NI17A - A guide to Maternity Benefits (April 2011)

Contents

- Terminology
- About this guide
  - This guide and the law
- Introduction to maternity benefits
- Statutory Maternity Pay (SMP)
  - Introduction
  - Eligibility
  - Reasons for not getting SMP
  - How to get SMP
  - When SMP is paid
  - SMP amount
  - How SMP is paid
  - When SMP ends
  - Working in your Maternity Pay Period
  - What to do if your employer says you should not get SMP
  - Occupational Maternity Pay
  - Premature births
  - Twins or multiple births
  - Stillbirths
  - Mariners and continental shelf workers
  - Effect of SMP on other benefits
  - If your employer cannot pay
  - Unfair dismissal on maternity-related grounds and protection against sex discrimination
  - If you need more money
- If you think your employer’s decision is wrong
- Resuming work
- Extra help through tax credits
- National Insurance credits while you are getting SMP

- Maternity Allowance (MA)
  - Introduction
  - Eligibility
  - Rates of MA
  - Reasons for not getting MA
  - How to claim MA
  - When MA is paid
  - How MA is paid
  - Changes you must tell us about
  - Effect of MA on other benefits
  - How other benefits and payments affect MA
  - Extra help through tax credits
  - NI credits while you are getting MA
  - If you are going abroad or have been abroad
  - Appeals

- If you cannot get SMP or MA
  - Employment and Support Allowance
  - Jobseeker’s Allowance
  - Income Support
  - Sure Start Maternity Grant
  - NI credits

- Further information
  - Rates of benefits
- Acts, Regulations and detailed information