Compilation, tabulation and publication of statistics

7. (1) The Department shall cause the statistics and other particulars collected pursuant to this Act to be compiled and tabulated, and shall cause such statistics and particulars, or abstracts thereof, or extracts therefrom, with or without observations thereon, to be published as the Minister shall either generally or specially direct.

(2) No report, Summary of statistics or other publication under this Act shall, without the previous consent in writing of the person or of the owner for the time being of the undertaking in relation to which a return or answer was made or given for the purposes of this Act, contain any of the particulars comprised in any individual return so arranged as to enable any person to identify any particulars so published as being particulars relating to any individual person or business.

Oaths

8. Every person employed in the execution of any duty under this Act or under any regulation, before entering on his duties, shall make and subscribe an oath or make an affirmation in the form set out in the Schedule hereto and such oath or affirmation shall be administered by the Magistrate or a Justice of the Peace.

Forms, etc.

9. Particulars to be collected under this Act, either at a census or at any other time, shall be obtained in such manner as may be prescribed, and it shall be the duty of the Statistician, subject to the directions of the Governor in Council, to prepare the schedules, forms or other documents required for the purpose.

Furnishing of information required in forms, etc.

10. Every person from whom particulars may lawfully be required pursuant to this Act or any regulation shall, to the best of his knowledge, when required to do so by the Statistician, fill up and supply, in accordance with the instructions contained in or accompanying or having reference to any schedule, form or other document, the particulars specified in that schedule, form or other document.

Leaving notice at home

11. The leaving by any person employed in the execution of a duty under this Act or under any regulation at any house or part of a house of any schedule, form or other document purporting to be issued under this Act or under any regulation and having thereon a notice requiring that it be filled up and signed within a stated time by the occupant of such house or part of a house, or in his absence by some other member of the family, shall, as against the occupant, be a sufficient requirement so to fill up and sign the schedule, form or other document, though the occupant is not named in the notice or personally served therewith.

Leaving notice at office, etc.

12. The leaving by any person employed in the execution of a duty under this Act or under any regulation at the office or other place of business of any person, partnership, firm, association or body corporate, or the delivery by registered letter to any person, partnership, firm, association or body corporate, or his or its agent, of any schedule, form or other document purporting to be issued under this Act or under any regulation and having therein a notice requiring that it be filled up and signed within a stated time, shall, as against the person, partnership, firm or association, the members thereof and each of them, or the body corporate, be a sufficient requirement so to fill up and sign the schedule, form or other document, and, if so required in the notice, to post the schedule, form or other document within a stated time to the Department.
