

What is GOALI?

GOALI is a new Research4Life programme managed by the International Labour Organization (ILO) to access legal research and training in the developing world.

Who can register?

Universities, libraries, law schools, government offices, research and non-for-profit organizations

Who can access GOALI?

Researchers, students, librarians, policymakers, judges and legal experts through their institutions.

What is available?

Academic and professional information resources from the world's leading academic publishers.

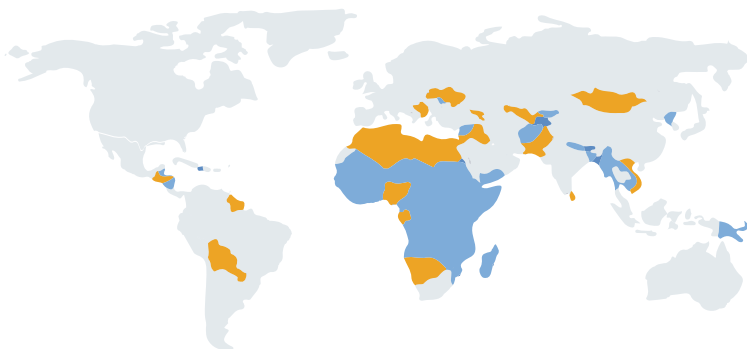

Peer-reviewed journals

Books

Legal databases

More than 100 countries eligible

- Free access
- Low-cost access

Visit www.research4life.org to register.

For more information about GOALI visit www.ilo.org/goali