JIU/REP/2016/7: Comprehensive review of United Nations system support for small island developing States: final findings	1	The governing bodies of the United Nations system and of the multilateral environment agreements, taking into account the findings of the comprehensive review, should give precise system-wide coordinated guidance to the organizations so as to ensure that the priorities of the SAMOA Pathway are mainstreamed in the strategic plans, within the realm of the organizations' mandates, and should encourage all stakeholders to make sufficient and predictable resources available for the effective and accelerated implementation of the Pathway.	L	Enhanced coordination and cooperation	Accepted	In progress		The acceptance status has been changed from "not accepted" to "accepted", due to the change of direction as decided at the UNDG level. This type of recommendation that entails UN system-wide coordination and common action is not attributable to the ILO alone. SIDS national and subregional priorities were presented at the ECOSOC of May 2021. DCO requested all UN agencies to update their commitment tracker on SIDS. The priority identified by the UN in response to SAMOA pathway are :a) more tailored support; b) enhanced and aligned physical presence; c) strengthened and more physical policy and technical resources; d) integration and participation in intergovernmental fora and processes; e)strengthening national data systems, data collection and use; f) improved access to finance.
