To ILO GB Secretariat and the Secretary to the Workers' Group

2nd Nov. 2020

Letter of condolences

Dear colleagues,

We have recently learned that Mr. Li Qiyang, former Government member of the ILO Governing Body and former Vice-Minister of Labour and Social Security of China passed away on June 3, 2020. During his lifetime, Mr. Li was committed to promoting China's employment and social security policies, enhancing tripartite cooperation and social dialogue, and strengthening communication with social partners including the ACFTU. He worked very hard with social partners to promote the well-being of the broad masses of workers. We would hereby like to pay tribute to the memory of Mr. Li and offer condolences to his family.

We would also like to pay tribute to the memory of Mr. Yoshikazu Tanaka, former Worker Member of the Governing Body and Vice-President of the Japanese Trade Union Confederation (JTUC-RENGO), and Mr. Jan Sithole, former Worker member of the Governing Body and General Secretary of the Swaziland Federation of Trade Unions (SFTU) for their contributions to improving the welfare of workers and offer our condolences to their families.

Best regards.

Yours sincerely,

Jiang Guangping

Vice Chair and Member of the Secretariat
All-China Federation of Trade Unions (ACFTU)
