Section 16A

16A Seasonal work definitions

Definitions

- (1) In this Act, unless the contrary intention appears:

relevant AWOTE, in relation to a calendar year, means the amount that, under the heading “Trend Estimates” in the document entitled “Average Weekly Earnings, States and Australia” last published by the Australian Bureau of Statistics before 1 January in that year, is specified as being the full-time adult ordinary time earnings for Australia for the quarter to which the document relates.

seasonal work means:

- (a) work that, because of its nature or of factors peculiar to the industry in which it is performed, is available, at approximately the same time or times every year, for part or parts only of the year; or
- (aa) work:
 - (i) that is intermittent; and
 - (ii) that is to be performed for a period of less than 12 months; and
 - (iii) that is to be performed for a specified period or a period that can reasonably be calculated by reference to the completion of a specified task; and
 - (iv) for which the person performing the work does not accrue leave entitlements; or
- (b) work that is intermittent and is determined, under subsection (2), to be seasonal work for the purposes of this Act.

Examples: Examples of work described in paragraph (a) are fishing, fruit picking, shearing and work in an industry that is subject to Christmas shutdowns. Examples of work that is intermittent are relief teaching and work as a locum.

seasonal work income means gross income from seasonal work less amounts necessarily expended in relation to that seasonal work that the person can demonstrate are allowable deductions for the purposes of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 or the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997, as the case may be.

seasonal work preclusion period has the meaning given by subsections (3) and (4).

subject to a seasonal work preclusion period has the meaning given by subsection (11).

- (1A) Paragraph (aa) of the definition of seasonal work in subsection (1) does not apply to a person undertaking seasonal work if the person was receiving income support payments (whether or not the kind of payment received has changed over the period and whether any part of it occurred before or after the commencement of this section) in respect of a continuous period exceeding 12 months immediately before the person commenced the seasonal work.

Secretary's determination—seasonal work

- (2) The Secretary may, by legislative instrument, determine that a specified kind of work that is intermittent is seasonal work for the purposes of this Act.

Seasonal work preclusion periods

- (3) If:
- (a) a person is not a member of a couple; and
 - (b) the person has made a claim for newstart allowance, widow allowance, mature age allowance under Part 2.12B, youth allowance, special benefit, parenting payment, disability support pension, sickness allowance, carer payment or austudy payment; and
 - (c) the person was engaged in seasonal work at any time during the 6 months immediately before the day on which the person lodged the claim;

the person's seasonal work preclusion period in relation to the claim is the period consisting of the number of weeks worked out under subsection (5) that starts on the day on which the claim was lodged.

- (4) If:
- (a) a person is a member of a couple; and
 - (b) the person has made a claim for newstart allowance, mature age allowance under Part 2.12B, partner allowance, parenting payment, youth allowance, special benefit, disability support pension, sickness allowance, carer payment or austudy payment; and

Section 16A

- (c) the person, or the person's partner, or both, were engaged in seasonal work at any time during the 6 months immediately before the day on which the person lodged the claim;
the person's seasonal work preclusion period in relation to the claim is the period consisting of the number of weeks worked out under subsection (6), (7) or (8) that starts on the day on which the claim was lodged.
- (5) If the person is not a member of a couple, the number of weeks in the person's seasonal work preclusion period is worked out as follows:

Method statement

- Step 1. Identify each period of continuous seasonal work by the person that ended during the 6 months immediately before the day on which the claim was lodged. If the person has performed seasonal work during 2 periods that are less than 14 days apart, the periods of work and the intervening period are taken to be one continuous period during which the person has performed seasonal work.
- Step 2. If a period identified in Step 1 has already been taken into account when working out a seasonal work preclusion period in relation to a previous claim by the person (whether for the same or a different allowance or payment), disregard the period. Each remaining period is called a relevant period of seasonal work.
- Step 3. Work out the amount of seasonal work income earned by the person during each of the person's relevant periods of seasonal work, disregarding any income by way of a lump sum that was earned during that period but was not paid to the person before the day on which the claim was lodged.
- Step 4. Add together the amounts worked out in Step 3. The result is called the person's seasonal work earnings.

- Step 5. Divide the person's seasonal work earnings by the amount of the relevant AWOTE for the calendar year in which the claim was lodged. The result is called the person's AWOTE weeks and represents the number of weeks (including any part of a week) that a person paid at a rate equal to the relevant AWOTE for that calendar year would have to work to earn an amount equal to the person's seasonal work earnings.
- Step 6. Work out the number of weeks in the person's relevant periods of seasonal work by dividing the total number of days included in those periods by 7. The result (including any part of a week) is called the person's seasonal work weeks.
- Step 6A. If there is a period between one relevant period of seasonal work and another, or between a relevant period of seasonal work and the day on which the claim was lodged, work out the number of weeks in the period (the intervening period). This is done by dividing the total number of days in the intervening period by 7.
- Step 6B. If there is more than one intervening period, add together the number of weeks worked out for each intervening period. The result (including any part of a week) is called the person's intervening weeks.
- Step 6C. Add together the number of seasonal work weeks worked out under Step 6 and the number of intervening weeks (if any) worked out under Step 6B. The result (including any part of a week) is called the person's self-supported weeks.
- Step 7. Subtract the person's self-supported weeks from the person's AWOTE weeks. The result (rounded down, if necessary, to the nearest whole number) is the number of weeks in the person's seasonal work preclusion period. If the result is a negative number, the number of weeks in the period is taken to be nil.

Note 1: For relevant AWOTE see subsection (1).

Note 2: For seasonal work see subsection (1).

Section 16A

Note 3: For seasonal work income see subsection (1).

(6) If:

- (a) the person is a member of a couple; and
- (b) the person was engaged in seasonal work at any time during the 6 months immediately before the day on which the person lodged the claim (the relevant period); and
- (c) the person's partner was not engaged in seasonal work at any time during the relevant period;

the number of weeks in the person's seasonal work preclusion period is worked out as follows:

Method statement

- Step 1. Identify each period of continuous seasonal work by the person that ended during the 6 months immediately before the day on which the claim was lodged. If the person has performed seasonal work during 2 periods that are less than 14 days apart, the periods of work and the intervening period are taken to be one continuous period during which the person has performed seasonal work.
- Step 2. If a period identified in Step 1 has already been taken into account when working out a seasonal work preclusion period in relation to a previous claim by the person (whether for the same or a different allowance or payment), disregard the period. Each remaining period is called a relevant period of seasonal work.
- Step 3. Work out the amount of seasonal work income earned by the person during each of the person's relevant periods of seasonal work, disregarding any income by way of a lump sum that was earned during that period but was not paid to the person before the day on which the claim was lodged.
- Step 4. Add together the amounts worked out in Step 3. The result is called the person's seasonal work earnings.

- Step 5. Work out the total amount of income from personal exertion earned by the person's partner during the person's relevant periods of seasonal work. Add the amount obtained to the person's seasonal work earnings. The result is called the couple's combined earnings.
- Step 6. Divide the couple's combined earnings by twice the amount of the relevant AWOTE for the calendar year in which the claim was lodged. The result is called the couple's AWOTE weeks and represents the number of weeks (including any part of a week) that 2 persons, each paid at a rate equal to the relevant AWOTE for that calendar year, would have to work to earn together an amount equal to the couple's combined earnings.
- Step 7. Work out the number of weeks in the person's relevant periods of seasonal work by dividing the total number of days included in those periods by 7. The result (including any part of a week) is called the person's seasonal work weeks.
- Step 7A. If there is a period between one relevant period of seasonal work and another, or between a relevant period of seasonal work and the day on which the claim was lodged, work out the number of weeks in the period (the intervening period). This is done by dividing the total number of days in the intervening period by 7.
- Step 7B. If there is more than one intervening period, add together the number of weeks worked out for each intervening period. The result (including any part of a week) is called the person's intervening weeks.
- Step 7C. Add together the number of seasonal work weeks worked out under Step 7 and the number of intervening weeks (if any) worked out under Step 7B. The result (including any part of a week) is called the person's self-supported weeks.

Section 16A

Step 8. Subtract the person's self-supported weeks from the couple's AWOTE weeks. The result (rounded down, if necessary, to the nearest whole number) is the number of weeks in the person's seasonal work preclusion period. If the result is a negative number, the number of weeks in the period is taken to be nil.

Note 1: For relevant AWOTE see subsection (1).

Note 2: For seasonal work see subsection (1).

Note 3: For seasonal work income see subsection (1).

(7) If:

- (a) the person is a member of a couple; and
- (b) the person was not engaged in seasonal work at any time during the 6 months immediately before the day on which the person lodged the claim (the relevant period); and
- (c) the person's partner was engaged in seasonal work at any time during the relevant period;

the number of weeks in the person's seasonal work preclusion period is worked out as follows:

Method statement

Step 1. Identify each period of continuous seasonal work by the partner that ended during the 6 months immediately before the day on which the claim was lodged. If the partner has performed seasonal work during 2 periods that are less than 14 days apart, the periods of work and the intervening period are taken to be one continuous period during which the partner has performed seasonal work.

Step 2. If a period identified in Step 1 has already been taken into account when working out a seasonal work preclusion period in relation to a previous claim by the person (whether for the same or a different allowance or payment), disregard the period. Each remaining period is called a relevant period of seasonal work.

- Step 3. Work out the total amount of income from personal exertion earned by the person during the partner's relevant periods of seasonal work. The result is called the person's earnings.
- Step 4. Work out the amount of seasonal work income earned by the partner during each of the partner's relevant periods of seasonal work, disregarding any income by way of a lump sum that was earned during that period but was not paid to the partner before the day on which the claim was lodged.
- Step 5. Add together the amounts worked out in Step 4. The result is called the partner's seasonal work earnings.
- Step 6. Add the partner's seasonal work earnings and the person's earnings. The result is called the couple's combined earnings.
- Step 7. Divide the couple's combined earnings by twice the amount of the relevant AWOTE for the calendar year in which the claim was lodged. The result is called the couple's AWOTE weeks and represents the number of weeks (including any part of a week) that 2 persons, each paid at a rate equal to the relevant AWOTE for that calendar year, would have to work to earn together an amount equal to the couple's combined earnings.
- Step 8. Work out the number of weeks in the partner's relevant periods of seasonal work by dividing the total number of days included in those periods by 7. The result (including any part of a week) is called the partner's seasonal work weeks.
- Step 8A. If there is a period between one relevant period of seasonal work and another, or between a relevant period of seasonal work and the day on which the claim was lodged, work out the number of weeks in the period (the intervening period). This is done by dividing the total number of days in the intervening period by 7.

Step 8B. If there is more than one intervening period, add together the number of weeks worked out for each intervening period. The result (including any part of a week) is called the partner's intervening weeks.

Step 8C. Add together the number of seasonal work weeks worked out under Step 8 and the number of intervening weeks (if any) worked out under Step 8B. The result (including any part of a week) is called the partner's self-supported weeks.

Step 9. Subtract the partner's self-supported weeks from the couple's AWOTE weeks. The result (rounded down, if necessary, to the nearest whole number) is the number of weeks in the person's seasonal work preclusion period. If the result is a negative number, the number of weeks in the period is taken to be nil.

Note 1: For relevant AWOTE see subsection (1).

Note 2: For seasonal work see subsection (1).

Note 3: For seasonal work income see subsection (1).

(8) If:

- (a) the person is a member of a couple; and
- (b) both the person and the person's partner have engaged in seasonal work during the 6 months immediately before the day on which the claim was lodged;

the number of weeks in the person's seasonal work preclusion period is worked out as follows:

Method statement

Step 1. Work out what would be the number of weeks in the person's seasonal work preclusion period if subsection (6) applied to the person.

Step 2. Work out what would be the number of weeks in the person's seasonal work preclusion period if subsection (7) applied to the person.

Step 3. Compare the number of weeks in each period. The number of weeks in the person's seasonal work preclusion period is equal to the number of weeks in the longer of the 2 periods.

Subject to a seasonal work preclusion period

- (11) If a person's seasonal work preclusion period in relation to a claim consists of a number of weeks that is greater than nil, then, except as otherwise provided under this Act, the person is subject to that period for the purposes of this Act.

 - (ii) no training activity is likely (because of the impairment) to enable the person to do 30 hours per week of work independently of a program of support within the next 2 years.
- (2) A person is treated as doing work independently of a program of support if the Secretary is satisfied that to do the work the person:
- (a) is unlikely to need a program of support that:
 - (i) is designed to assist the person to prepare for, find or maintain work; and

- (1) The object of this section is to treat a person in certain circumstances as having received an income support payment in respect of a continuous period even though the person did not actually receive such a payment during a part or parts of the period.
- (2) A continuous period in respect of which a person has received income support payments can only start on a day on which the person is receiving such a payment and can only end on a day when the person is receiving such a payment, and the following provisions of this section have effect subject to this section.

- (3) Subject to subsection (4), in determining the continuous period in respect of which a person has received income support payments, any period of not longer than 6 weeks in respect of which the person did not receive an income support payment is taken to have been a period in respect of which the person received such a payment.
- (4) If a person is taken, because of subsection (3), to have received income support payments in respect of a continuous period of at least 12 months, then, in determining, as at a time after the end of that period of 12 months, the continuous period in respect of which the person has received income support payments, any period of not longer than 13 weeks in respect of which the person did not receive an income support payment is taken to have been a period in respect of which the person received such a payment.
- (5) In determining for the purposes of subsection (4) the length of a period in respect of which a person did not receive an income support payment, any part of the period that occurred immediately before the end of the period of 12 months referred to in that subsection is to be taken into account.

EXAMPLE OF APPLICATION OF SUBSECTION (5)

Facts:

John receives an income support payment for 48 weeks. He is then employed for 14 weeks. After the 14 weeks he again begins to receive an income support payment. How does his break in payments affect the calculation of his continuous period of receipt of income support payments?

Application:

At the end of the first 4 weeks of John's employment he may be taken, under subsection 38B(3), to have received income support payments for a continuous period of 12 months because no longer than 6 weeks have elapsed since he actually received such a payment.

Therefore, as John may be taken to have accrued 12 months continuous receipt of income support payments, he may have a period, under subsection 38B(4), of not longer than 13 weeks without income support payments and still be taken to be in continuous receipt.

However, under subsection 38B(5), the period of not longer than 13 weeks allowed under subsection 38B(4) must include the period of 4 weeks that occurred immediately before, as well as the 10 weeks immediately after, John was taken to have accrued 12 months duration.

Section 38C

As his total period in which he did not receive income support payments was 14 weeks, it exceeds the 13 weeks allowed under subsection 38B(4). His continuous period in receipt of income support ceased, under subsection 38B(2), on the last day he received payment before he started employment.

A new period of continuous receipt of income support payments will begin when John resumes income support payments after his 14 week break.

- (6) For the purposes of this section, a person who was receiving an income support payment is taken to have continued to receive the payment in respect of a period if:
- (a) for the duration of the period, the person remained qualified to receive the income support payment by the operation of the exercise of the discretion under:
 - (i) section 516 of this Act as in force at a time before 20 September 1996; or
 - (ii) section 595 of this Act (disregard a period of employment);but the person's rate of payment was reduced to nil because of the operation of:
 - (iii) section 1067G, 1067L or 1068 of this Act; or
 - (b) the period was a compliance penalty period that applied to the person in respect of the income support payment; or
 - (c) subsection 547AA(1), 615(1) or 771HF(1) applied to the person in respect of the income support payment for the duration of the period.

Note: For income support payment see subsection 23(1).

Division 9—Bereavement paymentsSubdivision A—Death of partner*82 Qualification for payments under this Subdivision

(1) If:

- (a) a person is receiving an age pension; and
- (b) the person is a member of a couple; and
- (c) the person's partner dies; and
- (d) immediately before the partner died, the partner:

 - (ii) was receiving a service pension or income support supplement; or
 - (iii) was a long-term social security recipient; and
- (e) on the person's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday, the amount that would be payable to the person if the person were not qualified for payments under this Subdivision is less than the sum of:
 - (i) the amount that would otherwise be payable to the person under section 85 (person's continued rate) on that payday; and
 - (ii) the amount that would otherwise be payable to the person under section 83 (continued payment of partner's pension or benefit) on the partner's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday;

the person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision to cover the bereavement period.

Note 1: section 83 provides for the payment to the person, up to the first available bereavement adjustment payday, of amounts equal to the instalments that would have been paid to the person's partner during that period if the partner had not died.

Note 2: section 84 provides for a lump sum that represents the instalments that would have been paid to the person's partner, between the first available bereavement adjustment payday and the end of the bereavement period, if the partner had not died.

Section 82

- (1A) If:
- (a) a person is receiving an age pension; and
 - (b) immediately before starting to receive the age pension the person was receiving partner bereavement payments; and

- (2) A person who is qualified for payments under this Subdivision may choose not to receive payments under this Subdivision.
- (3) An election under subsection (2):
- (a) must be made by written notice to the Secretary; and
 - (b) may be made after the person has been paid an amount or amounts under this Subdivision; and
 - (c) cannot be withdrawn after the Department has taken all the action required to give effect to that election.
- (4) If a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the partner's death, the rate at which age pension is payable to the person during the bereavement period is, unless the person has made an election under subsection (2), governed by section 85.
- (5) For the purposes of this section, a person is a long term social security recipient if:
- (a) the person is receiving a social security benefit; and
 - (b) in respect of the previous 12 months, the person:
 - (i) was receiving a social security pension; or
 - (ii) was receiving a social security benefit; or

- (b) the person was receiving one or a combination of the payments referred to in that paragraph for 46 weeks of the previous 52.

83 Continued payment of deceased partner's previous entitlement

- (1) If a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the person's partner, there is payable to the person, on each of the partner's paydays in the bereavement rate continuation period the following amount:
 - (a) where the partner was receiving a social security pension or social security benefit—the amount that would have been payable to the partner on the payday if the partner had not died; or
 - (b) where the partner was receiving a service pension or income support supplement—the amount that would have been payable to the partner under Part III or IIIA of the Veterans' Entitlements Act on the service payday that:
 - (i) where the first Thursday after the partner's death was a service payday—precedes the partner's payday; or
 - (ii) in any other case—follows the partner's payday; if the partner had not died.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), if the couple were, immediately before the partner's death, an illness separated couple or a respite care couple, the amounts are to be worked out as if they were not such a couple.

84 Lump sum payable in some circumstances

If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the person's partner; and
- (b) the first available bereavement adjustment payday occurs before the end of the bereavement period;

there is payable to the person as a lump sum an amount worked out using the lump sum calculator at the end of this section.

LUMP SUM CALCULATOR

This is how to work out the amount of the lump sum:

Method statement

- Step 1. Work out the amount that would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday if:
- (a) the person's partner had not died; and
 - (b) where immediately before the partner's death the couple were an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they were not such a couple.
- Step 2. Work out the amount that would have been payable to the person's partner on the partner's payday or service payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday if:
- (a) the partner had not died; and
 - (b) where immediately before the partner's death the couple were an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they were not such a couple.
- Step 3. Add the results of Step 1 and Step 2: the result is called the combined rate.
- Step 4. Work out the amount that, but for section 85, would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday: the result is called the person's individual rate.
- Step 5. Take the person's individual rate away from the combined rate: the result is called the partner's instalment component.

- Step 6. Work out the number of paydays of the partner in the bereavement lump sum period.
- Step 7. Multiply the partner's instalment component by the number obtained in Step 6: the result is the amount of the lump sum payable to the person under this section.

85 Adjustment of person's age pension rate

If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision; and
- (b) the person does not elect under subsection 82(2) not to receive payments under this Subdivision;

the rate of the person's age pension during the bereavement period is worked out as follows:

- (c) during the bereavement rate continuation period, the rate of age pension payable to the person is the rate at which the pension would have been payable to the person if:
 - (i) the person's partner had not died; and
 - (ii) where immediately before the partner's death the couple were an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they were not such a couple;
- (d) during the bereavement lump sum period (if any), the rate at which age pension is payable to the person is the rate at which the age pension would be payable to the person apart from this Subdivision.

86 Effect of death of person entitled to payments under this Subdivision

If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the person's partner; and
- (b) the person dies within the bereavement period; and
- (c) the Secretary does not become aware of the death of the person's partner before the person dies;

Section 86

there is payable, to such person as the Secretary thinks appropriate, as a lump sum, an amount worked out using the lump sum calculator at the end of this section.

LUMP SUM CALCULATOR

This is how to work out the amount of the lump sum:

Method statement

Step 1. Work out the amount that would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately after the day on which the person died if:

- (a) neither the person nor the person's partner had died; and
- (b) where immediately before the partner's death the couple were an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they were not such a couple.

Step 2. Work out the amount that would have been payable to the partner on the person's payday or service payday immediately after the day on which the person died if:

- (a) neither the person nor the partner had died; and
- (b) where immediately before the partner's death the couple were an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they were not such a couple.

Step 3. Add the results of Step 1 and Step 2: the result is called the combined rate.

- Step 4. Work out the amount that, but for section 85, would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately after the day on which the person died if the person had not died: the result is called the person's individual rate.
- Step 5. Take the person's individual rate away from the combined rate: the result is called the partner's instalment component.
- Step 6. Work out the number of paydays of the partner in the period that commences on the day on which the person dies and ends on the day on which the bereavement period ends.
- Step 7. Multiply the partner's instalment component by the number obtained in Step 6: the result is the amount of the lump sum payable under this section.

87 Matters affecting payment of benefits under this Subdivision

(1) If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the person's partner; and
- (b) after the person's partner died, an amount to which the partner would have been entitled if the partner had not died has been paid under this Act or under Part III of the Veterans' Entitlements Act; and
- (c) the Secretary is not satisfied that the person has not had the benefit of that amount;

the following provisions have effect:

- (d) the amount referred to in paragraph (b) is not recoverable from the person or from the personal representative of the person's partner, except to the extent (if any) that the amount exceeds the amount payable to the person under this Subdivision;
- (e) the amount payable to the person under this Subdivision is to be reduced by the amount referred to in paragraph (b).

Section 91

(2) If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the person's partner; and
- (b) an amount to which the person's partner would have been entitled if the person's partner had not died has been paid under this Act or under Part III of the Veterans' Entitlements Act, within the bereavement period, into an account with a bank; and
- (c) the bank pays to the person, out of the account, an amount not exceeding the total of the amounts paid as mentioned in paragraph (b);

the bank is, in spite of anything in any other law, not liable to any action, claim or demand by the Commonwealth, the personal representative of the person's partner or anyone else in respect of the payment of that money to the person.

Subdivision C—Death of recipient

91 Death of recipient

(1) If:

- (a) a person is receiving age pension; and
- (b) either:

 - (A) is not receiving a social security pension; and
 - (C) is not receiving a service pension or income support supplement; and
- (c) the person dies;

there is payable, to such person as the Secretary thinks appropriate, an amount equal to the amount that would have been payable to the person under this Act on the person's payday after the person's death if the person had not died.

(2) If an amount is paid under subsection (1) in respect of a person, the Commonwealth is not liable to any action, claim or demand for any further payment under that subsection in respect of the person.

Note 1: for amounts owing to the recipient before the recipient's death see section 65.

Note 2: for death of a person qualified for bereavement payments under Subdivision A see section 86.

The following is a simplified outline of this Part:

- A person who qualifies for an age pension but defers claiming that pension may be able to get a single lump-sum pension bonus.
- A person who wants to get a pension bonus must register as a member of the pension bonus scheme.
- To get a pension bonus, a person must accrue between 1 and 5 bonus periods while deferring age pension.
- Generally, a bonus period runs for 1 year.
- To accrue a bonus period, the person must pass the work test for that period.
- To pass the work test for a year, either the person, or the person's partner, must gainfully work for at least 960 hours during that year.
- The amount of a person's pension bonus depends on the number of accrued bonus periods and the person's annual rate of age pension. A person may get a bigger bonus by accruing more bonus periods.

$$\text{Annual pension rate} \times \text{Pension multiple} \times \frac{\text{No. of years in the person's overall qualifying period}}{\text{overall qualifying period}}$$

Change in couple status during overall qualifying period

(2) If subsection (1) does not apply to a person, the amount of the person's pension bonus is worked out using the following formula (for rounding up, see subsection (7)):

(3) For the purposes of this section, a person's annual notional single pension rate is equal to:

- (a) if the person is not permanently blind—the adjusted percentage of the sum of:
 - (i) the person's maximum basic rate under Table B in point 1064-B1; and
 - (ii) the amount worked out for the person using the table in subsection 93H(4);

calculated in each case as at the start day for the age pension and assuming that the person was not a member of a couple at that day; or

- (b) if the person is permanently blind—the sum of:
- (i) the person's maximum basic rate under Table B in point 1065-B1; and
 - (ii) the amount worked out for the person using the table in subsection 93H(4);
- calculated in each case as at the start day for the age pension and assuming that the person was not a member of a couple at that day.
- (4) For the purposes of this section, a person's annual notional partnered pension rate is equal to:
- (a) if the person is not permanently blind—the adjusted percentage of the sum of:
 - (i) the person's maximum basic rate under Table B in point 1064-B1; and
 - (ii) the amount worked out for the person using the table in subsection 93H(4);calculated in each case as at the start day for the age pension and assuming that the person was a member of a couple at that day; or
 - (b) if the person is permanently blind—the sum of:
 - (i) the person's maximum basic rate under Table B in point 1065-B1; and
 - (ii) the amount worked out for the person using the table in subsection 93H(4);calculated in each case as at the start day for the age pension and assuming that the person was a member of a couple at that day.
- (5) For the purposes of this section, a person's adjusted percentage is the percentage worked out using the following formula (for rounding up, see subsection (8)):

$$\frac{\text{Annual pension rate}}{\text{Maximum basic rate}} \times 100$$

where:

maximum basic rate is the sum of the person's maximum basic rate worked out using Module B of Pension Rate Calculator A in section 1064 and the amount worked out for the person using the table in subsection 93H(4).

- (6) For the purposes of this section:
- (a) the number of single years during the overall qualifying period is the number of years during the overall qualifying period when the person was not a member of a couple; and
 - (b) the number of partnered years during the overall qualifying period is the number of years during the overall qualifying period when the person was a member of a couple.

Rounding up

- (7) An amount calculated under subsection (1) or (2) is to be rounded to the nearest 10 cents (with 5 cents being rounded up).
- (8) A percentage worked out under subsection (5) is to be calculated to 3 decimal places. However, if a percentage worked out under subsection (5) would, if it were calculated to 4 decimal places, end in a digit that is greater than 4, the percentage is to be increased by 0.001.

93K Top up of pension bonus for increased rate of age pension

- (1) The Secretary may determine (a top up determination) that a person's pension bonus is to be increased if:

 - (b) the rate determination takes effect on a day that is not more than 13 weeks after the start day for the person's pension bonus; and
 - (c) the rate determination is made because of a reduction since the start day in either or both of the following:
 - (i) the value of the person's assets;
 - (ii) the person's ordinary income.

Note: Any reduction in the value of a person's assets or the person's income will be determined by applying the assets test and the ordinary income test in Pension Rate Calculator A in Part 3.2 (including because of the operation of Pension Rate Calculator B in Part 3.3).

- (2) The person's pension bonus is increased by the difference between:
- (a) the person's amount of pension bonus on the start day; and

Section 93L

- (b) the amount that would have been the person's amount of pension bonus on the start day if the person's rate of age pension on that day had been the highest rate at which age pension was payable to the person during the 13 weeks after the start day.
- (3) A top up determination takes effect on the day on which the determination is made or on any earlier or later day specified in the determination.
- (4) A top up determination is not a legislative instrument.

93L Top up of pension bonus in specified circumstances

- (1) The Secretary may determine (a top up determination) that a person's pension bonus is to be increased if:
 - (a) the Secretary makes a determination (a rate determination) increasing the person's rate of age pension; and
 - (b) the rate of age pension is increased in circumstances specified in an instrument made under subsection (6).
- (2) The person's pension bonus is increased by the amount specified by the Secretary in the top up determination.
- (3) The Secretary must not specify an increase that would be greater than the difference between:

 - (b) the amount that would have been the person's amount of pension bonus on the start day if the person's rate of age pension on that day had been the rate specified in the rate determination.
- (4) A top up determination takes effect on the day on which the determination is made or on any earlier or later day specified in the determination.
- (5) A top up determination is not a legislative instrument.
- (6) The Secretary may, by legislative instrument, specify circumstances (other than circumstances specified in subsection 93K(1)) for the purposes of paragraph (1)(b).

 - (ii) was receiving a service pension or income support supplement; or

 - (ii) the amount that would otherwise be payable to the person under section 146G (continued payment of partner's pension or benefit) on the partner's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday;

the person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision to cover the bereavement period.

Note 1: section 146G provides for the payment to the person, up to the first available bereavement adjustment payday, of amounts equal to the instalments that would have been paid to the person's partner during that period if the partner had not died.

Note 2: section 146H provides for a lump sum that represents the instalments that would have been paid to the person's partner, between the first available bereavement adjustment payday and the end of the bereavement period, if the partner had not died.

Section 146F

(1A) If:

- (a) a person is receiving a disability support pension; and
- (b) immediately before starting to receive the disability support pension the person was receiving partner bereavement payments; and
- (c) the bereavement rate continuation period in relation to the death of the person's partner has not ended;

the person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision to cover the remainder of the bereavement period.

(2) A person who is qualified for payments under this Subdivision may choose not to receive payments under this Subdivision.

Note: if a person makes an election, the date of effect of any determination to increase the person's rate of age pension may, in some circumstances, be the day on which the person's partner died (see subsection 146D(5A)).

(3) An election under subsection (2):

- (a) must be made by written notice to the Secretary; and
- (b) may be made after the person has been paid an amount or amounts under this Subdivision; and
- (c) cannot be withdrawn after the Department has taken all the action required to give effect to that election.

(4) If a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the partner's death, the rate at which disability support pension is payable to the person during the bereavement period is, unless the person has made an election under subsection (2), governed by section 146J.

(5) For the purposes of this section, a person is a long-term social security recipient if:

- (a) the person is receiving a social security benefit; and
- (b) in respect of the previous 12 months, the person:

 - (a) where the partner was receiving a social security pension or social security benefit—the amount that would have been payable to the partner on the payday if the partner had not died; or
 - (b) where the partner was receiving a service pension or income support supplement—the amount that would have been payable to the partner under Part III or IIIA of the Veterans' Entitlements Act on the service payday that:
 - (i) where the first Thursday after the partner's death was a service payday—precedes the partner's payday; or
 - (ii) in any other case—follows the partner's payday; if the partner had not died.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), if the couple were, immediately before the partner's death, an illness separated couple or a respite care couple, the amounts are to be worked out as if they were not such a couple.

146H Lump sum payable in some circumstances

- If:
- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the person's partner; and
 - (b) the first available bereavement adjustment payday occurs before the end of the bereavement period;

Section 146H

there is payable to the person as a lump sum an amount worked out using the lump sum calculator at the end of this section.

LUMP SUM CALCULATOR

This is how to work out the amount of the lump sum:

Method statement

Step 1. Work out the amount that would have been payable to the person on the partner's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday if:

- (a) the person's partner had not died; and
- (b) where immediately before the partner's death the couple were an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they were not such a couple.

Step 2. Work out the amount that would have been payable to the person's partner on the partner's payday or service payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday if:

- (a) the partner had not died; and
- (b) where immediately before the partner's death the couple were an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they were not such a couple.

Step 3. Add the results of Step 1 and Step 2: the result is called the combined rate.

Step 4. Work out the amount that, but for section 146J, would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday: the result is called the person's individual rate.

Step 5. Take the person's individual rate away from the combined rate: the result is called the partner's instalment component.

- Step 6. Work out the number of paydays of the partner in the bereavement lump sum period.
- Step 7. Multiply the partner's instalment component by the number obtained in Step 6: the result is the amount of the lump sum payable to the person under this section.

146J Adjustment of person's disability support pension rate

If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision; and
- (b) the person does not elect under subsection 146F(2) not to receive payments under this Subdivision;

the rate of the person's disability support pension during the bereavement period is worked out as follows:

- (c) during the bereavement rate continuation period, the rate of disability support pension payable to the person is the rate at which the pension would have been payable to the person if:
 - (i) the person's partner had not died; and
 - (ii) where immediately before the partner's death the couple were an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they were not such a couple;
- (d) during the bereavement lump sum period (if any), the rate at which disability support pension is payable to the person is the rate at which the disability support pension would be payable to the person apart from this Subdivision.

146K Effect of death of person entitled to payments under this Subdivision

If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the person's partner; and
- (b) the person dies within the bereavement period; and

Section 146K

- (c) the Secretary does not become aware of the death of the person's partner before the person dies;
- there is payable, to such person as the Secretary thinks appropriate, as a lump sum, an amount worked out using the lump sum calculator at the end of this section.

LUMP SUM CALCULATOR

This is how to work out the amount of the lump sum:

Method statement

- Step 1. Work out the amount that would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately after the day on which the person died if:
- (a) neither the person nor the person's partner had died; and
 - (b) where immediately before the partner's death the couple were an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they were not such a couple.
- Step 2. Work out the amount that would have been payable to the partner on the partner's payday or service payday immediately after the day on which the person died if:
- (a) neither the person nor the partner had died; and
 - (b) where immediately before the partner's death the couple were an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they were not such a couple.
- Step 3. Add the results of Step 1 and Step 2: the result is called the combined rate.
- Step 4. Work out the amount that, but for section 97 of the Administration Act, would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately after the day on which the person died if the person had not died: the result is called the person's individual rate.

- Step 5. Take the person's individual rate away from the combined rate: the result is called the partner's instalment component.
- Step 6. Work out the number of paydays of the partner in the period that commences on the day on which the person dies and ends on the day on which the bereavement period ends.
- Step 7. Multiply the partner's instalment component by the number obtained in Step 6: the result is the amount of the lump sum payable under this section.

(1) If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the person's partner; and wife pension is not payable to the person in respect of any part of the period.

Note 2: For MRCA and VEA see subsection 23(1).

(3) If:

- (a) a person may enrol in a full-time course of education; and

Chapter 2 Pensions, benefits and allowances

Part 2.4 Wife pension

Division 4 Rate of wife pension

Section 159

Division 4—Rate of wife pension

159 How to work out the rate of wife pension

A woman's wife pension rate is worked out using Pension Rate Calculator A at the end of section 1064 (see Part 3.2).

Division 9—Bereavement paymentsSubdivision A—Continuation of wife pension where partner dies*186 Continuation of wife pension for bereavement period

(1) If:

- (a) a woman is receiving a wife pension; and
- (b) the woman's partner dies;

the woman remains qualified for the wife pension during the bereavement period as if:

- (c) the partner had not died; and
- (d) the partner had continued to receive age or disability support pension, disability wage supplement or rehabilitation allowance; and
- (e) the woman and the partner had continued to be members of a couple.

Note: a woman who remains qualified for a wife pension for the bereavement period may, in some circumstances, be automatically transferred to a parenting payment after the end of the bereavement period without making a claim for that payment (see subsection 501(3)).

187 Continued wife pension rate

Where a woman is qualified for a wife pension because of section 186, the woman's wife pension rate is worked out as follows:

- (a) during the bereavement rate continuation period, the rate of wife pension is the rate that would have been payable to the woman if:
 - (i) her partner had not died; and
 - (ii) where the couple had been an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they had not been such a couple;
- (b) during the bereavement lump sum period (if any), the rate of payments under this Subdivision is the rate at which a widow

Section 188

B pension would have been payable to the woman if she had been qualified for a widow B pension.

Subdivision B—Death of pensioner partner

188 Qualification for payments under this Subdivision

- (1) If:
- (a) a woman is receiving a wife pension; and
 - (b) the woman's partner dies;
- the woman is qualified for payments under this Subdivision to cover the bereavement period.
- Note 1: section 189 provides for the payment to the woman, up to the first available bereavement adjustment payday, of amounts equal to the instalments that would have been paid to the woman's partner during that period if the partner had not died.
- Note 2: section 190 provides for a lump sum that represents the instalments that would have been paid to the woman's partner, between the first available bereavement adjustment payday and the end of the bereavement period, if the partner had not died.
- (2) A woman who is qualified for payments under this Subdivision may choose not to receive payments under this Subdivision.
- (3) An election under subsection (2):
- (a) must be made by written notice to the Secretary; and
 - (b) may be made after the woman has been paid an amount or amounts under this Subdivision; and
 - (c) cannot be withdrawn after the Department has taken all the action required to give effect to that election.

189 Continued payment of partner's pension or allowance

If a woman is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the woman's partner, there is payable to the woman, on each day that would have been a payday of the partner in the bereavement rate continuation period, an amount equal to the amount that would have been payable to the woman's partner on that day if the partner had not died.

190 Lump sum payable in some circumstances

If:

- (a) a woman is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the woman's partner; and
- (b) the first available bereavement adjustment payday occurs before the end of the bereavement period;

there is payable to the woman as a lump sum an amount worked out using the lump sum calculator at the end of this section.

LUMP SUM CALCULATOR

This is how to work out the amount of the lump sum:

Method statement

Step 1. Work out the amount that would have been payable to the woman on the woman's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday if:

- (a) the woman's partner had not died; and
- (b) where immediately before the partner's death the couple were an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they were not such a couple.

Step 2. Work out the amount that would have been payable to the woman's partner on the first day that would have been a payday of the partner on or after the first available bereavement adjustment payday if:

- (a) the partner had not died; and
- (b) where immediately before the partner's death the couple were an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they were not such a couple.

Step 3. Add the results of Step 1 and Step 2: the result is called the combined pensioner couple rate.

Section 191

- Step 4. Work out the amount of widow B pension that would have been payable to the woman on her payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday if a widow B pension had been payable to the woman on that payday: the result is called the woman's individual rate.
- Step 5. Take the woman's individual rate away from the combined pensioner couple rate: the result is called the partner's instalment component.
- Step 6. Work out the number of the partner's paydays in the bereavement lump sum period.
- Step 7. Multiply the partner's instalment component by the number obtained in Step 6: the result is the amount of the lump sum payable to the woman under this section.

191 Effect of death of person entitled to payments under this Subdivision

If:

- (a) a woman is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the woman's partner; and
- (b) the woman dies within the bereavement period; and
- (c) the Secretary does not become aware of the death of the woman's partner before the woman dies;

there is payable, to such person as the Secretary thinks appropriate, as a lump sum, an amount worked out using the lump sum calculator at the end of this section.

LUMP SUM CALCULATOR

This is how to work out the amount of the lump sum:

Method statement

- Step 1. Work out the amount that would have been payable to the woman on the woman's payday immediately after the day on which the woman died if:

- (a) neither the woman nor the woman's partner had died; and
- (b) where immediately before the partner's death the couple were an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they were not such a couple.
- Step 2. Work out the amount that would have been payable to the partner on the first day that would have been a payday of the partner on or after the woman's payday referred to in Step 1 if:
- (a) neither the woman nor the partner had died; and
- (b) where immediately before the partner's death the couple were an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they were not such a couple.
- Step 3. Add the results of Step 1 and Step 2: the result is called the combined pensioner couple rate.
- Step 4. Work out the amount that, but for sections 186 and 187, would have been payable to the woman on the woman's payday immediately after the day on which the woman died if the woman had not died: the result is called the woman's individual rate.
- Step 5. Take the woman's individual rate away from the combined pensioner couple rate: the result is called the partner's instalment component.
- Step 6. Work out the number of the partner's paydays in the period that commences on the day on which the woman dies and ends on the day on which the bereavement period ends.
- Step 7. Multiply the partner's instalment component by the number obtained in Step 4: the result is the amount of the lump sum payable under this section.

Section 192

192 Matters affecting payment of benefits under this Subdivision

(1) If:

- (a) a woman is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the woman's partner; and
- (b) after the woman's partner died, an amount to which the partner would have been entitled if the partner had not died has been paid under this Act or under Part III of the Veterans' Entitlements Act; and
- (c) the Secretary is not satisfied that the woman has not had the benefit of that amount;

the following provisions have effect:

- (d) the amount referred to in paragraph (b) is not recoverable from the woman or from the personal representative of the woman's partner, except to the extent (if any) that the amount exceeds the amount payable to the woman under this Subdivision;
- (e) the amount payable to the woman under this Subdivision is to be reduced by the amount referred to in paragraph (b).

(2) If:

- (a) a woman is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the woman's partner; and
- (b) an amount to which the woman's partner would have been entitled if the woman's partner had not died has been paid under this Act or under Part III of the Veterans' Entitlements Act, within the bereavement period, into an account with a bank; and
- (c) the bank pays to the woman, out of that account, an amount not exceeding the total of the amounts paid as mentioned in paragraph (b);

the bank is, in spite of anything in any other law, not liable to any action, claim or demand by the Commonwealth, the personal representative of the woman's partner or anyone else in respect of the payment of that money to the woman.

Constant care

- (7) If section 197F applies in relation to the person as a care receiver or as one of 2 or more care receivers, it does not matter that the care provided for the person is not constant care.

197F Qualification—exchanged care of children

Purpose of section

- (1) The purpose of this section is to allow a person to qualify under section 197B, 197C, 197D, 197E, 197G or 197H, or a combination of them, for a carer payment for caring for persons who are or include 2 or more persons aged under 16 despite the fact that the person is not personally providing constant care for the same persons.

Section 197F

When section applies

- (2) This section applies if:
- (a) the person is a parent of 2 or more persons aged under 16; and
 - (b) the person (the carer) is personally providing care for at least 2 of those persons (the care receivers); and
 - (c) the care receivers would qualify the carer for a carer payment under section 197B, 197C, 197D, 197E, 197G or 197H, apart from:
 - (i) the fact that the carer is not personally providing constant care for the care receivers; and
 - (ii) the fact that each care receiver has or may have more than one home; and
 - (d) the circumstances in subsection (3) apply in relation to each of the care receivers.

Circumstances—family law arrangements

- (3) The circumstances are:
- (a) under one or more registered parenting plans, parenting plans or parenting orders that are in force, the care receiver is to live with, or spend time with the carer and the care receiver's other parent (whether or not the care receiver is to live with, or spend time with, someone else); and
 - (b) the length or percentage of time (however described) that the care receiver is to live with, or spend time with, the carer and the other parent is specified in, or worked out in accordance with, the plans or orders; and
 - (c) the carer personally provides constant care for the care receiver when the care receiver is living with, or spending time with, the carer; and
 - (d) the carer does not personally provide constant care for the care receiver only because the terms of the plans or orders require the care receiver to live with, or spend time with, the other parent or someone else; and
 - (e) when the carer is not personally providing care for the care receiver, the carer is personally providing care for one or more other care receivers in relation to whom this subsection also applies.

Qualification for a carer payment

- (4) If this section applies, the carer is taken to be qualified for a carer payment under section 197B, 197C, 197D, 197E, 197G or 197H, or a combination of them, for caring for the care receivers or for persons who include the care receivers, as the case requires.

Example: The parents of 3 children each with a disability or medical condition are divorced. Under a registered parenting plan covering all 3 children, one parent (the first parent) personally provides care in week 1 to:

- (a) one of the children covered by the plan; and
- (b) another child who is similarly disabled but who is not covered by the plan.

The other parent personally provides care for the other 2 children covered by the plan. In week 2, the parents swap care arrangements for the children covered by the plan.

The first parent would not qualify for a carer payment under section 197C because he or she is not providing constant care for the same children. However, this section allows the first parent to qualify for a carer payment for providing care for different children.

Application of income and assets tests

- (5) In applying the income and assets tests under section 198A or 198D in working out whether a parent qualifies under section 197B, 197C, 197D, 197E, 197G or 197H because of this section, disregard the other parent for the purposes of the following:

- (a) subsections 198B(1B) and 198D(1A), (1C) and (1DA);
- (b) subparagraph 198N(5)(aa)(ii);
- (c) paragraphs (b), (d) and (e) of the definition of FPC in subsection 198N(6).

197G Qualification—short term or episodic care of children

Secretary's determination

- (1) The Secretary may determine that a person is qualified for a carer payment for a period if:
- (a) the person is personally providing constant care for one or more persons (the care receiver or care receivers) each with:
 - (i) a severe disability or severe medical condition; or

Section 197H

- (ii) a disability or medical condition; and
- (b) each care receiver is aged under 16 at the start of the period; and
- (c) in relation to each care receiver—a treating health professional has certified in writing that, because of the severe disability or severe medical condition, or because of the disability or medical condition:
 - (i) the care receiver will need personal care for at least 3 months but less than 6 months; and
 - (ii) the care is required to be provided by a specified number of persons; and
- (d) apart from the fact that the care receiver, or care receivers, will need personal care for less than 6 months, the person would qualify for a carer payment:
 - (i) under section 197B or 197C (whether or not because of section 197F) for caring for the care receiver or care receivers; or
 - (ii) under section 197D (whether or not because of section 197F) for caring for the care receiver and another person.

Limits on period determined

- (2) The period determined by the Secretary:
 - (a) must be 3 months or more and less than 6 months; and
 - (b) must not begin before the person's start day.

Person may remain qualified until end of period even if care receiver turns 16

- (3) A person does not cease to be qualified for a carer payment under this section only because the care receiver (or any of them) turns 16 before the end of the period determined by the Secretary.

197H Qualification—extension of short term or episodic care

Extension of qualification under section 197G

- (1) This section applies if:

Section 197H

- (a) a person is qualified for a carer payment for caring for one or more persons (the care receiver or care receivers) aged under 16 for a period (the preceding period):
 - (i) under section 197G; or
 - (ii) if this section has previously applied to the person and the care receiver or care receivers—under the most recent application of this section; and
- (b) in relation to each care receiver—before the end of the preceding period, and before the care receiver (or any of them) turns 16, the person gives the Secretary a certificate from a treating health professional certifying that:
 - (i) because of a severe disability or severe medical condition, or a disability or medical condition, the care receiver will need personal care for a further period of less than 3 months starting immediately after the end of the preceding period; and
 - (ii) the severe disability or severe medical condition, or disability or medical condition, is the same as, or related to, the severe disability or severe medical condition, or disability or medical condition, that necessitated the care for the preceding period; and
 - (iii) the care is required to be provided by a specified number of persons.

Person qualified for further period determined by Secretary

- (2) The person is qualified for a carer payment for a further period if:
 - (a) apart from the fact that the care receiver or care receivers will need personal care for less than 6 months, the person would qualify for a carer payment:
 - (i) under section 197B or 197C (whether or not because of section 197F) for caring for the care receiver or care receivers; or
 - (ii) under section 197D (whether or not because of section 197F) for caring for the care receiver and another person; and
 - (b) the Secretary determines that a carer payment should be granted to the person for the period.

Section 197J

- (3) The period determined must end not later than 6 months after the first day on which the person started to receive a carer payment under section 197G.

Person may remain qualified until end of period even if care receiver turns 16

- (4) A person does not cease to be qualified for a carer payment under this section only because the care receiver (or any of them) turns 16 before the end of the period determined by the Secretary.

197J Qualification following qualification for short term or episodic care

Purpose of section

- (1) The purpose of this section is to treat a person as qualified for a carer payment under section 197B, 197C or 197D, or because of 197F, for caring for:
- (a) one or more persons aged under 16; or
 - (b) persons who include one or more persons aged under 16; if, immediately beforehand, the carer was qualified for a carer payment under section 197G or 197H (whether or not because of section 197F) for caring for the person or persons aged under 16.

Person taken to be qualified

- (2) If:
- (a) a person is qualified for a carer payment for caring for one or more care receivers aged under 16 for a period (the preceding period):
 - (i) under section 197G; or
 - (ii) if section 197H has applied to the person and the care receiver or care receivers—under the most recent application of that section; and
 - (b) before the end of the preceding period, and before the care receiver (or any of them) turns 16, the person gives the Secretary a certificate in relation to each of them as required by whichever of subsection (3) or (4) applies; and
 - (c) apart from paragraph 197B(1)(c), 197C(1)(c) or 197D(1)(c), the person would be qualified (whether or not because of section 197F) for a carer payment for caring for the care receiver or care receivers or for persons who include at least one of them;

the person is taken to qualify under section 197B, 197C or 197D (as the case requires) for caring for the care receiver or care receivers or for persons who include at least one of them.

Note: Paragraphs 197B(1)(c), 197C(1)(c) and 197D(1)(c) require that a treating health professional has certified that the care receiver, or each of them, will need personal care for 6 months or more.

- (3) If the person was qualified for a carer payment under section 197G or 197H for caring for a care receiver with a severe disability or severe medical condition, there must be a certificate from a treating health professional certifying that:
- (a) because of a severe disability or severe medical condition the duration of the personal care needed by the care receiver is 6 months or more; and
 - (b) the severe disability or severe medical condition is the same as, or related to, the severe disability or severe medical condition that necessitated the care for the preceding period; and
 - (c) the care is required to be provided by a specified number of persons.
- (4) If the person was qualified for a carer payment under section 197G or 197H for caring for one or more care receivers aged under 16 each with a disability or medical condition, there must be a certificate in relation to each care receiver from a treating health professional certifying that:
- (a) because of a disability or medical condition, the duration of the personal care needed by the care receiver is 6 months or more; and
 - (b) the disability or condition is the same as, or related to, the disability or condition that necessitated the care for the preceding period; and
 - (c) the care is required to be provided by a specified number of persons.
- (5) For the purposes of paragraphs (3)(a) and (4)(a):
- (a) the 6 months includes any preceding periods under section 197G or under an application of section 197H; and

Section 197K

- (b) it does not matter if the treating health professional who certified under those sections is the same treating health professional referred to in subsection (3) or (4) or not.

197K Remaining qualified for up to 3 months after child turns 16

- (1) This section applies if:
 - (a) a person is qualified for a carer payment for caring for a care receiver aged under 16 under one of the following provisions:
 - (i) section 197B, 197C or 197D (whether or not because of section 197F);
 - (ii) paragraph 198(2)(d); and
 - (b) the care receiver turns 16; and
 - (c) the care receiver has not been assessed and rated and given a score under the Adult Disability Assessment Tool.
- (2) If, apart from the care receiver turning 16, the person would remain qualified for a carer payment under that provision, the person remains qualified under that provision for 3 months after the care receiver turns 16.

198 Qualification—disabled adult or disabled adult and dependent child

- (1) A person is qualified for a carer payment if the requirements of this section are met.

Note: Sections 198AA, 198AB and 198AC allow the person to qualify in certain short-term circumstances where the requirements would not be met.

Constant care for disabled adult or disabled adult and a dependent child

- (2) The person must personally provide constant care for:
 - (a) either:
 - (i) if the person is the only person providing the constant care—a disabled adult (the care receiver) who has been assessed and rated under the Adult Disability Assessment Tool and given a score under that assessment tool of at least 25, being a score calculated

- on the basis of a total professional questionnaire score of at least 10; or
- (ii) if not—a disabled adult (the care receiver) who has been assessed and rated under the Adult Disability Assessment Tool and given a score under that assessment tool of at least 80, being a score calculated on the basis of a total professional questionnaire score of at least 32; or
 - (d) a disabled adult and a dependent child of the adult (the care receivers), where:
 - (i) the disabled adult has been assessed and rated under the Adult Disability Assessment Tool and given a score under that assessment tool of at least 20, being a score calculated on the basis of a total professional questionnaire score of at least 8; and
 - (ii) the child is aged under 16; and
 - (iii) if the child is aged 6 or more—carer allowance is payable for the child; and
 - (iv) section 197D does not apply in respect of the care receivers.

Note: In a paragraph (d) case, subsection (9) deems certain supervision to constitute care.

Care in home

- (3) The care must be provided in a private residence that is the home of the care receiver or care receivers.

Carer in Australia

- (4) The person must be an Australian resident, unless:
 - (a) the person is in a country in which carer payment may be granted to the person under a scheduled international social security agreement; and
 - (b) the scheduled international social security agreement entered into force on or before 24 December 1992.

Income and assets tests etc.

- (5) The care receiver or care receivers must:
 - (b) subject to subsection (6), be Australian residents; and

Section 198

Note: For Australian resident see section 7.

- (c) subject to subsection (7), pass the income test under section 198A; and
- (d) subject to subsection (7), either:
 - (i) pass the assets test under section 198D; or
 - (ii) be the subject of a decision in force under subsection 198N(2), (3) or (4) that subparagraph (i) does not disqualify the person providing the constant care from carer payment.

Alternative to Australian residence test for higher ADAT score adults

- (6) Paragraph (5)(b) does not apply if:
 - (a) the care receiver is the higher ADAT score adult mentioned in paragraph (2)(a); and
 - (b) the adult is receiving a social security pension; and
 - (c) carer payment may be granted to another person for the adult under a scheduled international social security agreement.

Alternative to income/assets test for higher ADAT score adults

- (7) Paragraphs (5)(c) and (d) do not apply if the care receiver is the higher ADAT score adult mentioned in paragraph (2)(a) and the adult:
 - (a) is receiving a social security pension or benefit, a service pension or income support supplement; or
 - (b) would be receiving a social security or service pension or income support supplement if he or she had been an Australian resident for a long enough period.

Deemed personal care of disabled adult and dependent child

- (9) For the purposes of paragraph (2)(d) and other references in this Part that relate to that paragraph, if a disabled adult is providing care of a dependent child of the adult at a particular time and another person is supervising the provision of that care at that time, the other person is taken personally to provide care of the adult and child at that time.

198AAA Continuation of qualification when person receiving care admitted to institution

- (1) This section applies if:
 - (a) carer payment is payable:
 - (i) to a person who has ordinarily been providing constant care for a care receiver or care receivers; or
 - (ii) because of section 197F, to a person who has ordinarily been providing care for a care receiver or care receivers; and
 - (b) the person would, apart from this section, cease to be qualified for the payment because he or she ceases to provide constant care (or, if section 197F applies to the person, care) for the care receiver or any of the care receivers as a result of the care receiver being admitted permanently to an institution where care is provided for the care receiver.
- (2) The person remains qualified for the carer payment during the 14 weeks after the care receiver is admitted permanently to an institution.

198AA Qualification for carer payment—hospitalisation

Participating in care of person in hospital (not qualified under section 197G or 197H)

- (1) A person (the carer) is qualified for a carer payment if:
 - (a) the carer is participating in the care, in hospital, of one of the following persons (the hospitalised person):
 - (i) a disabled adult;
 - (ii) a child with a severe disability or medical condition;
 - (iii) a child with a disability or medical condition;
 - (iv) a child who has a terminal condition;
 - (v) a dependent child of a disabled adult; and
 - (b) it is reasonable to assume that, if the hospitalised person were not in hospital, the carer would qualify, except under section 197G or 197H (whether or not because of section 197F), for a carer payment for:
 - (i) the hospitalised person; or

Section 198AA

- (ii) the hospitalised person and another person or persons;
and
 - (c) a requirement in subsection (2) is met.
- (2) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(c), the requirements are that either:
 - (a) the hospitalised person is terminally ill; or
 - (b) it is reasonable to expect that, upon leaving hospital, the hospitalised person:
 - (i) will reside in a private residence that is the home of the hospitalised person; or
 - (ii) if the carer would qualify for a carer payment because of section 197F for the hospitalised person—will reside in a private residence that is a home of the hospitalised person.

Limit on qualification under subsection (1)

- (3) However, the period, or the sum of the periods, for which the carer can be qualified under subsection (1) for a hospitalised person who is a disabled adult is 63 days in any calendar year.

Note: There is no limit under subsection (1) for a hospitalised person who is a child.

Short term or episodic care of child (qualified under section 197G or 197H)

- (4) A person (the carer) qualifies for a carer payment if:
 - (a) the carer is participating in the care, in hospital, of one of the following persons (the hospitalised person):
 - (i) a child with a severe disability or medical condition;
 - (ii) a child with a disability or medical condition; and
 - (b) the Secretary determines in writing that, if the hospitalised person were not in hospital, the carer would qualify under section 197G or 197H (whether or not because of section 197F) for a carer payment for a period or periods for:
 - (i) the hospitalised person; or
 - (ii) the hospitalised person and another person or persons;
and
 - (c) it is reasonable to expect that, upon leaving hospital, the hospitalised person:

- (i) will reside in a private residence that is the home of the hospitalised person; or
- (ii) if the carer would qualify for a carer payment because of section 197F for the hospitalised person—will reside in a private residence that is a home of the hospitalised person.

However, the period, or the sum of the periods, for which the carer can be qualified under this subsection for the hospitalised person must not exceed the period, or the sum of the periods, determined under paragraph (b).

- (5) A person (the carer) qualifies for a carer payment if:
- (a) the carer is participating in the care, in hospital, of one of the following persons (the hospitalised person):
 - (i) a child with a severe disability or medical condition;
 - (ii) a child with a disability or medical condition; and
 - (b) immediately before the carer began participating in that care, the carer was qualified under section 197G or 197H (whether or not because of section 197F) for a carer payment for a period for:
 - (i) the hospitalised person; or
 - (ii) the hospitalised person and another person or persons; and
 - (c) the person would cease to be qualified under section 197G or 197H for a carer payment for the balance of the period only because the person is participating in the care of the hospitalised person in hospital; and
 - (d) it is reasonable to expect that, upon leaving hospital, the hospitalised person:
 - (i) will reside in a private residence that is the home of the hospitalised person; or
 - (ii) if the carer would qualify for a carer payment because of section 197F for the hospitalised person—will reside in a private residence that is a home of the hospitalised person.

However, the period, or the sum of the periods, for which the carer can be qualified under this subsection for the hospitalised person must not exceed the balance of the period referred to in paragraph (c).

Section 198AB

198AB Care not required to be in private residence during portability period

- (1) This section applies if a person:
 - (a) is qualified for a carer payment; and
 - (b) is absent from Australia for a period:
 - (i) throughout which Division 2 of Part 4.2 applies to the person; and
 - (ii) that is before the end of the person's portability period for carer payment (within the meaning of that Division).
- (2) The person does not cease to be qualified for a carer payment:
 - (a) merely because the constant care for the care receiver or care receivers is not provided in a private residence that is the home of the care receiver or care receivers; or
 - (b) if the person is qualified because of section 197F—merely because the care for the care receiver or care receivers is not provided in a private residence that is a home of the care receiver or care receivers.

198AC Effect of cessation of care etc. on carer payment

Continuation of payment where temporary cessation of care

- (1) Subject to subsection (3), if:
 - (a) a person is qualified (except under section 197G or 197H) for a carer payment:
 - (i) because the person is personally providing constant care for a care receiver or care receivers; or
 - (ii) if the person is qualified because of section 197F—because the person is personally providing care for care receivers; and
 - (b) the person temporarily ceases to provide that care for the care receiver or care receivers;the person does not cease to be qualified for the carer payment merely because of that cessation.
- (1A) Subject to subsections (3) and (3A), if:
 - (a) a person is qualified for a carer payment:

Section 198AC

- (i) under section 197G or 197H because the person is personally providing constant care for a care receiver or care receivers; or
 - (ii) under section 197G or 197H because of section 197F because the person is personally providing care for care receivers; and
- (b) the person temporarily ceases to provide that care for the care receiver or care receivers;
- the person does not cease to be qualified for the carer payment merely because of that cessation.

Continuation of payment after hospitalisation—section 198AA ceases to apply

- (2) Subject to subsections (3) and (3A), if:
- (a) a person is qualified for a carer payment under section 198AA because the person is participating in the care of an adult or child in hospital; and
 - (b) apart from this subsection, the person would later cease to be qualified for carer payment under that section; and
 - (c) either:
 - (i) the person would not cease to be qualified for a carer payment if the person were providing constant care for the adult or child, or the adult or child and another person; or
 - (ii) if the person qualified under section 198AA because of section 197F—the person would not cease to be qualified for a carer payment if the person were providing care for the adult or child, or the adult or child and another person;
- the person does not cease to be qualified for carer payment merely because of the lack of provision of that care.

Limit on subsections (1) and (2)

- (3) Subject to subsection (3B), the period, or the sum of the periods, for which subsection (1) or (2), or a combination of those subsections, can apply is:
- (a) 63 days in any calendar year; or
 - (b) another period that the Secretary, for any special reason in the particular case, decides to be appropriate.

Section 198AC

- (3A) The period (or the sum of the periods) for which subsection (1A) or (2) (or a combination of those subsections) can apply to the person in a calendar year is the number of whole days worked out in accordance with the formula:

$$\frac{\text{Carer payment period}}{\text{Number of days in calendar year}} \times \text{Limit}$$

where:

carer payment period, in relation to a calendar year, means:

- (a) if only 197G applied to the person to any extent in the calendar year—the number of days in the period determined under that section that fall in the calendar year; or
- (b) if sections 197G and 197H applied to the person to any extent in the calendar year—the number of days worked out by adding the days in each period determined under those sections to the extent that those days fall in the calendar year.

It does not matter whether section 197G or 197H (or both of them) apply because of section 197F or not.

limit, in relation to a calendar year, means:

- (a) 63 days; or
- (b) another number of days in the calendar year that the Secretary, for any special reason in the particular case, decides to be appropriate.

(3B) If:

- (a) because of subsection (1A), the person does not cease to be qualified in a calendar year for a carer payment under section 197G or 197H for a care receiver or care receivers; and
- (b) the number of days (the qualifying days) for which the person does not cease to be qualified (whether under subsection (1A) or (2), or a combination of them) in the calendar year is not more than the number of days worked out under subsection (3A) in relation to the person; and
- (c) subsequently in the calendar year, the person begins to qualify for a carer payment because of section 197J for the care receiver or care receivers;

subsection (3) applies as if the periods referred to in whichever of paragraphs (a) and (b) of that subsection apply were reduced by the number of qualifying days.

Cessation of constant personal care in order to undertake training etc.

- (4) If:
- (a) a person is qualified for carer payment because the person is personally providing constant care for a care receiver or care receivers; and
 - (b) the person temporarily ceases to provide that care in order to undertake training, education, unpaid voluntary work or paid employment; and
 - (c) the cessation does not exceed 25 hours per week;
- the person does not cease to be qualified for the carer payment merely because of the cessation.

Cessation of participation in hospital care in order to undertake training etc.

- (5) If:
- (a) a person is qualified for carer payment because the person is participating in the care of another person in hospital; and
 - (b) the person temporarily ceases to participate in the care in order to undertake training, education, unpaid voluntary work or paid employment; and
 - (c) the cessation does not exceed 25 hours per week;
- the person does not cease to be qualified for the carer payment merely because of the cessation.

198A Income test

[see Appendix for CPI adjusted figures]

Passing the income test

- (1) A care receiver or care receivers pass the income test if the taxable income of the care receiver, or the sum of the taxable incomes of the care receivers, worked out under section 198B for the appropriate tax year determined under section 198C is not more than $66,403 (the income ceiling).

Section 198B

Income test failed where no taxable income for appropriate tax year

- (2) A care receiver or care receivers do not pass the income test if any person (whether or not a care receiver) whose taxable income is required to be taken into account in applying section 198B does not have an assessed taxable income or an accepted estimated taxable income for the appropriate tax year.

198B Taxable income

Rules that apply for the purposes of this Subdivision

- (1) For the purposes of this Subdivision, the rules set out in subsections (1A), (1B), (1BA), (1C) and (6) apply.

Taxable income of higher ADAT score adult

- (1A) If a care receiver who is a higher ADAT score adult is a member of a couple, the care receiver's taxable income includes the taxable income of the care receiver's partner.

Taxable income of sole care child, combined care child or multiple care child

- (1B) If a care receiver is a sole care child, combined care child or multiple care child who lives with his or her parent, the taxable income of the care receiver includes the taxable income of the following people:
- (a) the parent;
 - (b) if the parent is a member of a couple—the parent's partner;
 - (c) if the parent or the partner has one or more FTB children—the FTB children (other than any who are care receivers).

However, if the care receiver is a combined care child or a multiple care child who is one of 2 or more care receivers, the taxable income of the same person is not to be included in the taxable income of any of the other care receivers.

Note: See also subsection 197F(5).

Taxable income of lower ADAT score adult

- (1BA) If a care receiver is a lower ADAT score adult, the care receiver's taxable income includes the taxable income of the following people:
- (a) if the adult is a member of a couple—the adult's partner and any FTB child (except the other care receiver or other care receivers) of the adult or of the partner;
 - (b) in any other case—any FTB child (except the other care receiver) of the adult.

Taxable income

- (1C) A person's taxable income for a tax year is:
- (a) the person's assessed taxable income for the tax year; or
 - (b) if the Commissioner of Taxation has not made an assessment of the person's taxable income for the tax year—the person's accepted estimated taxable income for the tax year.

Note: For accepted estimated taxable income see subsection (5).

Assessed taxable income

- (2) At a particular time, a person's assessed taxable income for a tax year is the taxable income according to whichever of the following was made most recently:
- (a) an assessment of the person's taxable income for the tax year made by the Commissioner of Taxation;
 - (b) an amended assessment of the person's taxable income for the tax year made by the Commissioner of Taxation;
 - (c) an amendment made by a tribunal of an assessment or amended assessment of the person's taxable income for the tax year made by the Commissioner of Taxation;
 - (d) an amendment made by a court of:
 - (i) an assessment or amended assessment of the person's taxable income for the tax year made by the Commissioner of Taxation; or
 - (ii) an amended assessment of the person's taxable income for the tax year made by a tribunal.

Section 198B

Estimating taxable income

- (3) A person, or, if the person is a child—the child’s parent or carer, may give the Secretary a written estimate of the person’s taxable income for a tax year.
- (3A) If the care receivers are a lower ADAT score adult and one or more multiple care children, the lower ADAT score adult may give the Secretary a written estimate of each child’s taxable income for a tax year.

Accepting estimate of taxable income

- (4) The Secretary may accept the estimate only if:
 - (a) the person does not have an assessed taxable income for the tax year; and
 - (b) one of the following applies:
 - (i) the tax year has not ended;
 - (ii) the Secretary is satisfied that the person is not required to lodge a return of income for the tax year under the Income Tax Assessment Act;
 - (iii) the Secretary is satisfied that the person has lodged, or proposes to lodge, a return of income for the tax year under the Income Tax Assessment Act; and
 - (c) the Secretary is satisfied that the estimate is reasonable.

Accepted estimated taxable income

- (5) A person’s accepted estimated taxable income for a tax year is the taxable income according to the estimate that was most recently given to the Secretary under subsection (3) or (3A) and accepted by the Secretary.

Nil amounts of taxable income

- (6) A person’s assessed taxable income or accepted estimate of taxable income may be a nil amount.

198C Appropriate tax year

Appropriate tax year in ordinary cases

- (1) Subject to this section, the appropriate tax year for a day is the base tax year for that day.

Note: For base tax year see subsection (6).

- (2) If:

- (a) carer payment would not be payable to a person because the care receiver or care receivers would not pass the income test under subsection 198A(1) apart from this subsection; and
- (b) the Secretary is given a written request to treat the care receiver or care receivers as if the tax year in which the request is given were the appropriate tax year; and
- (c) the request is given to the Secretary by the person, any care receiver who is 16 or over or a parent of any care receiver who is under 16; and
- (d) the taxable income of the care receiver, or the sum of the taxable incomes of the care receivers, for the tax year in which the request is made is likely to be less than the income ceiling;

the appropriate tax year, for the purposes of applying subsection 198A(1) to the care receiver or care receivers on or after the day on which the request is given, is the tax year in which the request is made.

Note 1: For taxable income see section 198B.

Note 2: For income ceiling see subsection 198A(1).

- (3) If:

- (a) an instalment of carer payment (the first payment) is paid to a person on a day in one calendar year; and
- (b) the next instalment of carer payment (the second payment) is paid to a person on a day in the next calendar year; and
- (c) the instalment period to which the second payment relates:
 - (i) commences immediately after the end of the instalment period to which the first payment related; and
 - (ii) includes the first day of the calendar year referred to in paragraph (b); and

Section 198C

- (d) the person's carer payment is payable in relation to the period referred to in subparagraph (c)(i) because, as a result of a request under paragraph (2)(b), the appropriate tax year is the tax year in which that period occurs (the current tax year); and
- (e) the care receiver's taxable income, or the sum of the taxable incomes of the care receivers, for the current tax year is less than the care receiver's taxable income, or the sum of the taxable incomes of the care receivers, for the base tax year; the care recipient's appropriate tax year, as from the beginning of the later calendar year, is the current tax year and not the base tax year unless the care recipient's taxable income for the base tax year is less than the income ceiling.

Note 1: For base tax year see subsection (6).

Note 2: For income ceiling see subsection 198A(1).

Change to appropriate tax year because of notifiable event

- (4) For the purposes of section 198A, if:
 - (a) a notifiable event occurs in relation to a care receiver or any of 2 or more care receivers; and
 - (b) the care receiver's taxable income, or the sum of the taxable incomes of the care receivers, for the tax year in which the notifiable event occurs exceeds the income ceiling;the appropriate tax year is the tax year in which the notifiable event occurs.

Note 1: For notifiable event see subsection (6).

Note 2: For taxable income see section 198B.

Note 3: For income ceiling see subsection 198A(1).

Note 4: The effect of subsection (4) is that the person caring for the care receiver or care receivers will cease to be qualified for carer payment because the care receiver or care receivers will not pass the income test under subsection 198A(1).

Change to appropriate tax year because of effect of notifiable event on taxable income for later tax year

- (5) For the purposes of section 198A, if:
 - (a) a notifiable event occurs in relation to a care receiver or any of 2 or more care receivers; and

- (b) the care receiver's taxable income, or the sum of the taxable incomes of the care receivers, for the tax year in which the notifiable event occurs (the event tax year) does not exceed the income ceiling; and
 - (c) the care receiver's taxable income, or the sum of the taxable incomes of the care receivers, for the tax year that follows the event tax year is likely to exceed the income ceiling;
- the appropriate tax year is the year that follows the event tax year.

Note 1: For notifiable event see subsection (6).

Note 2: For taxable income see section 198B.

Definitions

- (6) For the purposes of this section:
 - (a) the base tax year for a day is the tax year that ended on 30 June in the calendar year immediately before the calendar year in which the day falls; and
 - (b) a notifiable event is an event or change of circumstances that:
 - (i) is specified in a notice under section 70 of the Administration Act; and
 - (ii) is described by the notice as a notifiable event.

Example: Suppose 4 April 1996 is a carer payment payday. It falls in the calendar year 1 January to 31 December 1996, so the base tax year for that payday is the tax year that ended on 30 June 1995 (i.e. the year of income beginning on 1 July 1994).

198D Assets test

[see Appendix for CPI adjusted figures]

Higher ADAT score adult passing the assets test

- (1) A care receiver who is a higher ADAT score adult passes the assets test if the total value of the following assets is less than $376,750:
 - (a) the care receiver's assets;

- (1A) This section applies only to disposals of assets that took place before 1 July 2002.

Section 198K

Increase in value of assets of care receiver and of care receiver's partner

- (2) Subject to subsections (3) and (4), if:
- (a) the care receiver or the care receiver's partner has disposed of an asset during a pre-pension year of the carer; and
 - (b) the amount of that disposition, or the sum of that amount and the amounts (if any) of other dispositions of assets previously made by the care receiver or the partner during that pre-pension year, exceeds $10,000;
- the lesser of the following amounts is to be included in the value of both the assets of the care receiver and the assets of the partner, for the period of 5 years that starts on the day on which the disposition took place:
- (c) 50% of the amount of the first-mentioned disposition;
 - (d) 50% of the amount by which the sum of the amount of the first-mentioned disposition and of the amounts (if any) of other dispositions of assets previously made by the care receiver or the care receiver's partner during that pre-pension year exceeds $10,000.

Note 1: For disposes of assets see section 198F.

Note 2: For amount of disposition see section 198G.

Effect of separation of couple after disposal of care receiver's asset

Effect of separation of couple after disposal of partner's asset

- (4) If:

- (a) an amount is included under subsection (2) in the value of both the assets of the care receiver and the assets of the care receiver's partner because of a disposition of an asset by the partner; and
- (b) the care receiver and the partner cease to be members of the same couple (either because the partner dies or for another reason);

the amount that was included in the value of the care receiver's assets because of that disposition is no longer to be included in the assets of the care receiver.

Pre-pension year

- (5) In this section:

pre-pension year, in relation to a carer, means:

- (a) the 12 months ending on the carer's start day for the carer payment; or
- (b) any preceding period of 12 months.

198L Disposal of assets before 1 July 2002—members of couples including higher ADAT score adults

- (1) This section applies in determining whether a person (the carer) who has been receiving a carer payment for caring for a higher ADAT score adult who is a member of a couple continues to qualify for the pension.
- (1A) This section applies only to disposals of assets that took place before 1 July 2002.

Section 198L

- (b) the amount of that disposition, or the sum of that amount and the amounts (if any) of other dispositions of assets previously made by the care receiver or the care receiver's partner during that pension year, exceeds $10,000;

the lesser of the following amounts is to be included in the value of both the assets of the care receiver and the assets of the partner, for the period of 5 years that starts on the day on which the disposition took place:

- (c) 50% of the amount of the first-mentioned disposition;
- (d) 50% of the amount by which the sum of the amount of the first-mentioned disposition and of the amounts (if any) of other dispositions of assets previously made by the care receiver or the care receiver's partner during that pre-pension year exceeds $10,000.

Note 1: For disposes of assets see section 198F.

Note 2: For amount of disposition see section 198G.

Effect of separation of couple after disposal of care receiver's asset

(3) If:

- (a) an amount is included under subsection (2) in the value of both the assets of the care receiver and the assets of the care receiver's partner because of a disposition of an asset by the care receiver; and the amount that was included in the value of the partner's assets because of that disposition is to be included in the assets of the care receiver.

Effect of separation of couple after disposal of partner's asset

(4) If:

- (a) an amount is included under subsection (2) in the value of both the assets of the care receiver and the assets of the care receiver's partner because of a disposition of an asset by the partner; and

- (b) the care receiver and the partner cease to be members of the same couple (either because the partner dies or for another reason);

Pension year

- (5) In this section:

pension year, in relation to a carer, means:

- (a) the 12 months starting on the day the carer payment first became payable to the carer; or
- (b) any preceding or following period of 12 months.

198LA Disposal of assets in income year—members of couples including higher ADAT score adults

Application

- (1) This section has effect in determining whether a person (the carer) who has been receiving a carer payment for caring for a care receiver who is a higher ADAT score adult and is a member of a couple continues to qualify for the payment.

Disposals to which section applies

- (2) This section applies to a disposal (the relevant disposal) on or after 1 July 2002 of an asset by the care receiver, the care receiver's partner, or the care receiver and the care receiver's partner.

Increase in value of assets

- (3) If the amount of the relevant disposal, or the sum of that amount and the amounts (if any) of other disposals of assets previously made by the care receiver, the care receiver's partner, or the care receiver and the care receiver's partner (whether before or after they became members of the couple), during the income year in which the relevant disposal took place, exceeds $10,000, then, for the purposes of this Act, the lesser of the following amounts is to be included in the value of the assets of the care receiver and in the value of the assets of the partner for the period of 5 years starting on the day on which the relevant disposal took place:

- (a) one-half of the amount of the relevant disposal;
- (b) one-half of the amount by which the sum of the amount of the relevant disposal and the amounts (if any) of other disposals of assets previously made by the care receiver, the partner, or the care receiver and the partner, during the income year in which the relevant disposal took place, exceeds $10,000.

Effect of ceasing to be a member of couple after disposal by care receiver

- (4) If:
- (a) the relevant disposal is the disposal of an asset by the care receiver; and
 - (b) after the relevant disposal, the care receiver and the care receiver's partner cease to be members of the same couple (either because the partner dies or for another reason);
- the amount that was included in the value of the assets of the partner because of the relevant disposal is to be included in the value of the assets of the care receiver.

Effect of ceasing to be a member of couple after disposal by care receiver's partner

- (5) If:
- (a) the relevant disposal is the disposal of an asset by the care receiver's partner; and
 - (b) after the relevant disposal, the care receiver and the partner cease to be members of the same couple (either because the partner dies or for another reason);
- the amount that was included in the value of the assets of the care receiver because of the relevant disposal is no longer to be included in the value of the assets of the care receiver.

198LB Disposal of assets in 5 year period—members of couples including higher ADAT score adults

Application

- (1) This section also has effect in determining whether a person (the carer) who has been receiving a carer payment for caring for a care receiver who is a higher ADAT score adult and is a member of a couple continues to qualify for the payment.

Disposals to which section applies

- (2) This section applies to a disposal (the relevant disposal) on or after 1 July 2002 of an asset by the care receiver, the care receiver's partner, or the care receiver and the care receiver's partner.

Increase in value of assets

- (3) If:
- (a) the sum of the amount of the relevant disposal and the amounts of any previous disposals during the rolling period of assets by the care receiver, the care receiver's partner, or the care receiver and the care receiver's partner;
- less*
- (b) the sum of any amounts included in the value of the assets of the care receiver or the partner during the rolling period under a provision of this Subdivision other than this section or under any previous application or applications of this section;
- exceeds $30,000, then, for the purposes of this Act, an amount equal to one-half of the excess is to be included in the value of the assets of the care receiver and in the value of the assets of the partner for the period of 5 years starting on the day on which the relevant disposal took place.

Effect of ceasing to be member of couple after disposal by care receiver

- (4) If:
- (a) the relevant disposal is a disposal of an asset by the care receiver; and

Section 198M

(b) after the relevant disposal, the care receiver and the care receiver's partner cease to be members of the same couple (either because the partner dies or for another reason); the amount that was included in the value of the assets of the partner because of the relevant disposal is to be included in the value of the assets of the care receiver.

Effect of ceasing to be member of couple after disposal by care receiver's partner

(5) If:

- (a) the relevant disposal is a disposal of an asset by the care receiver's partner; and
- (b) after the relevant disposal, the care receiver and the partner cease to be members of the same couple (either because the partner dies or for another reason);

the amount that was included in the value of the assets of the care receiver because of the relevant disposal is no longer to be included in the value of the assets of the care receiver.

Rolling period

- (6) For the purposes of this section, the rolling period is the period comprising the income year in which the relevant disposal took place and such (if any) of the 4 previous income years as occurred after 30 June 2002.

198M Certain dispositions to be disregarded for care receiver assets test

This Division does not apply to a disposition of an asset by a person (the disposer):

- (a) more than 5 years before the time when another person (the carer) became qualified for a carer payment:
 - (i) because the carer was providing care for the disposer and the disposer was a care receiver or one of 2 or more care receivers; or
 - (ii) because the carer was providing care for the person who was the disposer's partner at the time of the disposition and that person was a care receiver or one of 2 or more care receivers; or

- (b) less than 5 years before the time referred to in paragraph (a) but before the time when the disposer could, in the Secretary's opinion, reasonably have expected that the carer would become qualified for carer payment for a reason described in paragraph (a); or
- (c) before 9 May 1995.

198MA Other disposals to be disregarded for care receiver assets test

This Division does not apply to a disposal by a person (the disposer) of an asset of a child:

- (a) more than 5 years before the carer became qualified for a carer payment because the carer was providing care for the child and the child was a care receiver or one of 2 or more care receivers; and
- (b) less than 5 years before the time referred to in paragraph (a) but before the time when the disposer could, in the Secretary's opinion, reasonably have expected that the carer would become qualified for carer payment because the carer was providing care for the child.

Note: Subsections 198D(1B), (1D) and (1DB) provide that if a sole care child, a combined care child or a multiple care child lives with a parent, the assets listed in subsection 198D(1A) and paragraphs 198D(1C)(b) and (1DA)(c) are taken to be the assets of the child.

198N Exemption from care receiver assets test

[see Appendix for CPI adjusted figures]

- (1AC) Subsections (2), (3), (4), (5) and (6) have effect if:
- (a) subparagraph 197D(4)(d)(i) would disqualify from carer payment a person caring for care receivers who are a lower ADAT score adult and one or more multiple care children; and
 - (b) the lower ADAT score adult lodges with the Department, in a form approved by the Secretary, a request that the carer not be disqualified by that subparagraph; and

- (a) the value of the liquid assets of the care receiver, or the sum of the values of the liquid assets of the care receivers, is equal to or greater than the liquid assets limit; or estimated taxable incomes of the care receivers, for the current financial year is less than the threshold amount worked out under subsection (6).

Definitions—assets and income

- (5) For the purposes of this section:
- (a) the value of the assets or liquid assets of a care receiver who is a higher ADAT score adult is the sum of the values of the assets or liquid assets (as the case requires) of the following people:
 - (i) the care receiver;
 - (ii) if the care receiver has a partner—the partner;
 - (iii) if the care receiver or the care receiver's partner has one or more FTB children—those FTB children; and
 - (aa) the value of the liquid assets of a care receiver who is a sole care child, combined care child or multiple care child is the sum of the values of the liquid assets of the following people:
 - (i) the care receiver;
 - (ii) if the care receiver lives with his or her parent—the parent;
 - (iii) if the parent with whom the care receiver lives is a member of a couple—the parent's partner;
 - (iv) if the parent with whom the care receiver lives or the parent's partner has one or more FTB children—those FTB children.

However, if the care receiver is one of 2 or more care receivers each of whom is a combined care child or a multiple care child, liquid assets of the same person are not to be taken into account in respect of any of the other care receivers; and

Section 198N

- (ab) the value of the liquid assets of a care receiver who is a lower ADAT score adult is the sum of the values of the liquid assets of the following people:
- (i) the care receiver;
 - (ii) if the care receiver is a member of a couple—the care receiver’s partner and any FTB child (except the child who is the other care receiver or the children who are the other care receivers) of the care receiver or the care receiver’s partner;
 - (iii) if the care receiver is not a member of a couple—any FTB child (except the child who is the other care receiver or the children who are the other care receivers).

However, liquid assets of the same person are not to be taken into account in respect of any of the other care receivers; and

Note: The value of the liquid assets of the child who is the other care receiver or the children who are the other care receivers is not adjusted by adding any other person’s liquid assets.

- (b) the liquid assets limit is $10,000 if the care receiver or any of the care receivers is a member of a couple, or $6,000 if not; and
- (c) the taxable income of a care receiver or of any of 2 or more care receivers for a particular financial year is the taxable income of the care receiver for that year as worked out under section 198B.

Note 1: For liquid assets see subsection 19B(1).

Note 2: Subsections 198D(1B), (1D) and (1DB) provide that if a sole care child, a combined care child or a multiple care child lives with a parent, the assets listed in subsection 198D(1A) and paragraphs 198D(1C)(b) and (1DA)(c) are taken to be assets of the child.

Note 3: For subparagraph (5)(aa)(ii), see also subsection 197F(5).

Working out the threshold amount

- (6) For the purposes of paragraphs (2)(c), (3)(b) and (4)(c), the threshold amount is the amount worked out using the following formula:

$$(\text{MBR} \times 2) + ($639.60 \times \text{FPC})$$

where:

MBR is the maximum basic rate of age pension payable, as at the last 1 January, to a person who has a partner.

FPC is:

- (a) in the case of a care receiver who is a higher ADAT score adult—the number of FTB children of the care receiver or the care receiver’s partner (if the care receiver has a partner); or
- (b) in the case of a care receiver who is a sole care child who lives with his or her parent—the number of FTB children of the parent or the parent’s partner (if the parent has a partner); or
- (c) in the case of a care receiver who is a sole care child who does not live with his or her parent—0; or
- (d) in the case of care receivers who are 2 or more combined care children:
 - (i) if any of the children lives with his or her parent—the sum of the number of FTB children of each such parent or of the partner (if the parent has a partner) of each such parent; or
 - (ii) in any other case—0; or
- (e) in the case of care receivers who are a lower ADAT score adult and one or more multiple care children, or a lower ADAT score adult and a dependent child—the number of FTB children of the care receiver or the care receiver’s partner (if the care receiver has a partner).

Note 1: For the maximum basic rate of age pension see point 1064-B1 of Pension Rate Calculator A in section 1064.

Note 2: For paragraphs (b), (d) and (e) of the definition of FPC, see also subsection 197F(5).

210 How to work out a person's carer payment rate

A person's carer payment rate is worked out using Pension Rate Calculator A at the end of section 1064 (see Part 3.2).

Division 9—Bereavement payments

Subdivision A—Continuation of carer payment

235 Continuation of carer payment for bereavement period where person cared for dies

- (1) If:
- (a) a person is receiving carer payment because he or she ordinarily cares for a care receiver or care receivers; and
 - (b) the person is caring for the care receiver or care receivers or has temporarily ceased to care for the care receiver or care receivers; and
 - (c) the care receiver or any of the care receivers dies; and
 - (d) the care receiver who dies is not the person's partner; and
 - (e) because of the death, the person would, apart from this subsection, cease to be qualified for the carer payment;
- the person remains qualified for the carer payment during the bereavement period as if the death had not occurred.
- (1A) If:
- (a) a person (the carer) is receiving a carer payment only because section 198AA or subsection 198AC(2) applies; and
 - (b) the death occurs of:
 - (i) the person or any of the persons for whom the person would qualify for carer payment as mentioned in paragraph 198AA(1)(b); or
 - (ia) the person or any of the persons for whom the carer would qualify for carer payment as mentioned in subsection 198AA(4) or (5); or

 - (c) the person who dies is not the carer's partner;

- (3) A person to whom subsection (1) applies may, by written notice to the Secretary, choose not to receive payments under this

Section 236

Subdivision and to receive instead any payments to which the person would be otherwise entitled.

- (4) If a person makes an election under subsection (3):
- (a) this Act, or Part III or IIIA of the Veterans' Entitlements Act, has effect accordingly; and
 - (b) the person may not withdraw the election after the Department has taken all the action required to give effect to the election.

236 Continued carer payment rate

If a person is qualified for a carer payment solely because of section 235, the rate at which the pension is payable is to be determined having regard to the person's actual circumstances.

236A Lump sum payable in some circumstances

- (1) A lump sum is payable to a person under this section if:
- (a) the person remains qualified for carer payment because subsection 235(1) or (1A) applies; and
 - (b) immediately before the death of the person mentioned in that subsection, the person who died was not a member of a couple, or was a member of a couple and his or her partner:
 - (i) was not receiving a social security pension; and
 - (ii) was not receiving a social security benefit; and
 - (iii) was not receiving a service pension or income support supplement.
- (1A) However, if subsection (1) would apply where 2 or more persons die at the same time, only one payment is payable under that subsection.
- (2) The amount of the lump sum under this section is the lesser of the amount worked out under subsection (3) and the amount worked out under subsection (4).
- (3) The amount under this subsection is:
- $$\frac{(\text{Partnered MBR} + \text{Pension supplement})}{26} \times 7$$
- where:

partnered MBR is the maximum basic rate applicable, on the day that the person dies, to a person covered by item 2 of the Maximum Basic Rate Table in point 1064-B1 of Pension Rate Calculator A in section 1064.

pension supplement is the person's pension supplement worked out under Module BA of Pension Rate Calculator A.

(4) The amount under this subsection is:

carer's current instalment $\times 7$

where:

carer's current instalment is the amount of the last instalment of carer payment paid to the carer before the person died.

236B Subdivision not to apply in certain cases involving simultaneous death

If:

(a) either:

(i) a lower ADAT score adult and one or more multiple care children die at the same time; or

(ii) a lower ADAT score adult and a dependent child of the adult die at the same time; and

(b) apart from this subsection and section 243, because of those deaths, a person would continue to qualify for carer payment under section 235 and would be qualified for payments under Subdivision B; and

(c) the sum of the carer payments for which the person would continue to qualify under section 235 and any lump sum payable to the person under section 236A is less than the sum of the amounts payable to the person under Subdivision B;

the person does not continue to qualify for carer payment under section 235 and no lump sum is payable to the person under section 236A.

Subdivision B—Death of partner

237 Qualification for payments under this Subdivision

(1) If:

Section 237

- (a) a person is receiving a carer payment; and
- (b) the person is a member of a couple; and
- (c) the person's partner dies; and
- (d) immediately before the partner died, the partner:
 - (i) was receiving a social security pension; or
 - (ii) was receiving a service pension or income support supplement; or
 - (iii) was a long-term social security recipient; and
- (e) on the person's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday, the amount that would be payable to the person if the person were not qualified for payments under this Subdivision is less than the sum of:
 - (i) the amount that would otherwise be payable to the person under section 238 (continued payment of partner's pension or allowance); and
 - (ii) the amount that would otherwise be payable to the person under section 240 (person's continued rate);

the person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision to cover the bereavement period.

Note 1: section 238 provides for the payment to the person, up to the first available bereavement adjustment payday, of amounts equal to the instalments that would have been paid to the person's partner during that period if the partner had not died.

Note 2: section 239 provides for a lump sum that represents the instalments that would have been paid to the person's partner, between the first available bereavement adjustment payday and the end of the bereavement period, if the partner had not died.

Note 3: a person who is qualified for payments under this Subdivision for the death of the person's partner may, in some circumstances, be automatically transferred to a parenting payment after the end of the bereavement period without making a claim for that payment (see subsection 501(4)).

(1A) If:

- (a) a person is receiving a carer payment; and
- (b) immediately before starting to receive the carer payment the person was receiving partner bereavement payments; and
- (c) the bereavement rate continuation period in relation to the death of the person's partner has not ended;

the person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision to cover the remainder of the bereavement period.

- (1AB) Subsection (1) or (1A) does not apply in relation to care receivers who are a lower ADAT score adult and one or more multiple care children if:
- (a) the person is receiving carer payment under section 235 because of the death of the child or children; and
 - (b) the person's partner is the lower ADAT score adult.
- (1B) Subsection (1) or (1A) does not apply if:
- (a) the person is receiving carer payment under section 235 because of the death of a care receiver who is a dependent child of a lower ADAT score adult; and
 - (b) the person's partner is the lower ADAT score adult.
- (2) A person who is qualified for payments under this Subdivision may choose not to receive payments under this Subdivision.
- (3) An election under subsection (2):
- (a) must be made by written notice to the Secretary; and
 - (b) may be made after the person has been paid an amount or amounts under this Subdivision; and
 - (c) cannot be withdrawn after the Department has taken all the action required to give effect to that election.
- (4) If a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the partner's death, the rate at which carer payment is payable to the person during the bereavement period is, unless the person has made an election under subsection (2), governed by section 240.
- (5) For the purposes of this section, a person is a long-term social security recipient if:
- (a) the person is receiving a social security benefit; and
 - (b) in respect of the previous 12 months, the person:
 - (i) was receiving a social security pension; or
 - (ii) was receiving a social security benefit; or
 - (iii) was receiving a youth training allowance; or
 - (iv) was receiving a service pension or income support supplement.

Section 238

- (6) A person is taken to satisfy the requirements of paragraph (5)(b) if:
 - (a) the person was receiving one or a combination of the payments referred to in that paragraph for a continuous period of 12 months; or
 - (b) the person was receiving one or a combination of the payments referred to in that paragraph for 46 weeks of the previous 52.

238 Continued payment of deceased partner's previous entitlement

- (1) If a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the person's partner, there is payable to the person, on each of the partner's paydays in the bereavement rate continuation period:
 - (a) where the partner was receiving a social security pension or social security benefit—the amount that would have been payable to the partner on the payday if the partner had not died; or
 - (b) where the partner was receiving a service pension or income support supplement—the amount that would have been payable to the partner under Part III or IIIA (as the case may be) of the Veterans' Entitlements Act on the service payday that:
 - (i) where the first Thursday after the partner's death was a service payday—precedes the pension payday; or
 - (ii) in any other case—follows the pension payday; if the partner had not died.

Note: For bereavement rate continuation period see section 21.

- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), if the couple were, immediately before the partner's death, an illness separated couple or a respite care couple, the amounts are to be worked out as if they were not such a couple.

239 Lump sum payable in some circumstances

If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the person's partner; and

- (b) the first available bereavement adjustment payday occurs before the end of the bereavement period;
- there is payable to the person as a lump sum an amount worked out using the lump sum calculator at the end of this section.

LUMP SUM CALCULATOR

This is how to work out the amount of the lump sum:

Method statement

- Step 1. Work out the amount that would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday if:
- (a) the person's partner had not died; and
 - (b) where immediately before the partner's death the couple were an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they were not such a couple.
- Step 2. Work out the amount that would have been payable to the person's partner on the partner's payday or service payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday if:
- (a) the partner had not died; and
 - (b) where immediately before the partner's death the couple were an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they were not such a couple.
- Step 3. Add the results of Step 1 and Step 2: the result is called the combined rate.
- Step 4. Work out the amount that, but for section 240, would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday: the result is called the person's individual rate.

Section 240

- Step 5. Take the person's individual rate away from the combined rate: the result is called the partner's instalment component.
- Step 6. Work out the number of the partner's paydays in the bereavement lump sum period.
- Step 7. Multiply the partner's instalment component by the number obtained in Step 6: the result is the amount of the lump sum payable to the person under this section.

240 Adjustment of person's carer payment rate

If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision; and
- (b) the person does not elect under subsection 237(2) not to receive payments under this Subdivision;

the rate of the person's carer payment during the bereavement period is worked out as follows:

- (c) during the bereavement rate continuation period, the rate of carer payment payable to the person is the rate at which the pension would have been payable to the person if:
 - (i) the person's partner had not died; and
 - (ii) where immediately before the partner's death the couple were an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they were not such a couple;
- (d) during the bereavement lump sum period (if any), the rate at which carer payment is payable to the person is the rate at which the carer payment would be payable to the person apart from this Subdivision.

241 Effect of death of person entitled to payments under this Subdivision

If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the person's partner; and
- (b) the person dies within the bereavement period; and

- (c) the Secretary does not become aware of the death of the person's partner before the person dies;
there is payable, to such person as the Secretary thinks appropriate, as a lump sum, an amount worked out using the lump sum calculator at the end of this section.

LUMP SUM CALCULATOR

This is how to work out the amount of the lump sum:

Method statement

- Step 1. Work out the amount that would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately after the day on which the person died if:
- (a) neither the person nor the person's partner had died; and
 - (b) where immediately before the partner's death the couple were an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they were not such a couple.
- Step 2. Work out the amount that would have been payable to the partner on the partner's payday or service payday immediately after the day on which the person died if:
- (a) neither the person nor the partner had died; and
 - (b) where immediately before the partner's death the couple were an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they were not such a couple.
- Step 3. Add the results of Step 1 and Step 2: the result is called the combined rate.
- Step 4. Work out the amount that, but for section 240, would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately after the day on which the person died if the person had not died: the result is called the person's individual rate.

Section 242

- Step 5. Take the person's individual rate away from the combined rate: the result is called the partner's instalment component.
- Step 6. Work out the number of partner's paydays in the period that commences on the day on which the person dies and ends on the day on which the bereavement period ends.
- Step 7. Multiply the partner's instalment component by the number obtained in Step 6: the result is the amount of the lump sum payable under this section.

242 Benefits under this Subdivision

(1) If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the person's partner; and
- (b) after the person's partner died, an amount to which the partner would have been entitled if the partner had not died has been paid under this Act or under Part III or IIIA of the Veterans' Entitlements Act; and
- (c) the Secretary is not satisfied that the person has not had the benefit of that amount;

the following provisions have effect:

- (d) the amount referred to in paragraph (b) is not recoverable from the person or from the personal representative of the person's partner, except to the extent (if any) that the amount exceeds the amount payable to the person under this Subdivision;
- (e) the amount payable to the person under this Subdivision is to be reduced by the amount referred to in paragraph (b).

(2) If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the person's partner; and

- (c) the bank pays to the person, out of that account, an amount not exceeding the total of the amounts paid as mentioned in paragraph (b);

 - (ii) a lower ADAT score adult and a dependent child of the adult die at the same time; and
- (b) apart from this subsection and section 236B, because of those deaths a person would be qualified for payments under this Subdivision and would continue to qualify for carer payment under section 235; and
- (c) the sum of the amounts payable to the person under this Subdivision is less than or equal to the sum of the carer payments for which the person would continue to qualify under section 235 and any lump sum payable to the person under section 236A;

no amounts are payable to the person under this Subdivision.

Subdivision D—Death of recipient

- (4B) A plan may also contain one or more terms that the person may, but is not required to, comply with.

Approval of requirements

- (5) The requirements in a plan are to be approved by the Secretary.

A Parenting Payment Employment Pathway Plan that is in force in relation to a person is taken to be suspended during any period during which the person is covered by a participation exemption under Division 3A because of section 502C or 502D.

Division 3—Additional participation requirements

502 Secretary may impose additional participation requirements

- (1) Subject to sections 502A and 502B, if the Secretary is of the opinion that, throughout a period, a person who:
- (a) is subject to participation requirements; and
 - (b) is not covered by a participation exemption under Division 3A;
- should undertake particular paid work, other than paid work that is unsuitable to be done by the person, the Secretary may notify the person that the person is required to act in accordance with the opinion.

Note 1: For when a person is subject to participation requirements see subsection 23(1).

Note 2: See subsection (4) on what paid work is unsuitable.

- (2) To avoid doubt, the work that the person is required to undertake under subsection (1) may involve a number of hours per week that differs from the number of hours of work per week that the person is required to seek to comply with a Parenting Payment Employment Pathway Plan that is in force in relation to the person.
- (3) The person can be taken not to have complied with requirements notified to the person under subsection (1) whether or not the person has complied with:
- (a) any requirement to enter into a Parenting Payment Employment Pathway Plan; and
 - (b) the requirements in the plan.
- (4) Subject to subsections (7) and (8), for the purposes of this section, particular paid work is unsuitable for a person if and only if, in the Secretary's opinion:
- (a) the person lacks the particular skills, experience or qualifications that are needed to perform the work and no training will be provided by the employer; or
 - (b) it has been established that there is medical evidence that the person has an illness, disability or injury that would be aggravated by the conditions in which the work would be performed; or

Section 502

- (c) the person does not have access to appropriate care and supervision, for the one or more children for whom the person is the principal carer, at the times when the person would be required to undertake the work; or

Note: For principal carer see subsections 5(15) to (24).

- (d) performing the work in the conditions in which the work would be performed would constitute a risk to health or safety and would contravene a law of the Commonwealth, a State or a Territory relating to occupational health and safety; or
 - (e) the terms and conditions for the work would be less generous than the applicable statutory conditions; or
 - (g) commuting between the person's home and the place of work would be unreasonably difficult; or
 - (h) the work would require enlistment in the Defence Force or the Reserves; or
 - (i) the work requires the person to move from a home in one place to a home in another place; or
 - (j) for any other reason, the work is unsuitable for the person.
- (4A) The Secretary must, by legislative instrument, determine matters that the Secretary must take into account in deciding whether, for the purposes of paragraph (4)(j), particular paid work is unsuitable for a person.
- (4B) To avoid doubt, a determination under subsection (4A) does not limit the matters that the Secretary may take into account in deciding whether, for the purposes of paragraph (4)(j), particular paid work is unsuitable for a person.
- (5) A person has, for the purposes of paragraph (4)(c), access to appropriate care and supervision for a child at a particular time if, at that time:
- (a) the child could be provided with care by an approved child care service (within the meaning of the Family Assistance Administration Act), and provision of that care would, in the Secretary's opinion, be appropriate in the circumstances; or
 - (b) the child could be provided with other care that the person considers to be suitable; or

- (c) the child could be attending school, and attendance at that school would, in the Secretary's opinion, be appropriate in the circumstances.
- (6) For the purposes of paragraph (4)(c), a time when the person would be required to undertake the work includes reasonable amounts of time that would be needed for the person to travel from the person's home to the place of work and from the place of work to the person's home.
- (7) If:
- (a) a person seeks work in an area (the new area) that is outside the area (the old area) in which the person's home is situated; and
 - (b) the person is offered permanent work (whether or not work of the kind sought) in the new area;
- the work offered is not unsuitable for the person because of paragraph (4)(g) or (i) unless:
- (c) the person is under the age of 18; or
 - (d) the person or the person's partner is pregnant; or
 - (e) the person or the person's partner has a severe medical condition and the condition makes it unreasonable for the person to accept the offer; or
 - (f) the acceptance of the offer would jeopardise the current employment, or the employment prospects, of the person's partner; or
 - (g) the person or the person's partner has a child under the age of 16 years who is living with them or is living somewhere else in the old area; or
 - (h) the person or the person's partner has significant caring responsibilities in the old area; or
 - (i) the educational, cultural or religious background of the person makes it unreasonable for the person to accept the offer; or
 - (j) it is more appropriate for the person to participate in education or training than to accept the offer; or
 - (k) the person would suffer severe financial hardship if the person were to accept the offer.
- (8) Without affecting what would otherwise constitute a person seeking work outside the area in which the person's home is situated, if a person, when seeking employment through an employment service provider, represents to the provider that the person is willing to undertake work outside the area in which the person's home is situated, the person is taken for the purposes of subsection (7) to seek work outside the area at the time when the representation is made.

Section 502A

- (9) A reference in subsection (4) to remuneration for work is a reference to any income derived from the work that is income from personal exertion.

Note: For income from personal exertion see subsection 8(1).

 - (ii) paid work that the Secretary regards as suitable; or
 - (c) is engaged for at least 30 hours in the period in paid work that the Secretary regards as suitable.
- (2) This section does not apply to a person in respect of a day in a relevant period if, in respect of the person, having regard to the opportunities, or possible opportunities, for employment that become available to the person on or before the day, the Secretary considers that this section is not to apply to the person in respect of that day.

the Secretary may extend the person's maximum exemption period by not more than 4 weeks.

Section 514B

(d) immediately before the deceased partner died, the surviving partner was a long-term social security recipient; the surviving partner is qualified for payments under this Subdivision to cover the bereavement period.

Note 1: For benefit PP (partnered) see section 18 and for long-term social security recipient see subsection 23(1).

Note 2: Section 514B provides for the payment to the surviving partner, up to the first available bereavement adjustment payday, of amounts equal to the instalments that would have been paid to the deceased partner during that period if the partner had not died.

Note 3: Section 514C provides for payment to the surviving partner of a lump sum that represents the instalments that would have been paid to the deceased partner, between the first available bereavement adjustment payday and the end of the bereavement period, if the deceased partner had not died.

Note 4: For bereavement period see section 21.

(2) A surviving partner who is qualified for payments under this Subdivision may choose not to receive payments under this Subdivision.

If a surviving partner is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the deceased partner, there is payable to the surviving partner, on each of the deceased partner's paydays in the bereavement rate continuation period, an amount equal to the amount that would have been payable to the deceased partner on that payday if he or she had not died.

514C Lump sum payable in some circumstances

If:

- (a) a surviving partner is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the deceased partner; and
- (b) the first available bereavement adjustment payday occurs before the end of the bereavement period;

there is payable to the surviving partner as a lump sum an amount worked out using the following Lump Sum Calculator:

Lump Sum Calculator

This is how to work out the amount of the lump sum:

Method statement

Step 1. Work out the amount that would have been payable to the surviving partner on the surviving partner's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday if:

- (a) the deceased partner had not died; and
- (b) if, immediately before the partner's death, the couple were an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they were not such a couple.

Note: For illness separated couple and respite care couple see subsections 4(7) and (8).

Step 2. Work out the amount that would have been payable to the deceased partner on the deceased partner's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday if:

- (a) the deceased partner had not died; and
- (b) if, immediately before the partner's death, the couple were an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they were not such a couple.

Section 514D

Note: For illness separated couple and respite care couple see subsections 4(7) and (8).

- Step 3. Add the results of Step 1 and Step 2: the result is called the combined rate.
- Step 4. Work out the amount of pension PP (single) that would, if section 514D did not apply, have been payable to the surviving partner on the surviving partner's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday: the result is called the surviving partner's individual rate.
- Step 5. Take the surviving partner's individual rate away from the combined rate: the result is called the deceased partner's instalment component.
- Step 6. Work out the number of the deceased partner's paydays in the bereavement lump sum period.
- Step 7. Multiply the deceased partner's instalment component by the number obtained in Step 6: the result is the amount of the lump sum payable to the surviving partner under this section.

514D Adjustment of person's parenting payment rate

- (1) This section applies if a surviving partner:
 - (a) is qualified for payments under this Subdivision; and
 - (b) does not elect under subsection 514A(2) not to receive payments under this Subdivision.
- (2) The surviving partner's parenting payment rate during the bereavement rate continuation period is the benefit PP (partnered) rate that would have been payable to the surviving partner if:
 - (a) the deceased partner had not died; and
 - (b) if the couple had been an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they had not been such a couple.
- (3) The surviving partner's parenting payment rate during the bereavement lump sum period (if any) is the pension PP (single) rate.

- Note 1: For bereavement period, bereavement rate continuation period, bereavement lump sum period and first available bereavement adjustment payday see section 21.
- Note 2: For illness separated couple and respite care couple see subsections 4(7) and (8) respectively.
- Note 3: For pension PP (single) and benefit PP (partnered) see section 18.

514E Effect of death of surviving partner

If:

- (a) a surviving partner is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the deceased partner; and
- (b) the surviving partner dies within the bereavement period; and
- (c) the Secretary does not become aware of the death of the deceased partner before the surviving partner dies;

there is payable, as a lump sum, to any person that the Secretary thinks appropriate, an amount worked out using the following Lump Sum Calculator:

Lump Sum Calculator

This is how to work out the amount of the lump sum:

Method statement

Step 1. Work out the amount that would have been payable to the surviving partner on the surviving partner's payday immediately after the day on which the surviving partner died if:

- (a) neither the surviving partner nor the deceased partner had died; and
- (b) if, immediately before the deceased partner's death, the couple were an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they were not such a couple.

Note: For illness separated couple and respite care couple see subsections 4(7) and (8).

Section 514E

Step 2. Work out the amount that would have been payable to the deceased partner on the deceased partner's payday immediately after the day on which the surviving partner died if:

- (a) neither the surviving partner nor the deceased partner had died; and
- (b) if, immediately before the deceased partner's death, the couple were an illness separated couple or a respite care couple—they were not such a couple.

Note: For illness separated couple and respite care couple see subsections 4(7) and (8).

Step 3. Add the results of Step 1 and Step 2: the result is called the combined rate.

Step 4. Work out the amount of pension PP (single) that would, if section 514D did not apply, have been payable to the surviving partner on the surviving partner's payday immediately after the day on which the surviving partner died if the surviving partner had not died: the result is called the surviving partner's individual rate.

Step 5. Take the surviving partner's individual rate away from the combined rate: the result is called the deceased partner's instalment component.

Step 6. Work out the number of the deceased partner's paydays in the period that commences on the day on which the surviving partner dies and ends on the day on which the bereavement period ends.

Step 7. Multiply the deceased partner's instalment component by the number obtained in Step 6: the result is the amount of the lump sum payable under this section.

Note: For bereavement period and first available bereavement adjustment payday see section 21.

514F Matters affecting payments under this Subdivision

(1) If:

- (a) the surviving partner is qualified for payments under this Subdivision; and
- (b) after the deceased partner died, an amount to which the deceased partner would have been entitled if he or she had not died has been paid under this Act or under Part III of the Veterans' Entitlements Act; and
- (c) the Secretary is not satisfied that the surviving partner has not had the benefit of that amount;

the following provisions have effect:

- (d) the amount referred to in paragraph (b) is not recoverable from the surviving partner or from the personal representative of the deceased partner, except to the extent (if any) that the amount exceeds the amount payable to the surviving partner under this Subdivision;
- (e) the amount payable to the surviving partner under this Subdivision is to be reduced by the amount referred to in paragraph (b).

(2) If:

- (a) the surviving partner is qualified for payments under this Subdivision; and
- (b) an amount to which the deceased partner would have been entitled if the deceased partner had not died has been paid under this Act or under Part III of the Veterans' Entitlements Act, within the bereavement period, into an account with a bank; and
- (c) the bank pays to the surviving partner, out of that account, an amount not exceeding the total of the amounts paid as mentioned in paragraph (b);

the bank is, in spite of anything in any other law, not liable to any action, claim or demand by the Commonwealth, the personal representative of the deceased partner or anyone else in respect of the payment of that money to the surviving partner.

541D Unsuitable paid work

What is unsuitable paid work

- (1) Subject to subsections (1A) and (1B), for the purposes of section 541, particular paid work is unsuitable for a person if, and only if, in the Secretary's opinion:
- (a) the person lacks the particular skills, experience or qualifications that are needed to perform the work and no training will be provided by the employer; or
 - (b) it has been established that there is medical evidence that the person has an illness, disability or injury that would be aggravated by the conditions in which the work would be performed; or
 - (ba) the person is the principal carer for one or more children, and does not have access to appropriate care and supervision for the children at the times when the person would be required to undertake the work; or
- Note: For principal carer see subsections 5(15) to (24).
- (c) performing the work in the conditions in which the work would be performed would constitute a risk to health or safety and would contravene a law of the Commonwealth, a State or a Territory relating to occupational health and safety; or
 - (e) the terms and conditions for the work would be less generous than the applicable statutory conditions; or
 - (g) commuting between the person's home and the place of work would be unreasonably difficult; or
 - (ga) the place of work is not accessible by public transport services and the person does not have access to alternative transport facilities and could not reasonably be expected to travel to the place of work; or
 - (h) the work would require enlistment in the Defence Force or the Reserves; or

- (ha) the work requires the person to move from a home in one place to a home in another place; or
 - (i) for any other reason, the work is unsuitable for the person.
- (1AA) A person has, for the purposes of paragraph (1)(ba), access to appropriate care and supervision for a child at a particular time if, at that time:
- (a) the child could be provided with care by an approved child care service (within the meaning of the Family Assistance Administration Act), and provision of that care would, in the Secretary's opinion, be appropriate in the circumstances; or
 - (b) the child could be provided with other care that the person considers to be suitable; or
 - (c) the child could be attending school, and attendance at that school would, in the Secretary's opinion, be appropriate in the circumstances.
- (1AB) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(ba), a time when the person would be required to undertake the work includes reasonable amounts of time that would be needed for the person to travel from the person's home to the place of work and from the place of work to the person's home.
- (1AC) The Secretary must, by legislative instrument, determine matters that the Secretary must take into account in deciding whether, for the purposes of paragraph (1)(i), particular paid work is unsuitable for a person.
- (1AD) To avoid doubt, a determination under subsection (1AC) does not limit the matters that the Secretary may take into account in deciding whether, for the purposes of paragraph (1)(i), particular paid work is unsuitable for a person.

When commuting is unreasonably difficult

- (1A) If:
- (a) a person seeks work in an area (the new area) that is outside the area (the old area) in which the person's home is situated; and
 - (b) the person is offered permanent full-time work (whether or not work of the kind sought) in the new area;

Section 541D

the work offered is not unsuitable for the person because of paragraph (1)(g), (ga) or (ha) unless:

- (c) the person is under the age of 18; or
 - (d) the person or the person's partner is pregnant; or
 - (e) the person or the person's partner has a severe medical condition and the condition makes it unreasonable for the person to accept the offer; or
 - (f) the acceptance of the offer would jeopardise the current employment, or the employment prospects, of the person's partner; or
 - (g) the person or the person's partner has a child under the age of 16 years who is living with them or is living somewhere else in the old area; or
 - (h) the person or the person's partner has significant caring responsibilities in the old area; or
 - (i) the educational, cultural or religious background of the person makes it unreasonable for the person to accept the offer; or
 - (j) it is more appropriate for the person to participate in education or training than to accept the offer; or
 - (k) the person would suffer severe financial hardship if the person were to accept the offer.
- (1B) Without affecting what would otherwise constitute a person seeking work outside the area in which the person's home is situated, if a person, when seeking employment through an employment service provider, represents to the provider that the person is willing to undertake work outside the area in which the person's home is situated, the person is taken for the purposes of subsection (1A) to seek work outside the area at the time when the representation is made.

Remuneration for work

- (4) A reference in subsection (1) to remuneration for work is a reference to any income derived from the work that is income from personal exertion.

 - (k) fails to comply with a requirement to undertake another activity referred to in paragraph 550B(1)(b).

Reasonable excuse

- (2B) To avoid doubt, a determination under subsection (2A) does not limit the matters that the Secretary may take into account in deciding whether, for the purposes of subsection (2), a person had a reasonable excuse for committing the youth allowance participation failure referred to in subsection (1).

Subsequent failures in the same instalment period

- (3) Despite subsection (1), if a failure of a kind referred to in that subsection occurs in an instalment period of the person in which the person has already committed a youth allowance participation failure, the failure is not a youth allowance participation failure if:

- (a) the instalment period is the person's first instalment period for youth allowance; or
- (b) the instalment period is not the person's first instalment period for youth allowance, and:
 - (i) the person did not commit a youth allowance participation failure in the immediately preceding instalment period of the person; or

- (2A) The Secretary must, by legislative instrument, determine matters that the Secretary must take into account in deciding whether, for the purposes of paragraph (2)(a), a person had a reasonable excuse for a failure of a kind referred to in paragraph (1)(c).
- (2B) To avoid doubt, a determination under subsection (2A) does not limit the matters that the Secretary may take into account in deciding whether, for the purposes of paragraph (2)(a), a person had a reasonable excuse for the failure referred to in paragraph (1)(c).

Meaning of participation failure instalment period

- (3) The participation failure instalment period for the youth allowance participation failure is the next instalment period of the person to start after the day on which the Secretary first became aware that the person committed the failure.

Failures covered by section 551

- (4) This section does not apply to a youth allowance participation failure if section 551 applies to the failure.

Section 550C

550C When the period of non-payment starts

 - (ii) was receiving a service pension or income support supplement; or
 - (iii) was a long-term social security recipient; and
 - (f) on the person's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday, the amount that would be payable to the person if the person were not qualified for payments under this Division is less than the sum of:

Division 10 Bereavement payments

Section 567A

available bereavement adjustment payday and the end of the bereavement period, if the partner had not died.

Note 3: For first available bereavement adjustment payday and bereavement period see section 21.

Choice not to receive payments

- (2) A person who is qualified for payments under this Division may choose not to receive payments under this Division.

Form of choice

- (3) A choice under subsection (2):
- (a) must be made by written notice to the Secretary; and

Rate during bereavement period

- (4) If a person is qualified for payments under this Division in relation to the partner's death, the rate at which youth allowance is payable to the person during the bereavement period is, unless the person has made a choice under subsection (2), governed by section 567C.

567A Continued payment of partner's pension or benefit

If a person is qualified for payments under this Division in relation to the death of the person's partner, there is payable to the person, on each of the partner's paydays in the bereavement rate continuation period, an amount equal to the amount that would have been payable to the partner on that payday if the partner had not died.

Note: For bereavement rate continuation period see section 21.

567B Lump sum payable in some circumstances

If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Division in relation to the death of the person's partner; and

- (b) the first available bereavement adjustment payday occurs before the end of the bereavement period;
- there is payable to the person as a lump sum an amount worked out using the lump sum calculator at the end of this section.

Lump sum calculator*Method statement*

Step 1. Add up:

- (a) the amount that, if the person's partner had not died, would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday; and
- (b) the amount (if any) that, if the partner had not died, would have been payable to the partner on the partner's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday;

the result is the combined rate.

Step 2. Work out the amount that, apart from section 567C, would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday: the result is the person's individual rate.

Step 3. Take the person's individual rate away from the combined rate: the result is the partner's instalment component.

Step 4. Work out the number of the partner's paydays in the bereavement lump sum period.

Step 5. Multiply the partner's instalment component by the number obtained in Step 4: the result is the amount of the lump sum payable to the person under this section.

Section 567C

567C Adjustment of person's youth allowance rate

If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Division; and
- (b) the person does not elect under subsection 567(2) not to receive payments under this Division;

the rate of the person's youth allowance during the bereavement period is worked out as follows:

- (c) the Secretary does not become aware of the death of the person's partner before the person dies;

there is payable, to any person that the Secretary thinks appropriate, as a lump sum, an amount worked out using the lump sum calculator at the end of this section.

Lump sum calculator*Method statement*

Step 1. Add up:

- (a) the amount that, if neither the person nor the person's partner had died, would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately after the day on which the person dies; and
- (b) the amount (if any) that, if neither the person nor the person's partner had died, would have been payable to the person's partner on the partner's payday immediately after the day on which the person died;

the result is the combined rate.

Step 2. Work out the amount that, apart from section 567C, would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately after the day on which the person died if the person had not died: the result is the person's individual rate.

Step 3. Take the person's individual rate away from the combined rate: the result is the partner's instalment component.

Step 4. Work out the number of paydays of the partner in the period that begins on the day on which the person dies and ends on the day on which the bereavement period ends.

Step 5. Multiply the partner's instalment component by the number obtained in Step 4: the result is the amount of the lump sum payable under this section.

the person's rate of youth allowance, during the period of 14 weeks that starts on the day of the child's death, is to be worked out as if the child had not died.

Note 1: For principal carer see subsections 5(15) to (24).

Note 2: For undertaking full-time study see section 541B.

- (c) otherwise—an amount of full-time study equivalent to the average amount of full-time study that a person would have to undertake for the duration of the course in order to complete the course in the minimum amount of time needed to complete it.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), the normal amount of full-time study in respect of a course is an average, taken over the duration of the period for which the person in question is enrolled in the course, of 20 contact hours per week.

569F First fortnight of classes

A person is taken to be undertaking full-time study or a concessional study-load (as the case may be) in respect of a course during the period (the relevant period):

569G Progress rules—secondary students

General rule

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), a person enrolled in, or intending to enrol in, a secondary course satisfies the progress rules for the purposes of paragraph 569A(d) if, in the Secretary's opinion, the person is making satisfactory progress towards completing the course.

Students repeating year 12

- (2) A person does not satisfy the progress rules if:
 - (a) the person is enrolled in a secondary course that is at year 12 level, or the overall level of which is at year 12 level (see subsections (3) and (4)); and
 - (b) the person has been a full-time student in respect of a course at that level (a previous course) in each of 2 previous years; and
 - (c) none of the following circumstances apply:

Section 569H

- (i) the person failed a previous course because of an illness that had not been diagnosed when the person began that course;
- (ii) the person failed a previous course because of other circumstances beyond the person's control that were not apparent when the person began that course;
- (iii) the person failed a previous course because English is not the person's native language;
- (iv) the person completed or discontinued a previous course within 6 months after the relevant academic year started;
- (v) each of the previous courses was undertaken more than 10 years before the present study.

Course at year 12 level

- (3) A secondary course is at year 12 level if the institution in which the course is undertaken regards it as being at year 12 level.

Overall level of course at year 12 level

- (4) The overall level of a secondary course is at year 12 level if the institution in which the course is undertaken regards at least 50% of the course as being at year 12 level.

Meaning of secondary course

- (5) For the purposes of this section, a course is a secondary course if it is a course determined, under section 5D of the Student Assistance Act 1973, to be a secondary course for the purposes of that Act.

569H Progress rules—tertiary students

Full-time students

- (1) A person who is a full-time student in respect of a tertiary course satisfies the progress rules if:
 - (a) in the case of a person who is enrolled in the course—on the day on which the person enrolled in the course; or
 - (b) in the case of a person who is not yet enrolled in the course but intends to enrol in the course—on the day on which enrolments in the course are next accepted;

the time already spent by the student on the course, or on one or more other tertiary courses at the same level as that course, does not exceed the allowable study time for that course.

Note: For allowable study time for a course see subsection (3).

Concessional study-load students

- (2) A person who is a concessional study-load student in respect of a tertiary course satisfies the progress rules if:
- (a) in the case of a person who is enrolled in the course—on the day on which the person enrolled in the course; or
 - (b) in the case of a person who is not yet enrolled in the course but intends to enrol in the course—on the day on which enrolments in the course are next accepted;

the time already spent by the person on the course, or on one or more other tertiary courses at the same level as that course, does not exceed the allowable study time for the course.

Note: For allowable study time for a course see subsections (3) and (4).

Allowable study time—full-time students and 66% concessional study-load students

- (3) The allowable study time for a course undertaken by a full-time student or a 66% concessional study-load student is:
- (a) if the minimum amount of time needed to complete the course as a full-time student is one year or less—that minimum amount of time; or
 - (b) if the minimum amount of time needed to complete the course as a full-time student is more than 1 year and:
 - (i) the student is enrolled, or intends to enrol, in a year-long subject; or
 - (ii) the student's further progress in the course depends on passing a whole year's work in the course; the minimum amount of time plus 1 year; or
 - (c) in any other case—the minimum amount of time needed to complete the course as a full-time student plus half an academic year.

Section 569H

Allowable study time—25% concessional study-load students

- (4) The allowable study time for a course undertaken by a 25% concessional study-load student is twice the minimum period in which it is possible to complete the course as a full-time student but the Secretary may approve, in particular cases, an allowable study time of up to four times the minimum period in which it is possible to complete the course as a full-time student.

Time spent by person studying part-time

- (5) If a student has studied part-time for a course over a certain period, the time spent by the student on that course is taken to be the proportion of that period calculated by using the formula:

$$\frac{\text{Study undertaken}}{\text{Normal full-time study}}$$

where:

normal full-time study means the normal amount of full-time study for the course.

study undertaken means the amount of study undertaken part-time by the student for the course.

Current full-time students who have previously undertaken courses as concessional study-load students

- (6) If:
- (a) a person is undertaking a course as a full-time student; and
 - (b) the person has previously undertaken:
 - (i) part of the course; or
 - (ii) one or more than one other course at the same level as that course;as a concessional study-load student; and
 - (c) the time spent by the person undertaking the part of the course referred to in subparagraph (b)(i), or the course or courses referred to in subparagraph (b)(ii), (the previous study) is not to be disregarded under subsection (7);
- the time spent by the person undertaking the previous study is taken to be equal to the minimum amount of time that a full-time student would have taken to complete the previous study.

Current 25% concessional study-load students who have previously undertaken courses on a different basis

(6A) If:

- (a) a person is undertaking a course as a 25% concessional study-load student; and
- (b) the person has previously undertaken:
 - (i) part of that course; or
 - (ii) one or more than one other course at the same level as that course;

in any of the following ways:

- (iii) as a full-time student;
- (iv) as a 66% concessional study-load student;
- (v) on a part-time basis; and
- (c) the time spent by the person undertaking the part of the course referred to in subparagraph (b)(i), or the course or courses referred to in subparagraph (b)(ii), (the previous study) is not to be disregarded under subsection (7);

the time spent by the person undertaking the previous study is taken to be:

- (d) twice the time that the person took to complete the previous study; or
- (e) if the Secretary has approved, under subsection (4), a longer allowable study time in relation to the person for the course—the time taken by the person to complete the previous study multiplied by the factor used by the Secretary for the purposes of the approval under that subsection.

Matters to be disregarded in determining whether someone has exceeded the allowable study time

- (7) In determining whether a person has exceeded the allowable study time (for a full-time student or a concessional study-load student), disregard the following:
 - (a) if the person has completed a course (a pre-requisite course) the completion of which is the normal requirement for admission to the course in which the person is enrolled or intends to enrol—time spent undertaking the pre-requisite course;

Section 569H

- (b) a failed year of study, or a failed part of a year of study, if the failure is because of:
 - (i) the person's illness; or
 - (ii) other circumstances beyond the person's control;
- (c) time spent undertaking a course that has been permanently discontinued because of:
 - (i) the person's illness; or
 - (ii) other circumstances beyond the person's control;
- (d) time spent undertaking a course that has been completed but which, because of the person's illness, the person cannot use in any of the trades or profession to which the course is appropriate;
- (e) time spent undertaking a TAFE course or a course provided by a VET provider if the normal length of the course for a full-time student is one year or less;
- (f) time spent undertaking a course more than 10 years ago, unless the course has since been completed;
- (g) time spent undertaking a course after 1973 if the course was not:
 - (i) approved for the Tertiary Education Assistance Scheme; or
 - (ii) approved for the AUSTUDY scheme; or
 - (iii) an approved course for the purposes of paragraph 541B(1)(c), 569A(b) or 1061PB(1)(b) of this Act;
- (h) time spent undertaking a course at a foreign institution;
- (i) time spent undertaking a subject from which the student withdrew, if the educational institution in which the subject was undertaken did not record the withdrawal from the subject as a failure;

 - (i) AUSTUDY; or
 - (ii) a benefit under the Tertiary Education Assistance Scheme; or

Subdivision E—Situations where austudy payment not payable because of austudy participation failure

576 Austudy participation failures

Meaning of austudy participation failure

- (1) A person commits an austudy participation failure if the person:

 - (b) fails to satisfy the activity test; or
 - (c) fails to comply with a requirement to undertake another activity referred to in paragraph 576A(1)(b).

Reasonable excuse

- (2) Despite subsection (1), a failure of a kind referred to in that subsection is not an austudy participation failure if the person satisfies the Secretary that the person had a reasonable excuse for the failure.
- (2A) The Secretary must, by legislative instrument, determine matters that the Secretary must take into account in deciding whether, for the purposes of subsection (2), a person had a reasonable excuse for committing an austudy participation failure.

- (2B) To avoid doubt, a determination under subsection (2A) does not limit the matters that the Secretary may take into account in deciding whether, for the purposes of subsection (2), a person had a reasonable excuse for committing the austudy participation failure referred to in subsection (1).

Subsequent failures in the same instalment period

- (3) Despite subsection (1), if a failure of a kind referred to in that subsection occurs in an instalment period of the person in which the person has already committed an austudy participation failure, the failure is not an austudy participation failure if:
- (a) the instalment period is the person's first instalment period for austudy payment; or
 - (b) the instalment period is not the person's first instalment period for austudy payment, and:
 - (i) the person did not commit an austudy participation failure in the immediately preceding instalment period of the person; or

Section 576B

- during the participation failure instalment period for the failure, or at a particular time during that period; and
- (c) the person fails to comply with the requirement.

Reasonable excuse etc.

- (2) This section does not apply in relation to the failure if:
- (a) the Secretary is satisfied that the person had a reasonable excuse for the failure referred to paragraph (1)(c); or
- (b) the Secretary is for any other reason satisfied that subsection (1) should not apply to the failure.
- (2A) The Secretary must, by legislative instrument, determine matters that the Secretary must take into account in deciding whether, for the purposes of paragraph (2)(a), a person had a reasonable excuse for a failure of a kind mentioned in paragraph (1)(c).
- (2B) To avoid doubt, a determination under subsection (2A) does not limit the matters that the Secretary may take into account in deciding whether, for the purposes of paragraph (2)(a), a person had a reasonable excuse for the failure referred to in paragraph (1)(c).

Meaning of participation failure instalment period

- (3) The participation failure instalment period for the austudy participation failure is the next instalment period of the person to start after the day on which the Secretary first became aware that the person committed the failure.

Failures covered by section 577

- (4) This section does not apply to an austudy participation failure if section 577 applies to the failure.

576B When the period of non-payment starts

The period for which austudy payment is not payable to the person because of section 576A is taken to have started at the start of the participation failure instalment period for the austudy participation failure.

576C When the period of non-payment ends

The period for which austudy payment is not payable to the person because of section 576A ends when:

- (a) in accordance with a requirement of the Secretary that the person comply with the requirement, or undertake the activity, to which the austudy participation failure related, the person has complied with the requirement or undertaken the activity; or
- (b) in accordance with a requirement of the Secretary that the person undertake another activity in place of the requirement or activity to which the austudy participation failure related, the person has undertaken the other activity; or
- (c) in accordance with a requirement of the Secretary that the person comply with another requirement in place of the requirement or activity to which the austudy participation failure related, the person has complied with the other requirement.

Subdivision F—Situations where payment not payable because of repeated failure

577 Payment not payable because of repeated failure

General

- (1) Austudy payment is not payable to a person, for the period of 8 weeks starting in accordance with section 577A, if the person commits an austudy participation failure (the repeated failure), having committed austudy participation failures (the earlier failures) on 2 or more other occasions during the period of 12 months preceding that failure.

Reasonable excuse etc.

- (2) Disregard any earlier failure that is a failure to which subsection 576A(1) does not apply because of subsection 576A(2).
- (3) Subsection (1) does not apply in relation to the repeated failure if the Secretary is for any other reason satisfied that subsection (1) should not apply to the failure.

Section 577A

577A When the period of non-payment starts

The period for which austudy payment is not payable to the person is taken to start, or to have started:

- (a) if the repeated failure occurs during a participation failure instalment period for an earlier failure—at the start of the participation failure instalment period for the earlier failure; or
- (b) otherwise—at the start of the next instalment period of the person to start after the day on which the Secretary first became aware that the person committed the failure.

Note: For participation failure instalment period see subsection 576A(3).

Division 10—Bereavement payments on death of partner

592 Qualification for payments under this Division

Qualification for payment

- (1) If:
- (a) a person is receiving an austudy payment; and
 - (b) the person is a long-term social security recipient; and
 - (c) the person is a member of a couple; and
 - (d) the person's partner dies; and
 - (e) immediately before the partner died, the partner:
 - (i) was receiving a social security pension; or
 - (ii) was receiving a service pension or income support supplement; or
 - (iii) was a long-term social security recipient; and
 - (f) on the person's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday, the amount that would be payable to the person if the person were not qualified for payments under this Division is less than the sum of:
 - (i) the amount that would otherwise be payable to the person under section 592C (person's continued rate) on that payday; and
 - (ii) the amount (if any) that would otherwise be payable to the person under section 592A (continued payment of partner's pension or benefit) on the partner's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday;

the person is qualified for payments under this Division to cover the bereavement period.

Note 1: Section 592A provides for the payment to the person, up to the first available bereavement adjustment payday, of amounts equal to the instalments that would have been paid to the person's partner during that period if the partner had not died.

Note 2: Section 592B provides for a lump sum that represents the instalments that would have been paid to the person's partner, between the first available bereavement adjustment payday and the end of the bereavement period, if the partner had not died.

Note 3: For first available bereavement adjustment payday and bereavement period see section 21.

Choice not to receive payments

- (2) A person who is qualified for payments under this Division may choose not to receive payments under this Division.

Form of choice

- (3) A choice under subsection (2):
- (a) must be made by written notice to the Secretary; and
 - (b) may be made after the person has been paid an amount or amounts under this Division; and
 - (c) cannot be withdrawn after the Department has taken all the action required to give effect to that choice.

Rate during bereavement period

- (4) If a person is qualified for payments under this Division in relation to the partner's death, the rate at which austudy payment is payable to the person during the bereavement period is, unless the person has made a choice under subsection (2), governed by section 592C.

592A Continued payment of partner's pension or benefit

If a person is qualified for payments under this Division in relation to the death of the person's partner, there is payable to the person, on each of the partner's paydays in the bereavement rate continuation period, an amount equal to the amount that would have been payable to the partner on that payday if the partner had not died.

Note: For bereavement rate continuation period see section 21.

592B Lump sum payable in some circumstances

If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Division in relation to the death of the person's partner; and
- (b) the first available bereavement adjustment payday occurs before the end of the bereavement period;

Section 592B

there is payable to the person as a lump sum an amount worked out using the lump sum calculator at the end of this section.

Lump sum calculator

Method statement

Step 1. Add up:

- (a) the amount that, if the person's partner had not died, would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday; and
- (b) the amount (if any) that, if the partner had not died, would have been payable to the partner on the partner's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday;

the result is the combined rate.

Step 2. Work out the amount that, apart from section 592C, would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday: the result is the person's individual rate.

Step 3. Take the person's individual rate away from the combined rate: the result is the partner's instalment component.

Step 4. Work out the number of the partner's paydays in the bereavement lump sum period.

592C Adjustment of person's austudy payment rate

If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Division; and
- (b) the person does not elect under subsection 592(2) not to receive payments under this Division;

the rate of the person's austudy payment during the bereavement period is worked out as follows:

- (c) during the bereavement rate continuation period, the rate of austudy payment payable to the person is the rate at which the austudy payment would have been payable to the person if the person's partner had not died;
- (d) during the bereavement lump sum period (if any), the rate at which austudy payment is payable to the person is the rate at which austudy payment would be payable to the person apart from this Division.

592D Effect of death of person entitled to payments under this Division

If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Division in relation to the death of the person's partner; and
- (b) the person dies within the bereavement period; and
- (c) the Secretary does not become aware of the death of the person's partner before the person dies;

there is payable, to any person that the Secretary thinks appropriate, as a lump sum, an amount worked out using the lump sum calculator at the end of this section.

Section 592D

Lump sum calculator

Method statement

Step 1. Add up:

- (a) the amount that, if neither the person nor the person's partner had died, would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately after the day on which the person dies; and
- (b) the amount (if any) that, if neither the person nor the person's partner had died, would have been payable to the person's partner on the partner's payday immediately after the day on which the person died;

the result is the combined rate.

Step 2. Work out the amount that, apart from section 592C, would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately after the day on which the person died if the person had not died: the result is the person's individual rate.

Step 3. Take the person's individual rate away from the combined rate: the result is the partner's instalment component.

Step 4. Work out the number of paydays of the partner in the period that begins on the day on which the person dies and ends on the day on which the bereavement period ends.

Step 5. Multiply the partner's instalment component by the number obtained in Step 4: the result is the amount of the lump sum payable under this section.

592E Matters affecting payments under this Division

Recovery/reduction of amount payable

(1) If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Division in relation to the death of the person's partner; and
- (b) after the person's partner died, an amount to which the partner would have been entitled if the partner had not died has been paid under this Act or under Part III of the Veterans' Entitlements Act; and
- (c) the Secretary is not satisfied that the person has not had the benefit of that amount;

the following provisions have effect:

- (d) the amount referred to in paragraph (b) is not recoverable from the person or from the personal representative of the person's partner, except to the extent (if any) that the amount is more than the amount payable to the person under this Division;
- (e) the amount payable to the person under this Division is to be reduced by the amount referred to in paragraph (b).

Bank not liable

(2) If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Division in relation to the death of the person's partner; and
- (b) the amount to which the person's partner would have been entitled if the person's partner had not died has been paid under this Act or under Part III of the Veterans' Entitlements Act, within the bereavement period, into an account with a bank; and
- (c) the bank pays to the person, out of the account, an amount not more than the total of the amounts paid as mentioned in paragraph (b);

the bank is, despite anything in any other law, not liable to any action, claim or demand by the Commonwealth, the personal representative of the person's partner or anyone else in respect of the payment of that money to the person.

- (1E) The period for which the person is qualified for a newstart allowance under subsection (1D) starts:
 - (a) if the person is already receiving newstart allowance when the Secretary becomes aware of the medical condition referred to in paragraph (1D)(e)—when the Secretary becomes aware of the medical condition; or
 - (b) otherwise—when the person made, or is taken to have made, the claim for newstart allowance.
- (1F) The period for which the person is qualified for a newstart allowance under subsection (1D) ends:
 - (a) if the person has failed to comply with a requirement to enter into a Newstart Employment Pathway Plan—on the day on which the person so failed; or
 - (b) in any other case—when the person enters into a Newstart Employment Pathway Plan.
- (4) If:
 - (a) a person was receiving a social security pension, a service pension or income support supplement; and
 - (b) the person claims a newstart allowance within 14 days of the day on which the last instalment of the person's pension was paid; and
 - (c) the person becomes qualified for a newstart allowance at some time during the 14 day period but after the first day of that period;the person is taken to be qualified for a newstart allowance for the whole of the 14 day period.

Note: subsection (4) operates when a person transfers from a pension to a newstart allowance and the person is not qualified for a newstart allowance immediately after the day on which the person's last instalment of pension is paid. The subsection deems the person to be so qualified. As a result, the person may be paid a newstart allowance for the period beginning on the day after the day on which the person's last instalment of pension was paid. The subsection aims to ensure that there is minimal disruption to a person's payments when a person transfers from a pension to a newstart allowance.

Section 595

595 Persons may be treated as unemployed

- (1) The Secretary may treat a person as being unemployed throughout a period if:
- (a) during the period, the person undertakes:
 - (i) paid work that, in the Secretary's opinion, is suitable for the person to undertake; or
 - (ii) any other activity;as a result of which he or she would, but for this subsection, not be taken to be unemployed; and
 - (b) the Secretary is of the opinion that, taking into account:
 - (i) the nature of the work or other activity; and
 - (ii) the duration of the work or other activity; and
 - (iii) any remuneration received for the work or other activity; and
 - (iv) any other matters relating to the work or other activity, or to the person's circumstances, that the Secretary considers relevant;the activity should be disregarded.

Note: The person may, under subsection 603(3), also be treated as satisfying the activity test.

- (1A) However, the work or other activity must not be or include any work or other activity of a kind that the Secretary determines under subsection (1B).
- (1B) The Secretary may determine, by legislative instrument, kinds of work or other activity that are not to be taken into account for the purposes of subsection (1).
- (2) A person complying with a Newstart Employment Pathway Plan, or with a requirement under subsection 601(1A), may be treated by the Secretary as being unemployed.
- (3) In deciding whether to treat a person as being unemployed, the Secretary is to take into account:
- (a) the nature of the activity undertaken by the person so as to comply with a requirement under subsection 601(1A) (activity test) or a requirement in a Newstart Employment Pathway Plan; and
 - (b) the duration of the activity; and

- (c) any other matters relating to the activity that the Secretary considers relevant.

Note: The operation of this section is modified for participants in the case management system by section 45 of the Employment Services Act 1994.

596 Unemployment due to industrial action

- (1) A person is not qualified for a newstart allowance in respect of a period unless the person satisfies the Secretary that the person's unemployment during the period was not due to the person being, or having been, engaged in industrial action or in a series of industrial actions.
- (2) A person is not qualified for a newstart allowance in respect of a period unless the Secretary is satisfied:
- (a) that the person's unemployment during the period was due to other people being, or having been, engaged in industrial action or in a series of industrial actions; and
 - (b) the people, or some of the people, were members of a trade union which was involved in the industrial action; and
 - (c) the person was not a member of the trade union during the period.
- (3) Subject to subsection (4), subsections (1) and (2) do not prevent a person from being qualified for a newstart allowance in respect of a period that occurs after the relevant industrial action or series of industrial actions has stopped.

Note: for industrial action, trade union and unemployment see section 16.

- (4) Where the relevant industrial action or series of industrial actions is in breach of an order, direction or injunction issued by:
- (a) a prescribed State industrial authority within the meaning of the Fair Work Act 2009; or
 - (b) Fair Work Australia or the Australian Industrial Relations Commission; or
 - (c) the Federal Court of Australia; or
 - (d) the Federal Magistrates Court;
- a person is not qualified for a newstart allowance in respect of a period unless that period occurs 6 weeks or more after the relevant industrial action or series of industrial actions has stopped.

Section 596A

596A Assurance of support

A person is not qualified for newstart allowance in respect of a period if the Secretary is satisfied that throughout the period:

- (a) an assurance of support was in force in respect of the person (in this section called the assuree); and
- (b) the person who gave the assurance of support was willing and able to provide an adequate level of support to the assuree; and
- (c) it was reasonable for the assuree to accept that support.

Note: for assurance of support see subsection 23(1).

598 Liquid assets test waiting period

- (1) Subject to subsections (4A), (5), (6), (7) and (8), if:
 - (a) the value of a person's liquid assets exceeds the person's maximum reserve on:
 - (i) the day following the day on which the person ceased work or ceased to be enrolled in a full time course of education or of vocational training; or
 - (ii) the day on which the person claims a newstart allowance; and
 - (b) the person is not a transferee to a newstart allowance;the person is not qualified for a newstart allowance for a period unless the person has served the liquid assets test waiting period in relation to the claim before the beginning of that period.

Note 1: for liquid assets see section 14A.

Note 2: for maximum reserve see section 14A.

Note 3: for transferee to a newstart allowance see subsections 23(6) and (7).

Note 4: for serving the liquid assets test waiting period see subsection 23(10).

- (2) The liquid assets test waiting period in relation to the claim is to be worked out under subsections (2A), (2B) and (2C).
- (2A) Work out the number of formula weeks (disregarding any fractions of a week) in relation to the claim using the formula:

$$\frac{\text{Liquid assets} - \text{Maximum reserve amount}}{\text{Divisor}}$$

where:

liquid assets means the person's liquid assets.

maximum reserve amount means the maximum reserve in relation to the person under subsection 14A(1).

divisor means, in relation to a person:

- (a) if the person is not a member of a couple and does not have a dependent child—$500; or
 - (b) otherwise—$1,000.
- (2B) If the number of formula weeks is equal to or greater than 13 weeks, the liquid assets test waiting period in relation to the claim is 13 weeks.
- (2C) If subsection (2B) does not apply, the liquid assets test waiting period in relation to the claim is the number of weeks equal to the number of formula weeks.
- (3) Subject to subsections (3AA) and (4), if the person is not a member of a couple, the liquid assets test waiting period in relation to the claim starts on the day following the day on which the person ceased work or ceased to be enrolled in a full time course of education or of vocational training.
- (3AA) Subject to subsection (4), if the person:
- (a) is not a member of a couple; and
 - (b) is, under Subdivision BA, not required to satisfy the activity test;
- the liquid assets test waiting period in relation to the claim starts on the day on which the person became incapacitated.
- (3A) Subject to subsections (3B) and (4), if the person is a member of a couple, the liquid assets test waiting period in relation to the claim starts on the last occurring of the following days:
- (a) the day following the day on which the person ceased work or ceased to be enrolled in a full time course of education or of vocational training;
 - (b) if, when the claim is made, the person's partner has ceased work—the day following the day on which the person's partner ceased work;

Section 598

- (ba) if, when the claim is made, the person's partner has ceased to be enrolled in a full time course of education or of vocational training—the day following the day on which the person's partner so ceased;
- (c) if, when the claim is made, the person's partner is incapacitated for work—the day on which the person's partner became incapacitated for work.

(3B) Subject to subsection (4), if the person:

- (a) is a member of a couple; and
- (b) is, under Subdivision BA, not required to satisfy the activity test;

the liquid assets test waiting period in relation to the claim starts on the last occurring of the following days:

- (c) the day on which the person became incapacitated for work;
- (d) if, when the claim is made, the person's partner has ceased work—the day following the day on which the person's partner ceased work;
- (da) if, when the claim is made, the person's partner has ceased to be enrolled in a full time course of education or of vocational training—the day following the day on which the person's partner so ceased;
- (e) if, when the claim is made, the person's partner is incapacitated for work—the day on which the person's partner became incapacitated for work.

(4) If:

- (a) a person becomes incapacitated for work; and
- (b) because of section 674 (sickness allowance liquid assets test waiting period), the person is not qualified for sickness allowance during the liquid assets test waiting period that starts on the day on which the person becomes incapacitated for work; and
- (c) within that liquid assets test waiting period:
 - (i) the person ceases to be incapacitated for work; and
 - (ii) the person claims a newstart allowance;

the liquid assets test waiting period starts on the day on which the person becomes incapacitated for work.

- (4A) Subsection (1) does not apply to a person if, at any time during the 12 months preceding:
- (a) the day following the day on which the person ceased work or ceased to be enrolled in a full time course of education or of vocational training; or
 - (b) the day on which the person claims a newstart allowance; the person or their partner was serving a liquid assets test waiting period that started during that 12 months.
- (5) If the Secretary is satisfied that a person is in severe financial hardship because the person has incurred unavoidable or reasonable expenditure while serving a liquid assets test waiting period, the Secretary may determine that the person does not have to serve the whole, or any part, of the waiting period.
- Note 1: For in severe financial hardship see subsection 19C(2) (person who is not a member of a couple) and 19C(3) (person who is a member of a couple).
- Note 2: For unavoidable or reasonable expenditure see subsection 19C(4).
- (6) Subsection (1) does not apply to a person who becomes qualified for newstart allowance at the end of a continuous period in respect of which the person received income support payments (whether or not the kind of payment received has changed over the period and whether the period or any part of it occurred before or after the commencement of this subsection).
- Note 1: For income support payment see subsection 23(1).
- Note 2: For the determination of the continuous period in respect of which a person received income support payments see section 38B.
- (8) Subsection (1) does not apply to a person who:
- (a) is undertaking an activity specified in an instrument made under subsection (8A); and
 - (b) has been exempted from the application of subsection (1) by the Secretary.
- (8A) The Secretary may, by legislative instrument, specify activities for the purpose of paragraph (8)(a).
- (9) A reference in this section to the day on which a person ceased work (whether the person ceases work permanently, temporarily or by reason of being on unpaid leave) is a reference:

Section 600

- (a) except where the person is on paid leave immediately after last performing work—to the day on which the person last performed work before so ceasing; and
- (b) if the person is on paid leave—to the last day on which the person is on that paid leave.

600 Prospective determinations for some allowance recipients

- (1) A person is qualified for newstart allowance for a period determined by the Secretary if:
 - (a) the person is receiving newstart allowance; and
 - (b) the Secretary considers at the start of the period that:
 - (i) the person may reasonably be expected to satisfy the qualification requirements for newstart allowance (sections 593 to 598) during the period; and
 - (ii) it is reasonable to expect that newstart allowance will be payable to the person for the period; and
 - (iii) the person will comply with the Act during the period; and
 - (c) except where the person is a CDEP Scheme participant in respect of the period, the person is not indebted at the start of the period to the Commonwealth under or as a result of this Act; and
 - (d) the Secretary is satisfied that the person should be qualified under this section for a newstart allowance for the period.
- (2) The Minister, by legislative instrument:
 - (a) must determine guidelines for making decisions under paragraph (1)(b); and
 - (b) may revoke or vary the determination.

If the Minister revokes a determination, the Minister must determine guidelines that take effect immediately after the revocation.

Subdivision B—Activity test

601 Activity test

- (1) Subject to subsections (1A) and (5), a person satisfies the activity test in respect of a period if the person satisfies the Secretary that, throughout the period, the person is:

- (a) actively seeking; and
 - (b) willing to undertake;
- paid work in Australia, other than paid work that is unsuitable to be undertaken by the person.

Note 1: For situations in which a person is taken to satisfy, or is not required to satisfy, the activity test see:

- (a) section 603 (persons attending training camps or in remote areas);
- (b) section 603A (special circumstances);
- (c) section 603AA (persons 55 and over who are engaged in work);
- (d) section 603AB (certain principal carers and people with partial capacity to work).

Note 2: See subsections (2A) and (2B) on what paid work is unsuitable.

- (1A) A person also satisfies the activity test in respect of a period if:
- (a) the Secretary is of the opinion that, throughout the period, the person should undertake particular paid work, other than paid work that is unsuitable to be done by the person; and
- Note: See subsection (2A) on what paid work is unsuitable.
- (b) the Secretary notifies the person that the person is required to act in accordance with that opinion; and
 - (c) the person complies, throughout the period, with the Secretary's requirement.
- (1B) To avoid doubt, the work that the person is required to undertake under subsection (1A) may involve a number of hours per week that differs from the number of hours of work per week that the person is required to seek to comply with a Newstart Employment Pathway Plan that is in force in relation to the person.

- (2) A person cannot be taken to satisfy the activity test throughout a period if the person fails to comply with a requirement under subsection (1A):
- (a) whether or not the person complies with subsection (1) or (4); and
 - (b) whether or not another provision of this Act under which the activity test is satisfied, or taken to be satisfied, applies (or would apart from this section apply) to the person.

Section 601

- (2A) Subject to subsections (2AA) and (2AB), for the purposes of subsection (1) and paragraph (1A)(a), particular paid work is unsuitable for a person if and only if, in the Secretary's opinion:
- (a) the person lacks the particular skills, experience or qualifications that are needed to perform the work and no training will be provided by the employer; or
 - (b) it has been established that there is medical evidence that the person has an illness, disability or injury that would be aggravated by the conditions in which the work would be performed; or
 - (ba) the person is the principal carer for one or more children, and does not have access to appropriate care and supervision for the children at the times when the person would be required to undertake the work; or
- Note: For principal carer see subsections 5(15) to (24).
- (c) performing the work in the conditions in which the work would be performed would constitute a risk to health or safety and would contravene a law of the Commonwealth, a State or a Territory relating to occupational health and safety; or
 - (e) the terms and conditions for the work would be less generous than the applicable statutory conditions; or
 - (g) commuting between the person's home and the place of work would be unreasonably difficult; or
 - (h) the work would require enlistment in the Defence Force or the Reserves; or
 - (i) the work requires the person to move from a home in a place to a home in another place; or
 - (j) for any other reason, the work is unsuitable for the person.
- (2AAA) A person has, for the purposes of paragraph (2A)(ba), access to appropriate care and supervision for a child at a particular time if, at that time:
- (a) the child could be provided with care by an approved child care service (within the meaning of the Family Assistance Administration Act), and provision of that care would, in the Secretary's opinion, be appropriate in the circumstances; or
 - (b) the child could be provided with other care that the person considers to be suitable; or

- (c) the child could be attending school, and attendance at that school would, in the Secretary's opinion, be appropriate in the circumstances.
- (2AAB) For the purposes of paragraph (2A)(ba), a time when the person would be required to undertake the work includes reasonable amounts of time that would be needed for the person to travel from the person's home to the place of work and from the place of work to the person's home.
- (2AA) If:
- (a) a person seeks work in an area (the new area) that is outside the area (the old area) in which the person's home is situated; and
 - (b) the person is offered permanent full-time work (whether or not work of the kind sought) in the new area;
- the work offered is not unsuitable for the person because of paragraph (2A)(g) or (i) unless:
- (c) the person is under the age of 18; or
 - (d) the person or the person's partner is pregnant; or
 - (e) the person or the person's partner has a severe medical condition and the condition makes it unreasonable for the person to accept the offer; or
 - (f) the acceptance of the offer would jeopardise the current employment, or the employment prospects, of the person's partner; or
 - (g) the person or the person's partner has a child under the age of 16 years who is living with them or is living somewhere else in the old area; or
 - (h) the person or the person's partner has significant caring responsibilities in the old area; or
 - (i) the educational, cultural or religious background of the person makes it unreasonable for the person to accept the offer; or
 - (j) it is more appropriate for the person to participate in education or training than to accept the offer; or
 - (k) the person would suffer severe financial hardship if the person were to accept the offer.
- (2AB) Without affecting what would otherwise constitute a person seeking work outside the area in which the person's home is situated, if a person, when seeking employment through an employment service provider, represents to the provider that the person is willing to undertake work outside the area in which the person's home is situated, the person is taken for the purposes of subsection (2AA) to seek work outside the area at the time when the representation is made.

Section 601

- (2AC) The Secretary must, by legislative instrument, determine matters that the Secretary must take into account in deciding whether, for the purposes of paragraph (2A)(j), particular paid work is unsuitable for a person.
- (2AD) To avoid doubt, a determination under subsection (2AC) does not limit the matters that the Secretary may take into account in deciding whether, for the purposes of paragraph (2A)(j), particular paid work is unsuitable for a person.
- (2D) A reference in subsection (2A) to remuneration for work is a reference to any income derived from the work that is income from personal exertion.

Note: For income from personal exertion see subsection 8(1).

- (4) A person also satisfies the activity test in respect of a period if:
- (a) throughout the period, the person complies with the terms of a Newstart Employment Pathway Plan that is in force in relation to the person; and
 - (b) either:
 - (i) the person is included in a class of persons specified in an instrument made under subsection (4A); or
 - (ii) the Secretary determines that the person should be taken to satisfy the activity test in respect of that period.
- (4A) The Secretary may, by legislative instrument, specify classes of persons for the purposes of subparagraph (4)(b)(i).
- (4B) A person also satisfies the activity test in respect of a period if, throughout the period, the person:
- (a) is participating in an approved training course for training supplement; and
 - (b) is, in the Secretary's opinion, making satisfactory progress towards completing the course.

- (4C) In forming an opinion about whether a person is making satisfactory progress for the purpose of paragraph (4B)(b), the Secretary must have regard to guidelines set under subsection 541B(3B).
- (5) If a person fails to comply, throughout a period, with a requirement in a Newstart Employment Pathway Plan that is in force in relation to the person, the person cannot be taken to satisfy the activity test in respect of the period in spite of any compliance of the person with subsection (1) or (4B).

Note 1: For situations in which a person is not required to satisfy the activity test see section 603 (persons attending training camps or in remote areas).

Note 2: The operation of this section is modified for participants in the case management system by section 45 of the Employment Services Act 1994.

602A Relief from activity test—persons to whom subsection 614(6) applies

If:

- (a) newstart allowance is payable to a person because of subsection 614(6); and
- (b) the person has commenced the full-time course of education referred to in paragraph 614(6)(a);

the person is taken to satisfy the activity test in respect of the period during which the allowance is payable to the person because of that subsection.

602B Relief from activity test—domestic violence etc.

- (1) A person is not required to satisfy the activity test in respect of a period that the Secretary determines under this section in relation to the person.
- (2) The Secretary may make a determination under this section in relation to the person if the Secretary is satisfied that:
 - (a) the person:
 - (i) is the principal carer of one or more children; and
 - (ii) has ceased to be a member of a couple in the period of 26 weeks before the determination; and

Section 602B

- (iii) was subjected to domestic violence in that period of 26 weeks (whether or not the domestic violence was connected with ceasing to be a member of that or any other couple); and
- (iv) has not again become a member of a couple; or
- (b) the person is the principal carer of one or more children, and there are special circumstances relating to the person's family that make it appropriate to make the determination.

Note: For principal carer see subsections 5(15) to (24).

- (2A) The Secretary must, by legislative instrument, specify matters that the Secretary must take into account in deciding whether there are special circumstances relating to a person's family that make it appropriate to make a determination under this section.
- (2B) To avoid doubt, an instrument made under subsection (2A) does not limit the matters that the Secretary may take into account in making a determination under subsection (2).
- (3) The period that the Secretary determines under this section must be the lesser of:
 - (a) the period that the Secretary considers to be appropriate; or
 - (b) 16 weeks.
- (4) Any such period may be followed by one or more other periods (not exceeding 16 weeks) determined under this section in relation to the person.
- (5) The period that the Secretary determines under this section must, despite subsection (3), be 16 weeks if the determination:
 - (a) is made on grounds referred to in paragraph (2)(a) (or on grounds that include those grounds); and
 - (b) is the first determination made on those grounds (or on grounds that include those grounds) in connection with the particular cessation referred to in subparagraph (2)(a)(ii).
- (6) The Secretary may revoke a determination under this section in relation to a person if the Secretary is satisfied that the grounds on which the determination was made no longer exist.
- (7) Subsection (6) does not affect any operation that subsection 33(3) of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901 has in relation to a determination under this section.

602C Relief from activity test—people with disabled children and other circumstances

- (1) A person is not required to satisfy the activity test in respect of a period that the Secretary determines under this section in relation to the person.
- (2) The Secretary may make a determination under this section in relation to the person if the Secretary is satisfied that the person is the principal carer of one or more children:
 - (a) who suffer from a physical, intellectual or psychiatric disability or illness; and
 - (b) whose care needs are such that the person should, for the period specified in the determination, not be required to satisfy the activity test.

Note: For principal carer see subsections 5(15) to (24).

- (3) The Secretary must make a determination under this section in relation to the person if the Secretary is satisfied that the person is the principal carer of one or more children, and that:
 - (a) the person is a registered and active foster carer; or
 - (b) the person is a home educator of that child, or one or more of those children; or
 - (c) the person is a distance educator of that child, or one or more of those children; or
 - (d) under a family law order that the person is complying with, a child, of whom the person is a relative (other than a parent), is to live with the person.

Note 1: For principal carer see subsections 5(15) to (24).

Note 2: For registered and active foster carer see section 5B.

Note 3: For home educator see section 5C.

Note 4: For distance educator see section 5D.

Note 5: For family law order see subsection 23(1).

Note 6: For relative (other than a parent) see section 5E.

- (3A) The Secretary must make a determination under this section in relation to the person if the Secretary is satisfied that the person is the principal carer of 4 or more children.

Note: For principal carer see subsections 5(15) to (24).

Section 603

- (4) The Secretary may make a determination under this section in relation to the person if the Secretary is satisfied that:
 - (a) the person is a person included in a class of persons specified under subsection (5); and
 - (b) the person's circumstances are such that the person should not be required to satisfy the activity test for the period.
- (5) The Secretary may, by legislative instrument, specify classes of persons in respect of whom determinations under this section may be made.
- (6) The period that the Secretary determines under this section must be the lesser of:
 - (a) the period that the Secretary considers to be appropriate; or
 - (b) 12 months.
- (7) Any such period may be followed by one or more other periods (not exceeding 12 months) determined under this section in relation to the person.
- (8) The Secretary may revoke a determination under this section in relation to a person if the Secretary is satisfied that the grounds on which the determination was made no longer exist.
- (9) Subsection (8) does not affect any operation that subsection 33(3) of the Acts Interpretation Act 1901 has in relation to a determination under this section.

603 Relief from activity test—general

- (1) A person is taken to satisfy the activity test in respect of a period when the person is attending a training camp as a member of:
 - (a) the Naval Reserve; or
 - (b) the Army Reserve; or
 - (c) the Air Force Reserve.
- (2) Where the Secretary considers that:
 - (a) it would be reasonable to assume that, at the end of a period, a person is present in an area where:
 - (i) there is no locally accessible labour market; and
 - (ii) there is no locally accessible vocational training course or labour market program; and

- (aa) it would be reasonable to assume that, throughout the period, the person is unemployed and is capable of undertaking, and is willing to undertake, paid work that, in the Secretary's opinion, is suitable for the person to undertake; and
- (b) having regard to all the relevant factors, including:
 - (i) the location of offices of the Department; and
 - (ii) difficulties with transport and communication; and
 - (iii) the educational and cultural background of the person;it would be unreasonable to expect the person to comply with the activity test in order to be qualified for newstart allowance for that period;

then, unless the person has been notified of a requirement under subsection 601(1A) in relation to the period, the person is taken to satisfy the activity test during that period.

Note 1: for activity test see section 601.

Note 2: for remote area see section 14.

- (3) If:
 - (a) a person is treated as being unemployed because of subsection 595(1); and
 - (b) the Secretary is satisfied that it is appropriate for this subsection to apply;the person is taken to satisfy the activity test during the period starting when the person made a claim, or is to be taken to have made a claim, for newstart allowance and ending:
 - (c) if the person has been required to enter into a Newstart Employment Pathway Plan but has failed to enter that plan—when the person so failed; or
 - (d) in any other case—when the person has entered into such a plan.
- (4) Subsection (3) does not apply if, at the time of becoming a person who is treated as being unemployed because of subsection 595(1), the person had already been required to enter into a Newstart Employment Pathway Plan.

603A Relief from activity test—special circumstances

- (1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), a person is not required to satisfy the activity test for a period if:

Section 603AAA

- (a) the Secretary is satisfied that special circumstances, beyond the person's control, exist; and
 - (b) the Secretary is satisfied that in those circumstances it would be unreasonable to expect the person to comply with the activity test for that period.
- (2) The period referred to in subsection (1) is not to exceed 13 weeks.
- (3) If:
- (a) the Secretary makes a number of determinations under any one or more of the following provisions:
 - (i) subsection 525AA(3) of this Act as previously in force;
 - (ii) subsection 542H(1) of this Act;
 - (ia) subsection 731E(1) of this Act;
 - (iii) subsection (1) of this section; and
 - (b) the periods to which the determinations relate form a continuous period;
- the continuous period is not to exceed 13 weeks, unless the Secretary determines otherwise, having regard to the continued existence, or likely continued existence, of the special circumstances on which the last preceding determination was based.

603AAA Pre-natal and post-natal relief from activity test

Section 603BA

Subdivision BA—Exemption from activity test—people temporarily incapacitated for work

603BA Subdivision not to apply to a person with a pending claim for disability support pension

This Subdivision does not apply to a person who is qualified for newstart allowance under subsection 593(1B).

603B Interpretation

A reference in this Subdivision to a person being exempt from the activity test, or ceasing to be exempt from the activity test, under, or under a provision of, this Subdivision is a reference to a person not being required to satisfy the activity test, or becoming required to satisfy the activity test, as the case may be, because of the operation of, or the operation of that provision of, this Subdivision.

603C Incapacitated person not required to satisfy activity test

- (1) Subject to this Subdivision, a person is not required to satisfy the activity test in respect of a period if:
 - (a) throughout the period the person is incapacitated for work because of sickness or an accident; and
 - (b) the incapacity is caused wholly, or virtually wholly, by a medical condition arising from the sickness or accident; and
 - (c) the incapacity is, or is likely to be, of a temporary nature; and
 - (d) if this Subdivision had not been enacted and paragraphs 593(1)(b), (c), (d) and (e) were disregarded, the person would qualify for newstart allowance; and
 - (e) the person has, whether before or after the commencement of this section, given the Secretary a certificate of a medical practitioner, in a form approved by the Secretary, stating:
 - (i) the medical practitioner's diagnosis; and
 - (ii) the medical practitioner's prognosis; and
 - (iii) that the person is incapacitated for work; and
 - (iv) the period for which the person is incapacitated for work; and

- (f) the Secretary is satisfied that the incapacity has not been brought about with a view to obtaining an exemption from the activity test.
- (1A) The Secretary must comply with the guidelines (if any) determined and in force under subsection (1B) in deciding the following:
 - (a) whether paragraph (1)(a), (b) or (c) applies to a person in respect of a period;
 - (b) whether, for the purposes of paragraph (a) of the definition of work in subsection (2), work is of a kind that a person could be reasonably expected to do.
- (1B) The Minister may, by legislative instrument, determine guidelines to be complied with by the Secretary in making a decision referred to in subsection (1A).
- (2) In this section:

work, in relation to a person, means work (whether full-time, part-time, permanent or casual) that:

 - (a) is of a kind that the person could, in the Secretary's opinion, be reasonably expected to do; and
 - (b) is for at least 8 hours per week on wages that are at or above the relevant minimum wage.

603D Time limit for exemption—Secretary satisfied person can undertake activity

- (1) A person ceases to be exempt, under this Subdivision, from the activity test if the Secretary is satisfied that, although the person meets the requirements of section 603C, the person should undertake one or more activities that the Secretary regards as suitable for the person.
- (2) The cessation occurs:
 - (a) if the person has failed to comply with a requirement to enter into a Newstart Employment Pathway Plan—when the person so failed; or
 - (b) in any other case—when the person has entered into such a plan.
- (3) This section does not prevent a person ceasing to be exempt under section 603F.

Section 603F

603F Time limit for exemption—end of person’s maximum exemption period

- (1) A person ceases to be exempt, under this Subdivision, from the activity test if the person’s maximum exemption period ends.
- (2) Subject to this section, a person’s maximum exemption period is:
 - (a) if the person has, whether before or after the commencement of this section, given the Secretary a medical certificate for the purpose of enabling the Secretary to decide whether the person was required to satisfy the activity test—the lesser of the following periods:
 - (i) the period stated in the certificate as the period for which the person would be incapacitated for work;
 - (ii) the period of 13 weeks that started or starts on the first day of the period so stated in the certificate; or
 - (b) otherwise—the period of 4 weeks that started or starts on the day determined by the Secretary to have been the day on which the person’s incapacity for work began.
- (4) If:
 - (a) a person is exempt, under this Subdivision, from the activity test; and
 - (b) the person has, whether before or after the commencement of this section, given the Secretary a certificate of a medical practitioner that states the matters listed in paragraph 603C(1)(e) and is in accordance with the form approved under that paragraph; and
 - (c) the Secretary is satisfied that the person’s incapacity for work will continue after the end of the person’s maximum exemption period;the Secretary may extend the person’s maximum exemption period by a period that is not more than the lesser of the following periods:
 - (d) a period equal to the period stated in the certificate as the period for which the person would be incapacitated for work;
 - (e) 13 weeks.
- (4A) If:
 - (a) a person was exempt, under this Subdivision, from the activity test; and

- (b) within 14 days after the end of the person's maximum exemption period the person gives the Secretary a certificate of a medical practitioner that states the matters listed in paragraph 603C(1)(e) and is in accordance with a form approved under that paragraph; and
 - (c) the Secretary is satisfied that the person's incapacity for work has continued after the end of the person's maximum exemption period and that the incapacity will continue;
- the Secretary may extend the maximum exemption period by a period that is not more than the lesser of the following periods:
- (d) a period equal to the period stated in the certificate as the period for which the person would be incapacitated for work;
 - (e) 13 weeks.

(5) If:

- (a) a person is exempt, under this Subdivision, from the activity test; and
- (b) the person gives the Secretary written evidence (other than a certificate referred to in paragraph (4)(b)) that the person's incapacity for work will continue after the end of the person's maximum exemption period; and
- (c) the Secretary is satisfied that:
 - (i) the person's circumstances make it unreasonable to expect the person to obtain a certificate referred to in paragraph (4)(b) before the end of the maximum exemption period; and
 - (ii) the person's incapacity for work will continue after the end of the person's maximum exemption period;

the Secretary may extend the person's maximum exemption period by not more than 4 weeks.

(5A) If:

- (a) a person was exempt, under this Subdivision, from the activity test; and
- (b) within 14 days after the end of the person's maximum exemption period the person gives the Secretary written evidence (other than a certificate referred to in paragraph (4A)(b)) that the person's incapacity for work will continue after the end of the person's maximum exemption period; and

Section 605

(c) the Secretary is satisfied that:

- (i) the person's circumstances make it unreasonable to expect the person to obtain a certificate referred to in paragraph (4A)(b); and
- (ii) the person's incapacity for work has continued after the end of the person's maximum exemption period and that the incapacity will continue;

the Secretary may extend the maximum exemption period by a period of not more than 4 weeks from the end of the previous maximum exemption period.

(6) If:

- (a) a person is exempt, under this Subdivision, from the activity test; and
- (b) the person has, whether before or after the commencement of this section, given the Secretary a certificate referred to in paragraph (4)(b) before the end of the person's maximum exemption period; and
- (c) before the end of the person's maximum exemption period, the Secretary does not satisfy himself or herself that the person's incapacity for work will continue after the end of that period; and
- (d) the sole or dominant cause of the Secretary failing so to satisfy himself or herself is an act or omission of an officer of the Department;

the Secretary may extend the person's maximum exemption period by not more than 4 weeks.

(7) This section does not prevent a person ceasing to be exempt under section 603D.

Subdivision C—Newstart Employment Pathway Plans

605 Newstart Employment Pathway Plans—requirement

- (1) If a Newstart Employment Pathway Plan is not in force in relation to a person, the Secretary may require the person to enter into such a plan if:

- (b) the Department is contacted by or on behalf of the person in relation to a claim for a newstart allowance.
- (2) If a Newstart Employment Pathway Plan is in force in relation to a person, the Secretary may require the person to enter into another plan instead of the existing one.

 - (b) the Secretary regards as suitable for the person.
- (1A) However, a plan must not contain a requirement of a kind that the Secretary determines under subsection (1B).
- (1B) The Secretary must determine, by legislative instrument, the kinds of requirements that plans must not contain.
- (1C) To avoid doubt, a determination under subsection (1B) does not limit the Secretary's discretion to exclude other kinds of requirements from a particular plan under subsection (1).

Optional terms

- (1D) A plan may also contain one or more terms that the person may, but is not required to, comply with.

Approval of requirements

- (2) The requirements in a plan are to be approved by the Secretary.

 - (a) because of the application of Module G of Payment Rate Calculator B in section 1068, the person is receiving a newstart allowance at a rate that has been reduced; or
 - (b) in the Secretary's opinion:
 - (i) it has been established that there is medical evidence that the person has an illness, disability or injury that would be aggravated by the conditions in which the work would be performed; or

- (2) If a Newstart Employment Pathway Plan that is in force in relation to a person requires the person to participate in an approved program of work for income support payment, the Secretary may, by notice given to the person, revoke the requirement to participate in the program if the Secretary:

A Newstart Employment Pathway Plan that is in force in relation to a person is taken to be suspended during any period during which the person is not required to satisfy the activity test because of section 602B or 602C.

Subdivision D—Situations where allowance not payable (general)

608 Newstart allowance not payable if allowance rate nil

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), a newstart allowance is not payable to a person if the person's newstart allowance rate would be nil.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a person if the person's rate would be nil merely because:
 - (a) an election by the person under subsection 1061VA(1) is in force; or
 - (b) the person has been paid an advance pharmaceutical allowance under the social security law.

611 Assets test—allowance not payable if assets value limit exceeded
[see Appendix for CPI adjusted figures]

- (1) A newstart allowance is not payable to a person if the value of the person's assets is more than the person's assets value limit.
- (2) A person's assets value limit is worked out using the following table: work out which family situation applies to the person; the assets value limit is the corresponding amount in the assets value limit column.

Assets value limit table
Column 1	Column 2	Column 3
		Assets value limit
Item	Person's family situation	Column 3A	Column 3B
		Either person or partner homeowner	Neither person nor partner homeowner
1.	Not member of a couple	$110,750	$190,250
2.	Partnered (partner getting neither pension nor allowance)	$157,500	$237,000
3.	Partnered (partner getting pension or allowance)	$78,750	$118,500

Note 1: for member of a couple, partnered (partner getting neither pension nor allowance) and partnered (partner getting pension or allowance) see section 4.

Note 2: for homeowner see section 11.

Note 3: if item 2 applies to a person, the value of all the assets of the person's partner are to be taken as being included in the value of the person's assets (see subsection 612(1))—this is why the assets value limit is so high. If, on the other hand, item 3 applies to a person, the value of the person's assets is only half the combined value of the person's assets and the assets of the person's partner (see subsection 612(2)).

Note 4: if a newstart allowance is not payable to a person because of the value of the person's assets, the person may be able to take advantage of provisions dealing with financial hardship (see sections 1131 and 1132).

Note 5: the assets value limits of items 1 and 3 in column 3A and item 3 in column 3B are indexed annually in line with CPI increases (see sections 1191 to 1194).

Note 6: the assets value limit of item 1 in column 3B is adjusted annually (see subsection 1204(1)).

Note 7: the item 2 assets value limits are adjusted annually so that they are twice the corresponding item 3 limits (see subsections 1204(2) and (3)).

Section 612

(a) a person is a member of a couple; and

(1) Subject to subsection (2), a newstart allowance is not payable to a person who is enrolled in a full-time course of education or of vocational training for the period that:

Note 1: For armed services widow and armed services widower see subsection 4(1).

Note 2: For MRCA see subsection 23(1).

 - (ii) the person's partner dies;
 - (iii) immediately before the partner's death, the person was receiving a partner allowance;
 - (iv) within the period of 4 weeks that starts on the day after the day on which the partner dies, the person claims a newstart allowance; or
- (g) the Secretary is satisfied that the person is in severe financial hardship.

Note: For in severe financial hardship, see subsection 19C(2) (person who is not a member of a couple) and subsection 19C(3) (person who is a member of a couple).

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a person who:
- (a) is undertaking an activity specified in an instrument made under subsection (3); and
 - (b) has been exempted from the application of subsection (1) by the Secretary.
- (3) The Secretary may, by legislative instrument, specify activities for the purpose of paragraph (2)(a).

621 Duration of ordinary waiting period

No unused annual leave waiting period

- (1) If a person:
- (a) is subject to an ordinary waiting period; and
 - (c) is not disqualified for newstart allowance under section 598 (liquid assets test);

the ordinary waiting period is the period of 7 days that starts on the person's start day.

Note 2: If the person is subject to an education leavers waiting period, the education leavers waiting period runs concurrently with the ordinary waiting period.

Section 623A

Note 3: If the person is subject to a newly arrived resident's waiting period, the newly arrived resident's waiting period runs concurrently with the ordinary waiting period.

(3) If a person:

- (a) is subject to an ordinary waiting period; and
- (c) is disqualified for newstart allowance under section 598 (liquid assets test);

the ordinary waiting period is the period of 7 days that starts on the day after the end of the liquid assets test waiting period referred to in subsection 598(2).

(7) If:

- (a) after the commencement of this subsection, a person becomes temporarily incapacitated for work or study and claims sickness allowance; and
- (b) because of sections 693 and 694 (ordinary waiting period), sickness allowance is not payable to the person for a period starting on the day (the applicable day) applicable to the person under subparagraph (i) or (ii), as the case may be:
 - (i) if the person is not disqualified for sickness allowance under section 676 (liquid assets text)—the person's sickness allowance start day; or
 - (ii) if the person is disqualified for sickness allowance under section 676 (liquid assets test)—the day after the day on which the person's sickness allowance liquid assets waiting period ends; and
- (c) during that period the person ceases to be incapacitated for work or study and claims newstart allowance;

then, despite subsections (1), (2) and (3), the person's ordinary waiting period is a period of 7 days starting on the applicable day.

623A Newly arrived resident's waiting period

(1) Subject to this section, a person who:

- (a) has entered Australia on or after 1 January 1993; and
- (b) has not been an Australian resident and in Australia for a period of, or periods totalling, 104 weeks; is subject to a newly arrived resident's waiting period.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a person who has a qualifying residence exemption for a newstart allowance.

Note: For qualifying residence exemption see subsection 7(6).

- (3) Subsection (1) does not apply to a person:
- (a) if, immediately before this section commenced, the person had held a valid designated temporary entry permit for a continuous period of at least 26 weeks; or
 - (b) if:
 - (i) immediately before this section commenced, the person had held a valid designated temporary entry permit for a continuous period (permit period) of less than 26 weeks; and
 - (ii) that permit was continued in force as a temporary visa by regulations made under the Migration Reform Act 1992; and
 - (iii) the period during which that permit continued to be in force as a temporary visa together with the permit period is at least 26 weeks.

Note: For designated temporary entry permit see subsection 7(1).

- (5) Subsection (1) does not apply to a person if:
- (a) the person is already subject to a newly arrived resident's waiting period; or
 - (b) the person has already served a newly arrived resident's waiting period; or
 - (c) the person:
 - (i) has previously entered Australia before 1 January 1993; and
 - (ii) held a permanent entry permit granted under the Migration Act 1958 as then in force, or a permanent visa, before the person's last departure from Australia.
- (6) Subsection (1) does not apply to a person if:
- (a) the person is a New Zealand citizen; and
 - (b) the person was an Australian resident on 1 February 2000; and
 - (c) when the person claimed newstart allowance the person had been:
 - (i) an Australian resident for the 12 months immediately preceding the claim; or

Section 623B

(ii) continuously present in Australia for the 6 months immediately preceding the claim.

- (7) Subsection (1) does not apply to a person if the person:
- (a) is the principal carer of one or more children; and
 - (b) is not a member of a couple; and
 - (c) was not a lone parent at the start of the person's current period as an Australian resident.

Note 1: For principal carer see subsections 5(15) to (24).

Note 2: For lone parent and current period as an Australian resident see subsection 23(1).

623B Duration of newly arrived resident's waiting period

- (1) If a person is subject to a newly arrived resident's waiting period, the period starts on the day the person first became an Australian resident.

(2) If:

- (a) immediately before this section commenced, the person held a valid designated temporary entry permit; and
- (b) that permit was continued in force as a temporary visa by regulations made under the Migration Reform Act 1992; and
- (c) that temporary visa was in force immediately before the person was granted his or her permanent visa;

the newly arrived resident's waiting period ends 26 weeks after the day on which the designated temporary entry permit was granted to the person.

Note: For designated temporary entry permit see subsection 7(1).

- (3) If subsection (2) does not apply, the newly arrived resident's waiting period ends when the person has been an Australian resident and in Australia for a period of, or periods totalling, 104 weeks.

Note: This rule does not apply to people who were already subject to, or had already served, a newly arrived resident's waiting period before the commencement of this rule. Clause 121 of Schedule 1A to this Act continues the application of the previous rules to those people.

633 Seasonal workers

- (1) This section applies if, at any time during the 6 months immediately before the day on which a person lodges a claim for newstart allowance, the person, or, if the person is a member of a couple, the person or the person's partner, has been engaged in seasonal work.

Note: For seasonal work see subsection 16A(1).

Section 634

- (2) Newstart allowance is not payable to the person:
- (a) if the person is subject to a seasonal work preclusion period (whether in relation to the claim referred to in subsection (1) or any other claim under this Act) and the Secretary has not made a determination under subsection (3) in relation to the person—for the person’s seasonal work preclusion period; or
 - (b) if the Secretary has made a determination under subsection (3) in relation to the person—for that part (if any) of the person’s seasonal work preclusion period to which the person is subject as a result of the determination.

Note: For seasonal work preclusion period see subsection 16A(1).

- (3) If the Secretary is satisfied that a person is in severe financial hardship because the person has incurred unavoidable or reasonable expenditure while the person is subject to a seasonal work preclusion period (whether in relation to the claim referred to in subsection (1) or any other claim under this Act):
- (a) the Secretary may determine that the person is not subject to the whole, or any part, of the preclusion period; and
 - (b) the determination has effect accordingly.

Note 1: For in severe financial hardship see subsection 19C(2) (person who is not a member of a couple) and subsection 19C(3) (person who is a member of a couple).

Note 2: For unavoidable or reasonable expenditure see subsection 19C(4).

- (4) Subsection (2) does not apply to a person who:
- (a) is undertaking an activity specified in an instrument made under subsection (5); and
 - (b) has been exempted from the application of subsection (2) by the Secretary.
- (5) The Secretary may, by legislative instrument, specify activities for the purpose of paragraph (4)(a).

634 Move to area of lower employment prospects

- (1) Subject to subsections (1B) and (2), if, in the opinion of the Secretary, a person has reduced his or her employment prospects by moving to a new place of residence without sufficient reason, a newstart allowance is not payable to the person for 26 weeks.

- (1A) Subsection (1) extends to a person who makes a claim for newstart allowance on or after the day on which the person moved to the new place of residence and before the end of the period referred to in that subsection.
- (1B) If a person to whom a newstart allowance is not payable under subsection (1) for a period of 26 weeks (including that subsection as it applies by subsection (1A)) does either of the following during that period:
- (a) moves back to the place of residence (the original place of residence) the movement from which resulted in newstart allowance not being payable to him or her;
 - (b) moves to another place of residence a movement to which from the original place of residence would not have resulted in newstart allowance not being payable to him or her;
- the period of 26 weeks ends at the time of the movement back to the original place of residence or the movement to the other place of residence, as the case may be.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a person who:
- (a) is undertaking an activity specified in an instrument made under subsection (2A); and
 - (b) has been exempted from the application of subsection (1) by the Secretary.
- (2A) The Secretary may, by legislative instrument, specify activities for the purpose of paragraph (2)(a).
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (1), a person has a sufficient reason for moving to a new place of residence if and only if the person:
- (a) moves to live with a family member who has already established his or her residence in that place of residence; or
 - (b) moves to live near a family member who has already established residence in the same area; or
 - (c) satisfies the Secretary that the move is necessary for the purposes of treating or alleviating a physical disease or illness suffered by the person or by a family member; or
 - (d) satisfies the Secretary that the person has moved from his or her original place of residence because of an extreme circumstance which made it reasonable for the person to move to the new place of residence (for example, the person had been subjected to domestic or family violence in the original place of residence).

Note: For family member see subsection 23(1).

- (4) The Secretary may determine in writing the day on which the period of non-payment imposed by subsection (1) commences and that day may be before the day of the determination.

Division 4—Rate of newstart allowance

643 How to work out a person's newstart allowance rate

A person's newstart allowance rate is to be worked out using Benefit Rate Calculator B at the end of section 1068.

644AAA Approved program of work supplement

If a person:

- (a) is receiving newstart allowance; and
- (b) is participating in an approved program of work for income support payment;

the rate of the person's newstart allowance is increased by an amount of $20.80, to be known as the approved program of work supplement, for each fortnight during which the person participates in the program unless, during that fortnight, the person subsequently ceases to participate in the program in circumstances that constitute:

- (c) a failure of the activity test to which the person is subject; or
- (d) a failure to comply with a requirement in a Newstart Employment Pathway Plan that is in force in relation to the person.

644AAB Approved program of work supplement not payable in certain circumstances

An approved program of work supplement under section 644AAA is not payable to a person in respect of a fortnight if a training supplement is payable to the person in respect of the fortnight.

644AAC Training supplement

- (1) This section applies if a person:
 - (a) is receiving newstart allowance; and
 - (b) is participating in an approved training course for training supplement for the person; and

Section 653A

- (c) started participating in the course during the period beginning on the day on which this section commenced and ending on 30 June 2011.
- (2) The rate of the person's newstart allowance is increased by an amount of $41.60 (to be known as a training supplement) for each fortnight during which the person participates in the course.
- (3) However, a training supplement is not payable for a fortnight during which the person participates in the course if, during the fortnight, the person ceases to participate in the course in circumstances that constitute:
 - (a) a failure of the activity test to which the person is subject; or
 - (b) if a Newstart Employment Pathway Plan is in force in relation to the person—a failure to comply with a requirement in the plan.

653A CDEP Scheme participant may accumulate newstart allowance

- (1) A person who is a CDEP Scheme participant in respect of the whole or a part of a quarter may, by written notice given to the Secretary, choose to accumulate the amounts of any newstart allowance that become payable to the person in respect of that quarter, or any later quarter in respect of the whole or a part of which the person is a CDEP Scheme participant, and have not already been paid.
- (2) If a person to whom subsection (1) applies makes a choice under that subsection, the sum of the accumulated amounts payable to the person in respect of a quarter is to be paid on, or as soon as practicable after, the first payday after:
 - (a) unless paragraph (b) applies, the last day of the quarter; or
 - (b) if the person ceases to be a CDEP Scheme participant before the end of the quarter—the day on which the person so ceases.
- (3) In this section:

quarter means a CDEP Scheme quarter.

Note 1: For CDEP Scheme participant see section 1188B.

Note 2: For CDEP Scheme quarter see subsection 23(1).

Division 9—Bereavement payments

Subdivision AA—Death of partner

660LA Qualification for payments under this Subdivision

- (1) If:
- (a) a person is receiving a newstart allowance; and
 - (b) the person is a long-term social security recipient; and
 - (c) the person is a member of a couple; and
 - (d) the person's partner dies; and
 - (e) immediately before the partner died, the partner:
 - (i) was receiving a social security pension; or
 - (ii) was receiving a service pension; or
 - (iii) was a long-term social security recipient; and
 - (f) on the person's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday, the amount that would be payable to the person if the person were not qualified for payments under this Subdivision is less than the sum of:
 - (i) the amount that would otherwise be payable to the person under section 660LD (person's continued rate) on that payday; and
 - (ii) the amount (if any) that would otherwise be payable to the person, under section 660LB (continued payment of partner's pension or allowance) on the partner's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday;

the person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision to cover the bereavement period.

Note 1: section 660LB provides for the payment to the person, up to the first available bereavement adjustment payday, of amounts equal to the instalments that would have been paid to the person's partner during that period if the partner had not died.

Note 2: section 660LC provides for a lump sum that represents the instalments that would have been paid to the person's partner, between the first available bereavement adjustment payday and the end of the bereavement period, if the partner had not died.

Note 3: for long-term social security recipient see subsection 23(1).

Section 660LB

- (2) A person who is qualified for payments under this Subdivision may choose not to receive payments under this Subdivision.
- (3) An election under subsection (2):
 - (a) must be made by written notice to the Secretary; and
 - (b) may be made after the person has been paid an amount or amounts under this Subdivision; and
 - (c) cannot be withdrawn after the Department has taken all the action required to give effect to that election.
- (4) If a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the partner's death, the rate at which newstart allowance is payable to the person during the bereavement period is, unless the person has made an election under subsection (2), governed by section 660LD.

660LB Continued payment of partner's pension or benefit

If a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the person's partner, there is payable to the person, on each of the partner's paydays in the bereavement rate continuation period, an amount equal to the amount that would have been payable to the partner on that payday if the partner had not died.

660LC Lump sum payable in some circumstances

If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the person's partner; and
- (b) the first available bereavement adjustment payday occurs before the end of the bereavement period;

there is payable to the person as a lump sum an amount worked out using the lump sum calculator at the end of this section.

LUMP SUM CALCULATOR

This is how to work out the amount of the lump sum:

Method statement

Step 1. Add up:

- (a) the amount that, if the person's partner had not died, would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday; and
- (b) the amount (if any) that, if the partner had not died, would have been payable to the partner on the partner's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday;

the result is called the combined rate.

Step 2. Work out the amount that, but for section 660LD, would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately before the first available bereavement adjustment payday: the result is called the person's individual rate.

Step 3. Take the person's individual rate away from the combined rate: the result is called the partner's instalment component.

Step 4. Work out the number of the partner's paydays in the bereavement lump sum period.

Step 5. Multiply the partner's instalment component by the number obtained in Step 4: the result is the amount of the lump sum payable to the person under this section.

Section 660LD

660LD Adjustment of a person's newstart allowance rate

If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision;
and
- (b) the person does not elect under subsection 660LA(2) not to receive payments under this Subdivision;

the rate of the person's newstart allowance during the bereavement period is worked out as follows:

- (c) during the bereavement rate continuation period, the rate of newstart allowance payable to the person is the rate at which the allowance would have been payable to the person if the person's partner had not died;
- (d) during the bereavement lump sum period (if any), the rate at which newstart allowance is payable to the person is the rate at which the allowance would be payable to the person apart from this Subdivision.

660LE Effect of death of person entitled to payments under this Subdivision

If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the person's partner; and
- (b) the person dies within the bereavement period; and
- (c) the Secretary does not become aware of the death of the person's partner before the person dies;

there is payable, to such person as the Secretary thinks appropriate, as a lump sum, an amount worked out using the lump sum calculator at the end of this section.

LUMP SUM CALCULATOR

This is how to work out the amount of the lump sum:

Method statement

Step 1. Add up:

- (a) the amount that, if neither the person nor the person's partner had died, would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately after the day on which the person dies; and
- (b) the amount (if any) that, if neither the person nor the person's partner had died, would have been payable to the person's partner on the partner's payday immediately after the day on which the person died;

the result is called the combined rate.

Step 2. Work out the amount that, but for section 660LD, would have been payable to the person on the person's payday immediately after the day on which the person died if the person had not died: the result is called the person's individual rate.

Step 3. Take the person's individual rate away from the combined pensioner couple rate: the result is called the partner's instalment component.

Step 4. Work out the number of paydays of the partner in the period that commences on the day on which the person dies and ends on the day on which the bereavement period ends.

Step 5. Multiply the partner's instalment component by the number obtained in Step 4: the result is the amount of the lump sum payable under this section.

Section 660LF

660LF Matters affecting payments under this Subdivision

(1) If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the person's partner; and
- (b) after the person's partner died, an amount to which the partner would have been entitled if the partner had not died has been paid under this Act or under Part III of the Veterans' Entitlements Act; and
- (c) the Secretary is not satisfied that the person has not had the benefit of that amount;

the following provisions have effect:

- (d) the amount referred to in paragraph (b) is not recoverable from the person or from the personal representative of the person's partner, except to the extent (if any) that the amount exceeds the amount payable to the person under this Subdivision;
- (e) the amount payable to the person under this Subdivision is to be reduced by the amount referred to in paragraph (b).

(2) If:

- (a) a person is qualified for payments under this Subdivision in relation to the death of the person's partner; and
- (b) the amount to which the person's partner would have been entitled if the person's partner had not died has been paid under this Act or under Part III of the Veterans' Entitlements Act, within the bereavement period, into an account with a bank; and
- (c) the bank pays to the person, out of the account, an amount not exceeding the total of the amounts paid as mentioned in paragraph (b);

the bank is, in spite of anything in any other law, not liable to any action, claim or demand by the Commonwealth, the personal representative of the person's partner or anyone else in respect of the payment of that money to the person.

660LG Calculation of bereavement payment in respect of former CDEP Scheme participant

If a benefit becomes payable under this Division in respect of a person who was a CDEP Scheme participant in respect of the day on which the benefit becomes payable, the amount of the benefit is to be the amount that would have been the amount of the benefit if section 614A had not been enacted.

Note: For CDEP Scheme participant see section 1188B.

Subdivision B—Continuation of newstart allowance rate after death of child

660M Death of child—continuation of newstart allowance rate for 14 weeks

If:

- (a) a person is receiving newstart allowance; and
- (b) the person is the principal carer of a child who dies; and
- (c) apart from this section, the person's rate of newstart allowance would be reduced because the person is no longer the child's principal carer;

the person's rate of newstart allowance, during the period of 14 weeks that starts on the day of the child's death, is to be worked out as if the child had not died.

Note: For principal carer see subsections 5(15) to (24).
