

► Information for international non-governmental organizations invited to the 109th Session of the International Labour Conference (2021)

Participation in Plenary and Committees

- International non-governmental organizations (INGOs) whose participation in the International Labour Conference (ILC) was approved by the Governing Body¹ will receive, upon submission of their credentials, an invitation from “ILO/OIT <no-reply@zoom.us>” to follow the Conference Plenary and the various committees open to INGOs participation. These invitations will be valid throughout the Conference.

Request for the floor in Plenary

- Should your organization wish to address the Plenary, please follow the relevant instructions available on the Conference website.

Request for the floor in Committees

- In accordance with the Standing Orders of the ILC, requests to take the floor are subject to the approval of the Officers of the Committee concerned. For further details, please refer to each Committee’s webpage
- INGO representatives who will be granted the floor in committees will receive an email from “ILO/OIT <no-reply@zoom.us>” with the link to participate in the relevant sitting. This email will be sent to the address provided in their Conference credentials.

Please make sure that “ILO / OIT <no-reply@zoom.us>” email address is on the white list of your email account (i.e. that it is a trusted sender that will not go to the junk or spam folder).
