Annex 2: Staffing pattern of the LMI Unit

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Job title</th>
<th>Summary description</th>
<th>Total number</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1 Senior Labour Market Specialist          | Directs and coordinates the formulation, analysis and dissemination of a key set of labour market indicators on a quarterly basis that would focus on labour market trends and projections for the various sectors of the economy.
  Act as advisor to the government on labour market issues to facilitate efficient planning of programmes and policies to promote growth and development. | ✔            |
| 1 Labour Market Statistician II            | Applies statistical methods and techniques of economic analysis for the estimation and projection of labour market information.
  Plans, organizes and directs a group of technical and non-technical officers engaged in the collation, editing and compilation of statistical data. | ✔            |
| 4 Labour Market Specialist II              | Plans and devises methods of compiling data from primary and secondary data sources to be used in the analysis of labour market trends.
  Analyses and interprets data as it relates to determining trends in the particular sector of the labour market. | ✔            |
| 1 Labour Market Specialist I               | Plans and devises methods of compiling data from primary and secondary data sources to be used in the analysis of labour market trends.
  Analyses and interprets data as it relates to determining trends in the particular sector of the labour market. | ✔            |
| 3 Labour Market Specialist I               | Plans and devises methods of compiling data from primary and secondary data sources to be used in the analysis of labour market trends.
  Analyses and interprets data as it relates to determining trends in the particular sector of the labour market. | ✔            |
| 7 Clerical/Secretarial Support             | Data entry                                                                                                                                                                                                           | ✔            |
| 8 Data Entry Clerk                         | Data Entry                                                                                                                                                                                                          | ✔            |