

Resolution on charges for Staff Training Courses

The Staff Union of the ILO, convened in its Annual General Meeting on 24 and 25 September 1980,

RECALLING that the decision to charge ILO officials for language training courses was a crisis measure,

CONSIDERING that the ILO is no longer in a state of financial crisis,

CONSIDERING that to continue to levy charges on staff who undertake language training puts ILO officials at a disadvantage compared with officials employed in the other international organisations,

CONSIDERING that the maintenance of such charges in the ILO would set an unfortunate example to employers throughout the world,

INSTRUCTS the Committee to call on the Director-General to abolish all such charges no later than 31 December 1980.
