ABSTRACT : The book presents state-of-the art in thinking on how to build a sound policy environment that is conducive to the establishment and growth of enterprises as well as implications for programme design. It profiles 40 definable services ranging widely in size and scope, available from our sister agencies. These services, both small and large in terms of cost, represent the best of what these agencies have to offer. The Guide will allow country office staff, UN Country Teams and partners to get a good overview of the support available from UN agencies and will help to identify and select the most appropriate tools for strategic interventions.
