I. Membership of the Organization

1. By letter dated 30 March 2015, the Government of the Cook Islands filed an application for membership of the International Labour Organization. In his reply to the Government of the Cook Islands, the Director-General noted that the Government had formally accepted the obligations of the ILO Constitution and, since the Cook Islands was not a Member of the United Nations, he informed the Government that the application for membership would be submitted to the International Labour Conference for examination and decision, in accordance with article 1, paragraph 4, of the ILO Constitution.

2. The International Labour Conference, at its 104th Session (June 2015), decided by 441 votes in favour, 3 votes against and 25 abstentions, to admit the Cook Islands as a member of the ILO. The Cook Islands accordingly became the 186th member State of the International Labour Organization on 12 June 2015.

Ms Claudia Coenjaerts (Belgium)

Appointed Director of the ILO Decent Work Team and Office for the Caribbean in Port-of-Spain (DWT/O–Port-of-Spain), with effect from 1 August 2015.

Ms Coenjaerts joined the ILO in 1991 as a junior programme officer in Bangkok. Her subsequent career has led her to work extensively in programmes dealing with labour and employment issues. During her assignments as Country Office Director in Bangladesh and in Sri Lanka she worked closely with local stakeholders, developing strong technical cooperation programmes as well as a solid policy portfolio ranging from institutional reform to industrial relations and job creation. As the Deputy Regional Director for Africa, she managed ILO operations for the region. In her most recent position as President and CEO of the Fair Labor Association, she led a global team of 60 staff working on a multi-stakeholder initiative to bring transparency and accountability for social and labor compliance in the supply chains of large multinational companies.

Ms Coenjaerts, who was born in 1965, holds a BA and an MA in Sociology from the Catholic University of Leuven, Belgium.

Mr Akira Isawa (Japan)

Appointed Deputy Director of the Sectoral Policies Department (SECTOR), with effect from 1 October 2015.

Mr Isawa joined the Ministry of Labour of Japan in 1980, working in various capacities in the field of employment and social policies. He held the post of Director of the Labour Inspection Division, Director of the Industrial Relations Division and Director-General of the Statistics and Information Department. His career has brought him into frequent contact with the ILO. In particular, from 1997 to 2000, he worked as Counsellor responsible for ILO activities at the Permanent Mission of Japan to the United Nations Office and other International Organizations in Geneva. During the same period, he served as Regional Coordinator of the Asia and Pacific group and in 1998 played an active role in the adoption of the ILO Declaration on Fundamental Principles and Rights at Work.

Since July 2013, he has been Assistant Minister for International Affairs at the Ministry of Health, Labour and Welfare of Japan and has taken part in many international conferences, meetings and forums. In particular, he represented his Government on the
GB.325/INS/15

Governing Body of the ILO and acted as Sherpa at the G20 Employment Ministers Meetings.

Mr Isawa, who was born in 1956, holds a BA in Law from the University of Tokyo, Japan.
