

JOINING FORCES
GLOBALLY TO END
FORCED LABOUR,
MODERN SLAVERY,
HUMAN TRAFFICKING AND CHILD LABOUR

Eliminating child labour and forced labour

Follow-up of the IV Conference on the Sustainable Eradication of Child Labour,
14-16 November 2017, Buenos Aires (Argentina),
proposals for the G20 Employment Working Group

The challenge

SDG Target 8.7:

- end child labour in all its forms by 2025
- end forced labour, modern slavery, human trafficking by 2030.

Most prevalent in lower tiers of global supply chains, informal economy and in crisis situations.

Link with other fundamental and labour rights violations.

2017 Child labour estimates

152 MILLION CHILDREN IN CHILD LABOUR

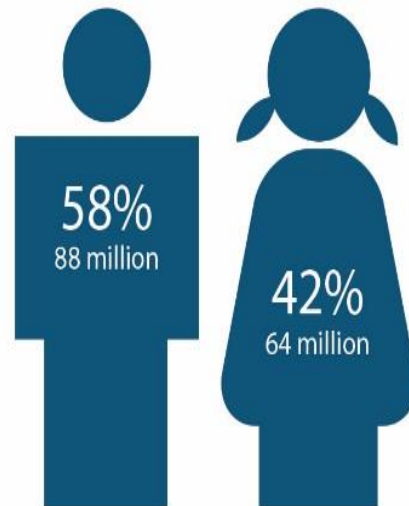

AGE PROFILE

48%
5-11 year-olds

28%
12-14 year-olds

24%
15-17 year-olds

GENDER

ECONOMIC ACTIVITY

 70.9%
Agriculture

 11.9%
Industry

 17.2%
Services

2017 Forced labour estimates

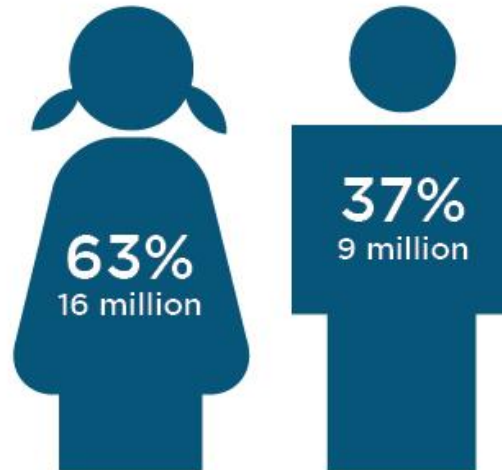

25 MILLION PEOPLE IN FORCED LABOUR

AGE PROFILE

83% adults

17% children

GENDER

FORM

64%
Forced labour exploitation

19%
Forced commercial sexual exploitation

17%
State-imposed forced labour

A renewed commitment to action

The IV Global Conference, Buenos Aires, 14-16 Nov. 2017

Buenos Aires Declaration on Child Labour, Forced Labour and Youth Employment

96 voluntary pledges (54 by governments and regional groups), describing concrete and time-bound actions to advance Target 8.7

Alliance 8.7

Global partnership launched in September 2016 to accelerate action, share knowledge, drive innovation and leverage resources for national governments to achieve Target 8.7

Proposals for a G-20 strategy to end child labour and forced labour

1. Promoting economic development, enterprise development and decent work to prevent and address child labour and forced labour
2. Building capacities in regions and countries
3. Accelerating ratification, legal action and law enforcement
4. Identifying high risk sectors, promoting social dialogue and due diligence
5. Conducting research and sharing knowledge
6. Driving innovation

Focus on global supply chains

ILO Action Programme on Decent Work in Global Supply Chains (2017-2021)

Alliance 8.7 Action Group on Supply Chains has built momentum

Alliance 8.7 Report on evidence and good practices to eliminate child labour and forced labour in supply chains planned for 2019 (2017 LEMM Declaration)