

Call for bids

English editing of the Publication “Social security coverage of workers in new forms of employment and platform workers in China”

1. Background

The EU-China Project “Improving China’s Institutional Capacity towards Universal Social Protection” funded by the European Union aims to improve the coverage, adequacy and sustainability of the social security system in China. In July 2020, the Project commissioned the Chinese Academy of Labour and Social Security of the Ministry of Human Resources and Social Security of China to carry out a research on “Assessing China’s social security coverage of non-standard workers, with focus on platform workers, migrants and women and measures to close gaps and improve portability of social security benefits”. The research was completed in 2021 and a report is available. The report requires professional proofreading and editing for publication and wide dissemination.

2. Objective

A professional editor is to be contracted to provide English proofreading and editing on the report “Social security coverage of workers in new forms of employment and platform workers in China”, following the ILO House Style Manual (Sixth Edition, 2020).

3. Deliverable

Professionally proofread and edited report in English (about 170 pages, Font Noto Sans 10, 1.1 space).

4. Dates

The contract is scheduled for the period 29 January-15 February 2022.

5. Budget

To be proposed by the bidders. Bidders should send their bid indicating their availability, daily rate, number of working days, their experience (one paragraph) or a brief CV, and a sample piece of previous work to Ms Chen Tian, chent@ilo.org, latest by 22 January 2022, 12.00 pm Beijing time. Report can be provided upon request by interested candidates to assess the workload.

Payment will be made upon completion of the deliverable to the satisfaction of the ILO.
