

International
Labour
Organization

XVII International AIDS Conference
3-8 August 2008, Mexico City

IOM • OIM

It's time for the big debate...

International labour migration and HIV: emerging issues

Protecting rights, targeting discrimination and delivering services – How? Where? Who?

Sunday 3 August 2008
9:00 - 11:00 am

Venue: Skills Building Room 3

Co-Chairs:

Mrs. Ndioro Ndiaye, Deputy Director General, International Organization for Migration, and
Dr. Sophia Kisting, Director, Programme on HIV/AIDS in the World of Work,
International Labour Organization

Panellists:

Brahm Press, CARAM ASIA

HIV Risks and Vulnerabilities of Migrant Women in Asia and Arab States

Angela Lomosi, International Trade Union Confederation, Africa Region

International Standards for Protecting the Rights of migrant Workers in Africa

Barbara Rijks, IOM

HIV Risk and Vulnerabilities of Migrant Farm Workers in South Africa: Good Practices in Addressing Migrants' Rights to Health

Panel discussion followed by interactive session with the audience

For additional information, please contact: Islene Araujo IAraujo@iom.int; Pallavi Rai rai@ilo.org