

Global Employment Trends 2014

Risk of a jobless recovery

24 January 2014 - 11:00am to 1:00pm

United Nations, Conference Room A (Conf Bldg)

The weak global economic recovery has failed to lead to an improvement in global labour markets, with global unemployment in 2013 reaching almost 202 million.

The ILO's new report, Global Employment Trends, presents the latest global and regional information and projections on labour market indicators, including employment, unemployment, working poverty, vulnerability and employment perspectives for youth and women.

The key findings of the report and its implications for the global economy and for the post 2015 sustainable development agenda will be presented by:

- Stephen Pursey
ILO - Director, Multilateral Cooperation
- Ronnie Goldberg
US Council for International Business - Senior Counsel
- Peter Bakvis
*International Trade Union Confederation
Director, Washington Office*
- Olav Kjørven
Special Adviser to the UNDP Administrator on the Post-2015 Development Agenda
