

Country Programme View

[Sri Lanka - LKA000]x View only my Country Programme / Global Products

Country Programme / CP Priority / CP Outcome / Indicator Link		Operational Outcome Link
LKA000 - Sri Lanka
LKA100 - Improved access to decent employment, in particular for youth, crisis affected groups and migrant workers
	LKA101 - Plan of Action for Youth Employment developed and adopted	220075 - Youth employment
	220075.10 - Member States develop national action plans and implement operational programmes promoting youth employment that reflect core elements of the Global Employment Agenda and the Employment Policy Convention (No. 122).
	230025.10 - Governments, employers' and workers' organizations use ILO tools to improve the policy and regulatory environment for enterprises, and promote an enterprise culture that supports the creation of decent jobs. This measures the extent to which governments and the social partners have made significant use of ILO tools and advice in the policy, regulatory and enterprise culture area.
	LKA102 - National Plan of Action for Decent Work (NPADW) formulated, adopted and integrated in budget	410050 - Social partners influence socio-economic and governance policies
	220025.30 - Countries use tripartite social dialogue as a means of devising, implementing and evaluating strategies and policies based on the Global Employment and Decent Work Agendas
	410025.10 - Employers' organizations provide new or better services relevant to their members and potential members, including services which meet the needs of small and medium-sized enterprises and women entrepreneurs.
	410025.20 - Workers' organizations provide new/better services, such as elimination of child labour, participation in PRSPs and other development coordination mechanisms, informal economy, social security and occupational health and safety, labour standards and workers' rights, promoting women's participation in trade unions, particularly at decision-making levels, and taking practical initiatives to extend representation.
	410050.10 - Employers' organizations influence policies at the national, regional or international level to improve enterprise performance and competitiveness.
	410050.20 - Workers' organizations make an effective input into an equitable, sustainable and participatory socio-economic development.
	430025.10 - Constituents use social dialogue to target and take effective action to improve social and labour outcomes in specific economic sectors within a member State.
	LKA103 - Livelihood recovery schemes for crisis affected groups implemented.	230075 - Decent work through local development: Poverty reduction through local employment and empowerment

		220050.20 - Member States develop more effective, gender-sensitive skills and employability policies, programmes and strategies at the national, local and regional levels. Will monitor the number of member States that adopt improved human resources development policies and programmes through departmental advisory services and technical cooperation programmes.
		230050.20 - Member States adopt infrastructure and construction programmes demonstrating the technical and operational feasibility and the economic and social advantages of combining job creation with decent working conditions.
		230050.30 - Number of member States in crisis situations using employment-intensive investment approaches.
		230075.10 - Member States apply ILO innovative approaches and policy orientations to integrate local economic development, employment promotion and income-generating activities with workers rights, social protection, social dialogue, gender equality and poverty reduction.
		310025.10 - Member States adopt or implement effective policies and strategies to extend social security coverage.
		310050.40 - Member States take action to improve governance of social protection schemes or maintain good standards of governance.
		410025.20 - Workers' organizations provide new/better services, such as elimination of child labour, participation in PRSPs and other development coordination mechanisms, informal economy, social security and occupational health and safety, labour standards and workers' rights, promoting women's participation in trade unions, particularly at decision-making levels, and taking practical initiatives to extend representation.
		LKA104 - Labour Migrants are better aware of and able to protect workers rights.	320050 - Tripartite action on labour migration
		320050.10 - Member States establish policies and programmes for the protection of the rights and equal treatment of migrant workers, and against their trafficking.
		LKA125 - Labour Administration Modernised
		LKA126 - OSH institute is functioning in accordance with C155	320025 - Improved labour protection within the formal and informal economy
		320025.30 - Member States ratify and apply ILO standards on safety and health, labour inspection and conditions of work and employment, including wages, working time and reconciling work and family.
		LKA127 - Draft policies to ensure changing employment patterns are in line with decent work.	320025 - Improved labour protection within the formal and informal economy
		220025.30 - Countries use tripartite social dialogue as a means of devising, implementing and evaluating strategies and policies based on the Global Employment and Decent Work

		Agendas
		320025.20 - Member States use ILO tools to improve working conditions and the quality of working life, particularly in the informal economy and rural areas.
		410050.20 - Workers' organizations make an effective input into an equitable, sustainable and participatory socio-economic development.
		LKA128 - Plan for sustainability of the Public Private Sector Partnership for employment services is completed and implemented.	220025 - Employment as central to economic and social policies
		220025.10 - Countries improve labour market information and analysis and formulating, implementing and evaluating employment and labour market policies, with special attention to employment and income security and equal access to decent and productive employment for all women and men
		LKA900 - Other Areas of Work
		LKA901 - Combatting Child Labour through integrated efforts	110050 - Targeted action against child labour
		110050.10 - Member States make progress in applying Convention Nos. 138 and 182 through at least two interventions associated with the time-bound programme approach, including legal change, data collection, time-bound targets, child labour monitoring systems and mainstreaming of child labour in relevant development policies
		LKA902 - National Programme on promotion of the ILo Code of Practice on HIV/AIDS	320075 - National plans for combating HIV/AIDS in the world of work
		320075.20 - Each of the tripartite constituents in a member State has a gender-sensitive HIV/AIDS policy, time-bound action plan and trained focal point.
		320075.30 - HIV/AIDS policies and programmes are implemented at the workplace.	