

Presidential Decree 147 / 1990

Presidential Decree 147/1990 on the Determination of the Number of Mediators-Arbitrators

THE PRESIDENT OF THE HELLENIC REPUBLIC

Having regard to:

1. the provisions of Article 17 of Law 1876/1990 "Free Collective Bargaining and Other Provisions"; and
2. opinion No. 1094/1991 of the Supreme Administrative Court, on a proposal by the Ministry of Labour, we hereby decide:

Article 1 - Number of Mediators-Arbitrators

1. The maximum number of full-time or part-time posts of Mediators for Greece as a whole shall be 50, 20 of which may also be arbitrator posts. The BofD of OMED shall decide, at its discretion, how many of these posts of mediators-arbitrators shall be filled in the first tender, as well as their geographical distribution. The BofD of OMED may also decide to fill other posts of mediators, if required, by a later tender.
2. The BofD of OMED shall prepare, after choosing among the candidates, a special list of mediators and a special list of arbitrators. Those chosen as arbitrators may also be included in the special list of mediators. Discharge of both mediator's and arbitrator's duties by one and the same person in the same case shall be prohibited.

Article 2 -Selection of Mediators-Arbitrators

Mediators shall be chosen following a public tender. The BofD of OMED shall decide on the contents and the way of publication of the relevant notice. The BofD shall study the candidates' files, invite those that, in its opinion, have the qualifications required and choose the best ones, in its opinion, taking into account the additional qualifications specified in the regulation of hiring, evaluation and disciplinary penalties of mediators and arbitrators.

Article 3

Mediators-Arbitrators shall be hired after signing a freelance contract with OMED. The BofD of OMED shall decide on the contents, terms and conditions of the freelance contract (contract of independent services). The Minister of Labour is ordered to promulgate and enforce this decree.

Athens, 12 April 1991
