

ILO anniversary high on the agenda of national workshop in Tajikistan

DUSHANBE, TAJIKISTAN. - On 3 June Kokhi Vahdat, the main conference hall in Dushanbe, hosted a national workshop on the “Impact of the Global Financial Crisis on Tajik Migrant Workers and Presentation of ILO Global Report on Forced Labour”.

The opening part of the workshop was devoted to the ILO 90th Anniversary. ILO90 materials were distributed to the participants, and the anniversary film was shown.

The National workshop was conducted by the ILO in close cooperation with the Tajik Ministry of Labour and Social Protection within the framework of the ILO’s project “Community Development through Employment Creation and improved Migration Management project in Tajikistan” financed by the United Nations Trust Fund for Human Security.

All speakers congratulated ILO on its 90th anniversary. They spoke highly of the Organization’s important role in the social and labour sphere. The participants also discussed the results of the study on Impact of the Global Financial Crisis on Tajik Migrant Workers and exchanged opinions on how to address the migration issues in the context of the global crisis.
