

CSR in the field of labour and human rights

(U Thant International Conference Hall, 2F UN House)

Opening Remark MP Ms. Mayumi Moriyama, former Minister of Justice

Keynote lectures: 13:40-15:30

Nobuo Tateishi Chairman, Committee on International Labour Affairs, Nippon Keidanren
Executive Advisor, OMRON Corporation
“CSR activities for Japanese enterprises in the future”

Yoza Yokota Professor of International Law, Chuo Law School; Special Adviser to the Rector, UNU; Member of ILO Committee of Experts on the Application of Conventions and Recommendations
Report “CSR in Labour and Human Rights”

Jean-Claude Javillier Senior Adviser to the International Institute for Labour Studies, ILO “Globalization, CSR and Use of International Labour Standards by Private Sector”

Dominique Michel Chief, Multinational Enterprises Programme, Job Creation and Enterprise
Development Department, Employment Sector, ILO
“Role of enterprises in society: CSR and the ILO’s Declaration on Multinational Enterprises”

Break

Panel Discussion 15:40-17:20

“CSR Activities in the field of labour and human rights”

Moderator:

Shinichi Hasegawa Director, ILO Office in Japan

Panelist:

Ryo Yamada Counselor for Labour Policy-planning
Ministry of Health, Labour and Welfare

Nobuko Sanui Director, International Economic Affairs Bureau II
Japan Business Federation

Ken-ichi Kumagai Director, Economic Policy Division, Department of Economic and Social Policy, Japanese Trade Union Confederation (RENGO)

Commentator:

Jean-Claude Javillier / Dominique Michel

O&A

Break

Special report 17:30-18:00

Masao Seki Expert representing Japan at ISO Working Group on Social Responsibility “Discussion on ISO 26000: 4th Plenary of ISO Working Group on Social Responsibility in January 2007”

Reception 18:00-19:00 Reception hall on 2F of UNU