

Forum “Corporate Social Responsibility and Decent Work”

14:00-17:30, Wednesday, 21 July 2004

Organized by: ILO Office in Japan

Venue: Elizabeth Rose Hall, 5F, the United Nations University

Programme

- 13:30 Registration
- 14:00-14:05 Opening remarks: Ms. Mitsuko Horiuchi, Director, ILO Office in Japan
- 14:05-14:35 Report “CSR in Japan, ILO Standards and Supply Chains”
Mr. Kee Beom Kim, Technical Specialist, Multinational Enterprises Programme, ILO
- 14:35-14:55 Report “Initiatives on CSR and ILO Standards”
Professor Naoki Kuriyama, Faculty of Business Administration, Soka University
- 14:55-15:15 Report “CSR: UN Global Compact and Japanese Business Efforts”
Professor Toru Umeda, Professor at Reitaku University and Deputy Director at the Business Ethics and Compliance Research Center
- 15:15-15:30 Break
- 15:30-16:15 Comments by ILO constituents
Government: Toshio Chiba, Deputy Director for Labour Policies, Ministry of Health, Labour and Welfare
Employers: Nobuko Sanui, Director, International Labour Policy Bureau, Japan Business Federation
Workers: Yoji Tatsui, Executive Director, Department of Economic and Social Policy, JTUC-RENGO
- 16:15-17:15 Q&A and open floor discussion
- 17:15 Closing