The ILERA 2013 Organising Committee is pleased to announce registration and call for abstracts are now open for the 8th Asian Regional Congress of the International Labour and Employment Relations Association.

Participation is open to academics, lawyers, human resources professionals, senior level union employees, industry specialists, trade union representatives, government officials and policy-makers.

The theme of the Congress is "Work and Employment in the Asian Century" focussing on:

1. The changing contours of employment relations and labour market regulation.
2. Human Resource management - trends & challenges.
3. The future of worker voice & representation, and
4. Globalisation, corporate social responsibility and decent work.

We also invite individuals and research groups to submit an Expression of Interest to convene their own "Special Interest Symposium" as part of the Congress meeting. For full details including guidelines on how to submit an abstract please visit www.iler2013.com
