

IV

Resolution concerning the application by the Cook Islands for admission to membership of the International Labour Organization¹

The General Conference of the International Labour Organization,

Having received an application from the Government of the Cook Islands for admission to membership of the International Labour Organization,

Decides to admit the Cook Islands to membership of the International Labour Organization with the same rights and obligations as the other Members of the Organization;

Authorizes the Governing Body of the International Labour Office to make the necessary arrangements with the Government of the Cook Islands with regard to its financial contributions;

Takes note of the fact that the Government of the Cook Islands has already communicated to the Director-General of the International Labour Office its formal acceptance of the obligations of the Constitution of the International Labour Organisation and that, accordingly, the admission of the Cook Islands to membership of the International Labour Organization will take effect on the adoption by the Conference of the present resolution.
