

Promotional Entertainment Information for World Day

- Well known comedians will perform a 10 minute long occupational safety and health oriented drama will
- 30 students from a local school will sing an occupational safety and health related song produced for this purpose
- 1 student from a local school will read a poem on occupational safety and health
- Local horse men with culturally decorated horses will add additional colour to the event
- Light refreshments will be served
- The following products will be distributed: posters (in three languages), postcards, bookmarks, and t shirts