THE YOUTH EMPLOYMENT CHALLENGE

Globally over
70 MILLION young women & men are looking for a job

More than
160 MILLION youth are working, yet living in poverty

3X in every
2 in 5 economically active youth are without work or working but poor

The Youth Employment Investments remain fragmented despite increased policy attention

GUIDING PRINCIPLES

The partners of Decent Jobs for Youth commit to 15 guiding principles, which steer their actions and investments on youth employment.

- Respect for youth’s rights
- Multi-dimensional and multi-sectoral approach
- Impact quantity and quality of jobs
- Youth’s access to productive assets
- Complementarity & coherence between public policies & private investment
- Gender equality
- Targeted approaches that acknowledge youths’ diversity
- Immediate action plus long-term interventions
- Balance demand- and supply-side interventions
- Leverage existing platforms & lessons learned
- Promote labour market policies
- Focus on country and regional action
- Invest in quality education and skills development
- Encourage active youth engagement
- Expand multi-stakeholder partnerships

JOIN DECENT JOBS FOR YOUTH

Partners of Decent Jobs for Youth tap a vast network of resources and expertise to drive positive change for young women and men across the world.

To join, partners commit to action through ongoing and upcoming initiatives at country, regional and global level.

To maximize the impact of their commitments and to advance the Sustainable Development Goals, all partners align their work with the priorities and guiding principles.

Visit our engagement platform to make a commitment and learn about the progress and contributions of our partners to Decent Jobs for Youth.

Contact us
Employment Policy Department
International Labour Organization
decentjobsforyouth@ilo.org
www.DecentJobsForYouth.org
@DecentJobsYouth

When young women and men have access to decent, productive work, everyone benefits, and our future is more prosperous.

THE YOUTH EMPLOYMENT CHALLENGE

Put in perspective, youth unemployment is at least

70 MILLION young women & men are looking for a job

More than
160 MILLION youth are working, yet living in poverty

3X in every
2 in 5 economically active youth are without work or working but poor

Youth employment investments remain fragmented despite increased policy attention

The Youth Employment Investments remain fragmented despite increased policy attention

DECENT JOBS FOR YOUTH

THE GLOBAL INITIATIVE FOR ACTION

When young women and men have access to decent, productive work, everyone benefits, and our future is more prosperous.
Join decent jobs for youth

Partners of Decent Jobs for Youth tap a vast network of resources and expertise to drive positive change for young women and men across the world.

To join, partners commit to action through ongoing and upcoming initiatives at country, regional and global level.

To maximize the impact of their commitments and to advance the Sustainable Development Goals, all partners align their work with the priorities and guiding principles.

Visit our engagement platform to make a commitment and learn about the progress and contributions of our partners to Decent Jobs for Youth.

Respect for youth’s rights

Multi-dimensional and multi-sectoral approach

Impact quantity and quality of jobs

Youth’s access to productive assets

Complementarity & coherence between public policies & private investment

Gender equality

Targeted approaches that acknowledge youths’ diversity

Immediate action plus long-term interventions

Balance demand- and supply-side interventions

Leverage existing platforms & lessons learned

Promote labour market policies

Focus on country and regional action

Invest in quality education and skills development

Encourage active youth engagement

Expand multi-stakeholder partnerships

Contact us

Employment Policy Department
International Labour Organization

decentjobsforyouth@ilo.org

www.DecentJobsForYouth.org

@DecentJobsYouth

Respect for youth’s rights

Multi-dimensional and multi-sectoral approach

Impact quantity and quality of jobs

Youth’s access to productive assets

Complementarity & coherence between public policies & private investment

Gender equality

Targeted approaches that acknowledge youths’ diversity

Immediate action plus long-term interventions

Balance demand- and supply-side interventions

Leverage existing platforms & lessons learned

Promote labour market policies

Focus on country and regional action

Invest in quality education and skills development

Encourage active youth engagement

Expand multi-stakeholder partnerships

Contact us

Employment Policy Department
International Labour Organization

decentjobsforyouth@ilo.org

www.DecentJobsForYouth.org

@DecentJobsYouth

Decent jobs for youth

The global initiative for action

When young women and men have access to decent, productive work, everyone benefits, and our future is more prosperous.
Decent Jobs for Youth is the global initiative to scale up action and impact on youth employment under the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development.

Our vision is a world in which young women and men have greater access to decent jobs, everywhere.

Priorities for Action

To make a difference in the lives of young people, Decent Jobs for Youth focuses on eight thematic priorities that respond to today’s most pressing challenges.

- Green Jobs for Youth
- Digital Skills for Youth
- Quality Apprenticeships
- Youth in Fragile Situations
- Youth Transitioning to the Formal Economy
- Youth in the Rural Economy
- Youth Entrepreneurship and Self-employment
- Young Workers in Hazardous Occupations

What We Are Working Towards

Building a Strategic Alliance

Decent Jobs for Youth brings together local, national, regional and international partners in a strategic and inclusive alliance to boost political will, ensure policy convergence, stimulate innovative thinking and mobilize resources for more and better investments in youth employment.

Scaling up Action and Impact

With the commitment of its partners, Decent Jobs for Youth helps to scale up action and impact across key thematic priorities, in response to national development goals and in line with the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development.

Sharing and Applying Knowledge

As a global knowledge hub, Decent Jobs for Youth leverages the collective experience of its partners to connect, capture and share best practices. It aims to highlight innovative approaches and facilitate learning opportunities on how to make decent jobs a reality for young people across different contexts.

Mobilizing Resources

Decent Jobs for Youth aims to mobilize domestic and international investments to scale up action on youth employment. It aims to explore innovative funding mechanisms, leveraging global facilities and financing for development in the most efficient and inclusive manner.

An Inclusive Partnership

Launched in 2016 as the first-ever United Nations’ system-wide effort for the promotion of youth employment, Decent Jobs for Youth gathers the resources and in-depth expertise of multiple partners. It is a unique platform to address fragmentation and catalyze innovation at country and regional levels.
Decent Jobs for Youth is the global initiative to scale up action and impact on youth employment under the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development.

Our vision is a world in which young women and men have greater access to decent jobs, everywhere.

Priorities for Action
To make a difference in the lives of young people, Decent Jobs for Youth focuses on eight thematic priorities that respond to today’s most pressing challenges.

- Green jobs for youth
- Digital skills for youth
- Quality apprenticeships
- Youth in fragile situations
- Youth transitioning to the formal economy
- Youth in the rural economy
- Youth entrepreneurship and self-employment
- Young workers in hazardous occupations

What we are working towards

Building a strategic alliance

Decent Jobs for Youth brings together local, national, regional and international partners in a strategic and inclusive alliance to boost political will, ensure policy convergence, stimulate innovative thinking and mobilize resources for more and better investments in youth employment.

Scaling up action and impact

With the commitment of its partners, Decent Jobs for Youth helps to scale up action and impact across key thematic priorities, in response to national development goals and in line with the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development.

Sharing and applying knowledge

As a global knowledge hub, Decent Jobs for Youth leverages the collective experience of its partners to connect, capture and share best practices. It aims to highlight innovative approaches and facilitate learning opportunities on how to make decent jobs a reality for young people across different contexts.

Mobilizing resources

Decent Jobs for Youth aims to mobilize domestic and international investments to scale up action on youth employment. It aims to explore innovative funding mechanisms, leveraging global facilities and financing for development in the most efficient and inclusive manner.

An inclusive partnership

Launched in 2016 as the first-ever United Nations’ system-wide effort for the promotion of youth employment, Decent Jobs for Youth gathers the resources and in-depth expertise of multiple partners. It is a unique platform to address fragmentation and catalyze innovation at country and regional levels.
Decent Jobs for Youth is the global initiative to scale up action and impact on youth employment under the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development.

Our vision is a world in which young women and men have greater access to decent jobs, everywhere.

Priorities for Action

To make a difference in the lives of young people, Decent Jobs for Youth focuses on eight thematic priorities that respond to today’s most pressing challenges.

- Green jobs for youth
- Digital skills for youth
- Quality apprenticeships
- Youth in fragile situations
- Youth transitioning to the formal economy
- Youth in the rural economy
- Youth entrepreneurship and self-employment
- Young workers in hazardous occupations

What we are working towards

- Building a strategic alliance
  - Decent Jobs for Youth brings together local, national, regional and international partners in a strategic and inclusive alliance to boost political will, ensure policy convergence, stimulate innovative thinking and mobilize resources for more and better investments in youth employment.

- Scaling up action and impact
  - With the commitment of its partners, Decent Jobs for Youth helps to scale up action and impact across key thematic priorities, in response to national development goals and in line with the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development.

- Sharing and applying knowledge
  - As a global knowledge hub, Decent Jobs for Youth leverages the collective experience of its partners to connect, capture and share best practices. It aims to highlight innovative approaches and facilitate learning opportunities on how to make decent jobs a reality for young people across different contexts.

- Mobilizing resources
  - Decent Jobs for Youth aims to mobilize domestic and international investments to scale up action on youth employment. It aims to explore innovative funding mechanisms, leveraging global facilities and financing for development in the most efficient and inclusive manner.
Join decent jobs for youth

Partners of Decent Jobs for Youth tap a vast network of resources and expertise to drive positive change for young women and men across the world.

To join, partners commit to action through ongoing and upcoming initiatives at country, regional and global level.

To maximize the impact of their commitments and to advance the Sustainable Development Goals, all partners align their work with the priorities and guiding principles.

Visit our engagement platform to make a commitment and learn about the progress and contributions of our partners to Decent Jobs for Youth.

THE YOUTH EMPLOYMENT CHALLENGE

Globally over 70 million young women & men are looking for a job

More than 160 million young people are working, yet living in poverty

2 in every 5 economically active youth are without work or working but poor

Youth employment investments remain fragmented despite increased policy attention

GUIDING PRINCIPLES

The partners of Decent Jobs for Youth commit to 15 guiding principles, which steer their actions and investments on youth employment.

- Respect for youth’s rights
- Multi-dimensional and multi-sectoral approach
- Impact quantity and quality of jobs
- Youth’s access to productive assets
- Complementarity & coherence between public policies & private investment
- Gender equality
- Targeted approaches that acknowledge youths’ diversity
- Immediate action plus long-term interventions
- Balance demand- and supply-side interventions
- Leverage existing platforms & lessons learned
- Promote labour market policies
- Focus on country and regional action
- Invest in quality education and skills development
- Encourage active youth engagement
- Expand multi-stakeholder partnerships

JOIN DECENT JOBS FOR YOUTH

Partners of Decent Jobs for Youth tap a vast network of resources and expertise to drive positive change for young women and men across the world.

To join, partners commit to action through ongoing and upcoming initiatives at country, regional and global level.

To maximize the impact of their commitments and to advance the Sustainable Development Goals, all partners align their work with the priorities and guiding principles.

Visit our engagement platform to make a commitment and learn about the progress and contributions of our partners to Decent Jobs for Youth.

When young women and men have access to decent, productive work, everyone benefits, and our future is more prosperous.

Contact us
Employment Policy Department
International Labour Organization
decentjobsforyouth@ilo.org
www.DecentJobsForYouth.org
@DecentJobsYouth

Putting in perspective, youth unemployment is at least 3X higher than that of adults

The Youth Employment Challenge

Youth employment investments remain fragmented despite increased policy attention

When young women and men have access to decent, productive work, everyone benefits, and our future is more prosperous.

Contact us
Employment Policy Department
International Labour Organization
decentjobsforyouth@ilo.org
www.DecentJobsForYouth.org
@DecentJobsYouth

Respect for youth’s rights
Multi-dimensional and multi-sectoral approach
Impact quantity and quality of jobs
Youth’s access to productive assets
Complementarity & coherence between public policies & private investment
Gender equality
Targeted approaches that acknowledge youths’ diversity
Immediate action plus long-term interventions
Balance demand- and supply-side interventions
Leverage existing platforms & lessons learned
Promote labour market policies
Focus on country and regional action
Invest in quality education and skills development
Encourage active youth engagement
Expand multi-stakeholder partnerships

DECENT JOBS FOR YOUTH

THE GLOBAL INITIATIVE FOR ACTION

DECENT JOBS FOR YOUTH

THE GLOBAL INITIATIVE FOR ACTION

When young women and men have access to decent, productive work, everyone benefits, and our future is more prosperous.

Contact us
Employment Policy Department
International Labour Organization
decentjobsforyouth@ilo.org
www.DecentJobsForYouth.org
@DecentJobsYouth