- The perception of the social model?
National Legal Frameworks

National laws to promote employment

1. Quota obligations
2. Employment equity/Non-discrimination
3. Positive measures
4. Job retention and return to work
1. Quota Schemes

- Obligation to employ
- Payment of levy for unfilled positions
- Special fund to promote employment
- Recent reforms:
  - Other options for employers
2. Equity/Non-Discrimination Laws

• Unlawful to discriminate against persons with disabilities in training or employment
• Reasonable accommodation
Reasonable Accommodation

- Adaptation of the job, including adjustment and modification of machinery and equipment and/or modification of the job content, work organization and the adaptation of the work environment to provide access to the place of work and working time to facilitate the employment of individuals with disabilities (Managing disability in the workplace. Code of Practice [ILO, 2002]).
Reasonable accommodation

• Necessary and appropriate modification and adjustments not imposing a disproportionate or undue burden, where needed in a particular case, to ensure to people with disabilities the enjoyment or exercise on an equal basis with others of all human rights and fundamental freedoms.

• Countries usually decide what is reasonable

• Accommodations are tools for people to do their jobs
What is the accommodation?
3. Positive measures

- Wage subsidies and financial incentives
- Employer financial supports or tax incentives
- Human resource and technical supports
- Awards and recognition
4. Job-Retention Laws

- Employers obliged
  - To retain the worker
  - To be involved in rehabilitation
  - To adapt the job or find new job

- Workers encouraged
  - To go back to work
  - To retrain if necessary
Decent work for all…

Everyone has the right to decent work---
Mainstreaming and inclusion

• Mainstreaming or inclusion means that people with disabilities have access to existing programmes and services along with nondisabled people and that, if necessary, reasonable accommodation is made to ensure that they can participate.
Types of Barriers

- Physical --- architectural, transport, etc.
- Informational and Communication
- Legal and policy
- Institutional and capacity
- Negative attitudes and assumptions ---
  - myths and pre-conceived ideas
Types of barriers in your region or country

Everyone has the right to decent work---

How would you categorize the barriers faced by disabled people in your region or country?
Fostering inclusion...removing barriers

1. Awareness and education
2. Commitment
3. Accessibility
4. Universal design
5. Reasonable accommodation
6. Skilled personnel
7. Planning and assessment
Awareness campaigns and training

• Raising awareness through public or targeted campaigns about rights and abilities

• Providing disability equality training to become more aware of rights

• Providing disability awareness training to become more disability confident and to take action
In your region or country…

• How would you rate the level of awareness about disability issues?

• How would you rate the political will to change things?
Universal Design

- ...the design of products, environments, programmes and services to be usable by all people, to the greatest extent possible, without the need for adaptation or specialized design...UN Convention

- Helps everyone...e.g. a ramp is used by those with luggage, baby strollers, wheelchairs
Reasonable Accommodation

• Necessary and appropriate modification and adjustments not imposing a disproportionate or undue burden, where needed in a particular case, to ensure to people with disabilities the enjoyment or exercise on an equal basis with others of all human rights and fundamental freedoms.

• From UNCRPD
Reasonable Accommodation

• Determined with the individual with a disability so he or she can access training, the union meeting or the workplace

• More examples
  – Providing information in large print, Braille or on disc
  – Saying things in simple language, or repeating as needed
  – Providing a sign language instructor or writing
More examples of accommodations

- Classroom moved to the first floor
- Longer practice periods
- Adapted tools or equipment such as a screen reader/talking software
- Specialized equipment such as hand instead of foot pedal
- Volume control on a telephone
- Special keyboard
- Longer learning period or job coach
Business case example
Skilled personnel

• Capacity building for:
  – ILO personnel
  – Government personnel
  – Trainers, ES staff
  – Employers and trade unions
  – DPOs and disabled persons
  – BDS, credit providers and others
In your region or country…

• How would you rate the capacity of personnel to address disability issues?

• Among the government and social partners?

• Who needs training most?
Inclusion Implications

- For workers?
- For employers?
- For skills training?
- For child labour, HIV and other projects?
- For employment, poverty alleviation or other programmes?
- For crisis interventions?
- Other
Overcoming barriers related to inclusion…

Do you have any more ideas about the barriers to decent work for disabled people in the countries where you work?

Do you see any additional barriers to inclusion that you see in your work or at the ILO?
Overcoming barriers

• What can be done?
• What support do you need?
• Who can help?
• What are some simple and immediate things you can do?
