The ILO-Vision Zero Fund (VZF) aims to prevent and reduce work related accidents, injuries and diseases by strengthening public frameworks and establishing sustainable business practices in global supply chains (GSCs). VZF conducted an assessment on agrochemical safety in Myanmar, turning findings into two notes: one entitled “Agrochemical Safety in action: lesson and recommendations for Myanmar” on programmatic options for working on the ground on agrochemical safety; and one entitled “Banning hazardous pesticides: recommendations for Myanmar”.
