- “(a) the complainant or person aggrieved (if not the complainant) has not brought proceedings; and

 - “(iii) will undermine the urgent or interim nature of the proceedings.
- “(2) The Tribunal may, at any time before, during, or after the hearing of proceedings, refer a complaint under section 76(2)(a) back to the Commission if it appears to the Tribunal, from what is known to it about the complaint, that the complaint may yet be able to be resolved by the parties and the Commission (for example, by mediation).

- “(3) The Tribunal may, instead of exercising the power conferred by subsection (2), adjourn any proceedings relating to a complaint under section 76(2)(a) for a specified period if it appears to the Tribunal, from what is known about the complaint, that the complaint may yet be able to be resolved by the parties.

“Remedies

“92I Remedies

- “(1) This section is subject to sections 92J and 92K (which relate to the only remedy that may be granted by the Tribunal if it finds that an enactment is in breach of Part 1A).
- “(2) In proceedings before the Human Rights Review Tribunal brought under section 92B(1) or (4) or section 92E, the plaintiff may seek any of the remedies described in subsection (3) that the plaintiff thinks fit.
- “(3) If, in proceedings referred to in subsection (2), the Tribunal is satisfied on the balance of probabilities that the defendant has committed a breach of Part 1A or Part II or the terms of a settlement of a complaint, the Tribunal may grant 1 or more of the following remedies:
 - “(a) a declaration that the defendant has committed a breach of Part 1A or Part II or the terms of a settlement of a complaint:

“92J Remedy for enactments in breach of Part 1A

- “(1) If, in proceedings before the Human Rights Review Tribunal, the Tribunal finds that an enactment is in breach of Part 1A, the only remedy that the Tribunal may grant is the declaration referred to in subsection (2).
- “(2) The declaration that may be granted by the Tribunal, if subsection (1) applies, is a declaration that the enactment that is the subject of the finding is inconsistent with the right to freedom from discrimination affirmed by section 19 of the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990.

- “(3) The Tribunal may not grant a declaration under subsection (2) unless that decision has the support of all or a majority of the members of the Tribunal.
- “(4) Nothing in this section affects the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990.

“92K Effect of declaration

- “(1) A declaration under section 92J does not—

- “(b) has facilitated or obstructed that information-gathering process:
- “(c) has acted in a manner that facilitated the resolution of the issues that were the subject of the proceedings.

“Compare: 1977 No 49 s 38(7); 1983 No 56 s 12(4)

- “Compare: 1977 No 49 s 40(1)

“92N Directions as to payment of damages in certain cases

- “(1) If the plaintiff is an unmarried minor, the Tribunal may, in its discretion, direct the defendant to pay damages awarded under section 92M to the Public Trustee or to a person or trustee corporation acting as the manager of any property of the plaintiff.
- “(2) If the plaintiff is a mentally disordered person within the meaning of section 2(1) of the Mental Health (Compulsory Assessment and Treatment) Act 1992 whose property is not being managed under the Protection of Personal and Property Rights Act 1988, but who lacks, in the opinion of the Tribunal, the mental capacity to manage his or her own affairs in relation to his or her own property, the Tribunal may, in its discretion, direct the defendant to pay damages awarded under section 92M to the Public Trustee.

“(3) If the plaintiff is a person whose property is being managed under the Protection of Personal and Property Rights Act 1988, the Tribunal must ascertain whether the terms of the property order cover management of money received as damages and,—

“(a) if damages fall within the terms of the property order, the Tribunal must direct the defendant to pay damages awarded under section 92M to the person or trustee corporation acting as the property manager; or

“(b) if damages do not fall within the terms of the property order, the Tribunal may, in its discretion, direct the defendant to pay damages awarded under section 92M to the Public Trustee.

“(4) If money is paid to the Public Trustee under any of subsections (1) to (3),—

“(a) section 12 of the Minors’ Contracts Act 1969 applies in the case of an unmarried minor; and

“(b) subsections (4) and (6) to (9) of section 66 of the Public Trust Office Act 1957 apply, with all necessary modifications, in the case of a person referred to in subsection (2) or subsection (3).

“Compare: 1977 No 49 s 40; 1983 No 56 s 14(2)

“92O Tribunal may defer or modify remedies for breach of Part 1A or Part II or terms of settlement

“(1) If, in any proceedings under this Part, the Tribunal determines that an act or omission is in breach of Part 1A or Part II or the terms of a settlement of a complaint, it may, on the application of any party to the proceedings, take 1 or more of the actions stated in subsection (2).

“(2) The actions are,—

“(a) instead of, or as well as, awarding damages or granting any other remedy,—

“(i) to specify a period during which the defendant must remedy the breach; and

- “(ii) to adjourn the proceedings to a specified date to enable further consideration of the remedies or further remedies (if any) to be granted:
- “(b) to refuse to grant any remedy that has retrospective effect:
- “(c) to refuse to grant any remedy in respect of an act or omission that occurred before the bringing of proceedings or the date of the determination of the Tribunal or any other date specified by the Tribunal:
- “(d) to provide that any remedy granted has effect only prospectively or only from a date specified by the Tribunal:
- “(e) to provide that the retrospective effect of any remedy is limited in a way specified by the Tribunal.

“92P Matters to be taken into account in exercising powers given by section 92O

- “(1) In determining whether to take 1 or more of the actions referred to in section 92O, the Tribunal must take account of the following matters:
 - “(a) whether or not the defendant in the proceedings has acted in good faith:
 - “(b) whether or not the interests of any person or body not represented in the proceedings would be adversely affected if 1 or more of the actions referred to in section 92O is, or is not, taken:

 - “(f) the public interest generally:
 - “(g) any other matter that the Tribunal considers relevant.
- “(2) If the Tribunal finds that an act or omission is in breach of Part 1A or that an act or omission by a person or body referred to in section 3 of the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990 is in breach of Part II, in determining whether to take 1 or more of the actions referred to in section 92O, the Tribunal must, in addition to the matters specified in subsection (1), take account of—

- “(a) the requirements of fair public administration; and
- “(b) the obligation of the Government to balance competing demands for the expenditure of public money.

“Monetary limits on remedies Tribunal may grant

“92Q Monetary limits on remedies Tribunal may grant

- “(1) Proceedings under section 92B or section 92E may be brought before the Human Rights Review Tribunal irrespective of the amount of damages claimed or the value of the property in respect of which any remedy is sought.
- “(2) However, except as provided in sections 92R to 92V, the Tribunal must not award any damages or grant any remedy in any proceedings of that kind if the making of that award or the granting of that remedy would, because of the monetary limits contained in sections 29 to 34 of the District Courts Act 1947, be beyond the jurisdiction of a District Court.
- “(3) For the purposes of subsection (2), if civil proceedings under section 92B are brought on behalf of more than 1 complainant or, as the case may be, more than 1 aggrieved person, those proceedings must, for the purpose of applying any monetary limit under subsection (2), be treated as if each complainant or, as the case may be, each aggrieved person on whose behalf those proceedings are brought, were the plaintiff in a separate action against the defendant.

“Granting of remedies by High Court on reference from Tribunal

“92R Tribunal to refer granting of remedies to High Court

The Human Rights Review Tribunal must refer the granting of a remedy in any proceedings under section 92B or section 92E to the High Court if the Tribunal is satisfied on the balance of probabilities that a defendant in the proceedings has committed a breach of Part 1A or Part II or the terms of a settlement of a complaint, but that—

- “(a) the granting of the appropriate remedy under section 92I would be outside the limits imposed by section 92Q; or
- “(b) that the granting of a remedy in those proceedings would be better dealt with by the High Court.

“Compare: 1977 No 49 s 42(1)

“92S Further provisions on reference to High Court

- “(1) A reference under section 92R is made by sending, to the Registrar of the High Court nearest to where the proceedings were commenced, a report on the proceedings that—
 - “(a) sets out the Tribunal’s finding with regard to the breach of Part 1A or Part II or the terms of a settlement of a complaint; and
 - “(b) includes, or is accompanied by, a statement of the considerations to which the Tribunal has had regard in making the reference to that Court.
- “(2) A copy of the report must be given or sent promptly to every party to the proceedings.
- “(3) Except as provided in this Act, the procedure for a reference under section 92R is the same as the procedure prescribed by rules of court in respect of appeals, and those rules apply with all necessary modifications.

“Compare: 1977 No 49 s 42(4)-(6), (8)

“92T High Court decides remedies on reference from Tribunal

- “(1) This section applies where the granting of a remedy in any proceedings under section 92B or section 92E is referred to the High Court under section 92R.
- “(2) The High Court may direct the Tribunal to amplify any report made under section 92S(1).
- “(3) Every person who, under section 92S(2), is given or sent a copy of a report under section 92S(1) is entitled to be heard and to tender in the High Court evidence as to the remedy (if any) to be granted on the basis of the Tribunal’s finding that the defendant has committed a breach of Part 1A or Part II or the terms of a settlement of a complaint.

- “(4) However, no person referred to in subsection (3) may, on the reference under section 92R, challenge the finding of the Tribunal referred to in subsection (3).
- “(5) The High Court must decide, on the basis of the Tribunal’s finding that the defendant has committed a breach of Part 1A or Part II, whether 1 or more of the remedies set out in section 92I or the remedy set out in section 92J is to be granted.
- “Compare: 1977 No 49 s 42(2), (5), (6)

“92U High Court’s decision on remedies to be included in, and given effect to as part of, Tribunal’s determination

- “(1) Every decision of the High Court under section 92T(5)—
- “(a) must be remitted to the Tribunal for inclusion in its determination with regard to the proceedings; and
 - “(b) has effect as part of that determination despite the limits imposed by section 92Q.
- “(2) Nothing in subsection (1)—
- “(a) limits sections 123 to 125; or
 - “(b) prevents the making of an appeal in accordance with section 123 in respect of a determination of the Tribunal in which a decision of the High Court is included in accordance with subsection (1)(a).
- “Compare: 1977 No 49 s 42(3), (9)

“Abandonment or agreement to bring claim within Tribunal’s jurisdiction

“92V Abandonment to enable Tribunal to make award of damages

- “(1) This section applies where the Tribunal would have jurisdiction in any proceedings under section 92B or section 92E to make an award of damages in accordance with section 92M if the amount of the award were within the limit for the time being fixed by section 29(1) of the District Courts Act 1947 (as applied by section 92Q(2)).
- “(2) The Tribunal may make an award within that limit if the plaintiff abandons the excess.
- “(3) An award of damages in those proceedings in accordance with section 92M operates to discharge from liability in respect of the amount abandoned in that way any person against whom the proceedings are brought and the subsequent award is made.

“(4) This section overrides sections 92Q to 92U.

“Compare: 1977 No 49 s 43

“92W Extension of jurisdiction by agreement between parties

“(1) If, in any proceedings under section 92B or section 92E, only section 92Q prevents the Tribunal from granting any 1 or more of the remedies stated in section 92I, and the parties to the proceedings, by memorandum signed by them or their respective solicitors or agents, agree that the Tribunal is to have jurisdiction to grant any 1 or more of those remedies irrespective of section 92Q, the Tribunal has jurisdiction to grant 1 or more of those remedies accordingly.

“(2) This section overrides sections 92Q to 92U.
