

Proposed points for discussion

- 1. How can collective bargaining contribute to addressing challenges facing the public service, including the impact of the economic and financial crisis?
- 2. How can the independence and impartiality of the public service – as well as the protection of corruption control officers – be strengthened, notably through collective bargaining?
- 3. What action is necessary to enhance workforce development, career progression, employment conditions, efficiency and performance through social dialogue?
- 4. Recommendations for future action by the International Labour Organization and its Members regarding collective bargaining in the public service.
