

c. 1929

c. 1969

c. 2009

Keynote Speakers:

Paul MacKay, Employment Relations Director, Business NZ
Margaret Wilson, Professor of Law and Public Policy, University of Waikato and former Minister for Labour
Steve Marshall, Director, Relations, ILO Geneva
Peter Anderson, CEO, Australian Chamber of Commerce & Industry
Helen Kelly, President, NZ Council of Trade Unions

Guest Speakers from the ILO Bangkok office, Department of Labour, the Australian Department of Education, Employment and Workplace Relations, the Australian Council of Trade Unions

SYMPOSIUM

90 years of the ILO: The significance for Australia and New Zealand

19-20 November 2009

What has been the significance of the ILO for Australia and New Zealand?
What influence have Australia and New Zealand had on the ILO?
What does the future hold for interaction of the ILO with Australia & New Zealand?

Organised by the Business and Labour History Group of NZWALMI,
Auckland University of Technology
In association with the Auckland Labour History Group

AUT University Business School, 42 Wakefield Street, Auckland City.

Attendance is open to all. Please register with Ann Williamson at nzwalmi@aut.ac.nz or +64 (0)9 921 9999 x 6505 before 13 Nov. Cost: Waged $45, Unwaged $25. Lunch and refreshments provided.

In 1998 the 8 Core Conventions or International Labour Standards were consolidated into a Declaration of Fundamental Principles & Rights at Work:

- Freedom of association and the right to collective bargaining
- Abolition of forced labour
- Elimination of Worst forms of Child Labour
- Equality of opportunity and treatment