

hazards campaign wales

Hazards Campaign Wales, is based in Cardiff, and is a voluntary organization. On the 28th April 2008 - Workers Memorial day, Hazards Campaign Wales launch a telephone support line for families who have been bereaved through a workplace fatality & co-workers, who have experienced a work-related death:

the aim of the telephone support line is to:

1. provide information on other organizations offering help in the UK
2. where possible, offer emotional support in the UK

From the 28th April 2008, the support line can be contacted on:

0792 121 3096

Please leave a message giving your name and a contact number. Alternatively you can send a text. (mobile rates and network charges apply). A call will be returned within 48hours.

Judith Thoburn-Price is an Adult, Child, Group & Crisis Bereavement Counsellor. Judith is a Counsellor Practitioner/researcher in the field unnatural death, who also has a background in health and safety from both a Trade Union and management perspective.

The Campaign is currently researching the experience of bereavement on the immediate family, with the assistance of families who have experienced a workplace death.

If you would like to make a donation to the campaign to support this initiative then please contact Judith by email or telephone.
