CHAPTER 274

EMPLOYMENT OF YOUNG PERSONS AND CHILDREN
An Act to regulate the employment of young persons, and children; and to provide for matters incidental thereto.
PART I
PRELIMINARY

1. This Act may be cited as the Employment of Young Persons and Children Act. Short title

2. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires- Interpretation

"child" means a person under the age of fourteen years;

"night" means a period of at least eleven consecutive hours, including the interval between ten o'clock in the evening and five o'clock in the morning;

"young person" means a person who has ceased to be a child and who is under the age of eighteen years.

PART II
EMPLOYMENT OF CHILDREN

3. For the purposes of this Part, "industrial undertaking" includes particularly-

(a) mines, quarries and other works for the extraction of minerals from the earth;
(b) industries in which articles are manufactured, altered, cleaned, repaired, ornamented, finished, adapted for sale, broken up or demolished, or in which materials are transformed, including shipbuilding, and the generation, transformation and transmission of electricity or motive power of any kind;
(c) construction, reconstruction, maintenance, repair, alteration or demolition of any building, railway, tramway, harbour, dock, pier, canal, inland waterway, road, tunnel, bridge, viaduct, sewer, drain, well, telegraphic or telephonic installation, electrical undertaking, gaswork, waterwork or other work of construction, as well as the preparation for or laying the foundations of any such work or structure;
(d) transport of passengers or goods by road or rail or inland waterway, including the handling of goods at docks, quays, wharves, and warehouses, but excluding transport by hand;
(e) cordwood cutting;
but does not include commercial or agricultural undertakings.
(As amended by Act No. 49 of 1950) Definition of “industrial undertaking” for the purposes of Part II

4. (1) No child shall be employed in any public or private industrial undertaking or in any branch thereof, other than an undertaking in which only members of the same family are employed. Prohibition of employment of children in industrial undertakings

(2) The provisions of this section shall not apply to work done by children in technical schools or similar institutions, provided that such work is approved and supervised by the Permanent Secretary, Ministry of Education, or some person appointed by him for that purpose.

5. Every person who contravenes the provisions of this Part shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction thereof to a fine of six hundred penalty units or to imprisonment for three months, or to both.
(As amended by Act No. 13 of 1994) Penalties

PART III
EMPLOYMENT OF YOUNG PERSONS

6. For the purposes of this Part, "industrial undertaking" includes particularly-
(a) mines, quarries and other works for the extraction of minerals from the earth;
(b) industries in which articles are manufactured, altered, cleaned, repaired, ornamented, finished, adapted for sale, broken up or demolished, or in which materials are transformed, including shipbuilding, and the generation, transformation and transmission of electricity or motive power of any kind;
(c) construction, reconstruction, maintenance, repair, alteration or demolition of any building, railway, tramway, harbour, dock, pier, canal, inland waterway, road, tunnel, bridge, viaduct, sewer, drain, well, telegraphic or telephonic installation, electrical undertaking, gaswork, waterwork or other work of construction, as well as the preparation for or laying the foundations of any such work or structure;
(d) transport of passengers or goods by road or rail or inland waterway, including the handling of goods at docks, quays, wharves, and warehouses, but excluding transport by hand;
(e) cordwood cutting;
but does not include commercial or agricultural undertakings.
(As amended by Act No. 49 of 1950) Definition of "industrial undertaking" for the purposes of Part III

7. (1) No person shall employ a young person under the age of sixteen years in an industrial undertaking, other than an undertaking in which only members of the same family are employed, unless such young person is either

(a) employed under a contract of apprenticeship entered into under the Apprenticeship Act; or

(b) in possession of a certificate signed by a Labour Officer authorising such employment.

(2) Every employer in an industrial undertaking shall keep a register of all persons under the age of sixteen years employed by him, and of the dates of their births, and shall produce the same for inspection when required to do so by a Labour Officer or police officer of or above the rank of Assistant Inspector.

8. No young person shall be employed at night in any industrial undertaking or in any branch thereof, other than an undertaking in which only members of the same family are employed. Prohibition of employment of young persons in night work

9. The last preceding section shall not be deemed to prohibit persons over the age of sixteen years being employed during the night in the following industrial undertakings or work which, by reason of the nature of the process, is required to be carried on continuously day and night:
(a) manufacture of iron and steel: processes in which reverberatory or regenerative furnaces are used, and galvanising of sheet metal or wire (except the pickling process);
(b) glass works;
(c) manufacture of paper;
(d) manufacture of raw sugar;
(e) gold mining reduction work. Exception in favour of certain undertakings

10. The provisions of section eight shall not apply to night work of young persons between the ages of sixteen and eighteen years in cases of emergency which could not have been controlled or foreseen, which are not of a periodical character and which interfere with the normal working of the industrial undertaking. Exception in cases of emergency

11. Every person who contravenes the provisions of this Part shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction thereof to a fine of six hundred penalty units or to imprisonment for three months, or to both.
(As amended by Act No. 13 of 1994) Penalties

PART IV-REPEALED BY ACT NO. 4 OF 1991
EMPLOYMENT OF WOMEN

PART V
MISCELLANEOUS
17A. (1) Notwithstanding anything in this Act, but subject to subsection (3), a young person shall not be employed on any type of employment or work which, by its nature or the circumstances in which it is carried out, is likely to jeopardise the health, safety or morals of that young person. Prohibition of employment of young persons in employment or work detrimental to health, safety and morals

(2) The types of employment to which sub-section (3) relates shall be prescribed by the Minister by regulations made under section twenty after consultation with the relevant trade unions and the employers' associations.

(3) Notwithstanding sub-sections (1) and (2), the Minister may, in writing, after consultation with the relevant trade unions and employers' associations, authorise the employment of young persons not below the age of sixteen years of age in any type of employment or work prescribed under subsection (2), if satisfied that the health, safety and morals of the young persons are fully protected and that the young persons have received adequate and specific instruction or vocational training in the relevant branch of activity.
(As amended by Act No. 14 of 1989)

18. Any Labour Officer and any police officer of or above the rank of Assistant Inspector shall have power-
(a) at all reasonable times to enter upon any land or premises of any industrial undertaking affected by the provisions of this Act;
(b) to examine, either alone or in the presence of any other person as he thinks fit, with respect to any matter under this Act any person affected by the provisions of this Act;
(c) to exercise such other powers as may be necessary for carrying this Act into effect.
(As amended by Act No. 49 of 1950, 47 of 1963 and G.N. 499 of 1964) Powers of Labour Officers and police officers

19. If any person wilfully hinders or molests any police officer in the exercise of the powers given to him by the last preceding section, he shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding six hundred penalty units.
(As amended by Act No. 13 of 1994) Penalty

20. The Minister may, by statutory instrument, make regulations for all or any of the purposes following:
(a) prescribing the ages under which young persons shall not be employed in particular trades or occupations;
(b) generally for carrying into effect the purposes and provisions of this Act.
(As amended by G.N. No. 233 of 1964 and 36 of 1967) Regulations
