allowances or duty allowance

48. (1) Where, due to circumstances beyond an employer's control such as a shortage of raw materials, a natural catastrophe or any disruption of work which could not have been foreseen, work has to be temporarily suspended and workers temporarily laid off, the employer shall initiate and comply with the negotiation procedure. Restrictions on on lay-offs of workers

(2) Where, consequent upon the negotiation procedure initiated under subsection (1), the competent officer approves the lay-offs, the officer shall notify the employer, the Union and where the worker is not a member of the Union, the worker of the conditions under which they are approved, the authorised period of the lay-offs and the percentage of wages to be paid to the workers during that period.

(3) An employer shall not lay off workers –

- (a) without the approval of the competent officer;
- (b) on conditions other than those notified by the competent officer;
- (c) for a period longer than authorised.

Variation of 49. (1) An employer shall not vary the terms and conditions of employment

Terms of employment

of a worker in any way less favorable to the worker without the worker's written consent and that of the Union.

- (2) Where the written consent required under subsection (1) to a variation of the terms and conditions of employment of the worker cannot be obtained, the employer may subject to subsection (3) and section 57 (2) terminate the contract of employment of the worker.
- (3) The termination of employment of a worker under subsection (2) shall be deemed to be for a cause in no way attributable to the worker and the worker is entitled to compensation calculated in accordance with section 47 (2) (b).

Change of ownership and termination of contract

50(1) Where a change of ownership of a business for the purpose of which a worker is employed occurs, the employer shall be deemed to have terminated the contract of employment of the worker, subject to subsection (2)

- (2) The termination of employment of such worker under subsection (1) shall be deemed to be for a cause in no way attributable to the worker and the worker shall be paid compensation calculated in accordance with section 47 (2) (b), irrespective of whether the worker is employed by the new owner or not.
- (3) For the purpose of this section, a change in the ownership of a business is deemed to occur whenever by sale, lease or other disposition or by operation of law an owner transfers to another person –
  - (a) the business;
  - (b) the equipment, fittings or furnishings of the business;
  - (c) the goodwill of the business; or
  - (d) the business name.
- (4) When an employer knows, or may reasonably be deemed to know, that a change of ownership of the business is due to occur, he shall within one month notify the Chief Executive in writing, of that fact and take steps to comply with the provisions of subsection (2).”;

51. (1) Subject to this section, where as a result of an employer -

worker

- (a) ceasing to operate, in whole or part, a business, otherwise than as provided under section 50;
- (b) temporarily suspending, in whole or part, the operation of a business for any reason specified in section 48 (1);

the offence is self-evident, unless the worker is given the opportunity of explaining the act or omission.

- (2) Where the disciplinary offence relates to a serious disciplinary offence, the worker shall be informed in writing with copy to the Union, if any, of the nature of the offence as soon as possible after it is alleged to have been committed and of the suspension of the worker, where the employer deems suspension to be necessary as a precautionary measure or for investigative purposes.
- (3) The employer shall ensure that the investigation pursuant to subsection (1), even where it consists in no more than requiring an explanation for a self-evident act or omission, is conducted fairly and that the worker has, if so the worker wishes, the assistance of a colleague or a representative of the Union, if any, and such witnesses as the worker may wish to call.
- (4) Where a disciplinary offence is established, the employer shall decide on the disciplinary measure to be taken and, where such measure is termination without notice, shall inform the worker of the same in writing with copy to the Union, if any.
- (5) A worker aggrieved by a disciplinary measure taken against the worker may initiate the grievance procedure and under that procedure the burden of proving the disciplinary offence lies on the employer.
- (6) In subsection (3) "representative of the Union" means a person nominated by the Union.

Drunkenness
At work

53A. Where an employer has reasonable grounds to believe that a worker is under the influence of alcohol or a controlled drug, during working hours and is unfit to work, the employer may require the worker to take a breath test or to give a specimen of urine or blood for analysis in accordance with regulations made in that behalf. For the purpose of this section, " controlled drug" has the meaning assigned to it by section 2 of the Misuse of Drugs Act (Cap 133).

54. (1) If, while a disciplinary offence is being investigated under section 53, a criminal proceeding is instituted against the worker in respect of the same offence, the investigation shall be suspended pending the outcome of the criminal proceeding.

Disciplinary proceedings relating to criminal matters

- (2) Where the criminal proceeding results in a conviction, the disciplinary offence is deemed to have been proved and disciplinary measures may be taken accordingly.

- (3) Where the criminal proceeding results in an acquittal, disciplinary proceedings may nevertheless be instituted or continued against the worker provided they relate to some charge other than that on which the worker was acquitted.
- (4) Nothing in this section is to be read as preventing a disciplinary measure from having effect subject to section 53 (5), whatever the outcome of the criminal proceeding, where the disciplinary measure is taken before the institution of the criminal proceeding.

Disciplinary measure 55. Upon proof of a disciplinary offence, the employer may take any one or more of the disciplinary measures listed in Part III of the Schedule 2, but, upon the grievance procedure being initiated under section 53 (5), the competent officer may review such disciplinary measure and substitute another or none as the officer deems fit.

56. (1) When investigating a serious disciplinary offence, the employer may suspend a worker without pay – suspension

- (a) pending the investigation but for no longer than one month
- (b) where the investigation is discontinued under section 54 (1), pending the outcome of the trial and shall inform the worker in writing of the outcome of the investigation,;

(2) Where a worker who has been suspended under subsection (1) is reinstated, the worker is entitled to payment for the period of suspension.

- (3) A worker who is suspended under subsection (1) may terminate a contract of employment with notice.
- (4) An employer shall before the expiry of 40 days after the date of suspension of a worker under subsection (1) (a), or immediately after the completion of an investigation referred to in subsection(1)(b) inform the worker of the outcome of the investigation.
- (5) A worker who is aggrieved by the failure of an employer to comply with the provisions of subsection( 4) or by the result of the investigation may initiate the grievance procedure under Part II of Schedule 1.

PART VIII – TERMINATION OF CONTRACTS

Termination By employer 57. (1) An employer may terminate a contract of employment with notice upon a determination by the competent officer following the negotiation procedure initiated under Part VI that the contract may be terminated.

(2) Notwithstanding section 47, an employer may terminate a contract of employment with notice in the following cases –

(a) where the worker is on probation, during probationary period if he does not satisfactorily complete the period;

(b) where the worker is a trainee under section 27 (a) at the end of the training period if he fails to satisfactorily complete his training;

(c) where the termination is under section 49 or 50 the occurrence of the event specified therein;

(d) where the worker is a casual, part-time or domestic worker, at any time.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2), notice of termination shall not be given to a worker while that worker is on sick leave or pregnant or on maternity leave unless the competent officer so authorises.

(4) Notwithstanding section 47, an employer may terminate a contract of employment without notice where the worker has committed a serious disciplinary offence within the meaning of that expression in section 52 (2).

(5) An employer shall not, otherwise than under this section, terminate the contract of employment of a worker.

(6) An employer shall notify a worker,

(a) in the case of a worker who is employed under a fixed-term contract, at least 1 month before the expiry of the contract; or

(b) in the case of a worker who is about to reach retirement age, at least 3 months before the worker reaches retirement age, of the impending expiration of the contract failing which the employer shall pay to the worker in lieu of notice, in the case of a worker referred to in paragraph (a), 1 month's salary or, in the case of a worker referred to in paragraph (b), three month's salary.

58. (1) A contract is frustrated when it becomes impossible of performance as when, Frustration of contracts among other things or reasons-

(a) the business of the employer ceases through its becoming prohibited or illegal under any written law.

(b) a worker is disqualified through the suspension or cancellation of any license, permit, registration or authority required under the written law for the purpose of exercising the occupation or profession of the worker, and, except in the case of paragraph (b), the worker, other than a casual worker, is entitled upon frustration of the contract to one month's notice or to payment in lieu and to any additional compensation payable under section 62.

- (2) Where a contract is frustrated through a business ceasing as a result of an acquisition by Government under the Lands Acquisition Act ; any liability under subsection (1) for payment in lieu of notice and payment of compensation lies primarily upon the Government subject to reimbursement by the employer.
- (3) For the avoidance of doubt it is declared that where a contract is frustrated, the negotiation procedure under Part VI and the grievance procedure under section 61 do not apply.
- (4) An employer whose business ceases under subsection (1) (a) shall forthwith notify the competent officer of the same.

Period of 59. Termination under section 57 (1) and (2) requires-

- Notice by employer
- (a) in the case of any casual worker, one day's notice;
  - (b) in the case of a worker on probation seven day's notice;
  - (c) in the case of any other worker, other than a non-Seychellois worker, one month's notice;
  - (d) in the case of a non Seychellois worker not being a casual worker or a worker on probation, the period of notice specified in the contract of employment of the worker or, where a period of notice is not specified, one month's notice.

Termination by worker 60. (1) A worker may terminate the contract of employment of the worker –

- (a) in the case of any casual worker, with one day's notice;
  - (b) in the case of a worker on probation, with seven day's notice;
  - (c) in the case of any other worker, other than a non-Seychellois worker, with one month's notice;
  - (d) in the case of a non-Seychellois worker, not being a casual worker or a worker on probation, with the period of notice specified in the contract, or where a period of notice is not specified, with one month's notice.
- (2) A worker, other than a casual worker, may terminate the contract of employment of the worker, without giving prior notice –
- (a) where the worker suffers ill-treatment at the hands of his employer;
  - (b) where the employer is, in respect of the worker, in breach of this Act; or
  - (c) where the worker is under suspension for investigative purposes or has been laid off, but the worker shall inform the employer in writing of the termination and of the reason therefore and shall obtain from the employer the certificate of employment referred to in section 69.

61. (1) A worker –

procedure

(a) whose contract of employment is terminated –

(i) pursuant to section 57 (2) (a) or (b);

(ii) for a serious disciplinary offence pursuant to section 57 (4);

(b) who terminates his contract under section 60 (2) (a) or (b), may initiate the grievance procedure.

(1A) Where a worker or employer has registered a grievance, the competent officer shall first endeavor to bring about a settlement of grievance by mediation or thereafter –

(a) if the employer and the worker agree to a settlement shall be reduced to writing and the parties shall sign the document in the presence of the competent officer and the settlement shall have effect as if it were a determination made by the competent officer ;

(b) if a settlement is not effected after a lapse of fourteen days the competent officer shall proceed to make the determination”:

(2) Upon conclusion of the grievance procedure initiated under subsection (1), the competent officer may determine as follows –

(a) in the case of subsection (1) (a) –

(i) that termination is justified;

(ii) that termination is not justified and that the worker is reinstated in the post or offered other suitable employment and that, where applicable, some disciplinary measure or none be taken in lieu of termination;

(iii) that termination is not justified but, as it would be impractical or inconvenient to reinstate the worker in the post or offer the worker other suitable employment, allow the termination subject, in the case of subsection (1) (a) (ii), to the payment in lieu of notice of one month's wages or, where an amount is specified in his contract of employment in the case of a non-Seychellois worker referred to in section 59 (c), that amount;

(b) in the case of subsection (10) (b) –

(i) that termination is justified, in which case the worker is entitled to the payment of one month's salary in addition to any benefits or compensation the worker

63 Wherever notice is required to be given under this Part, Payment Payment corresponding to the period of notice in lieu required or to such part of it as is not worked may be of notice made in lieu.

Interest Payable

63A Where compensation is payable to a worker in respect of termination of employment under the provisions of this Part, interest on the amount of such compensation shall be payable at such rate as may be prescribed by the Minister, for the period between the date on which such compensation becomes payable and the date of actual payment. For the purpose of this section compensation becomes payable upon the determination of the competent officer, or the ruling of the Minister as the case may be;

PART IX – MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

64. Wherever a dispute, other than one for which the grievance procedure is expressly provided under other provisions of this Act, arises between employer and worker and internal dispute procedures, if any have been exhausted without agreement, either party to the dispute may initiate the grievance procedure. Dispute
65. (1) Subject to subsection (2), wherever an employer or worker is aggrieved by an authority, approval, decision or determination of a competent officer, the employer or the employers' organisation on behalf of the employer, the worker or the Union on behalf of the worker, may appeal against it to the Minister. Appeal and review
- (2) An appeal under subsection (1), other than appeal against a determination of the competent officer consequent upon initiation of the negotiation or grievance procedure, shall be lodged with the Chief Executive within 14 days or such other period as may be prescribed after the date on which the authority, approval, decision or determination was given.
- (3) Where the competent officer who gave the original authority, approval, decision or determination is the Minister, the right of an appeal under subsection (1) gives place to a right of review by the Minister.
- (4) Upon an appeal or review under this section, the Minister may consult with the Employment Advisory Board before giving the ruling on such appeal or review.
- (5) A reference in this Act to the authority, approval, decision or determination of a competent officer is to be construed, where the context so admits, as reference to that authority, approval, decision or determination as confirmed, reversed or amended by a ruling of the Minister upon an appeal or review.

- (6) Subject to subsection (8), a ruling of the Minister under this section shall be given within 42 days or such longer period as may be prescribed after the date of lodgment of the appeal or of the application for review, as the case may be.
- (7) A ruling of the Minister made under this section shall not be vitiated solely on the ground that it was not given within the period specified in subsection (6)
- (8) The Minister may revoke a ruling referred to in subsection (6) within a period of 14 days after the date of the ruling and give a new ruling if he is satisfied that relevant facts in existence at the time when the original authority, approval, decision or determination was given, were not made known to the competent officer or the Minister and that it is just and equitable that a new ruling be given. The Minister shall hear the parties concerned before giving the new ruling.
- (9) In any proceedings for an offence under section 76(1) for failing to comply with a decision of the Minister made under this section, a certificate purporting to be issued by the Minister shall be evidence of the facts stated therein.”;

Retirement age 66. (1) A person who has attained retirement age shall not, without the written approval of the competent officer or after such approval had been withdrawn, remain in the employment of, or take up employment with, another person.

- (2) An employer shall not employ a person who has reached retirement age unless that person has the written approval of the competent officer and such approval has not been withdrawn.
- (3) Approval shall not be given under this section wherever there is a younger person suitably qualified to replace a person who has reached retirement age.
- (4) A younger person aggrieved by an approval given under this section may appeal to the Minister under section 65.

Non-Seychellois workers (67) Non-Seychellois workers, not exempt from the provisions of this Act, shall enjoy the same terms and conditions of employment as are applicable to Seychellois workers but may be given such additional benefits and privileges as the competent officer may authorise.

68. Every employer shall keep either a record-card on each of the workers, or a register of the workers, being workers other than casual, part-time or domestic workers, which shall contain in respect of each worker the following information -

Employer to keep register of workers

- (a) the name, date of birth, national identity number and address;

- (b) the occupation or previous occupation, if any;
- (c) the date of engagement;
- (d) the wages payable and any additional benefits or advantages;
- (e) any disciplinary offences committed, the date thereof and the disciplinary measure taken, if any;
- (f) any qualification attained by the worker during the employment of the worker under that employer;
- (g) such other particulars as may be prescribed.

69. An employer shall, not more than 21 days after the date of the termination of a worker's contract of employment, give to the worker a certificate of employment, which shall contain such particulars as may be prescribed.

70. An employer shall not employ a worker on probation - probation

- (a) except under a contract of continuous employment when the worker is first employed by the employer; and
- (b) for longer than 6 months unless authorised by the competent officer.

71. The Minister may make regulations - Regulation

SCHEDULE 1

PART 1

NEGOTIATION PROCEDURE (SS 47,48,51)

I A. RESTRICTIONS ON TERMINATION OF CONTRACT (S 47)

1. (1) Where an employer wishes to terminate a contract of employment otherwise than under section 57, the employer shall not less than 42 days before the employer intends to give notice of termination to any worker notify the worker, the union if any, and the Chief Executive. Notification of proposed termination
- (2) The period of 42 days referred to the sub-paragraph (1) may, in exceptional circumstances and at the discretion of the Chief Executive, be reduced.
- (3) The notification under sub-paragraph (1) shall specify-
- (a) the reason for the proposed termination;
  - (b) the number of workers concerned;
  - (c) the names, ages, occupation, date of engagement and wages of the workers concerned;
  - (d) whether the proposed termination relates to an activity in a particular sector of the business as a whole;
  - (e) the criteria used for selecting the workers whose contracts are to be terminated.

(4) The employer shall also finish any further information which the competent officer may request.

Registration of notification 2. Upon receipt of the notification and of any additional information requested under paragraph 1(4), the competent officer registers the notification and issues to the employer a certificate of registration.

Consultations 3.(1) As soon as possible after the date of registration of the notification and in any case not later than 7 days therefrom, the competent officer shall invite the Union, the worker if he is not a member of a Union, the employer or the, employer's organisation to which the employer may belong, for consultations with a view to exploring and agreeing on how the proposed termination may be avoided or their effects minimised.

(2) Notwithstanding sub-paragraph (1), where the reason for the proposed termination of a contract is a personal one in the sense that it relates to the character, competence, loyalty or other attribute of the worker, the competent officer shall invite the worker's participation to consultations in pursuance of subparagraph (1).

4. (1) The competent officer shall keep a record of the statements made during the consultations held pursuant to paragraph 3, and shall file all documents and evidence produced by the parties and any written submission they may make. Record of consultation and determination

(2) Following the conclusion of consultations the competent officer considers the case and makes the determination of the officer.

(3) A determination by the competent officer under sub-paragraph (2) shall be made within 14 days after the date of registration of the notification.

5. The worker, the Union or, the employer may, not later than 14 days after service of a determination made under paragraph 4(3), appeal to the Minister against that determination. Appeal

6. No action shall be taken by the employer in connection with the proposed termination (including giving notice to a worker of termination) until 21 days has elapsed following a determination under paragraph 4(2) or until the result of an appeal or review, as the case may be, or unless' the competent officer fails to make a determination within the time allotted under paragraph 4(3). Employer not to act until final determination

7. This procedure is also subject to Part III of this Schedule. Part III

B. LAY-OFFS UNDER SECTION 48

The procedure laid out in paragraphs 1 to 7 Part IA of this Schedule applies, mutatis mutandis, to the cease of lay-offs subject to the following modifications

- (a) the period referred to in paragraph 1(1) of Part IA does not apply and notification may be given at any time before the proposed lay-offs;
- (b) consultations as under paragraph 3 of Part IA shall take place within 3 working days after the date of registration of the proposed lay-offs;
- (c) a determination by the competent officer as under paragraph 4(3) of Part IA shall be made within 14 days after the date of registration,

C. REDUNDANCY OF WORKER UNDER SECTION 51

The procedure laid out in paragraphs 1 to 7 of Part IA of this Schedule applies mutatis mutandis, to cases of termination on ground of redundancy under section 51.

PART II

GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE (SS. 53(5), 61, 64)

Definition 1. In this Part "worker" includes an unemployed person.

Registration of grievance 2. (1) Wherever an employer or worker is empowered by or under this Act to initiate the grievance procedure, the employer or worker may, within 14 days of becoming aware of the event, act or matter giving rise to the grievance, register a grievance with the competent officer furnishing the officer with all the information the officer may require.

- (2) Where there exist internal procedures for resolving disputes between employer and worker or where the information required under subparagraph (1) is not furnished to the competent officer, the officer may suspend registration of, the grievance until satisfied that internal procedures have been exhausted or have proven inconclusive or until the officer has at hand the information required.
- (3) An employer or worker who fails to register a grievance within the time specified under sub-paragraph (1) loses the right to do so, but the competent officer, if satisfied that registration within the time was impracticable or if the officer has himself suspended registration under sub-paragraph (2), shall allow registration out of time.

3. (1) where the grievance relates to any matter, other than the termination of a worker's contract of employment, the competent officer shall immediately upon the grievance being registered refer the matter to the Union, if any, and the Union shall consult with the employer and worker concerned with the object of resolving the matter by agreement. Grievance other than relating to determination etc

(2) where, within 14 days after a referral to the Union under subparagraph (1), no agreement has been reached or the Union has failed to enter into consultation as required under subparagraph (1), or where the worker is not a member of a Union the competent officer shall, upon inquiry into the grievance, determine the matter.

4. A competent officer seized of a grievance relating to the termination of worker's contract of employment or to refusal of access to employment shall, within 7 days after registration of the grievance, invite the worker, the Union, if any, the employer and employers' organisation, if any, for consultation. Grievance relating to termination etc

5. (1) The competent officer shall keep a record of the consultations held pursuant to paragraph 4 and shall file any evidence or documents produced and any written submission made. Record of consultations and determination

(2) Following the conclusion of consultations the competent officer considers the case and makes the determination.

(3) A determination by the competent officer under this paragraph shall be made within 42 days after the date of registration of the grievance.

Appeal 6. The employer or worker may, not later than 7 days after being notified of a determination by the competent officer under paragraph 3(2) or paragraph 5(3) register an appeal to the Minister against that determination.

Joint procedure 7. Where the same grievance is registered by a number of workers against the same employer a joint procedure may be followed.

Part III 8. This procedure is also subject to Part III of this Schedule.

PART III
GENERAL PROVISIONS APPLICABLE TO PARTS I AND II

- Absence or delay not a defect 1. The absence of any person invited to consultation under Part I or Part II of this Schedule from those consultations does not vitiate the proceedings nor shall a determination made under Part I or Part II be vitiated solely on the ground that it has not been made within the period specified in those Parts.
- Consultations may be separate 2. Wherever possible the consultations should be joint but the competent officer may hold separate consultations.
- Representation 3. (1) A party to any consultation under Part I or Part II of this Schedule may attend in person and be accompanied by a representative.
- (2). Notwithstanding sub- paragraph (1) where the number of workers concerned by either procedure exceeds 3, there may not be more than 3 representatives on their behalf.
- Exercise of Right 4. Any right of an employer or worker under Part I or Part II of this schedule may, at the request of the employer or worker, be exercised on behalf of the employer or worker by the employer's organisation or the Union respectively..
- Employers organisation 5. An employer's organisation shall only be invited to consultations under Part I or Part II of this Schedule where -
- (a) the employer concerned so requests; or
- (b) the competent officer considers its presence necessary.
