

Country Programme View

[India - IND000]x View only my Country Programme / Global Products

Country Programme / CP Priority / CP Outcome / Indicator Link		Operational Outcome Link
	IND000 - India
	IND100 - Enhancing opportunities for productive work, for women and men, particularly vulnerable groups
x	IND101 - Policy/action-based research contributing towards improving quantity and quality of employment in the context of globalization	220025 - Employment as central to economic and social policies
	220025.10 - Countries improve labour market information and analysis and formulating, implementing and evaluating employment and labour market policies, with special attention to employment and income security and equal access to decent and productive employment for all women and men
	220025.30 - Countries use tripartite social dialogue as a means of devising, implementing and evaluating strategies and policies based on the Global Employment and Decent Work Agendas
	220075.10 - Member States develop national action plans and implement operational programmes promoting youth employment that reflect core elements of the Global Employment Agenda and the Employment Policy Convention (No. 122).
	230075.10 - Member States apply ILO innovative approaches and policy orientations to integrate local economic development, employment promotion and income-generating activities with workers rights, social protection, social dialogue, gender equality and poverty reduction.
	310025.40 - Member States test innovative approaches to integrate social protection with local development and income-generating activities in order to reduce poverty, gender inequality and social exclusion.
	IND102 - Integrated area-based and sector approaches for decent and productive work developed	220050 - Skills and employability policies and programmes for decent work
	220050.20 - Member States develop more effective, gender-sensitive skills and employability policies, programmes and strategies at the national, local and regional levels. Will monitor the number of member States that adopt improved human resources development policies and programmes through departmental advisory services and technical cooperation programmes.
	230025.10 - Governments, employers' and workers' organizations use ILO tools to improve the policy and regulatory environment for enterprises, and promote an enterprise culture that supports the creation of decent jobs. This measures the extent to which governments and the social partners have made significant use of ILO tools and advice in the policy, regulatory and enterprise culture area.
	230025.30 - Constituents establish programmes using ILO tools and approaches for enterprise upgrading and rural enterprise and cooperative development, to create decent jobs.

		430025.10 - Constituents use social dialogue to target and take effective action to improve social and labour outcomes in specific economic sectors within a member State.
		IND125 - Social protection for all, particularly in the context of informalization
		IND126 - Improve efficiency and coverage of social protection	310025 - Improved policies and strategies to extend social protection to all
		310025.10 - Member States adopt or implement effective policies and strategies to extend social security coverage.
		310025.30 - Member States improve their capacities to combine actions on social security and safety and health in the informal economy and rural areas.
		320075.10 - Member States include a gender-sensitive strategy for the world of work in their national AIDS plan.
		320075.30 - HIV/AIDS policies and programmes are implemented at the workplace.
		430025.10 - Constituents use social dialogue to target and take effective action to improve social and labour outcomes in specific economic sectors within a member State.
		IND150 - Unacceptable forms of work with a particular focus on worst forms of child labour progressively eliminated
		IND151 - Successful models for the elimination of child labour mainstreamed and replicated into NCLP societies across the country	110050 - Targeted action against child labour
		110050.10 - Member States make progress in applying Convention Nos. 138 and 182 through at least two interventions associated with the time-bound programme approach, including legal change, data collection, time-bound targets, child labour monitoring systems and mainstreaming of child labour in relevant development policies
		410025.20 - Workers' organizations provide new/better services, such as elimination of child labour, participation in PRSPs and other development coordination mechanisms, informal economy, social security and occupational health and safety, labour standards and workers' rights, promoting women's participation in trade unions, particularly at decision-making levels, and taking practical initiatives to extend representation.
		IND900 - Other Areas of Work
		IND901 - Workers' and Employers' Organizations are better equipped to participate actively on issues of social dialogue, globalization, elimination of child labour, labour law reforms	410025 - Employers' and workers' organizations are more valuable to their membership and to potential members
		410025.10 - Employers' organizations provide new or better services relevant to their members and potential members, including services which meet the needs of small and medium-sized enterprises and women entrepreneurs.
		410025.20 - Workers' organizations provide new/better services, such as elimination of child labour, participation in PRSPs and other development coordination mechanisms,

			informal economy, social security and occupational health and safety, labour standards and workers' rights, promoting women's participation in trade unions, particularly at decision-making levels, and taking practical initiatives to extend representation.
--	--	--	--	--