INTERNATIONAL LABOUR STANDARDS

Application of International Labour Standards 2011(ii). Information document on ratifications and standards-related activities

The Information document on ratifications and standards-related activities (Report III [Part 2]) provides an overview of developments in international labour standards during 2010. It supplements the information contained in the report of the Committee of Experts on the Application of Conventions and Recommendations (Report III) (Part 1A). It provides general information on recent developments concerning international labour standards, constitutional and other procedures in relation to the supervision of standards, and technical assistance in the field of standards.

DECENT WORK

Building a sustainable future with decent work in Asia and the Pacific. Report of the Director-General

The 15th Asia and the Pacific Regional Meeting provides an opportunity to review progress in the implementation of the Asian Decent Work Decade and to share experiences and lessons learned, with a view to building a sustainable future with decent work. Part I identifies key policy and programme considerations at national, subregional, regional, and global levels. Part II describes the main outcomes achieved by constituents with the support of the ILO since the last Asia and the Pacific Regional Meeting, along with the main lessons learned.

CHILD LABOUR

IPEC action against child labour: highlights 2010

This report reviews relevant achievements and developments, programme operations and implementation and several selected themes of interest for 2010.

For the International Programme on the Elimination of Child Labour (IPEC), 2010 was a very significant year. It included the launch of the Global Report which detailed the global estimates on child labour, a global child labour conference that adopted a Roadmap for the elimination of the worst forms of child labour, and an endorsement by the ILO Governing Body of the ILO's Global Action Plan.

DISPUTE PREVENTION

Dispute prevention and resolution in public service labour relations: good policy and practice

This paper seeks to build on the work done in these publications by offering a compilation of good practices in dispute prevention and dispute resolution in public services. The intention is to showcase an array of mechanisms, mostly interconnected, that governments and social partners around the world have developed to minimize and resolve disputes – and especially interest disputes in collective bargaining – in the public services.

DOMESTIC WORKERS

Decent work for domestic workers. Report IV (2A)

To ensure that the texts of the proposed Convention and Recommendation on decent work for domestic workers are received by the governments within the time limit laid down in article 39, paragraph 7, of the Standing Orders of the Conference, Report IV (2) has been published in two volumes. This volume (Report IV (2A) has been drawn up on the basis of the replies received from governments, employers', and workers' organizations and the United Nations, and contains the essential points of their observations. It is divided into three parts: the first part comprises comments of a general nature, while the second and third parts contain the observations of the constituents on specific provisions of the proposed Convention and Recommendation, respectively.

Decent work for domestic workers. Report IV (2B) (Bilingual edition)

This bilingual volume (Report IV 2B) contains the English and French versions of the proposed texts, amended in the light of the observations made by governments and by employers' and workers' organizations and for the reasons set out in the Office commentaries in Report IV (2A). Some minor drafting changes have also been made, in particular to ensure full concordance between the two versions of the proposed instruments. If the Conference so decides, these texts will serve as a basis for the second discussion, at its 100th Session (June 2011), with a view to adopting a Convention supplemented by a Recommendation on decent work for domestic workers.

SUPPLY CHAIN

Safety in the supply chain in relation to packing of containers. Report for discussion at the Global Dialogue Forum on Safety in the Supply Chain in relation to Packing of Containers (21-22 February 2011)

This report suggests that consideration should be given to rewriting the cargo transport units

(CTU) packing guidelines and producing good practice guidelines for the container supply chain that would be common to all modes of transport. Stakeholders from the various transport modes could then customize this document to suit their particular needs or point of view.

ADOLESCENCE

Adolescence: an age of opportunity. The state of the world's children, 2011

This report catalogues, in heart-wrenching detail, the array of dangers adolescents face: the injuries that kill 400,000 of them each year; early pregnancy and childbirth, a primary cause of death for teenage girls; the pressures that keep 70 million adolescents out-of-school; exploitation, violent conflict and the worst kind of abuse at the hands of adults. It also examines the dangers posed by emerging trends like climate change, whose intensifying effects in many developing countries already undermine so many adolescents' well-being, and by labour trends, which reveal a profound lack of employment opportunities for young people, especially those in poor countries.
