Article 41-2 (Verification of Eligibility for Medical Care Benefits)
(1) A person who receives medical care benefits under Article 40 (1) may request the Service to verify whether the expenses he or she has borne are excluded from the scope of medical care benefits pursuant to paragraph (5) of the same Article.

(2) The Service in receipt of a request for verification under paragraph (1) shall notify the person who requested verification of the result. In such cases, if the expenses for which verification is requested are found to be within the scope of medical care benefits, the Service shall notify an industrial accident insurance-related medical institution under Article 43 (1) of such facts.

(3) An industrial accident insurance-related medical institution in receipt of notification under the latter part of paragraph (2) shall, without delay, refund the amount it has collected in excess of the amount it should have collected to the person who requests verification (hereinafter referred to as "overpaid amount"): Provided, That where the relevant industrial accident insurance-related medical institution fails to refund the overpaid amount, the Service may refund the person who requests verification the amount obtained by deducting such overpaid amount from the medical expenses referred to in Article 45 it is liable to pay to such health care institution.

Article 42 (Preferential Application of Health Insurance)
(1) Any person who applies for medical care benefits pursuant to Article 41 (1) may be entitled to medical care benefits under Article 41 of the National Health Insurance Act or medical benefits under Article 7 of the Medical Care Assistance Act (hereinafter referred to as "medical care benefits under health insurance, etc.") before the Service makes a decision on the medical care benefits under this Act. <Amended on Dec. 31, 2011; May 26, 2020>

(2) Where a person who has received medical care benefits under health insurance, etc. pursuant to paragraph (1) is determined as a beneficiary of medical care benefits under this Act after paying his or her co-payment amount under Article 44 of the National Health Insurance Act or Article 10 of the Medical Care Assistance Act to an industrial accident insurance-related medical institution, he or she may file a claim with the Service for an amount equivalent to the medical care benefits referred to in Article 40 (5) out of his or her co-payment amount already paid. <Amended on Dec. 31, 2011; May 26, 2020>

Article 43 (Designation of Industrial Accident Insurance-Related Medical Institutions, Revocation of Designation Thereof)

(1) Medical institutions which shall provide medical care for employees suffering from occupational accidents (hereinafter referred to as "industrial accident insurance-related medical institutions") are as follows: <Amended on Jan. 27, 2010; May 20, 2010; Jun. 4, 2010; May 18, 2015>

1. Medical institutions established in the Service under Article 11 (2);
2. Tertiary care hospitals referred to in Article 3-4 of the Medical Service Act;
3. Medical institutions or public health clinics designated by the Service, from among medical institutions referred to in Article 3 of the Medical Service Act and public health clinics referred to in Article 10 of the Regional Public Health Act (including public health clinics referred to in Article 12 of the Regional Public Health Act; hereinafter the same shall apply) which satisfy the standards set by Ordinance of the Ministry of Employment and Labor in terms of manpower, facilities, etc.

(2) When designating a medical institution or public health clinic as an industrial accident insurance-related medical institution pursuant to paragraph (1) 3, the Service shall take into account each of the following factors:

1. Manpower, facilities, equipment, and areas of practice of the medical institution or public health clinic;
2. Regional distribution of industrial accident insurance-related medical institutions.

(3) If an industrial accident insurance-related medical institution referred to in paragraph (1) 2 and 3 falls under any of the following subparagraphs, the Service may revoke its designation (applied only to the case of paragraph (1) 3), restrict its medical treatment for employees suffering from occupational accidents for not more than 12 months, or order necessary improvements (hereinafter referred to as "restriction on medical treatment, etc."):

1. Where the medical institution diagnoses or certifies matters concerning an occupational accident by fraud or other improper means;
2. Where the medical institution claims medical expenses referred to in Article 45 by fraud or other improper means;
3. Where revocation of the designation or restriction on medical treatment, etc. is found necessary as a result of an evaluation referred to in Article 50;

4. Where the medical institution or a doctor thereof is not able to engage in medical service temporarily or permanently due to a violation of the Medical Service Act or any other reason;

5. Where the medical institution fails to meet the standards of manpower, facilities, etc. referred to in paragraph (1) 3;

6. Where the medical institution violates a restriction on medical treatment, etc.

(4) No industrial accident insurance-related medical institution whose designation is revoked pursuant to paragraph (3) may be re-designated as such for the period set by Ordinance of the Ministry of Employment and Labor within the limit of one year from the date of such revocation. <Newly Inserted on Jan. 27, 2010; Jun. 4, 2010>

(5) If an industrial accident insurance-related medical institution under paragraph (1) 2 and 3 falls under any of the following subparagraphs, the Service may impose a restriction on medical treatment, etc. for not more than 12 months: <Amended on Jan. 27, 2010; May 20, 2010; May 26, 2020>

1. Where the medical institution unduly claims medical expenses referred to in Article 45, in violation of the criteria for the calculation of medical care benefits referred to in Article 40 (5) and 91-9 (3);

2. Where the medical institution claims medical expenses from a person other than the Service, in violation of Article 45 (1);

3. Where the medical institution fails to submit a medical treatment plan referred to in Article 47 (1);

4. Where the medical institution fails to make a report or to respond to a request for submission of materials or investigation referred to in Article 118;

5. Where the medical institution violates the conditions of designation as an industrial accident insurance-related medication institution.

(6) Where the Service seeks to revoke designation or restrict medical treatment pursuant to paragraph (3) or (5), it shall hold a hearing. <Amended on Jan. 27, 2010>

(7) The procedures for designation referred to in paragraph (1) 3 and the criteria and procedures for revocation of designation and restrictions on medical treatment, etc. referred to in paragraphs (3) and (5) shall be prescribed by Ordinance of the Ministry of Employment and Labor. <Amended on Jan. 27, 2010; Jun. 4, 2010>

Article 44 (Penalty Surcharges for Industrial Accident Insurance-Related Medical Institutions)

(1) If the Service has to restrict medical treatment for any of the reasons described in Article 43 (3) 1 and 2 and 43 (5) 1, but considers that the restriction on medical treatment may cause serious inconvenience to the employees who use the industrial accident insurance-related medical institution or that there are other special reasons to the contrary, it may impose a penalty surcharge not exceeding five times the amount of insurance benefits received by fraud or improper means or the amount of medical expenses received by fraud, improper, or illegitimate means, in lieu of restricting medical treatment. <Amended on Jan. 27, 2010>
(2) Matters regarding the amount, etc. of a penalty surcharge imposed pursuant to paragraph (1) according to the type, gravity, etc. of an offense shall be prescribed by Presidential Decree.

(3) If a person subject to the imposition of a penalty surcharge pursuant to paragraph (1) fails to pay such penalty surcharge by the deadline, it shall be collected in the same manner as delinquent national taxes are collected with the approval of the Minister of Employment and Labor. <Amended on Jan. 27, 2010; Jun. 4, 2010>

Article 45 (Claim for Medical Expenses)

(1) If an industrial accident insurance-related medical institution which has provided medical care pursuant to Article 40 (2) or 91-9 (1) intends to charge the relevant expenses (hereinafter referred to as "medical expenses"), it shall file a claim for the reimbursement thereof with the Service. <Amended on May 20, 2010>

(2) Examinations and decisions concerning medical expenses claimed pursuant to paragraph (1), and methods and procedures for the payment of such expenses shall be prescribed by Ordinance of the Ministry of Employment and Labor. <Amended on Jun. 4, 2010>

Article 46 (Claim for Medicine Expenses)

(1) The Service may provide medicines under Article 40 (4) 2 through pharmacies registered pursuant to Article 20 of the Pharmaceutical Affairs Act.

(2) If a pharmacy referred to in paragraph (1) intends to charge medicine expenses, it shall file a claim for the reimbursement thereof with the Service.

(3) Examinations and decisions concerning medicine expenses claimed pursuant to paragraph (2) and methods and procedures for the payment thereof shall be prescribed by Ordinance of the Ministry of Employment and Labor. <Amended on Jun. 4, 2010>

Article 47 (Submission of Medical Treatment Plans)

(1) When it is necessary to extend the period of medical care for an employee receiving medical care benefits pursuant to Article 41 or 91-5, the relevant industrial accident insurance-related medical institution shall submit to the Service a medical treatment plan containing the progress relating to the disease or injury of the employee, expected treatment period, treatment methods, etc., as prescribed by Presidential Decree. <Amended on May 20, 2010; May 26, 2020>

(2) The Service may examine the adequacy of a medical treatment plan submitted pursuant to paragraph (1), and take necessary measures prescribed by Presidential Decree (hereinafter referred to as "measures, etc. to change a medical treatment plan"), such as ordering the industrial accident insurance-related medical institution to change the treatment period.
Article 48 (Change of Medical Institution Providing Medical Care)
(1) If any of the following events occurs to an employee in the course of medical care, the Service may transfer such employee to another industrial accident insurance-related medical institution to provide medical care: <Amended on May 20, 2010>
1. Where the employee needs to be transferred to another industrial accident insurance-related medical institution because the manpower, facilities, etc. of the industrial accident insurance-related medical institution currently providing medical care are unfit for the specialized treatment or rehabilitative treatment of the employee;
2. Where the employee needs to be transferred to another industrial accident insurance-related medical institution to receive medical care near where he or she lives;
3. Where the employee needs to be transferred to another industrial accident insurance-related medical institution after receiving specialized treatment at a tertiary care hospital under Article 43 (1) 2;
4. Where it is deemed that any unavoidable ground exists through a procedure prescribed by Presidential Decree.
(2) If any of the events under paragraph (1) 1 through 3 occurs to an employee in the course of medical care, he or she may file an application with the Service for his or her transfer to another medical institution providing medical care. <Amended on Jan. 26, 2021>

Article 49 (Application for Medical Care Benefits for Additional Injury or Disease)
Where an employee receiving medical care due to an occupational accident falls under any of the following subparagraphs, he or she may apply for medical care benefits for an additional injury or disease (hereinafter referred to as "additional injury or disease");
1. Where medical care is needed as an injury or a disease which has arisen from the occupational accident has been further diagnosed;
2. Where medical care is needed as a new disease occurs as a result of an injury or a disease which has arisen from the occupational accident.

Article 50 (Evaluation of Industrial Accident Insurance-Related Medical Institutions)
(1) In order to encourage improvement in the quality of medical service with regard to occupational accidents, the Service may evaluate medical institutions prescribed by Presidential Decree among industrial accident insurance-related medical institutions referred to in Article 43 (1) 3 regarding manpower, facilities, medical services, and other matters relating to the quality of medical care. In such cases, the evaluation methods and criteria shall be prescribed by Presidential Decree.
(2) Considering the results of an evaluation referred to in paragraph (1), the Service may preferentially treat such evaluated industrial accident insurance-related medical institutions in administration or finance, revoke their designation, or impose restrictions on medical treatment, etc. pursuant to Article 43 (3) 3.
Article 51 (Additional Medical Care)

(1) If a person who has received medical care benefits under Article 40 suffers a recurrence of an occupational injury or disease that was the object of the medical care after the cure, or if there is a medical opinion that active treatment of his or her occupational injury or disease is needed because his or her injury or disease gets worse, he or she is entitled to medical care benefits under Article 40 again (hereinafter referred to as "additional medical care"). <Amended on May 26, 2020>

(2) Matters necessary for requirements, procedures, etc. for additional medical care shall be prescribed by Presidential Decree.

Article 52 (Temporary Layoff Benefits)

Temporary layoff benefits shall be paid to any employee who suffers an occupational injury or disease for a period during which the employee is unable to work for receiving medical care, and the daily amount of temporary layoff benefits shall be an amount equivalent to 70/100 of his or her average wage: Provided, That where the period of not being able to work is three days or less, such benefits shall not be paid.

Article 53 (Partial Temporary Layoff Benefits)

(1) If an employee who is receiving medical care or additional medical care is employed for a specific period or on a short-term basis during the period of such care, he or she may be paid 90/100 of an amount calculated by subtracting the wages paid for the days or hours employed from his or her average wage corresponding to the number of those days or hours employed: Provided, That when the minimum standard amount of wages serves as the daily amount of temporary layoff benefits pursuant to Articles 54 (2) and 56 (2), an amount equivalent to the minimum standard amount of wages (the amount of reduction where the amount is reduced in accordance with subparagraph 2 of attached Table 1) minus the wages paid for the days or hours employed, may be paid.

(2) If an employee is employed on a short-term basis referred to in paragraph (1), with respect to the number of hours of unemployment (referring to the number of hours remaining after subtracting the number of hours of employment from eight hours), an amount produced by multiplying the daily amount of temporary layoff benefits calculated pursuant to Article 52 or 54 through 56 by the ratio of the number of hours of unemployment to eight hours, shall be paid.

(3) Requirements and procedures for the partial payment of temporary layoff benefits referred to in paragraph (1) shall be prescribed by Presidential Decree.

Article 54 (Temporary Layoff Benefits for Low-Income Employees)

(1) If the daily amount of temporary layoff benefits calculated pursuant to Article 52 is less than or equal to 80/100 of the minimum standard amount of compensation, the daily amount of temporary layoff benefits for the employee shall be an amount equivalent to 90/100 of his or her average wage: Provided,
That when an amount equivalent to 90/100 of the average wage of an employee is more than 80/100 of the minimum standard amount of compensation, an amount equivalent to 80/100 of the minimum standard amount of compensation shall be the daily amount of temporary layoff benefits.

(2) If the daily amount of temporary layoff benefits calculated pursuant to the main clause of paragraph (1) is less than the minimum wage, the minimum wage shall be the daily amount of temporary layoff benefits for the employee. <Amended on Jun. 12, 2018>

Article 55 (Temporary Layoff Benefits for the Aged)
If an employee who receives temporary layoff benefits reaches the age of 61, his or her temporary layoff benefits thereafter shall be an amount calculated in accordance with attached Table 1: Provided, That when a person who remains employed after the age of 61 receives medical care due to an occupational accident or when a person who has received disability benefits before the age of 61 due to an occupational disease pursuant to Article 37 (1) 2 receives medical care for the first time due to the occupational disease after the age of 61, the provisions of attached Table 1 shall not apply during such period prescribed by Presidential Decree. <Amended on May 26, 2020>

Article 56 (Temporary Layoff Benefits during Period of Additional Medical Care)
(1) For a person who receives additional medical care, an amount equivalent to 70/100 of the average wage calculated on the basis of the wage as at the time of receiving such additional medical care shall be the daily amount of temporary layoff benefits. In such cases, the date of the occurrence of a cause for calculating the average wage shall be prescribed by Presidential Decree. <Amended on May 26, 2020>

(2) If the daily amount of temporary layoff benefits calculated pursuant to paragraph (1) is less than the minimum wage, or if there is no wage subject to the calculation of the average wage as at the time of receiving additional medical care, the minimum wage shall be the daily amount of temporary layoff benefits.

(3) Where a person who receives a disability compensation annuity receives additional medical care, if the sum of the daily disability compensation annuity (referring to the amount of disability compensation annuity, calculated pursuant to attached Table 2, divided by 365; hereinafter the same shall apply) and the daily amount of temporary layoff benefits calculated pursuant to paragraph (1) or (2) exceeds 70/100 of the average wage, which is applied in calculating the disability compensation annuity, an amount equivalent to the temporary layoff benefits, out of the excess amount, shall not be paid. <Amended on May 26, 2020>

(4) In calculating temporary layoff benefits during the period of additional medical care, Article 54 shall not apply.

Article 57 (Disability Benefits)
(1) Disability benefits shall be paid to any employee who suffers from a physical disability, etc. after recovering from any injury or disease caused by reason of his or her duties.

(2) Disability benefits shall be paid in the form of a disability compensation annuity or lump-sum disability compensation as set out in attached Table 2 according to disability grades, and the standards for disability grades shall be prescribed by Presidential Decree.

(3) The beneficiary may choose between a disability compensation annuity or lump-sum disability compensation benefit referred to in paragraph (2): Provided, That an employee with such disability grade prescribed by Presidential Decree as a complete loss of work ability shall be paid a disability compensation annuity, and an employee who is not a Korean national and resides in a foreign country when the cause for claiming disability benefits occurs shall be paid a lump-sum disability compensation benefit. <Amended on May 26, 2020>

(4) A disability compensation annuity may be paid in advance upon request of the beneficiary in an amount equivalent to 1/2 of the first year or two-year annuity (the first year to four-year annuity for any such employee as prescribed in the proviso of paragraph (3)). In such cases, interest, within the limit of 5/100, may be deducted from the amount paid in advance at the rate prescribed by Presidential Decree.

(5) Where a beneficiary’s entitlement to a disability compensation annuity is extinguished under Article 58, if the total number of days obtained by dividing the amount of the already paid annuity by each average wage as at the time when the annuity is paid is short of the number of days for lump-sum disability compensation benefits set forth in attached Table 2, the amount calculated by multiplying the insufficient number of days by the average wage as at the time when the entitlement is extinguished shall be paid in a lump sum to the relevant survivors or the relevant employee.

Article 58 (Extinguishment of Entitlement to Disability Compensation Annuities)
If the beneficiary of a disability compensation annuity or pneumoconiosis compensation annuity falls under any of the following subparagraphs, his or her entitlement to such annuity shall be extinguished: <Amended on May 20, 2010>

1. Where the beneficiary dies;
2. Where the beneficiary, once a Korean national, has lost his or her Korean nationality and now lives in a foreign country or leaves Korea to live in a foreign country;
3. Where the beneficiary who is not a Korean national leaves Korea to live in a foreign country;
4. Where the beneficiary is excluded from those eligible to receive disability compensation annuities or pneumoconiosis compensation annuities as a result of a change in his or her disability or pneumoconiosis grade.

Article 59 (Redetermination of Disability Grades)
(1) With regard to any beneficiary of disability compensation annuities or pneumoconiosis compensation annuities whose disability or pneumoconiosis grade already determined (hereafter in this Article referred to as "disability grade, etc." is possible to be changed as the state of his or her disability has improved or worsened, the Service may redetermine his or her disability grade, etc. upon request of the beneficiary or by virtue of its authority. <Amended on May 20, 2010; May 26, 2020>

(2) If a disability grade, etc. is changed as a result of redetermination referred to in paragraph (1), disability benefits or pneumoconiosis compensation annuities shall be paid according to the changed disability grade, etc. <Amended on May 20, 2010>

(3) Redetermination of a disability grade, etc. referred to in paragraphs (1) and (2) shall be made only once, and the eligible persons and period for such redetermination and the methods for paying disability benefits or pneumoconiosis compensation annuities based on the results thereof shall be prescribed by Presidential Decree. <Amended on May 20, 2010>

Article 60 (Additional Medical Care and Disability Benefits)

(1) Even when a beneficiary of a disability compensation annuity receives additional medical care, the payment of the annuity shall not be suspended.

(2) Where the beneficiary of a disability compensation annuity is cured after receiving additional medical care and then his or her state of disability has improved or worsened, disability benefits shall be paid according to a disability grade corresponding to such improved or worsened state of disability. In such cases, the methods for calculation and payment of disability benefits after additional medical care shall be prescribed by Presidential Decree.

Article 61 (Nursing Benefits)

(1) Nursing benefits shall be paid to any beneficiary of medical care benefits under Article 40 who is in need of medically constant or frequent nursing care after his or her cure and is actually receiving nursing care. <Amended on May 26, 2020>

(2) Matters necessary for the standards, methods, etc. for paying nursing benefits under paragraph (1) shall be prescribed by Presidential Decree.

Article 62 (Survivors' Benefits)

(1) Survivors' benefits shall be paid to a survivor of any employee who has died due to a cause related to his or her duties.

(2) Survivors' benefits shall be paid in the form of a survivors' compensation annuity or lump-sum survivors' compensation set out in attached Table 3, and the lump-sum survivors' compensation benefits shall be paid where there is no person eligible for a survivors' compensation annuity pursuant to Article 63 (1) as at the time the employee dies. <Amended on May 26, 2020>

(3) If a person eligible for a survivors' compensation annuity under paragraph (2) chooses, an amount equivalent to 50/100 of the lump-sum survivors' compensation benefits set out in attached Table 3 shall be paid in a lump sum, and the survivors' compensation annuity shall be paid in an amount reduced by
(4) Where a person who has received a survivors' compensation annuity loses eligibility therefor, and if there is no other beneficiary with eligibility and the total number of days calculated by dividing the amount of the annuity already paid by each average wage as at the time of paying the annuity is short of 1,300, the amount calculated by multiplying such insufficient number of days by the average wage as at the time of losing the eligibility shall be paid in a lump sum to the survivors as at the time the eligibility is lost. <Amended on May 26, 2020>

(5) Standards and methods for paying survivors' compensation annuities under paragraph (2) and other necessary matters shall be prescribed by Presidential Decree.

Article 63 (Scope of Persons Entitled to Survivors' Compensation Annuities)

(1) A person entitled to a survivors' compensation annuity (hereinafter referred to as "persons entitled to a survivors' compensation annuity") shall be the spouse of the relevant employee and any of the following survivors whose livelihood had been supported by such employee as at the time of the employee's death (excluding those who were not Korean nationals and were living in foreign countries as at the time of the employee’s death). In such cases, the criteria for determining survivors whose livelihood had been supported by the employee shall be prescribed by Presidential Decree: <Amended on Jun. 4, 2010; Dec. 18, 2012; Dec. 19, 2017; Jun. 12, 2018; May 26, 2020>

1. Parents or grandparents respectively aged at least 60 years;
2. Children aged below 25 years;
2-2. Grandchildren aged below 19 years;
3. Siblings aged below 19 years or at least 60 years;
4. Any person who is a child, parent, grandchild, grandparent, or sibling who does not fall under any of subparagraphs 1 through 3 and who falls under a disability level prescribed by Ordinance of the Ministry of Employment and Labor, among persons with disabilities provided for in Article 2 of the Act on Welfare of Persons with Disabilities.

(2) In applying paragraph (1), if a child who was a fetus as at the time of the employee's death is born, the child shall be deemed, at birth and thereafter, a survivor whose livelihood had been supported by such employee as at the time of his or her death.

(3) The order of priority for entitlement to a survivors' compensation annuity in persons entitled to the survivors' compensation annuity shall be in accordance with the following order: Spouse, children, parents, grandchildren, grandparents, and siblings.

Article 64 (Losing Eligibility of and Suspension of Payment for Persons Entitled to Survivors' Compensation Annuities)

(1) Any survivor entitled to a survivors' compensation annuity shall lose his or her eligibility when he or she falls under any of the following subparagraphs: <Amended on Dec. 18, 2012; Jun. 12, 2018; May 26, 2020>
1. Where the beneficiary dies;
2. When he or she is remarried (limited to the spouse of the deceased employee and including the case of a de facto marital relationship as for remarriage);
3. Where the kinship with the deceased employee ceases to exist;
4. When a child reaches the age of 25 years;
4-2. When a grandchild or sibling reaches the age of 19 years;
5. Where a person who has been disabled as prescribed in Article 63 (1) 4 recovers from such disability;
6. Where a person entitled to a survivors' compensation annuity who was a Korean national as at the time of the employee's death has lost his or her Korean nationality and who now lives in a foreign country or leaves Korea to live in a foreign country;
7. Where a person entitled to a survivors' compensation annuity who is not a Korean national leaves Korea to live in a foreign country.

2. Where a person entitled to a survivors' compensation annuity (hereinafter referred to as "survivors' compensation annuitant") loses eligibility, the entitlement to the survivors' compensation annuity shall be transferred to a person in the same priority status, if any, and, when there is no such person, to the person next in order.

3. If a survivors' compensation annuitant has been missing for at least three months, the payment of such annuity to him or her shall be suspended as prescribed by Presidential Decree, and the annuity shall be paid to a person in the same priority status, if any, and, when there is no such person, to the person next in order. <Amended on Jan. 27, 2010>

Article 65 (Order of Priority of Survivors who are Survivors' Compensation Annuitants)

(1) The order of priority for entitlement to a survivors' compensation annuity among survivors under Articles 57 (5) and 62 (2) (limited to lump-sum survivors' compensation benefits) and (4) shall be in accordance with the following order, but the order of priority for the said entitlement among persons under the same subparagraph shall follow the order in which they are listed in the subparagraph. In such cases, where at least two annuitants are in the same priority status, the annuity shall be divided and paid equally among them: <Amended on May 26, 2020>

1. The spouse, children, parents, grandchildren, and grandparents whose livelihood had been supported by the employee as at the time of his or her death;
2. The spouse, children, parents, grandchildren, and grandparents whose livelihood had not been supported by the employee as at the time of his or her death, and siblings whose livelihood had not been supported by the employee as at the time of his or her death;
3. Siblings.

(2) In the case of paragraph (1), an adoptive parent has priority over a biological parent, a parent of an adoptive parent over a parent of a biological parent, and an adoptive parent of any parent over a biological parent of any such parent.
(3) If a survivor who is a survivors’ compensation annuitant dies, the insurance benefits shall be paid to a person in the same priority status, if any, and, when there is no such person, to the next person in order.
(4) Notwithstanding paragraphs (1) through (3), if an employee designates a survivor to receive insurance benefits in his or her will, such designation shall be honored in the payment of such insurance benefits.

Article 66 (Injury-Disease Compensation Annuities)

(1) If an employee who receives medical care benefits continues to be in a state that meets all the following requirements even two years after the day of commencing the medical care, an injury-disease compensation annuity shall be paid to such employee instead of temporary layoff benefits: <Amended on Jan. 27, 2010; Jun. 12, 2018>
   1. The injury or disease remains uncured;
   2. The degree of invalidity caused by the injury or disease falls under the invalidity grade standards determined by Presidential Decree;
   3. He or she fails to obtain a job due to such medical care.
(2) The injury-disease compensation annuities shall be paid according to the grades of invalidity prescribed in attached Table 4. <Amended on Jun. 12, 2018>

Article 67 (Injury-Disease Compensation Annuities for Low-Income Employees)

(1) In calculating an injury-disease compensation annuity pursuant to Article 66, if the average wage of the relevant employee is less than an amount produced by multiplying the minimum wage by 100/70, the amount equivalent to 100/70 of the minimum wage shall be deemed the average wage of such employee.
(2) If an injury-disease compensation annuity per day obtained by dividing the amount of an injury-disease compensation annuity, calculated pursuant to Article 66 or paragraph (1) of this Article, by 365 is less than the daily amount of temporary layoff benefits calculated pursuant to Article 54, the amount calculated pursuant to Article 54 shall be the injury-disease compensation annuity per day. <Amended on Jan. 27, 2010>

Article 68 (Injury-Disease Compensation Annuities for the Aged)

If an employee who receives an injury-disease compensation annuity reaches the age of 61, the amount of injury-disease compensation annuity to be paid thereafter shall be the amount calculated in accordance with the standards for payment of injury-disease compensation annuity per day under attached Table 5. <Amended on Jan. 27, 2010>

Article 69 (Injury-Disease Compensation Annuities during Additional Medical Care)

(1) A person whose state of injury or disease meets all the requirements described in the subparagraphs of Article 66 (1) two years after the commencement of additional medical care shall be paid an injury-disease compensation annuity, instead of temporary layoff benefits, in accordance with the grades of invalidity set out in attached Table 4. In such cases, the average wage applicable in the calculation of temporary layoff benefits during the additional medical care shall be applied in calculating the injury-disease compensation annuity; but if such average wage is less than the minimum wage multiplied by 100/70 or there is no wage subject to the calculation of the average wage as at the time of the additional medical care, the amount equivalent to 100/70 of the minimum wage shall be deemed the average wage for the employee in calculating the annuity. <Amended on Jun. 12, 2018; May 26, 2020>

(2) If an employee who receives an injury-disease compensation annuity pursuant to paragraph (1) receives a disability compensation annuity, the number of payment days for the injury-disease compensation annuity by grade of invalidity shown in attached Table 4, minus the number of payment days for the disability compensation annuity by grade of disability set out in attached Table 2, and then multiplied by the average wage under the latter part of paragraph (1) shall be the amount of injury-disease compensation annuity for the employee. <Amended on Jun. 12, 2018>

(3) If an employee who receives an injury-disease compensation annuity pursuant to paragraph (2) reaches the age of 61, an injury-disease compensation annuity per day calculated in accordance with attached Table 5, minus the amount of disability compensation annuity per day calculated on the basis of the average wage pursuant to the latter part of paragraph (1), shall be the amount of injury-disease compensation annuity per day to be paid thereafter. <Newly Inserted on Jan. 27, 2010>

(4) Notwithstanding paragraphs (1) through (3), if an employee who receives a disability compensation annuity pursuant to the proviso of Article 57 (3) receives additional medical care, no injury-disease compensation annuity shall be paid: Provided, That when his or her grade of invalidity is raised during additional medical care, two years shall be deemed to have passed since the commencement of additional medical care, notwithstanding the former part of paragraph (1), and the amount of injury-disease compensation annuity calculated pursuant to paragraphs (2) and (3) shall be paid. <Amended on Jan. 27, 2010; Jun. 12, 2018; May 26, 2020>

(5) Article 67 shall not apply in calculating injury-disease compensation annuities during additional medical care. <Amended on Jan. 27, 2010>

Article 70 (Period and Time of Paying Annuities)

(1) The payment of a disability compensation annuity, survivors' compensation annuity, pneumoconiosis compensation annuity, or pneumoconiosis survivors' annuity shall begin on the first day of the month following the month in which a reason for the payment thereof occurs, and shall end on the last day of the month in which the entitlement to such annuity is extinguished. <Amended on May 20, 2010; May 26, 2020>

(2) If a reason for suspending payment of a disability compensation annuity, survivors' compensation annuity, pneumoconiosis compensation annuity, or pneumoconiosis survivors' annuity occurs, no such annuity shall be paid from the first day of the month following the month in which the reason occurs, to the last day of the month in which the reason ceases to exist. <Amended on May 20, 2010; May 26, 2020>
(3) A disability compensation annuity, survivors' compensation annuity, pneumoconiosis compensation annuity or pneumoconiosis survivors' annuity, shall annually be paid in twelve equal installments, each of which shall be paid on the 25th of every month; but if the payment date falls on a Saturday or holiday, it shall be paid on the preceding day. <Amended on May 20, 2010>

(4) If entitlement to a disability compensation annuity, survivors' compensation annuity, pneumoconiosis compensation annuity, or pneumoconiosis survivors' annuity is extinguished, it may be paid even before the payment date referred to in paragraph (3). <Amended on May 20, 2010>

Article 71 (Funeral Expenses)
(1) Where an employee dies due to any cause related to his or her duties, funeral expenses equivalent to an amount calculated by multiplying the average wage by 120 days shall be paid to a survivor who arranges funeral services: Provided, That when there is no survivor who will arrange funeral services or when a person other than survivors arranges funeral services due to unavoidable reasons, the amount actually spent on the funeral services shall be paid to the person who arranges the funeral services, within the limits of an amount equivalent to an amount calculated by multiplying the average wage by 120 days. <Amended on May 26, 2020; Jan. 26, 2021>

(2) Where the funeral expenses referred to in paragraph (1) exceed the maximum amount or fall short of the minimum amount, as publicly notified by the Minister of Employment and Labor as prescribed by Presidential Decree, such maximum amount or minimum amount shall be each deemed the funeral expenses. <Amended on Jun. 4, 2010; Jan. 26, 2021>

Article 72 (Vocational Rehabilitation Benefits)
(1) The types of vocational rehabilitation benefits shall be as follows: <Amended on Jan. 27, 2010; May 20, 2010; Jun. 12, 2018; May 26, 2020>

1. Vocational training costs and vocational training allowances for persons who require vocational training to be reemployed (hereinafter referred to as "trainees") among persons who have received disability benefits or pneumoconiosis compensation annuities or who are clearly expected to receive disability benefits as prescribed by Presidential Decree (hereinafter referred to as "recipients of disability benefits");

2. Return-to-work subsidies, vocational adaption training costs, and rehabilitation exercise costs to be paid respectively where a business owner retains employment or conducts vocational adaptation training (including vocational adaptation training conducted before returning to work) or a rehabilitation exercise program for the recipients of disability benefits who return to business they worked for as at the time of the occurrence of the occupational accident.

(2) The trainees referred to in paragraph (1) 1 and the recipients of disability benefits referred to in subparagraph 2 of the same paragraph shall be prescribed by Presidential Decree, in consideration of the degree of disability, age, etc.
Article 73 (Vocational Training Costs)

(1) Vocational training for trainees shall be provided at a vocational training institution which has contracted with the Service (hereinafter referred to as "vocational training institution").

(2) Vocational training costs under Article 72 (1) 1 (hereinafter referred to as "vocational training costs") shall be paid to a vocational training institution which provides vocational training pursuant to paragraph (1): Provided, That they shall not be paid in cases prescribed by Presidential Decree, including where a vocational training institution has received an amount equivalent to vocational training costs under the Act on the Employment Promotion and Vocational Rehabilitation of Persons with Disabilities, the Employment Insurance Act, the Act on the Development of Vocational Skills of Workers, or other statutes.

(3) Vocational training costs shall be the amounts actually spent within the limits of the amounts publicly notified by the Minister of Employment and Labor considering training costs, training period, labor market conditions, etc., but the training period during which the vocational training costs are paid shall not exceed 12 months. <Amended on Jun. 4, 2010>

(4) Matters necessary for the scope, criteria, procedure, and method for paying vocational training costs, the conclusion and termination of contracts with vocational training institutions, etc. shall be prescribed by Ordinance of the Ministry of Employment and Labor. <Amended on Jun. 4, 2010>

Article 74 (Vocational Training Allowances)

(1) Vocational training allowances under Article 72 (1) 1 shall be paid to trainees who receive vocational training pursuant to Article 73 (1) for a period during which they are unemployable due to the vocational training, and their daily payments shall be the amount equivalent to the minimum wage: Provided, That the trainees who receive temporary layoff benefits or injury-disease compensation annuities shall not be paid. <Amended on Jan. 27, 2010>

(2) Where a recipient of vocational training allowances pursuant to paragraph (1) receives a disability compensation annuity or pneumoconiosis compensation annuity, if the sum of the amount of disability compensation annuity per day or pneumoconiosis compensation annuity per day (referring to the amount calculated by dividing, by 365, the amount of the pneumoconiosis compensation annuities calculated pursuant to Article 91-3 (2)) and the amount of vocational training allowances per day exceeds 70/100 of the average wage which is applied for calculating the disability compensation annuity or pneumoconiosis compensation annuity of the relevant employee, no amount equivalent to the vocational training allowances out of such excess shall be paid. <Amended on May 20, 2010; May 26, 2020>

(3) Matters necessary for the payment, etc. of vocational training allowances referred to in paragraph (1), shall be prescribed by Ordinance of the Ministry of Employment and Labor. <Amended on Jun. 4, 2010>
Article 75 (Return-to-Work Subsidies)

(1) Return-to-work subsidies, vocational adaptation training costs, and rehabilitation exercise costs referred to in Article 72 (1) 2 shall be paid, respectively, to a business owner who retains employment of, or carries out vocational adaptation training or a rehabilitation exercise program for, recipients of disability benefits. In such cases, conditions for payment of the return-to-work subsidies, vocational adaptation training costs, and rehabilitation exercise costs shall be prescribed by Presidential Decree.

(2) The amount of return-to-work subsidies referred to in paragraph (1) shall be the amount of wages paid by the relevant business owner to a recipient of disability benefits within the limits of the amounts publicly notified by the Minister of Employment and Labor considering wage levels, labor market conditions, etc., but the payment period thereof shall not exceed 12 months. <Amended on Jun. 4, 2010>

(3) The amount of vocational adaptation training costs and rehabilitation exercise costs referred to in paragraph (1) shall be that actually spent within the limits of the amounts publicly notified by the Minister of Employment and Labor considering the amount spent on vocational adaptation training or rehabilitation exercise, but the payment period thereof shall not exceed three months. <Amended on Jun. 4, 2010>

(4) In cases prescribed by Presidential Decree, including where a business owner hiring a recipient of disability benefits has received an amount corresponding to a subsidy under Article 23 of the Employment Insurance Act, a subsidy for employment of the disabled under Article 30 of the Act on the Employment Promotion and Vocational Rehabilitation of Persons with Disabilities or, under other statutes, an amount equivalent to the return-to-work subsidy, vocational adaptation training costs, or rehabilitation exercise costs (hereinafter referred to as "return-to-work subsidy, etc.")", the return-to-work subsidy, etc. less the amount so received shall be paid. <Amended on Jan. 27, 2010>

(5) In cases prescribed by Presidential Decree, including where a business owner hires a disabled person for fulfilling his or her duty under Article 28 of the Act on the Employment Promotion and Vocational Rehabilitation of Persons with Disabilities, a return-to-work subsidy, etc. shall not be paid. <Newly Inserted on Jan. 27, 2010>

Article 76 (Lump-Sum Payment of Insurance Benefits)

(1) If an employee who is not a Korean national applies for the lump-sum payment of insurance benefits with the intention of departing from Korea while receiving medical care due to an injury or disease resulting from an occupational accident before it is cured, the insurance benefits expected to be claimed following the date on which the medical care is suspended due to the departure from Korea may be paid in a lump sum. <Amended on Jan. 27, 2010>

(2) The amount payable in a lump sum under paragraph (1) shall be the sum of each amount obtained by converting each of the following insurance benefits in consideration of the interest accrued for the advance payment period, etc. according to the methods prescribed by Presidential Decree. In such cases, if the relevant employee is medically recognized as meeting all requirements for the payment of insurance benefits described in subparagraphs 3 and 4, the amount of insurance benefits falling under subparagraph
4 shall not be included in the said sum: <Amended on Jan. 27, 2010; May 20, 2010; Jun. 12, 2018; May 26, 2020>

1. Medical care benefits from the date on which medical care is suspended due to departure from Korea until the date on which an injury or disease resulting from an occupational accident is expected to be cured;
2. Temporary layoff benefits from the date on which medical care is suspended due to departure from Korea until the date on which an occupational injury or disease is expected to be cured or to be improved to the state of being employed (where the expected date falls more than two years after the date of commencing the medical care, until the second anniversary from the date of commencing the medical care);
3. Lump-sum disability compensation benefits corresponding to the grade of a disability expected to remain as at the time medical care is suspended due to departure from Korea, after an injury or disease resulting from an occupational accident is cured;
4. Where the invalidity subject to the payment of an injury-disease compensation annuity is expected to remain uncured after two years from the date of commencing medical care as at the time the medical care is suspended due to departure from Korea, an amount equivalent to the lump-sum disability compensation benefits corresponding to the same disability grade as the expected grade of invalidity (where the medical care is suspended due to departure from Korea after two years from the date of commencing the medical care, the grade of invalidity corresponding to the then state of injury or disease);
5. Pneumoconiosis compensation annuities based on the pneumoconiosis grade which is determined as at the time the medical care is provided.

(3) Procedures for applying for and paying lump-sum payment referred to in paragraph (1) shall be prescribed by Ordinance of the Ministry of Employment and Labor. <Amended on Jun. 4, 2010>

Article 77 (Measures for Prevention of Complications)

(1) The Service may allow any person who is likely to be placed under additional medical care due to the development of a complication, etc., among persons who their occupational injuries or diseases have been cured, to receive treatment necessary for the prevention thereof at an industrial accident insurance-related medical institution. <Amended on Jun. 12, 2018; May 26, 2020>

(2) The detailed matters necessary for preventive measures under paragraph (1), such as the subjects and details of treatment and the standards for calculating treatment costs, shall be prescribed by Presidential Decree. <Newly Inserted on Jun. 12, 2018>

Article 78 (Special Disability Benefits)

(1) Where an employee has sustained any disability falling under such disability grade or pneumoconiosis grade as determined by Presidential Decree due to an occupational accident caused by any intentional or negligent conduct by the policyholder, if the beneficiary claims special disability benefits in lieu of a claim for compensation of damage as prescribed by the Civil Act, special disability benefits prescribed by Presidential Decree may be paid in addition to disability benefits under Article 57 or pneumoconiosis compensation annuities under Article 91-3: Provided, That it shall be limited to cases where an agreement between the employee and the policyholder is made on the special disability benefits. 〈Amended on May 20, 2010; May 26, 2020〉

(2) If a beneficiary has received special disability benefits under paragraph (1), he or she may not claim for damages pursuant to the Civil Act or other statutes, against the policyholder for the same cause.

(3) If the Service has paid special disability benefits under paragraph (1), it shall collect the total of such benefits from the policyholder as prescribed by Presidential Decree.

Article 79 (Special Survivors' Benefits)

(1) Where an employee dies due to an occupational accident caused by any intentional or negligent conduct by the policyholder, if the beneficiary claims special survivors' benefits in lieu of a claim for compensation of damage as prescribed by the Civil Act, special survivors' benefits prescribed by Presidential Decree may be paid in addition to survivors' benefits under Article 62 or pneumoconiosis survivors' annuities under Article 91-4. 〈Amended on May 20, 2010〉

(2) The proviso of Article 78 (1) and Article 78 (2) and (3) shall apply mutatis mutandis to special survivors' benefits. In such cases, "special disability benefits" shall be deemed "special survivors' benefits."

Article 80 (Relationship to Other Compensation or Indemnity)

(1) If a beneficiary has received or can receive any insurance benefit pursuant to this Act, the policyholder shall be exempted from liability for accident compensation, as prescribed by the Labor Standards Act for the same cause.

(2) If a beneficiary has received any insurance benefit as prescribed by this Act for the same cause, the policyholder shall be exempted from liability for indemnity as prescribed by the Civil Act and other statutes, within the limits of the amount of such insurance benefit. In such cases, a person who receives a disability compensation annuity, or survivors' compensation annuity shall be deemed to receive a lump-sum disability compensation benefit or survivors' compensation benefit. 〈Amended on May 26, 2020〉

(3) If a beneficiary has received, under the Civil Act or other statutes, any money or valuables equivalent to the amount of insurance benefits prescribed by this Act for the same cause, the Service shall not pay insurance benefits prescribed by this Act within the limits of the amount calculated by converting the money or valuables so received according to the method determined by Presidential Decree: Provided, That this shall not apply to the amount of annuity corresponding to the lump-sum disability compensation benefit or survivors' compensation benefit deemed to have been paid to the beneficiary under the latter part of paragraph (2).
(4) If an employee who receives medical care benefits has received any injury-disease compensation annuity after the third anniversary from the commencement of medical care, the relevant employer shall be deemed to have paid lump-sum compensation benefits as prescribed in Article 84 of the Labor Standards Act after such third anniversary, in application of the proviso of Article 23 (2) of the same Act.

Article 81 (Unpaid Insurance Benefits)

(1) If a beneficiary of insurance benefits dies and there remains any insurance benefits payable, but not yet paid, to the beneficiary, such insurance benefits shall be paid upon a claim filed by any of his or her survivors (in cases of survivors' benefits, other survivors entitled to such benefits).

(2) In the case of paragraph (1), if the beneficiary fails to claim his or her insurance benefits prior to his or her death, the insurance benefits shall be paid upon a claim filed by any of his or her survivors as prescribed by the said paragraph.

Article 82 (Payment of Insurance Benefits)

(1) Insurance benefits shall be paid within 14 days after the decision for payment thereof. <Amended on Jun. 12, 2018>

(2) Upon receipt of an application from a beneficiary, the Service shall deposit the insurance benefits in a designated account opened in the name of the beneficiary (hereinafter referred to as “insurance benefit receipt account”): Provided, That when it is impossible to deposit the insurance benefits in the insurance benefit receipt account due to any fault in the information and communications system or other unavoidable reasons prescribed by Presidential Decree, the Service may pay the insurance benefits as prescribed by Presidential Decree. <Newly Inserted on Jun. 12, 2018>

(3) A financial institution in which an insurance benefit receipt account is opened shall manage the account to ensure that only the insurance benefits under this Act can be deposited in the insurance benefit receipt account. <Newly Inserted on Jun. 12, 2018>

(4) Matters necessary for the methods and procedures for application under paragraph (2) and the management of insurance benefit receipt accounts under paragraph (3) shall be prescribed by Presidential Decree. <Newly Inserted on Jun. 12, 2018>

Article 83 (Restriction on Payment of Insurance Benefits)

(1) If an employee falls under any of the following subparagraphs, the Service may not pay all or part of the insurance benefits: <Amended on May 20, 2010>

1. Where the employee under medical care services has aggravated his or her state of injury, disease, or disability, or hindered his or her cure, in violation of instructions relating to the medical care without good cause;

2. Where the beneficiary of a disability compensation annuity or pneumoconiosis compensation annuity has aggravated his or her state of disability on purpose, such as through self-harm, before the disability grade or pneumoconiosis grade is redetermined pursuant to Article 59.

(2) If the Service has decided not to pay insurance benefits under paragraph (1), it shall, without delay, notify the policyholder and the relevant employee of such decision.

(3) The types and scope of the restrictions of insurance benefits subject to restrictions on payment of insurance benefits referred to in paragraph (1) shall be prescribed by Presidential Decree.

Article 84 (Collection of Unjust Gains)

(1) Where any person who has received insurance benefits falls under any of the following subparagraphs, the Service shall collect an amount equivalent to such insurance benefits (in the case of subparagraph 1, an amount equivalent to double the benefits). In such cases, the amount which the Service has claimed and received from the National Health Insurance Corporation, etc. pursuant to Article 90 (2) shall be excluded from the amount to be collected: <Amended on May 26, 2020>

1. Where he or she has received the insurance benefits by fraud or other improper means;
2. Where a beneficiary or former beneficiary has unjustly received the insurance benefits by failing to perform his or her duty to report under Article 114 (2) through (4);
3. Where there exist mistakenly paid insurance benefits.

(2) In the case of paragraph (1) 1, if the payment of the insurance benefits is based on false reporting, diagnosis or certification by the policyholder, an industrial accident insurance-related medical institution, or a vocational training institution, they shall be held jointly liable for the insurance benefits.

(3) If an industrial accident insurance-related medical institution or a pharmacy prescribed in Article 46 (1) falls under any of the following subparagraphs, the Service shall collect an amount equivalent to the medical expenses or medicine expenses: Provided, That in the case of subparagraph 1, an amount equivalent to double the medical expenses or medicine expenses (an amount equivalent to the medical expenses where penalty surcharges are imposed pursuant to Article 44 (1)) shall be collected: <Amended on May 20, 2010; Jun. 12, 2018>

1. Where the medical expenses or medicine expenses are obtained by fraud or other improper means;
2. Where the medical expenses or medicine expenses are obtained unjustly in violation of the standards for calculating medical care benefits prescribed in Article 40 (5) or 91-9 (3) and the standards for calculating treatment costs prescribed in Article 77 (2);
3. Where the medical expenses or medicine expenses are obtained mistakenly.

(4) Notwithstanding paragraph (1) and the proviso of paragraph (3), if a person who has received any insurance benefits, medical expenses or medicine expenses by fraud or other improper means (including any person who is held jointly liable under paragraph (2)) voluntarily reports the fact of unlawful receipt before an investigation into the unlawful receipt is commenced, the Service may exempt him or her from the collection of any amount in excess of the insurance benefits, medical expenses, or medicine expenses. <Newly Inserted on Jun. 12, 2018>
Article 84-2 (Disclosure of Lists of Unlawful Recipients)
(1) The Service may every year disclose a list of those who fall under Article 84 (1) 1 or (3) 1 (hereinafter referred to as “unlawful recipients”) and fall under any of the following subparagraphs over three years before the preceding year. In such cases, a list of those held jointly liable under paragraph (2) of the same Article may be disclosed together:
   1. The number of unlawful receipts is at least twice and the total amount of unlawful receipts is not less than 100 million won;
   2. The amount of unlawful receipt per time is not less than 200 million won.
(2) List disclosure under paragraph (1) may be omitted in cases prescribed by Presidential Decree, such as where the list disclosure is ineffective due to the death of unlawful recipients or those held jointly liable.
(3) If an objection or other appeals procedure is underway against a decision of collection on unjust enrichment, the Service may disclose the list after the objection or appeals procedure is completed.
(4) The Service shall notify those subject to disclosure under paragraph (1) in advance of the fact and give them an opportunity to justify themselves, as prescribed by Ordinance of the Ministry of Employment and Labor.
(5) Other matters necessary for methods and procedures for list disclosure shall be prescribed by Ordinance of the Ministry of Employment and Labor.

Article 85 (Collection of Charges)
The provisions of Articles 27, 28, 29, 30, 32, 39, 41, and 42 of the Insurance Premium Collection Act, shall apply mutatis mutandis to the collection of insurance benefits under Article 39 (2), collection of special disability benefits under Article 78, collection of special survivors' benefits under Article 79, and collection of unjust gains under Article 84. In such case, “health insurance corporation” shall be deemed “corporation”. <Amended on Jan. 27, 2010>

Article 86 (Appropriation of Insurance Benefits)
(1) If the Service has any insurance benefits, medical expenses or medicine expenses payable to a person who has obtained unjust gains pursuant to Article 84 (1) and (3), or a policyholder or industrial accident insurance-related medical institution held jointly liable pursuant to Article 84 (2), it may appropriate them to the amount to be collected pursuant to Article 84.
(2) The maximum limit on and procedure for the appropriation of insurance benefits, medical expenses, and medicine expenses shall be prescribed by Presidential Decree.

Article 87 (Claim for Indemnification to Third Persons)
(1) Where insurance benefits are paid due to an accident caused by a third person's act, the Service shall be subrogated to the rights of a person who has received the insurance benefits, to exercise the claim for damages against the third person, within the limits of the amount of such benefits: Provided, That this shall not apply where at least two business owners as policyholders portion out one line of business at the same place and operate their own portion of the business respectively, and, in the course of operation, an accident occurs due to an act committed by an employee of the other business owner. <Amended on May 26, 2020>

(2) In cases falling under paragraph (1), if a beneficiary has been paid damages equivalent to insurance benefits under this Act from a third person for the same reason, the Service shall not pay insurance benefits under this Act, within the limits of the amount of the damages converted by the method prescribed by Presidential Decree.

(3) If any accident occurs by an act of a third person, the beneficiary and policyholder shall report such accident to the Service without delay.

Article 87-2 (Consultation and Coordination Organization for Claim Amounts)

(1) Where the Service exercises a claim for indemnity against an insurer in accordance with subparagraph 7 (a) of Article 2 of the Compulsory Motor Vehicle Liability Security Act (hereinafter referred to as "insurer, etc.") under Article 87, it may organize and operate the consultation and coordination organization for claim amounts together with insurers, etc. in order to consult and coordinate a claim amount of the relevant claim.

(2) The Service and an insurer, etc. may request the counterpart to submit necessary materials for consultation and coordination under paragraph (1). In such cases the counterpart who is requested to submit the materials shall follow the request unless any special reason exists.

(3) The Service shall determine matters necessary for organization, operation, etc. of the consultation and coordination organization of claim amounts under paragraphs (1) and (2).

Article 88 (Protection of Entitlement to Insurance Benefits)

(1) Each employee’s entitlement to insurance benefits shall not be extinguished by his or her retirement.

(2) Entitlement to insurance benefits may not be transferred, seized, or offered as collateral.

(3) No right to claim a deposit in an insurance benefit receipt account designated under Article 82 (2), which is not more than the amount prescribed by Presidential Decree, may be seized. <Newly Inserted on Jun. 12, 2018>

Article 89 (Subrogation of Entitlement to Insurance Benefits)

Where a policyholder (including subcontractors prescribed in subparagraph 5 of Article 2 of the Insurance Premium Collection Act; hereafter in this Article the same shall apply) pays in advance money or valuables equivalent to insurance benefits pursuant to the Civil Act or other statutes for his or her employee's occupational accident to the beneficiary for the same reason for which insurance benefits under this Act are paid, and such money or valuables are deemed a substitute for the insurance benefits, the policyholder may subrogate the beneficiary’s entitlement to such insurance benefits as prescribed by Presidential Decree.

Article 90 (Settlement of Medical Care Benefit Costs)

(1) Where the National Health Insurance Corporation under Article 13 of the National Health Insurance Act or the head of a Si/Gun/Gu under Article 5 of the Medical Care Assistance Act (hereinafter referred to as "National Health Insurance Corporation, etc.") has paid in advance medical care benefits, etc. under health insurance to a beneficiary of medical care benefits prescribed by this Act pursuant to Article 42 (1) and then claims the costs, the Service may pay an amount equivalent to the medical care benefits if the medical care benefits, etc. under health insurance are deemed equivalent to the medical care benefits payable under this Act. <Amended on Dec. 31, 2011>

(2) Where the Service has paid a beneficiary medical care benefits and the payment decision has been revoked thereafter, it may claim an amount equivalent to the medical care benefits, etc. under health insurance from the National Health Insurance Corporation, etc. if the medical care benefits paid are deemed equivalent to the medical care benefits, etc. under health insurance, which are payable under the National Health Insurance Act or the Medical Care Assistance Act.

Article 90-2 (Settlement of Expenses for Medical Care of National Health Insurance)

(1) Where a person who has received medical care benefits or additional medical care under Article 40 receives medical care benefits under Article 41 of the National Health Insurance Act, within two years following the termination of previous medical care (this case only applies where he or she receives medical care benefits due to an injury or disease arising from occupational accidents, which has been the subject of the terminated medical care), the Service may pay the amount which has been covered by the National Health Insurance Corporation among the expenses of the medical care benefits.

(2) Procedures for payment of medical care expenses and other necessary matters referred to in paragraph (1) shall be prescribed by Ordinance of the Ministry of Employment and Labor.

Article 91 (Exemption from Public Charges)

No public charges of the State or local governments shall be imposed on any money or valuables offered as insurance benefits.

CHAPTER III-2 SPECIAL CASES ON INSURANCE BENEFITS FOR PNEUMOCONIOSIS

Article 91-2 (Criteria for Recognition of Occupational Accidents for Pneumoconiosis)

Where an employee suffers from pneumoconiosis because the employee has engaged in dust work prescribed by Ordinance of the Ministry of Employment and Labor (hereinafter referred to as "dust work") as likely to cause pneumoconiosis, such as work dealing with rock, metal, glass fiber, etc., the employee shall be deemed to suffer from occupational diseases under Article 37 (1) 2 (a). <Amended on Jun. 4, 2010>

Article 91-3 (Pneumoconiosis Compensation Annuities)

(1) Pneumoconiosis compensation annuities shall be paid to an employee suffering from pneumoconiosis which is an occupational disease (hereinafter referred to as "pneumoconiosis employee").

(2) Pneumoconiosis compensation annuities shall be the amount calculated by aggregating a pneumoconiosis disability pension by pneumoconiosis grade calculated pursuant to attached Table 6, based on the average wage prescribed pursuant to subparagraph 2 of Article 5 and Article 36 (6), and a basic pension. In such cases, the basic pension shall be the amount calculated by multiplying 60/100 of the minimum wage by 365.

(3) Where there is a change in the pneumoconiosis grade of the person who receives a pneumoconiosis compensation annuity, the sum of the basic pension and the pneumoconiosis disability pension under the changed pneumoconiosis grade, shall be paid from the following month of the month to which the date of change belongs.

Article 91-4 (Pneumoconiosis Survivors' Annuities)

(1) Where a pneumoconiosis employee dies of pneumoconiosis, a pneumoconiosis survivors' annuity shall be paid to his or her survivors.

(2) A pneumoconiosis survivors' annuity shall be the same amount of a pneumoconiosis compensation annuity paid or determined to be paid to a pneumoconiosis employee as at the time of death. In such cases, the pneumoconiosis survivors' annuity shall not exceed the survivors' compensation annuity calculated pursuant to Article 62 (2) and attached Table 3.

(3) Where an employee who fails to be provided the diagnosis of pneumoconiosis under Article 91-6 dies of pneumoconiosis which is an occupational disease, the pneumoconiosis survivors' annuity with respect to the employee shall be the sum of the basic pension under Article 91-3 (2) and the pneumoconiosis disability pension calculated pursuant to attached Table 6 for each pneumoconiosis grade determined pursuant to Article 91-8 (3).

(4) Articles 63 and 64 shall apply mutatis mutandis to the scope and priority of survivors entitled to pneumoconiosis survivors' annuities, disqualification, suspension of payment, etc. In such cases, "survivors' compensation annuities" shall be deemed "pneumoconiosis survivors’ annuities."

Article 91-5 (Claim for Medical Care Benefits concerning Pneumoconiosis)

(1) If an employee who engages or has engaged in dust work intends to receive medical care benefits or a pneumoconiosis compensation annuity due to pneumoconiosis which is an occupational disease, he or she shall file a claim with the Service, accompanying the documents prescribed by Ordinance of the Ministry of Employment and Labor. <Amended on Jun. 4, 2010>
(2) Where a person who claims for medical care benefits, etc. pursuant to paragraph (1) receives the decision on payment or non-payment of medical care benefits, etc. pursuant to Article 91-8 (2), he or she may file a claim for medical care benefits, etc. again, after one year passes since the date of diagnosis concluded under Article 91-6 or when the medical care is terminated: Provided, That if any medical opinion exists that it is necessary to receive emergency diagnosis from a health examination institution under Article 91-6 (1) due to any complication [referring to complication under subparagraph 2 of Article 2 of the Act on the Prevention of Pneumoconiosis and Protection of Employees Suffering from Pneumoconiosis (hereinafter referred to as the "Pneumoconiosis Employees Protection Act"); hereinafter the same shall apply] or acute disturbance in cardiopulmonary function, etc., such person may claim medical care benefits, etc. even if one year has not yet passed since the date of such diagnosis concluded.

Article 91-6 (Diagnosis of Pneumoconiosis)

(1) Where an employee files a claim for medical care benefits, etc. pursuant to Article 91-5, the Service shall request a health examination institution referred to in Article 15 of the Pneumoconiosis Employees Protection Act (hereinafter referred to as "health examination institution") for necessary examination for diagnosis of pneumoconiosis under Article 91-8.

(2) The health examination institution shall, upon the request for diagnosis of pneumoconiosis pursuant to paragraph (1), provide the diagnosis of pneumoconiosis as prescribed by Ordinance of the Ministry of Employment and Labor and then submit the results thereof to the Service. <Amended on Jun. 4, 2010>

(3) Where an employee receives health examination under Articles 11 through 13 of the Pneumoconiosis Employees Protection Act, and then the health examination institution submits x-ray pictures showing the chest of the relevant employee to the Minister of Employment and Labor pursuant to the latter part of Article 16 (1) of the same Act and the latter part of paragraph (3) of the same Article, the employee shall be deemed to file a claim for medical care benefits, etc. and to submit the results of diagnosis, pursuant to Article 91-5 (1) and paragraph (2) of this Article. <Amended on Jun. 4, 2010>

(4) The Service shall pay the expenses incurred from the diagnosis to the health examination institution providing the diagnosis pursuant to paragraph (2). In such cases, Articles 40 (5) and 45 shall apply mutatis mutandis to the standard for calculation of such expenses and to a claim therefor, etc.

(5) The amount determined and publicly notified by the Minister of Employment and Labor may be paid as diagnosis charges to the employee who receive the diagnosis pursuant to paragraph (2): Provided, That no amount shall be paid to persons who receive disability compensation annuities or pneumoconiosis compensation annuities. <Amended on Jun. 4, 2010>

(6) Matters on the request for diagnosis, the submission of results thereof and specific procedures for payment of the examination charges under paragraphs (1), (2) and (5) shall be prescribed by Ordinance of the Ministry of Employment and Labor. <Amended on Jun. 4, 2010>
Article 91-7 (Pneumoconiosis Deliberation Committee)

(1) The Pneumoconiosis Deliberation Committee comprised of relevant experts, etc. (hereinafter referred to as the "Pneumoconiosis Deliberation Committee"), shall be established in the Service in order to deliberate on the types of pneumoconiosis and complications thereof, based on the diagnosis results provided under Article 91-6.

(2) The organization of members and operation of meetings of the Pneumoconiosis Deliberation Committee and other necessary matters shall be prescribed by Ordinance of the Ministry of Employment and Labor. <Amended on Jun. 4, 2010>

Article 91-8 (Determination of Pneumoconiosis and Decision of Insurance Benefits)

(1) The Service shall, upon the receipt of the results of diagnosis provided pursuant to Article 91-6, make determinations on the types of pneumoconiosis, the existence and types of complications, the degree of cardiopulmonary function, etc. (hereinafter referred to as "determination of pneumoconiosis") of the relevant employee, after deliberation by the Pneumoconiosis Deliberation Committee. In such cases, the criteria necessary for the determination of pneumoconiosis shall be prescribed by Presidential Decree.

(2) The Service shall, according to the results of the determination of pneumoconiosis provided under paragraph (1), decide whether to pay medical care benefits, pneumoconiosis degrees and whether to pay pneumoconiosis compensation annuities based on the pneumoconiosis degrees. In such cases, the criteria for pneumoconiosis degrees and criteria for recognition of the subject of medical care according to complications, etc. shall be prescribed by Presidential Decree.

(3) Where the Service has difficulty in determining the degree of cardiopulmonary function of pneumoconiosis employees because of complications, etc., the Service shall, notwithstanding the criteria for pneumoconiosis degrees referred to in paragraph (2), decide a pneumoconiosis degree, taking into account the types of pneumoconiosis. In such cases, the criteria for pneumoconiosis shall be prescribed by Presidential Decree.

(4) The Service shall, when it makes a decision as to whether to pay insurance benefits pursuant to paragraphs (2) and (3), notify thereof to the relevant employee.

Article 91-9 (Procedures and Criteria for Payment of Medical Care Benefits for Pneumoconiosis)

(1) The Service shall provide a pneumoconiosis employee, who is decided to be paid medical care benefits pursuant to Article 91-8 (2), with medical care at a medical institution in charge of medical care for pneumoconiosis employees (hereinafter referred to as "medical institution providing medical care for pneumoconiosis") among industrial accident insurance-related medical institutions, notwithstanding the main clause of Article 40 (2).

(2) The Minister of Employment and Labor may determine and publicly notify to medical institutions providing medical care for pneumoconiosis in order to provide proper medical care, as to the standards for handling inpatient and outpatient, standardized criteria for medical treatment, etc., following the advice of experts. <Amended on Jun. 4, 2010>

(3) The Service may classify medical institutions providing medical care for pneumoconiosis, into no more than three levels, taking into account facilities, personnel and quality of medical treatment, etc. In such cases, the criteria for classifying such levels, patients subject to medical care by level, criteria for calculating medical care benefits by level, shall be prescribed by Ordinance of the Ministry of Employment and Labor. <Amended on Jun. 4, 2010>

(4) An assessment committee for medical institutions providing medical care for pneumoconiosis shall be established in the Service in order to provide counseling on the affairs of assessing medical institutions providing medical care for pneumoconiosis. In such cases, the organization and operation of the assessment committee for medical institutions providing medical care for pneumoconiosis and other necessary matters shall be prescribed by Ordinance of the Ministry of Employment and Labor. <Amended on Jun. 4, 2010>

(5) Article 50 shall apply mutatis mutandis to the assessment of medical institutions providing medical care for pneumoconiosis. In such cases, "medical institutions prescribed by Presidential Decree among industrial accident insurance-related medical institutions referred to in Article 43 (1) 3" set out in Article 50 (1) shall be deemed "medical institutions providing medical care to pneumoconiosis employees."

Article 91-10 (Recognition of Death due to Pneumoconiosis)
Where it is recognized that an employee who engages or has engaged in dust work dies of pneumoconiosis, complications thereof or other causes related to pneumoconiosis, such case shall be deemed occupational accident. In such cases, matters required to consider when determining whether the death is caused by pneumoconiosis shall be prescribed by Presidential Decree.

Article 91-11 (Confirmation of Cause of Death due to Pneumoconiosis)
(1) Where it is difficult to confirm the cause of death of an employee who engages or has engaged in dust work, the survivor of such employee may request for the dissection of the body of the relevant employee, accompanying a written agreement on the dissection of the body, to the medical institution designated by the Service from among industrial accident insurance-related medical institutions with pathological specialists, in order to confirm whether the relevant employee has died of pneumoconiosis, etc. In such cases, the medical institution shall conduct the dissection of the body, notwithstanding Article 2 of the Act on Dissection and Preservation of Corpses. <Amended on Apr. 7, 2020>

(2) The Service may subsidize all or part of the expenses to the medical institution or survivor conducting the dissection pursuant to paragraph (1). In such cases, matters on the payment criteria for expenses, submitting accompanying documents, and other procedures for the subsidy of the expenses, shall be prescribed by Ordinance of the Ministry of Employment and Labor. <Amended on Jun. 4, 2010>
CHAPTER IV LABOR WELFARE PROJECTS

Article 92 (Labor Welfare Projects)

(1) The Minister of Employment and Labor shall carry out the following projects to improve employees' welfare: <Amended on Jun. 4, 2010>

1. Projects for the establishment and operation of the following insurance facilities to facilitate the smooth rehabilitation of employees affected by occupational accidents:
   (a) Facilities for medical care or post-surgery care;
   (b) Facilities for medical or occupational rehabilitation;
2. Projects for promotion of the welfare of affected employees and their survivors, such as scholarship projects, etc.;
3. Other projects for the establishment and operation of facilities for promoting the welfare of employees.

(2) The Minister of Employment and Labor may allow the Service or any corporation designated by the Minister of Employment and Labor from among corporations established for promoting the welfare of affected employees (hereinafter referred to as "designated corporation") to carry out projects referred to in paragraph (1), or may entrust the Service or such designated corporation with the operation of insurance facilities referred to in subparagraph 1 of the said paragraph. <Amended on Jun. 4, 2010>

(3) Matters necessary for the criteria for designation of designated corporations shall be determined by Ordinance of the Ministry of Employment and Labor. <Amended on Jun. 4, 2010>

(4) The Minister of Employment and Labor may, within the budget, partially subsidize the expenses incurred by designated corporations in carrying out projects. <Amended on Jun. 4, 2010>

Article 93 (Loans for Individual Co-Payment of Medical Care Benefit Costs under National Health Insurance)

(1) If any person prescribed by Presidential Decree in consideration of the period, etc. taking to make a decision on medical care benefits, files a request for medical care in relation to an occupational disease referred to in Article 37 (1) 2, the Service may offer a loan to such person for the individual co-payment of medical care benefit costs under Article 44 of the National Health Insurance Act. <Amended on Dec. 31, 2011; May 26, 2020>

(2) If there are any medical care benefits under this Act payable to a person, who is provided with a loan pursuant to paragraph (1), the Service may appropriate such medical care benefits for the repayment of the loan. <Amended on May 26, 2020>

(3) The amount, conditions and procedures of a loan referred to in paragraph (1) shall be determined by the Service with the approval of the Minister of Employment and Labor. <Amended on Jun. 4, 2010>

(4) The maximum limit to and procedures for the appropriation of medical care benefits referred to in paragraph (2) shall be prescribed by Presidential Decree.
Article 94 (Promotion of Employment of Recipients of Disability Benefits)
The Minister of Employment and Labor may recommend any policyholder to employ recipients of disability benefits or pneumoconiosis compensation annuities in jobs appropriate to their aptitudes.
<Amended on Jan. 27, 2010; May 20, 2010; Jun. 4, 2010; May 26, 2020>

CHAPTER V INDUSTRIAL ACCIDENT COMPENSATION INSURANCE AND PREVENTION FUND

Article 95 (Establishment and Creation of Industrial Accident Compensation Insurance and Prevention Fund)
(1) In order to secure financial resources necessary for the insurance business and industrial accident prevention projects, and to appropriate such resources for insurance benefits, the Minister of Employment and Labor shall establish an Industrial Accident Compensation Insurance and Prevention Fund (hereinafter referred to as the "Fund"). <Amended on Jun. 4, 2010>
(2) The Fund shall be created out of insurance premiums, proceeds accruing from operation of the Fund, reserve funds, surplus resulting from the settlement of accounts of the Fund, contributions and donations from the Government or any person other than the Government, loans, and other revenues.
(3) In order to conduct industrial accident prevention projects, the Government shall, each fiscal year, appropriate contributions of the Government under paragraph (2) for the expenditure budget within the limit of 3/100 of the total Fund expenditure budget.

Article 96 (Use of Fund)
(1) The Fund shall be used for any of the following purposes: <Amended on Dec. 31, 2008; Jan. 27, 2010; Jan. 15, 2019>
1. Payment of insurance benefits and return of refunds;
2. Redemption of loans and interests thereon;
3. Contribution to the Service;
4. Purpose as prescribed in Article 12 of the Occupational Safety and Health Act;
5. Promotion of the welfare of employees suffering from accidents;
6. Contribution to the Korea Occupational Safety and Health Agency established pursuant to the Korea Occupational Safety and Health Agency Act (hereinafter referred to as the "Korea Occupational Safety and Health Agency");
7. Contribution to any person entrusted with business under Article 4 of the Insurance Premium Collection Act;
8. Other insurance business and the management and operation of the Fund.
(2) The Minister of Employment and Labor shall, for each fiscal year, appropriate at least 8/100 of the total amount of Fund expenditure budget falling under any subparagraph of paragraph (1) for the purposes prescribed in paragraph (1) 4 and 6. <Amended on Jun. 4, 2010>

(3) The amount to be contributed to the National Health Insurance Service under Article 13 of the National Health Insurance Act from the Fund pursuant to paragraph (1) 7 shall be calculated based on the proportion of collection services (referring to services concerning notification, receipt, and delinquency). <Newly Inserted on Jun. 12, 2018>

Article 97 (Management and Operation of Fund)

(1) The Fund shall be managed and operated by the Minister of Employment and Labor. <Amended on Jun. 4, 2010>

(2) The Minister of Employment and Labor shall manage and operate the Fund by the following methods: <Amended on Jun. 4, 2010>

1. Deposits and money trusts in financial institutions or postal offices;
2. Deposits in financial funds;
3. Purchase of beneficiary certificates, such as investment trusts;
4. Purchase of securities issued directly, or guaranteed by the State, local governments, or financial institutions for the performance of obligations;
5. Other activities determined by Presidential Decree for increasing the Fund.

(3) In managing and operating the Fund under paragraph (2), the Minister of Employment and Labor shall make efforts to yield returns in excess of such level as determined by Presidential Decree. <Amended on Jun. 4, 2010>

(4) The accounting of the Fund shall be performed in accordance with Article 11 of the National Accounting Act. <Amended on Jun. 12, 2018>

(5) The Minister of Employment and Labor may entrust the Service or the Korea Occupational Safety and Health Agency with part of its affairs concerning the management and operation of the Fund. <Amended on Dec. 31, 2008; Jun. 4, 2010>

Article 98 (Fund Operational Plans)

The Minister of Employment and Labor shall establish a Fund operational plan after deliberation by the Committee each fiscal year. <Amended on Jun. 4, 2010>

Article 99 (Accumulation of Liability Reserves)

(1) The Minister of Employment and Labor shall accumulate a liability reserve to appropriate for insurance benefits. <Amended on Jun. 4, 2010>

(2) If the amount of reserve funds exceeds the liability reserve calculated each fiscal year, the Minister of Employment and Labor shall use such excess as financial resources for the payment of future insurance benefits, and if it is short, accumulate such shortage from the revenues of insurance premiums. <Amended on Jun. 4, 2010>

(3) Matters necessary for the standard for calculating liability reserves and accumulation thereof referred to in paragraph (1) shall be determined by Presidential Decree.

Article 100 (Settlement of Surplus and Loss)

(1) If any surplus accrues from settlement of accounts of the Fund, it shall be deposited as reserve funds.

(2) If any loss accrues from settlement of accounts of the Fund, it may be made up by using reserve funds.

Article 101 (Loans)

(1) If it is required to disburse expenses of the Fund, a loan may be made at the expense of the Fund.

(2) If there is any shortage in cash for disbursement by the Fund, a temporary loan may be made at the expense of the Fund.

(3) A temporary loan referred to in paragraph (2) shall be redeemed within the corresponding fiscal year.

Article 102 (Receipts and Disbursements of Fund)

Matters concerning the procedure, etc. of receipts and disbursements in the management and operation of the Fund shall be determined by Presidential Decree.

CHAPTER VI REQUESTS FOR EXAMINATION AND REEXAMINATION

Article 103 (Filing Requests for Examination)

(1) Any person who is dissatisfied with a decision, etc. made by the Service which falls under any of the following subparagraphs (hereinafter referred to as “decision, etc. on insurance benefits”) may file a request for examination with the Service: <Amended on May 20, 2010; Jun. 12, 2018>

1. A decision on insurance benefits referred to in Chapters III and III-2;
2. A decision on medical expenses referred to in Articles 45 and 91-6 (4);
3. A decision on medicine expenses referred to in Article 46;
4. A measure, etc. to change a medical treatment plan referred to in Article 47 (2);
5. A decision to make a lump-sum payment of insurance benefits referred to in Article 76;
5-2. Measures for prevention of complications, etc. referred to in Article 77;
6. A decision on collection of unjust gains referred to in Article 84;
7. A decision on subrogation of the entitlement to insurance benefits referred to in Article 89.

(2) A request for examination referred to in paragraph (1) shall be filed with the Service through an agency affiliated with the Service which has made the decision, etc. on insurance benefits.
(3) A request for examination referred to in paragraph (1) shall be filed within 90 days after the decision, etc. on insurance benefits is informed.

(4) An agency affiliated with the Service shall, in receipt of a written request for examination filed under paragraph (2), send it to the Service, along with its written opinion within five days.

(5) No administrative appeal as prescribed by the Administrative Appeals Act may be made against any decision, etc. on insurance benefits.

Article 104 (Industrial Accident Compensation Insurance Examination Committee)

(1) In order to deliberate on requests for examination filed pursuant to Article 103, an Industrial Accident Compensation Insurance Examination Committee (hereinafter referred to as the "Examination Committee") comprised of relevant experts, etc. shall be established in the Service.

(2) Article 108 shall apply mutatis mutandis to the exclusion of, challenge to, or recusal of, a member of the Examination Committee.

(3) Matters necessary for the composition and operation of the Examination Committee shall be prescribed by Presidential Decree.

Article 105 (Deliberation and Decisions on Requests for Examination)

(1) The Service shall make a decision on any request for examination filed after deliberation by the Examination Committee within 60 days after it receives a written request for examination under Article 103 (4): Provided, That where it is impossible to make a decision thereon within such period due to unavoidable reasons, such period may be extended only once within the limit of 20 days. <Amended on May 26, 2020>

(2) Notwithstanding the main clause of paragraph (1), if there is any ground prescribed by Presidential Decree, such as a request for examination filed after the period of the request for examination ends, a decision on the request for examination may be rendered without a deliberation process by the Examination Committee.

(3) When the period of the decision is extended pursuant to the proviso of paragraph (1), the requester for examination and the agency affiliated with the Service which has rendered the decision on insurance benefits, etc. shall be informed thereof until seven days before the period of the initial decision ends.

(4) If it is required for deliberating on a request for examination, the Service may, upon request by the requester or ex officio, take the following measures:

1. To have the requester or other interested person appear at a designated place, in order to ask questions or to seek his or her opinion;

2. To have the requester or other interested person present any documents or other things that can be used as evidence;

3. To have a third person having expertise or experience make an appraisal;
4. To have an employee belonging to the Service enter any place of business or other place related to the case, in order to ask questions to the business owner, employees and other interested persons or to inspect documents or other things;
5. To have an employee related to the request for examination diagnosed by a doctor, dentist or oriental medical doctor (hereinafter referred to as "doctor, etc.") designated by the Service.
(5) Any employee belonging to the Service who makes questions or inspections under paragraph (4) 4 shall carry a certificate indicating his or her authority and show it to interested persons.

Article 106 (Filing Requests for Reexamination)
(1) Any person who is dissatisfied with a decision on a request for examination under Article 105 (1) may file a request for reexamination with the Industrial Accident Compensation Insurance Reexamination Committee under Article 107: Provided, That a person who is dissatisfied with a decision on insurance benefits which has been deliberated upon by the Adjudication Committee may file a request for reexamination without filing a request for examination pursuant to Article 103.
(2) A request for reexamination under paragraph (1) shall be filed with the Industrial Accident Compensation Insurance Reexamination Committee under Article 107, through an agency affiliated with the Service which has rendered the decision on insurance benefits, etc.
(3) A request for reexamination under paragraph (1) shall be filed within 90 days after the decision on such request for examination is informed: Provided, That where a request for reexamination is filed without filing a request for examination pursuant to the proviso of paragraph (1), the request shall be filed within 90 days after the decision on insurance benefits is informed.
(4) Article 103 (4) shall apply mutatis mutandis to requests for reexamination. In such cases, "written request for examination" shall be deemed "written request for reexamination"; and the "Service" shall be deemed the "Industrial Accident Compensation Insurance Reexamination Committee", respectively.

Article 107 (Industrial Accident Compensation Insurance Reexamination Committee)
(1) In order to deliberate and decide on requests for reexamination as prescribed in Article 106, there shall be established an Industrial Accident Compensation Insurance Reexamination Committee (hereinafter referred to as the "Reexamination Committee") in the Ministry of Employment and Labor. <Amended on Jun. 4, 2010>
(2) The Reexamination Committee shall be comprised of up to 90 members, including one chairperson, but two persons of such members shall be standing members; and one person of such members shall be an ex officio member. <Amended on Jun. 12, 2018>
(3) Two-fifths of the members of the Reexamination Committee shall be comprised of persons recommended by employees' organizations and employers' organizations, respectively, from among persons falling under paragraph (5) 2 through 5. In such cases, the number of persons recommended by employees' organizations shall be equal to the number of persons recommended by employers' organizations. <Amended on Jan. 27, 2010; May 26, 2020>

(4) Notwithstanding paragraph (3), where the number of persons recommended by employees' organizations or employers' organizations, respectively, is less than 1/5 of the total number of members to be commissioned, the latter part of paragraph (3) shall not apply; and the number of members recommended by employees' organizations and employers' organizations may be less than 2/5 of the total number of members. <Newly Inserted on Jan. 27, 2010>

(5) The chairperson and members of the Reexamination Committee shall be appointed by the President upon the recommendation of the Minister of Employment and Labor, from among the following persons:
Provided, That the ex officio member shall be a person nominated by the Minister of Employment and Labor, from among public officials of Grade III in general service of the Ministry of Employment and Labor or from among public officials in general service of the Senior Executive Service: <Amended on Jan. 27, 2010; Jun. 4, 2010; May 26, 2020>

1. Those who are or were in office as public officials of at least Grade III or public officials in general service of the Senior Executive Service;
2. Judges, public prosecutors, attorneys-at-law, or certified labor affairs consultants with at least 10 years of experience;
3. Those who are or were in office as associate professors or higher at schools prescribed in Article 2 of the Higher Education Act;
4. Those who have engaged in labor-related services or industrial accident compensation insurance-related services for at least 15 years;
5. Those with substantial knowledge and experience in social insurance or industrial medical science.

(6) None of the following persons shall be appointed as a member: <Amended on Jan. 27, 2010; Jan. 20, 2015; May 26, 2020>

1. A person under adult guardianship, a person under limited guardianship, or a person declared bankrupt and not yet reinstated;
2. A person for whom three years have not passed since his or her imprisonment without labor or a heavier punishment declared by a court was completely executed or the non-execution of such sentence became final;
3. A mentally defective person or a mentally weak person.

(7) The term of office of members (excluding ex officio members) of the Reexamination Committee shall be three years but may be renewed consecutively; and the chairperson or a member whose term has expired shall continue to perform his or her duties until his or her successor is appointed. <Amended on Jan. 27, 2010; Jun. 12, 2018>

(8) No member of the Reexamination Committee shall be dismissed from office against his or her will except in any of the following cases: <Amended on Jan. 27, 2010; Jun. 12, 2018>

1. Where he or she is sentenced to imprisonment without labor or a heavier punishment;
2. Where he or she becomes unable to perform his or her duties due to any chronic physical or mental infirmity;
3. Where he or she commits any misconduct in relation to his or her duties or is deemed unfit to be in office as a member of the Reexamination Committee due to a misconduct.

(9) The Reexamination Committee shall establish a secretariat. <Amended on Jan. 27, 2010>

(10) Matters necessary for the organization, operation, etc. of the Reexamination Committee shall be determined by Presidential Decree. <Amended on Jan. 27, 2010>

Article 108 (Exclusion of, Challenge to, or Recusal of, Members)

(1) Any member of the Reexamination Committee shall be excluded from participating in the hearing and ruling of a case if he or she falls under any of the following subparagraphs: <Amended on May 26, 2020>

1. Where a member or his or her spouse or former spouse is a party to the case, or a joint right holder or obligor regarding the case;
2. Where a member is or was a relative of a party to the case, who is prescribed in Article 777 of the Civil Act;
3. Where a member gives any testimony or makes an appraisal regarding the case;
4. Where a member is or was involved as an agent of a party to the case;
5. Where a member is involved in making a decision on insurance benefits, etc. which is the subject matter of the case.

(2) If any party finds it difficult to expect a fair hearing or ruling from a member, it may file an application to challenge such member.

(3) If any member falls under any ground as defined in paragraph (1) or (2), he or she may recuse himself or herself from the hearing and ruling of the case.

(4) Paragraphs (1) through (3) shall apply mutatis mutandis to employees, other than members, who are involved in clerical work concerning the hearing and ruling of a case.

Article 109 (Hearing and Ruling of Request for Reexamination)

(1) Article 105 (1) and (3) through (5) shall apply mutatis mutandis to the hearing and ruling of a request for reexamination. In such cases, "Service" shall be deemed "Reexamination Committee"; "request for examination filed after deliberation by the Examination Committee" shall be deemed "request for reexamination"; "decision" shall be deemed "ruling"; and "employee belonging to the Service" shall be deemed "member of the Reexamination Committee", respectively.

(2) A ruling by the Reexamination Committee shall be binding on the Service.

Article 110 (Succession to Status of Requester for Examination or Reexamination)

Where a requester for examination or reexamination dies, if he or she is a beneficiary of insurance benefits, his or her status shall be succeeded by his or her survivors as prescribed in Article 62 (1) or 81, and, if not, by his or her heirs or heiresses or a person who has succeeded to the right or interest related to the insurance benefits which are the subject matter of the request for examination or reexamination.

Article 111 (Relationship to Other Statutes)
(1) With respect to an interruption of prescription, the filing of a request for examination or reexamination as prescribed in Articles 103 and 106 shall be deemed a judicial claim as prescribed in Article 168 of the Civil Act.
(2) A ruling on a request for reexamination as prescribed in Article 106 shall be deemed, in applying
Article 18 of the Administrative Litigation Act, a ruling on an administrative appeal.
(3) Matters which are not provided by this Act, concerning requests for examination and reexamination as prescribed in Articles 103 and 106 shall be subject to the provisions of the Administrative Appeals Act.

CHAPTER VII SUPPLEMENTARY PROVISIONS

Article 111-2 (Prohibition of Disadvantage)
No business owner shall dismiss or otherwise disadvantageously treat any employee because the employee

The Service may pay a bounty, as prescribed by Ordinance of the Ministry of Employment and Labor, within the budget, to a person who reports another person who unjustly receives insurance benefits, medical expenses, or medicine expenses pursuant to Article 84 (1) and (3). <Amended on Jun. 4, 2010>

Article 120 (Temporary Suspension of Insurance Benefits)
(1) If a person who intends to receive insurance benefits falls under any of the following subparagraphs, the Service may temporarily suspend the payment of such insurance benefits: <Amended on May 20, 2010; May 26, 2020; Jan. 26, 2021>
1. Where an employee in the course of medical care fails, without good cause, to follow the order to transfer to another medical institution given by the Service pursuant to Article 48 (1);
2. Where a person fails to comply with a demand issued by the Service by virtue of its authority to redetermine his or her disability grade or pneumoconiosis grade pursuant to Article 59;
3. Where a person fails to make a report or submit documents or to report as prescribed in Article 114 or 115;
4. Where a person fails to respond to questions or investigations as prescribed in Article 117;
5. Where a person fails to comply with a demand for medical examination as prescribed in Article 119.

(2) The types of insurance benefits subject to temporary suspension referred to in paragraph (1) and the period and procedures of the temporary suspension shall be prescribed by Presidential Decree.

Article 121 (Special Cases concerning Overseas Business)
(1) With respect to any business in a country or area prescribed by a treaty or convention governing social security (hereinafter referred to as "social security-related treaty") to which Korea is a party, for the purposes of compensating an employee for any occupational accident that occurs during his or her overseas service period, a person designated by the Minister of Employment and Labor after consultation with the Financial Services Commission (hereinafter referred to as "insurance company") is allowed to conduct, on its own account, insurance business under this Act. <Amended on Feb. 29, 2008; Jan. 27, 2010; Jun. 4, 2010>

(2) Insurance companies shall conduct insurance business in accordance with a business method as prescribed by the Insurance Business Act. In such cases, no insurance benefits paid by insurance companies shall be unfavorable for employees, compared with insurance benefits under this Act.

(3) Insurance companies conducting insurance business under paragraph (1) shall faithfully conduct all the responsibilities to be borne by the Government under this Act and social security-related treaties for the sake of employees.

(4) Articles 2 and 3 (1), the proviso of Article 6, Articles 8 and 82 (1), and Chapters V and VI shall not apply to any overseas business under paragraph (1) and insurance business dealing with such business. <Amended on Jun. 12, 2018>

(5) In conducting insurance business under paragraph (1), insurance companies may exercise the authority of the Service under this Act.

Article 122 (Special Cases concerning Persons Dispatched Overseas)
(1) If any policyholder referred to in Article 5 (3) and (4) of the Insurance Premium Collection Act applies for an insurance policy to the Service and obtains approval therefrom for a person dispatched to work in a business run by the said policyholder in a territory (excluding any territory prescribed by Ordinance of the Ministry of Employment and Labor) other than the Republic of Korea (hereinafter referred to as "person dispatched overseas"), the person dispatched overseas may be deemed an employee employed for a business (where at least two businesses exist, this refers to the main business) within the territory of the Republic of Korea and thus be subject to this Act. <Amended on Jun. 4, 2010; May 26, 2020>

(2) The amount of wages, used as the basis for calculating insurance benefits of a person dispatched overseas shall be the amount determined and publicly notified by the Minister of Employment and Labor taking account of the amount of wages for employees employed in the same type of work in the relevant business and other conditions. <Amended on Jun. 4, 2010>

(3) Matters necessary for the payment, etc. of insurance benefits to persons dispatched overseas shall be determined by Ordinance of the Ministry of Employment and Labor. <Amended on Jun. 4, 2010>

(4) The Insurance Premium Collection Act shall apply to calculation of insurance premiums, applications and approvals for insurance policies, reporting and payment of insurance premiums, termination of insurance relationship, and other necessary matters for persons dispatched overseas subject to this Act under paragraph (1).

Article 123 (Special Cases concerning On-the-Job Trainees)

(1) Among students or vocational trainees receiving practical on-the-job training in a business subject to this Act (hereinafter referred to as "on-the-job trainees"), on-the-job trainees determined by the Minister of Employment and Labor shall be deemed employees employed for the business when applying this Act, notwithstanding subparagraph 2 of Article 5. <Amended on Jun. 4, 2010>

(2) Any accidents suffered by on-the-job trainees in relation to their training shall be deemed occupational accidents, and the on-the-job trainees shall be paid insurance benefits under Article 36 (1). <Amended on May 20, 2010>

(3) The amount of wages used as the basis for calculating insurance benefits of on-the-job trainees shall be all the money and valuables, such as training allowances, etc. paid to on-the-job trainees, but, if such application is deemed inappropriate for accident compensation for on-the-job trainees, may be the amount determined and publicly notified by the Minister of Employment and Labor. <Amended on Jun. 4, 2010>

(4) Matters necessary for the payment, etc. of insurance benefits to on-the-job trainees shall be prescribed by Presidential Decree.

(5) The Insurance Premium Collection Act shall be applied to matters relating to the calculation, reporting, payment, etc. of insurance premiums of on-the-job trainees.

Article 124 (Special Cases concerning Small and Medium Business Owners)

(1) Any small or medium business owner as prescribed by Presidential Decree (including persons who do not employ any employee; hereafter in this Article the same shall apply) may, after obtaining approval from the Service, purchase an insurance policy designating him or her or his or her survivors as the insured. <Amended on May 26, 2020; Dec. 8, 2020>

(2) Spouses of small and medium business owners referred to in paragraph (1) (including persons in a de facto marital relationship; hereafter in this Article, the same shall apply) or relatives of such owners within the fourth degree of relationship who meet the requirements prescribed by Presidential Decree and provide their labor for the relevant business may purchase an insurance policy, after obtaining approval from the Service. <Newly Inserted on Dec. 8, 2020>

(3) Small and medium business owners under paragraph (1), and their spouses or relatives within the fourth degree of relationship under paragraph (2) (hereafter in this Article referred to as "small and medium business owners, etc.") shall be deemed employees in applying this Act, notwithstanding subparagraph 2 of Article 5. <Newly Inserted on Dec. 8, 2020>

(4) The scope of occupational accidents that give rise to the payment of insurance benefits to small and medium business owners, etc. shall be prescribed by Presidential Decree. <Amended on Dec. 8, 2020>

(5) The average wage used as the basis for calculating insurance benefits paid to small and medium business owners, etc. shall be the amount determined and publicly notified by the Minister of Employment and Labor. <Amended on Jun. 4, 2010; Dec. 8, 2020>

(6) If any occupational accident referred to in paragraph (4) occurs while insurance premiums are overdue, all or part of the insurance benefits for such occupational accident may not be paid as prescribed by Presidential Decree. <Amended on Dec. 8, 2020>

(7) Matters necessary for the payment, etc. of insurance benefits to small and medium business owners, etc. shall be determined by Ordinance of the Ministry of Employment and Labor. <Amended on Jun. 4, 2010; Dec. 8, 2010>

(8) The Insurance Premium Collection Act shall be applied to calculation of insurance premiums, applications and approval for insurance policies, reporting and payment of insurance premiums, termination of insurance relationship, and other necessary matters for small and medium business owners, etc. subject to this Act. <Amended on Dec. 8, 2020>

Article 125 (Special Case concerning Persons in Special Types of Employment)

(1) Notwithstanding Article 6, the business which receives labor service, from persons who engage in jobs prescribed by Presidential Decree, among the persons who are not subject to the Labor Standards Act, etc., even though they offer labor service similar to that of employees regardless of the type of contract, and therefore need protection from occupational accidents, and who also meet all the following requirements (hereafter in this Article referred to as "persons in special types of employment"), shall be deemed business subject to this Act: <Amended on Jan. 27, 2010; May 26, 2020>

   1. They mainly provide one line of business with labor service necessary for the operation thereof on a routine basis, and receive payment for such service and live on such pay;
   2. They do not use other persons to provide such labor service.

(2) Notwithstanding subparagraph 2 of Article 5, persons in special types of employment shall be deemed employees of the business concerned in applying this Act: Provided, That where the persons in special types of employment request exclusion from the application of this Act pursuant to paragraph (4), they shall not be deemed such employees. <Amended on Jan. 27, 2010>
(3) Where a business owner begins or ceases to receive labor service from a person in special type of employment, the business owner shall report such to the Service as prescribed by Presidential Decree.

(4) If a person in special types of employment falls under any of the following grounds (hereinafter referred to as "grounds for exclusion from application"), the person in special types of employment or the relevant business owner may file a request for exclusion from application of this Act with the NHIS, as prescribed by the Insurance Premium Collection Act: <Amended on Jan. 5, 2021>

1. Where a person in special types of employment suspends his or her business for at least one month due to injury, disease, pregnancy, childbirth, or child care;
2. Where a worker in special types of employment suspends his or her business for one month or more for reasons attributable to the employer;
3. Other cases specified by Presidential Decree as equivalent to those referred to in subparagraph 1 or 2.

(5) If a person in special types of employment or a business owner has applied for exclusion from the application of this Act and the Corporation approves such exclusion pursuant to paragraph (4), this Act shall not apply from the date following the date of the application. <Amended on Jan. 5, 2021>”

(6) Where a person to whom this Act is not applicable pursuant to paragraphs (4) and (5) ceases to be subject to grounds for exclusion from application, this Act shall apply from the date the relevant grounds cease to exist. In such cases, the persons in special types of employment or the employer shall notify the Corporation of the disappearance of the grounds for exclusion from application as prescribed by the Insurance Premium Collection Act. <Amended on May 26, 2020; Jan. 5, 2021>

(7) The Insurance Premium Collection Act shall be applied to necessary matters, for the establishment, termination and change of insurance relationships, requests for exclusion from the application of this Act and notification of the disappearance of the grounds for such exclusion, the calculation, reporting and payment of insurance premiums, and the collection of insurance premiums and other charges, with respect to persons in special types of employment subject to this Act pursuant to paragraph (1). <Amended on Jan. 5, 2021>

(8) The amount of average wages, used as the basis for calculating insurance benefits for persons in special types of employment, shall be the amount publicly notified by the Minister of Employment and Labor. <Amended on Jun. 4, 2010>

(9) The criteria for recognizing occupational accidents that give rise to the payment of insurance benefits to persons in special types of employment, shall be prescribed by Presidential Decree.

(10) Where any occupational accident referred to in paragraph (9) occurs while insurance premiums are overdue, all or part of the insurance benefits for such occupational accident may not be paid as prescribed by Presidential Decree.

(11) Matters necessary for the payment, etc. of insurance benefits to persons in special types of employment, shall be prescribed by Ordinance of the Ministry of Employment and Labor. <Newly Inserted on Jan. 27, 2010; Jun. 4, 2010>
