ABSTRACT : This publication presents the current migration policy debates in Asia, which are largely influenced by recent macroeconomic and labour market developments in the region. It analyses post-crisis trends in migration flows and the employment of foreign workers. Particular attention is paid to promoting social integration of foreign workers and to combating illegal employment in the context of the reviving Asian economies. It provides individual reviews of recent developments in migration trends and policies in Australia, China, Hong Kong (China), Indonesia, Japan, Korea, Malaysia, the Philippines, Singapore and Thailand. Details, statistics and information on labour migration enable meaningful cross-country comparisons

ABSTRACT : A video designed to promote employment of people with disabilities. It encourage employers to hire workers with disabilities, identifies the benefits of doing so and begins to educate employers about methods of integrating workers with disabilities into mainstream workplaces. The video includes interviews with employers and their employees with disabilities and shows disabled workers on the job. Further, through interviews with experts and representatives of employer groups focusing on disability - like the Business Advisory Council in Cambodia and the Employers' Disability Network in Sri Lanka. People with disabilities can make productive employees. Filmed in four Asian countries and areas (Thailand, Cambodia, Sri Lanka and Hong Kong) it illustrates how workers with disabilities can perform effectively in a variety of jobs and work settings
