(6) Only applications with complete supporting documents shall be processed.

8. Factors to be considered for grant of license

The Administration shall, in considering an application for a license, require to be satisfied as to—

- (a) the financial status and history of the applicant;
- (b) the competence and integrity of the proposed management;
- (c) the adequacy of the applicant's capital structure;
- (d) whether the directors, shareholders or employees have a criminal record;
and

(e) any other matter, which the Administration may regard as relevant to the application.

9. Processing of applications

The Administration shall, within thirty days after receipt of an application or of additional information or clarification, evaluate the pertinent documents, inspect the office premises of the applicant and prepare a detailed report of each application.

10. Grant of license

(1) The Administration may—

(a) if it is satisfied that the applicant complies with the requirements of these Regulations, grant a license to the applicant, on payment of a fee of five hundred thousand Uganda shillings and upon presentation of a bank guarantee of fifty million Uganda shillings;

(b) refuse to grant the license for reasons that shall be stated in the letter of refusal.

(2) The bank guarantee required in sub regulation (1) shall answer for all valid and legal claims arising from violations of the conditions for the grant and use of the license and to ensure compliance with the provisions of these Regulations or any other conditions that the Administration may lawfully impose.

(3) The license shall clearly indicate—

(a) the name and address of the recruitment agency; and

(b) any conditions attached to the license.

(4) An agency shall not engage in any other business other than the business specified in its license.

(5) The license shall be valid for two years from the date of issue unless earlier revoked or suspended.

(6) A person shall not transfer the license to any person, partnership or company.

(7) Any person aggrieved by a decision of the Administration under this regulation may, within thirty days after being notified of the decision, apply to the Minister for review of the decision.

11. Refusal of grant of license

The Administration shall not grant a licence—

(a) to a partnership or company that has been blacklisted by the Internal Security Organisation or the Administration as having a derogatory record;

(b) to a partnership whose partners or employees are suspected of or have been found guilty of carrying out illegal recruitment;

- (c) to a company whose shareholders, directors or employees are suspected of or have been found guilty of carrying out illegal recruitment; and
- (d) to a recruitment agency whose licence has been previously revoked by the Administration for contravention of these Regulations.

12. Effect of change of ownership

(1) A transfer or change of ownership in a recruitment agency may lead to revocation of the license, where the new owners have not been cleared by the Administration and the Criminal Investigation Department.

(2) A change in relationship of the partners in a partnership of a recruitment agency, which materially interrupts the course of the business, or results in the actual dissolution of the partnership, may lead to revocation of the license.

(3) Every appointment of agents or representatives of a licensed agency shall be subject to prior approval or authority of the Administration.

(4) The acknowledgement or approval shall be issued upon submission of or compliance with the following—

- (a) proposed appointment or power of attorney;
- (b) clearances of the representative or agent from the Criminal Investigation Department and Anti-illegal Recruitment Branch of the Administration; and
- (c) sworn or verified statement by the designating or appointing agency assuming full responsibility for all acts of the agent or representative done in connection with the recruitment and placement of Ugandan migrant workers.

(5) Every change in the composition of the board of directors of a company, appointment or termination of officers and personnel shall be registered with the Administration within thirty days from the date of such change.

(6) The agency shall be required to submit the minutes of proceedings duly certified by the Registrar of Companies in case of election of new members of the Board of Directors with their particulars and clearance by criminal investigation department.

(7) The Administration may deny the appointment of officers, employees or representatives who are directly involved in recruitment irregularities.

13. Renewal of license

(1) An agency shall submit an application for renewal of its license on or before the expiration of the license.

(2) The application shall be supported by the following documents—

- (a) renewed bank guarantee of fifty million Uganda shillings with a commercial bank to primarily answer for the valid and legal claims of recruited Ugandan migrant workers as a result of recruitment violations or money claims;

(b) audited financial statements for the past one year with verified corporate or individual tax returns;

(c) clearance from the Criminal Investigation Department and anti-illegal recruitment branch for all its employees and officers; and

(d) other requirements as may be imposed by the Administration.

(3) The Administration shall within thirty days from receipt of the application for renewal, undertake evaluation and inspection to determine the grant or denial of the application.

(4) The Administration shall only process applications submitted with complete supporting documents.

(5) Where the equity of the agency is below the minimum capitalisation requirement, it shall be given thirty days from release of the renewed license to submit proof of capital infusion.

(6) The Administration shall suspend a license until the agency has complied with the requirements in sub regulation (4).

(7) Any agency, which fails to file an application for renewal of license, may be allowed to renew within thirty days from expiry of the licence subject to the payment of a fine of two hundred thousand Uganda shillings.

(8) When the license holder has made timely and sufficient application for renewal, the existing license shall not expire until the application has been finally determined by the Administration.

(9) An application shall be considered sufficient if the applicant has complied with the requirements for renewal.

14. Publication of change of directors

Where there is a change in the membership of the board of directors or partners and appointment of new employees in an agency, the agency shall publish the changes at least once in a widely circulating local newspaper and proof of such publication shall be submitted to the Administration.

15. Notice of change of business address

(1) An agency shall give notice to the Administration of change of business address.

(2) The new office shall be subject to the regular ocular inspection procedures by duly authorised representatives of the Administration.

(3) A notice to the public of the new address shall be published in a widely circulating local newspaper.

16. Establishment of branches or extension offices

A recruitment agency shall not open or set up a branch or an extension office except with the approval of the Administration.

17. Monitoring compliance with conditions of license

The Administration shall monitor the compliance of agencies with their undertakings in connection with the issuance or renewal of the license.

18. Classification, ranking and incentives

(1) The Administration shall undertake the classification and ranking of agencies in recognition of their exemplary performance.

(2) The Administration shall issue guidelines for entitlement of agencies to schemes for incentives and rewards.

19. Grounds for suspension or revocation of license

(1) The Administration may, at any time suspend or revoke the license of a recruitment agency if it is satisfied that a recruitment agency—

- (a) has ceased to carry on business;
- (b) has changed ownership and the owners have not been cleared by the Administration or the Internal Security Organization;
- (c) has, in the opinion of the Administration contravened these Regulations in a manner which is serious or persistent;
- (d) has transferred its license to another partnership or company;
- (e) is charging, imposing or accepting directly or indirectly any amount of money, goods and services, or any fee or bond for any purpose whatsoever before employment is obtained for an applicant worker or where the fee charged is excessive or contrary to what is prescribed by the Administration;
- (f) is engaging in acts of misrepresentation, in relation to recruitment and placement of workers, such as publication or advertisement of deceptive notices or information or submission for processing of documents which are fraudulent or containing false information;
- (g) is inducing or attempting to induce an already employed worker to transfer from or leave his or her employment for another employment unless the transfer is designed to relieve the worker from oppressive terms and conditions of employment;
- (h) is influencing or attempting to influence any person or entity not to employ any worker who has applied for employment through his or her agency;

- (i) is obstructing or attempting to obstruct inspection by the Administration or its duly authorised representatives;
- (j) is substituting or altering employment contracts and other documents approved and verified by the Administration from the time of actual signing between parties up to the period of expiration of the same without the Administration's approval;
- (k) has failed to file reports as may be required by the Administration;
- (l) is unreasonably withholding or denying travel or other pertinent documents from workers for monetary consideration or reasons other than those under the Code and its implementation rules and regulations;
- (m) is engaging in recruitment activities in places other than those specified in the licence without prior approval from the Administration;
- (n) is appointing or designating agents, representatives or employees without prior approval from the Administration;
- (o) is falsifying or altering travel documents and deploying workers whose employment and travel documents were not processed by the Administration;
- (p) is publishing or causing the publication of overseas job vacancies in violation of the prescribed rules;
- (q) has failed to deploy workers within the prescribed period without valid reason;
- (r) is disregarding lawful orders, notices and other processes issued by the Administration;
- (s) is coercing workers to accept prejudicial arrangements in exchange for certain benefits that rightfully belong to the workers;
- (t) is withholding workers' salaries or remittances without justifiable reasons;
- (u) is violating these Regulations, other relevant laws and regulations, guidelines and other issuances on recruitment and placement of workers for overseas employment and the protection of their welfare; and
- (v) is violating the conditions of License;
- (w) is engaging in acts of misrepresentation for the purpose of securing a license or renewal of the licence;
- (x) is engaging in the recruitment or placement of workers in jobs harmful to public health or morality or to the dignity of the Republic of Uganda;
- (y) has incurred and accumulated three counts of suspension based on final and executory orders within the validity period of its license; and
- (z) is committing any other acts similar or analogous to the foregoing.

(6) The Administration shall not suspend or cancel the licence of a recruitment agency unless the Administration has given the recruitment agency an opportunity to be heard.

(7) Where a licence is suspended or cancelled, the Administration shall publish the suspension or cancellation in at least one widely circulating local newspaper.

20. Suspension of license pending investigation

(1) The license of a recruitment agency may, on notice, pending investigation and resolution of the recruitment violations be suspended where—

(a) there exists reasonable grounds to believe that the continued operation of the agency will lead to further exploitation of the worker recruited or adversely affect friendly relations with any country or otherwise prejudice national interest;

(b) there is a prima facie case for contravention of these Regulations or directives issued by the Administration.

21. Effect of orders of suspension or revocation of license

(1) An order of suspension or revocation shall result in the suspension or termination of all the activities of the recruitment agency.

(2) The Administration may solicit the assistance of other government institutions, agencies or offices to ensure that suspension or revocation orders are implemented.

22. Derogatory record

(1) The Administration shall on notice, suspend the issuance or renewal of a license of a recruitment agency if any derogatory record is found to exist against any or all the partners or directors.

(2) The appointment of any officer or employee of any licensed agency may be cancelled or revoked at any time with due notice to the agency concerned, whenever the said officer or employee is found to have any derogatory record.

PART III—INSPECTION

23. Inspection by Administration

(1) The Administration or any other person authorized by the Administration in writing shall, during working hours, with or without prior notice to the recruitment agency or applicant for the purpose of issuance of a license, inspect the premises of the recruitment agency or applicant.

(2) The Administration shall, in case of an already existing recruitment agency, and for the purpose of approving transfer of office or opening up of a branch office, inspect the premises of the applicant.

(3) The Administration shall, before any inspection is conducted, issue a notice stating the purpose and subject of inspection, which shall be presented to the applicant or recruitment agency.

24. Periodic or spot inspection

(1) The Administration shall subject all agencies to periodic inspection of premises or pre-departure orientation seminar venues to determine compliance with these Regulations.

(2) The Administration may upon receipt of a complaint or report of violation of these Regulations, conduct spot inspection of the premises of a recruitment agency.

25. Scope of inspection

The Administration or its authorized representative depending on the purpose of the inspection, may require the presentation of necessary documents, records and books of accounts of the agency and may examine the same.

26. Violations found in the course of inspection

(1) If during the course of inspection, the agency is found to have contravened these Regulations, it shall be a ground for the suspension or revocation of a licence or for the rejection of application for the issuance or renewal of license.

(2) A copy of the inspection report shall be endorsed to the appropriate unit for necessary action.

27. Powers of inspection

The Administration or person authorized in writing by the Administration to inspect premises of a recruitment agency may—

(a) give such directions as the inspecting officer may think necessary to ensure that recruitment agencies comply with the requirements of these Regulations; and

(b) carry out any other inspection as the Administration may require.

PART IV—FEES

28. Fees chargeable to principals

(1) A recruitment agency shall charge a principal fee to cover services rendered—

(a) in the recruitment and deployment of Ugandan migrant workers; and

(b) in the documentation and placement of Ugandan migrant workers.

29. Fess chargeable from workers

(1) A recruitment agency shall charge a Ugandan migrant worker nominal fee not exceeding fifty thousand Uganda shillings for recruitment and deployment services as administration costs.

(2) A recruitment agency may also charge a Ugandan migrant worker placement fees as may be prescribed by the Administration, to cover costs of placement and services such as trade or skill testing, medical examination, passport, visa, inoculation and notaries after placement.

(3) Placement fees shall be collected from a Ugandan migrant worker only after he or she has signed the employment contract and shall be covered by receipts clearly showing it.

PART V—ADVERTISEMENT

30. Advertisement for job vacancies

(1) A recruitment agency may advertise for job vacancies with prior approval from the Administration.

(2) The advertisements shall indicate the following information—

- (a) name, address and license number of the agency;
- (b) level of competence, skill and knowledge categories and qualification standards;
- (c) number of available positions; and
- (d) name and accreditation number of the foreign principal and work site.

31. Advertisement for manpower pooling

(1) A recruitment agency may advertise for manpower pooling without prior approval from the Administration.

(2) The recruitment agency shall indicate that the announcement is for manpower pooling.

32. Advertisement for manpower pooling by agencies

(1) A recruitment agency desiring to generate qualified applicants for additional manpower requirements, not covered by duly approved job order by the Administration may advertise only for highly skilled recruitment categories and manpower upon prior approval of Administration.

(2) The advertisement shall indicate that the announcement is for manpower pooling only and that fees shall not be collected from the applicants.

(3) The following shall be reflected in the advertisements—

- (a) name, address and license number of the agency;
- (b) work site of prospective principal or project; and
- (c) skill categories and qualification standards.

33. Press release on recruitment

(1) For purposes of these Regulations, press and media releases, whether on print, radio or television negotiations with firms involving overseas job openings, shall be considered as advertisement, and shall therefore be subject to monitoring and regulation.

(2) Subsequent publication of a previously approved advertisement or a portion of the advertisement, in another form of media release shall not require another approval provided that the publication is undertaken within a period of one month from the date of approval by the Administration.

34. Foreign advertisers for overseas job vacancies

A foreign principal or employer who wishes to advertise job vacancies in Uganda using media, broadcast or television may do so only through an agency licensed by Administration or directly through the Administration.

35. Application for Accreditation

An application for accreditation of a principal shall only be done by a duly licensed recruitment agency.

36. Requirements for accreditation

(1) A recruitment agency applying for accreditation of its principal shall submit to the Administration the following information—

- (a) standard or master employment contract;
- (b) special power of attorney or service agreement;
- (c) manpower request from a foreign principal indicating skills, wages and the number of workers required; and
- (d) other documents which the Administration may find necessary.

(2) The Administration shall, before verification or authentication of documents for accreditation of a principal require the following—

- (a) verification of documents at the site of employment undertaken by the Labour Attaché or the Assistant Labour Attaché or by the official at the Ugandan Embassy or the Ugandan foreign representative in the absence of a Ugandan Mission;
- (b) authentication of documents at the site of employment undertaken by the appropriate official of any of the designated Ministry or office of the host country; and
- (c) signing of basic documents by authorized officials of both the hiring company and its affiliate in the presence of any member of the Administration or its duly authorized representative.

37. Parties to agreement

Accreditation may be granted only when the principal and the applicant or recruitment agency are the parties to the accreditation agreement.

38. Accreditation of a foreign principal

(1) A foreign principal shall be accredited to only one agency.

(2) A foreign placement agency may be accredited as principal if it is authorized to operate as such in its country.

39. Transfer of accreditation

(1) A principal may transfer its accreditation to another agency provided that transfer shall not involve any wages and benefits of workers.

(2) The transferee agency shall comply with the requirements of accreditation and shall assume full responsibility for all obligations of the principal to its workers originally recruited and processed by the former agency.

(3) The previous principal shall notify the Administration prior to the transfer of accreditation.

40. Approval and validity of accreditation

(1) The Administration shall issue to the agency an accreditation certificate for its principal after approval of the accreditation.

(2) The accreditation shall be valid for a maximum period of two years from the date of issuance and may be renewed.

(3) Provisional accreditation may be granted for ninety days for a principal or a project that meets the accreditation requirements substantially.

41. Revocation of accreditationThe accreditation of a principal may be revoked by the Administration on any of the following grounds—

(a) upon request or notification by the principal;

(b) upon request of the agency;

(c) false documentation or misinterpretation in connection with the application for accreditation; or

(d) contravention of these Regulations;

(e) upon airing and publishing of false and deceptive advertisements by the recruitment agency; and

(f) advertisements not published in accordance with guidelines issued by the Administration.

42. Blacklisting of persons

The Administration shall blacklist employers, principals and contracting partners including natural persons who are found violating any contractual obligations to workers, agencies and the rules and regulations on overseas employment programmes.

PART VII—DOCUMENTARY PROCESSING

43. Recruitment order

A recruitment agency, which has selected workers for accredited principals, shall, as a pre-requisite for contract processing with the Administration, submit for approval a recruitment order in the prescribed form, which shall indicate inter-alia, the wages and salaries of selected migrant workers.

44. Documentary processing

(1) A recruitment agency shall commence processing of documents upon presentation of the approved recruitment order together with the copy of the contract signed by the worker and employer.

(2) The Administration may impose such other processing requirements as may be necessary.

45. Payment of processing fees

A recruitment agency shall pay processing fees immediately after approval of the recruitment order and the employment contract and all payments shall be acknowledged by official receipts.

46. Agency manpower pool

(1) An agency may establish its own manpower pool in support of its marketing programme provided fees shall be charged to the worker for membership to the manpower pool.

(2) The agency shall establish a manpower registry.

47. Disqualification from manpower pool

A person may be disqualified from the manpower registry on the following grounds—

(a) submission of forged documents;

(b) breach of the code of discipline for Ugandan migrant workers;

(c) altering documents issued by the Administration such as registration card, history cards and other forms used in registration, and

(d) any other grounds that may be determined by the Administration.

48. Failure of agency to deploy a worker

Where an agency fails to deploy a worker within a period of one hundred twenty days following receipt of the recruitment order without valid reasons, such failure shall be a cause for suspension or cancellation of license and the agency shall return all documents at no cost to the worker.

49. One-stop processing center

The Administration shall act as a one-stop processing centre to provide expeditious clearing system for migrant workers and facilitate their deployment abroad.

50. Suspension of documentary processing
