

Briefing on ILO Recruitment, Assignment and Placement System: RAPS 2012 (Video conference: Tokyo-Geneva)

ILO has two rounds a year recruitment, assignment and placement system since 2008. Approximately 40 vacancies will be announced globally at RAPS 2012 on the ILO website, (<https://erecruit.ilo.org/public/>) on 3 February and applications are accepted on-line. (Closing date: 4 March) Recruitment is to be proceeded in approximately four months.

In order to promote the system, ILO Office for Japan will hold an explanatory seminar on RAPS 2012 for those interested in pursuing their career in the international working environment.

We look forward to the participants who are interested in the work of the ILO in general, gathering information on the vacancies announced in the current RAPS, and seeking opportunities for career development within the ILO. Personnel at universities and educational institutions who aim to encourage and support the Japanese youth who wish to work for international organizations are also welcome.
