

SPEECH BY THE MINISTER OF MANPOWER
OF THE REPUBLIC OF INDONESIA
ON THE 110th SESSION OF
INTERNATIONAL LABOUR CONFERENCE (ILC)
GENEVA, 9 JUNE 2022

(4 minutes duration)

Mr. President,
Director-General,
Excellencies,

I would like to appreciate the Director-General for his Reports. The ILO has played a major role in promoting decent work, establishing norms and standards for fair and equitable work, and furthering occupational safety and health in the workplace.

To better respond to megatrends challenges, we must rely on cooperation, solidarity, and social justice. No country can defeat those challenges on its own.

Stronger international cooperation is a must.

The G20 Presidency of Indonesia puts the objective of the G20 Employment Working Group, as to ensure a swift and sustainable economic recovery from the COVID-19 pandemics and achieve the Twenty-Thirty (2030) Agenda for Sustainable Development.

G20 should contribute and be more relevant to the needs of countries.

Thus, the priority of Indonesia's G20 Presidency is in line with the focus of the Director-General's report "Least Developed Countries: Crisis, Structural Transformation and the Future of Work".

Let me now share three important suggestions based on the Director-General's reports:

First, we must multiply our investment in human resources.

Second, we need to strengthen and revitalize workers' training institutions.

Third, we need to ensure that all workers gain benefits from the development process.

Excellencies,

At the national level, Indonesia has walked-the-talks.

First, we have improved labor and employment policies through multi-stakeholders' collaboration and transformed employment training centers into the centers of competencies and productivity.

Second, we adopted a new law on migrant workers' protection, to ensure a safe and regular migration corridor for Indonesian migrant workers.

Third, we promote social dialogue based on the respect for freedom of union, the recognition of the rights to collective bargaining.

Lastly, we continue strengthening the roles of entrepreneurship and cooperatives in the national development and enlisting their contributions in ending the crises.

To conclude, let us strengthen collaboration toward a new era of social justice.

I thank you.
