Interpretation — rights not affected

2 This Act does not affect or interfere with the right of any person who is not a member of the Association to practise in the field of human resources. 2013, c. 6, s. 2.

THE ASSOCIATION

Association continued

3 (1) The Human Resources Professionals Association of Ontario is continued as a corporation without share capital under the name Human Resources Professionals Association in English and Association des professionnels en ressources humaines in French. 2013, c. 6, s. 3 (1).

Composition

(2) The Association is composed of its members. 2013, c. 6, s. 3 (2).

Powers, etc., of natural person

(3) For the purpose of carrying out its objects, the Association has the capacity and the rights, powers and privileges of a natural person. 2013, c. 6, s. 3 (3).

Implied provisions do not apply

(4) Section 92 (implied provisions for corporations) of the Legislation Act, 2006 does not apply to the Association. 2013, c. 6, s. 3 (4).

Not-for-Profit Corporations Act, 2010 does not apply

(5) The Not-for-Profit Corporations Act, 2010 does not apply to the Association, except as may be prescribed by regulation. 2013, c. 6, s. 3 (5).

Same, regulations

(6) The Lieutenant Governor in Council may make regulations prescribing provisions of the Not-for-Profit Corporations Act, 2010 that apply to the Association. 2013, c. 6, s. 3 (6).

Objects

4 The objects of the Association are,

(a) to promote and protect the public interest by governing and regulating the practice of members of the Association and firms in accordance with this Act and the by-laws, including,

(i) establishing, maintaining, developing and enforcing standards of qualification,

(ii) establishing, maintaining, developing and enforcing standards of practice,

(iii) establishing, maintaining, developing and enforcing standards of professional ethics,

(iv) establishing, maintaining, developing and enforcing standards of knowledge, skill and proficiency, and

(v) regulating the practice, competence and professional conduct of members of the Association and firms;

(b) to promote and increase the knowledge, skill and proficiency of members of the Association, firms and students;

(c) to promote and protect the welfare and interests of the Association and of the human resources profession;

(d) to promote inter-professional collaboration with other professional bodies;

(e) to address any other matter that relates to the regulation of its members that the Board considers appropriate. 2013, c. 6, s. 4.

Meetings

Annual meetings

5 (1) The Association shall hold an annual meeting of the members of the Association in accordance with the by-laws. 2013, c. 6, s. 5 (1).

General meetings

(2) The members of the Association or the Board may at any time call a general meeting of the members of the Association in accordance with the by-laws. 2013, c. 6, s. 5 (2).

Proxy

(3) At any annual or general meeting of the members of the Association, a member may be represented by proxy in accordance with the by-laws. 2013, c. 6, s. 5 (3).

Limitation

(4) A proxy granted by a member for the purposes of subsection (3) is not valid unless it is granted to another member of the Association. 2013, c. 6, s. 5 (4).

Surplus

6 Any surplus obtained from carrying on the business of the Association shall be solely devoted to and applied towards promoting and carrying out its objects in accordance with this Act and the by-laws and shall not be divided among its members. 2013, c. 6, s. 6.

Benevolent or charitable fund

7 The Association may establish and administer a benevolent or charitable fund and, for that purpose, may make or receive contributions. 2013, c. 6, s. 7.

THE BOARD

Board of Directors

8 (1) The Board of Directors of the Association shall manage and administer the Association's affairs in accordance with this Act and the by-laws. 2013, c. 6, s. 8 (1).

Composition

(2) The Board shall be composed of,

- (a) no fewer than nine and no more than 15 individuals, as fixed by the by-laws, who are members of the Association and who are elected by members of the Association in accordance with the by-laws;
- (b) three individuals who are not members of the Association or of a self-regulating human resources body and who are appointed by the Lieutenant Governor in Council;
- (c) no more than five individuals, as fixed by the by-laws, who are not members of the Association or of a self-regulating human resources body and who are appointed by the Board; and
- (d) the Chief Executive Officer of the Association appointed under subsection 11 (2). 2013, c. 6, s. 8 (2).

Deemed reappointment

(3) An individual whose appointment under clause (2) (b) or (c) expires is deemed to have been reappointed until his or her successor takes office. 2013, c. 6, s. 8 (3).

Board appointments

(4) Until the first appointment of an individual to the Board by the Lieutenant Governor in Council under clause (2) (b), the Board may appoint as members of the Board one or more individuals who are not members of the Association or of a self-regulating human resources body, for the term or terms that the Board specifies. 2013, c. 6, s. 8 (4).

Same

(5) The appointment of an individual appointed under subsection (4) expires on the earlier of,

- (a) the day on which the individual's term expires; and
- (b) the day on which the Lieutenant Governor in Council makes a first appointment under clause (2) (b). 2013, c. 6, s. 8 (5).

Vacancy

9 (1) If the seat of an elected member of the Board becomes vacant, the vacancy shall be filled for the remainder of the member's term in accordance with the by-laws. 2013, c. 6, s. 9 (1).

Same

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), an elected member's seat becomes vacant,

- (a) if the member dies or resigns;
- (b) if the member is removed from the Board in accordance with the by-laws; or
- (c) for any other reason specified by the by-laws. 2013, c. 6, s. 9 (2).

Quorum

10 At any meeting of the Board, a majority of the members of the Board constitutes a quorum. 2013, c. 6, s. 10.

Officers

11 (1) The Board shall elect from among its members the officers specified by the by-laws to be elected. 2013, c. 6, s. 11 (1).

Same

(2) The Board shall appoint as officers of the Association a Chief Executive Officer, a Registrar and any other officers specified by the by-laws to be appointed. 2013, c. 6, s. 11 (2).

Powers and duties

(3) In addition to the powers and duties that are set out in this Act and the by-laws, an officer of the Association has the powers and duties that are granted or assigned to him or her by the Board. 2013, c. 6, s. 11 (3).

Committees

12 (1) The Board shall by by-law establish a complaints committee, a discipline committee, a review committee, a capacity committee and an appeal committee, and may establish additional committees as it considers appropriate. 2013, c. 6, s. 12 (1).

Panels

(2) The by-laws may authorize a committee to sit in panels for the purposes of exercising its powers and performing its duties under this Act, and for any other purpose. 2013, c. 6, s. 12 (2).

Same

(3) A decision of a panel of a committee constitutes the decision of the committee. 2013, c. 6, s. 12 (3).

Delegation of powers and duties

Board may delegate

13 (1) The Board may delegate any of its powers or duties under this Act, except the power to make by-laws, to one or more committees or the Registrar or any other officer of the Association, subject to any restrictions or conditions that the Board may specify. 2013, c. 6, s. 13 (1).

Registrar may delegate

(2) The Registrar may delegate any of his or her powers or duties under this Act to one or more individuals or entities identified by the Board for the purpose, subject to any restrictions or conditions that are specified by the Registrar or the Board. 2013, c. 6, s. 13 (2).

MEMBERSHIP

Membership

14 (1) The Board shall admit as a member of the Association any individual who meets the requirements and qualifications for membership that are specified by the by-laws and who applies for membership in accordance with the by-laws. 2013, c. 6, s. 14 (1).

Certificate

(2) The Registrar shall give to every individual admitted as a member of the Association a certificate of membership in the form determined by the Board. 2013, c. 6, s. 14 (2).

Same

(3) Every member of the Association who resigns his or her membership or whose membership is suspended or revoked shall return his or her certificate of membership to the Association, unless the Board determines otherwise. 2013, c. 6, s. 14 (3).

Workplace investigations

14.1 A member of the Association, who is in good standing, is authorized to conduct, for remuneration, workplace investigations in order to provide information, and section 2 of Ontario Regulation 435/07 made under the Private Security and Investigative Services Act, 2005 applies. 2017, c. 2, Sched. 13, s. 6.

Section Amendments with date in force (d/m/y) [+]

Refusal, restrictions or conditions

Refusal of membership

18 (1) An applicant who is refused membership in the Association may appeal the decision to the person or body appointed by the by-laws to hear the appeal. 2013, c. 6, s. 18 (1).

Restrictions or conditions

(2) An applicant whose membership in the Association is granted subject to restrictions or conditions on his or her right to practise in the field of human resources may appeal the decision to the person or body appointed by the by-laws to hear the appeal. 2013, c. 6, s. 18 (2).

Designations and initials

(3) A member who was not authorized by the Board to use a designation may appeal the decision to the person or body appointed by the by-laws to hear the appeal. 2013, c. 6, s. 18 (3).

Parties

(4) The parties to an appeal under subsection (1), (2) or (3) are the Association and the applicant or member, as the case may be. 2013, c. 6, s. 18 (4).

Powers

(5) On hearing the appeal, the person or body appointed to hear the appeal may confirm or vary the decision being appealed, or may substitute his, her or its own decision for that of the Board. 2013, c. 6, s. 18 (5).

Decision final

(6) The decision of the person or body appointed to hear the appeal is final. 2013, c. 6, s. 18 (6).

Suspension, revocation of membership

19 (1) The Board may, in accordance with the by-laws, suspend or revoke the membership of a member of the Association for,

- (a) failure to pay all or part of any fee or other amount that is payable to the Association;
- (b) failure to provide information or produce documents or other materials required under this Act to be provided or produced;
- (c) failure to make declarations required under this Act to be made; or
- (d) any other reason that is specified by the by-laws. 2013, c. 6, s. 19 (1).

Appeal

(2) An individual whose membership is suspended or revoked under clause (1) (d) may appeal the decision to the person or body specified by the by-laws as having authority to hear the appeal. 2013, c. 6, s. 19 (2).

Parties

(3) The parties to an appeal under subsection (2) are the Association and the individual. 2013, c. 6, s. 19 (3).

Powers

(4) On hearing the appeal, the person or body may confirm or vary the decision being appealed, or may substitute his, her or its own decision for that of the Board. 2013, c. 6, s. 19 (4).

Decision final

(5) The decision made by the person or body under subsection (4) is final. 2013, c. 6, s. 19 (5).

Continuing jurisdiction

Former member

20 (1) An individual who resigns as a member of the Association or whose membership is revoked or otherwise terminated remains subject to the continuing jurisdiction of the Association in respect of an investigation or disciplinary proceeding arising from his or her conduct while a member, subject to subsection (2). 2013, c. 6, s. 20 (1).

Limitation

(2) No investigation shall be commenced respecting the conduct of an individual referred to in subsection (1) unless the conduct comes to the attention of the Association before the sixth anniversary of the day on which the individual ceased to be a member. 2013, c. 6, s. 20 (2).

Suspended member

(3) A member whose membership is suspended remains subject to the continuing jurisdiction of the Association for all purposes under this Act. 2013, c. 6, s. 20 (3).

FIRMS

Registration of firms

21 The Registrar shall accept any of the following entities for registration as a firm in accordance with the by-laws:

- 1. A partnership, including a limited liability partnership, or other association of members of the Association.
- 2. Any other entity specified by the by-laws. 2013, c. 6, s. 21.

Restrictions, conditions

22 (1) The right of a firm to practise in the field of human resources is subject to any restrictions or conditions imposed on it under this Act. 2013, c. 6, s. 22 (1).

Application

(2) A restriction or condition imposed under this Act on a member of the Association practising in the field of human resources through a firm applies to the firm in relation to the member's practice in the field of human resources. 2013, c. 6, s. 22 (2).

Same

(3) A restriction or condition imposed under this Act on a firm applies to the members of the Association practising in the field of human resources through the firm. 2013, c. 6, s. 22 (3).

Application of Act and by-laws

23 (1) This Act and the by-laws apply to a member of the Association even if the member practises in the field of human resources through a firm. 2013, c. 6, s. 23 (1).

Professional obligations to clients

(2) The professional obligations of a member of the Association to a person who is his or her client,

(a) are not diminished by the fact that the member is practising through a firm; and

(b) in the case of a member practising through a firm that is a corporation, apply equally to the corporation and to its directors, officers, shareholders, agents and employees. 2013, c. 6, s. 23 (2).

Investigation or inspection

(3) If a member practising in the field of human resources through a firm that is a corporation is the subject of an investigation or inspection under this Act, the corporation is jointly and severally liable with the member for all fines and costs that the member is required to pay in relation to the investigation or inspection. 2013, c. 6, s. 23 (3).

Continuing jurisdiction

24 A firm whose registration is suspended remains subject to the continuing jurisdiction of the Association for all purposes under this Act. 2013, c. 6, s. 24.

Limited liability partnerships

25 (1) Subject to the by-laws, two or more members of the Association may form a limited liability partnership or continue a partnership as a limited liability partnership for the purpose of practising in the field of human resources. 2013, c. 6, s. 25 (1).

Same

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), a member of the Association includes any type of firm specified by the by-laws. 2013, c. 6, s. 25 (2).

Partnerships Act

(3) For greater certainty, this Act is an Act governing a profession for the purposes of section 44.2 of the Partnerships Act. 2013, c. 6, s. 25 (3).

PROHIBITIONS

Prohibitions

Prohibition, individuals

26 (1) No individual, other than a member of the Association authorized by the Board to do so, shall, through an entity or otherwise,

(a) take or use a designation or initials prescribed by the regulations, alone or in combination with other words or abbreviations;

(b) take or use any term, title, initials, designation or description implying that the individual is a member of the Association or is authorized to use a designation prescribed by the regulations;

(c) otherwise hold himself or herself out as a member of the Association or authorized to use a designation prescribed by the regulations, regardless of whether he or she provides services in the field of human resources to any individual or entity. 2013, c. 6, s. 26 (1); 2015, c. 27, Sched. 4, s. 9 (1-3).

Exceptions

(2) Clauses (1) (a) and (b) do not apply to an individual in any of the following circumstances:

1. The individual uses a term, title, initials, designation or description when making reference to his or her membership in a comparable organization in a jurisdiction other than Ontario in,

i. a speech or other presentation given at a professional or academic conference or other similar forum,

ii. an application for employment or a private communication respecting the retainer of the individual's services, if the reference is made to indicate the individual's educational background and the individual expressly indicates that he or she is not a member of the Association and is not governed by the Association, or

iii. a proposal submitted in response to a request for proposals, if the reference is made to demonstrate that the individual meets the requirements for the work to which the request for proposals relates.

2. The individual uses a term, title, initials, designation or description as authorized by the by-laws. 2013, c. 6, s. 26 (2).

Same

(3) For the purposes of subparagraph 1 ii of subsection (2), stating the name of the jurisdiction from which the qualifications were obtained after the term, title, initials, designation or description is not sufficient to expressly indicate that the individual is not a member of the Association and is not governed by the Association. 2013, c. 6, s. 26 (3).

Prohibition, corporations

(4) No corporation, other than a corporation that is a firm authorized by the Board to do so, shall,

- (a) take or use a designation or initials prescribed by the regulations, alone or in combination with other words or abbreviations;
- (b) take or use any term, title, initials, designation or description implying that the corporation is registered with the Association or is authorized to use a designation prescribed by the regulations;
- (c) otherwise hold itself out as being registered with the Association or authorized to use a designation prescribed by the regulations, regardless of whether it provides services in the field of human resources to any individual or entity. 2013, c. 6, s. 26 (4); 2015, c. 27, Sched. 4, s. 9 (4-6).

Exception

(5) Clauses (4) (a) and (b) do not apply if a corporation uses a term, title, initials, designation or description when making reference to its registration with a comparable organization in a jurisdiction other than Ontario in a proposal submitted in response to a request for proposals, if the reference is made to demonstrate that the corporation meets the requirements for the work to which the request for proposals relates. 2013, c. 6, s. 26 (5).

Section Amendments with date in force (d/m/y) [+]Offences

27 (1) Every person who contravenes section 26 is guilty of an offence and on conviction is liable to a fine of not more than $25,000. 2013, c. 6, s. 27 (1).

Application to corporation

(2) If a corporation is guilty of an offence under subsection (1), every director or officer of the corporation who authorized, permitted or acquiesced in the commission of the offence is deemed to be a party to and guilty of the offence and on conviction is liable to a fine of not more than $25,000. 2013, c. 6, s. 27 (2).

Probation orders

(3) On conviction of a person for an offence under this section, the court may prescribe as a condition of a probation order any of the following:

- 1. That the person pay compensation or make restitution to any person who suffered a loss as a result of the offence.
- 2. That the person shall not contravene section 26. 2013, c. 6, s. 27 (3).

Costs

28 (1) In addition to the fine, on conviction for an offence under section 27, a court may order that the convicted person pay to the Association some or all of the costs reasonably incurred by it in prosecuting the offence and in undertaking any investigation related to the subject matter of the prosecution. 2013, c. 6, s. 28 (1).

Same

(2) Costs payable under subsection (1) are deemed to be a fine for the purpose of enforcing payment. 2013, c. 6, s. 28 (2).

Limitation

29 No prosecution for a contravention of section 26 shall be commenced more than two years after the time when the subject matter of the prosecution arose. 2013, c. 6, s. 29.

Order prohibiting contravention

30 (1) On application by the Association, the Superior Court of Justice may make an order prohibiting a person from contravening section 26, if the court is satisfied that the person is contravening or has contravened that section. 2013, c. 6, s. 30 (1).

No prosecution or conviction required

(2) An order may be made under subsection (1) whether or not the person has been prosecuted for or convicted of the offence of contravening section 26. 2013, c. 6, s. 30 (2).

Variation or discharge

(3) Any person may apply to the Superior Court of Justice for an order varying or discharging an order made under subsection (1). 2013, c. 6, s. 30 (3).

COMPLAINTS AND DISCIPLINEComplaints committee

31 Subject to the by-laws, the complaints committee shall review every complaint regarding the conduct of a member of the Association or a firm and, if the complaint contains information suggesting that the member or firm may be guilty of professional misconduct as defined in the by-laws, the committee shall investigate the matter. 2013, c. 6, s. 31.

Decision of complaints committee

32 (1) Following the investigation of a complaint by the complaints committee, the committee may do one or more of the following:

- 1. Direct that the matter be referred, in whole or in part, to the discipline committee.
- 2. Direct that the matter not be referred to the discipline committee.
- 3. Negotiate a settlement agreement between the Association and the member or firm and refer the agreement to the discipline committee for approval.
- 4. Take any action that it considers appropriate in the circumstances and that is not inconsistent with this Act or the by-laws, including cautioning or admonishing the member or firm, but not including any action described in subsection 34 (4). 2013, c. 6, s. 32 (1).

Confirmation, rejection of settlement agreement

(2) If the complaints committee refers a settlement agreement to the discipline committee under paragraph 3 of subsection (1), the discipline committee shall review the agreement and,

- (a) approve the agreement; or
- (b) reject the agreement and refer the matter back to the complaints committee. 2013, c. 6, s. 32 (2).

Enforcement of settlement agreements

(3) A settlement agreement that is approved by the discipline committee may be filed in the Superior Court of Justice. 2013, c. 6, s. 32 (3).

Same

(4) A settlement agreement that is filed under subsection (3) is enforceable as if it were an order of the Superior Court of Justice. 2013, c. 6, s. 32 (4).

Review of complaints committee decision

33 (1) If the complaints committee does not direct that a matter be referred, in whole or in part, to the discipline committee, the complainant may request a review of the committee's decision by the appeal committee in accordance with the by-laws. 2013, c. 6, s. 33 (1).

Powers

(2) Following a review under subsection (1), the appeal committee may,

- (a) in the circumstances set out in the by-laws, refer the matter back to the complaints committee; or
- (b) direct that no further action be taken. 2013, c. 6, s. 33 (2).

Decision final

(3) The decision of the appeal committee under subsection (2) is final. 2013, c. 6, s. 33 (3).

Same

(4) If the appeal committee refers a matter back to the complaints committee for reconsideration, the decision of the complaints committee in respect of the matter is final. 2013, c. 6, s. 33 (4).

Discipline committee

34 (1) The discipline committee shall hear every matter referred to it by the complaints committee. 2013, c. 6, s. 34 (1).

Parties

(2) The parties to a hearing under subsection (1) are the Association and the member of the Association who or the firm that is the subject of the complaint. 2013, c. 6, s. 34 (2).

Professional misconduct

(3) The discipline committee shall find a member or firm guilty of professional misconduct if in the committee's opinion the member or firm is guilty of professional misconduct as defined in the by-laws. 2013, c. 6, s. 34 (3).

Powers

(4) If the discipline committee finds a member or firm guilty of professional misconduct, it may by order do one or more of the following:

1. If at least two-thirds of the committee panel hearing the matter agree, revoke the member's membership or the firm's registration.
2. Suspend the member's membership or the firm's registration for a period determined in accordance with the by-laws.
3. Despite section 17, direct that a member whose membership is suspended refrain from using any designation, term, title, initials or description implying that the member is a member of the Association or is authorized to use the designation, term, title, initials or description during the period of suspension.
4. Determine the timing and manner of the return of a certificate of membership to the Association by an individual whose membership is suspended or revoked.
5. Impose restrictions or conditions on the right of the member or firm to practise in the field of human resources.
6. Issue a reprimand and, if the committee considers it appropriate, direct that the reprimand be recorded in the register.
7. Direct the member or firm to take any specified rehabilitative measure, including requiring the member or any member practising in the field of human resources through the firm to successfully complete specified professional development courses or to seek specified counselling or treatment.
8. Direct the member or firm to pay a fine and specify the timing and manner of payment.
9. Direct that the imposition of a measure under this subsection be postponed for a specified period or on specified terms, including the successful completion of specified courses of study.
10. Direct that a failure to comply with the committee's order shall result in the revocation of the member's membership or the firm's registration.
11. Make any other order that the committee considers appropriate in the circumstances. 2013, c. 6, s. 34 (4).

Effect

(5) Unless the discipline committee orders otherwise, a final decision or order of the committee under this section takes effect on the day on which the time to appeal under subsection 36 (1) expires, if no notice of appeal is filed with the appeal committee in accordance with that subsection. 2013, c. 6, s. 34 (5).

Combining proceedings

(6) If two or more proceedings before the discipline committee involve the same member or firm or the same or similar questions of fact, law or policy, the committee may, without the consent of the parties, combine the proceedings or any part of them or hear the proceedings at the same time. 2013, c. 6, s. 34 (6).

Preliminary suspension, restrictions

35 At any time after a matter respecting a complaint against a member or firm is referred to it by the complaints committee and before making a final decision or order under section 34, the discipline committee may order that the member's membership or the firm's registration be suspended, or be subject to any restrictions or conditions that the committee may specify, pending the outcome of the hearing, if there are reasonable grounds to believe that to do otherwise may result in harm to any member of the public. 2013, c. 6, s. 35.

Appeal committee

36 (1) A party to a proceeding before the discipline committee may appeal a final decision or order of the committee under section 34 or an order under section 35 to the appeal committee by filing a notice of appeal within the time and in the manner set out in the by-laws. 2013, c. 6, s. 36 (1).

Jurisdiction, powers

(2) The appeal committee may determine any question of law or mixed fact and law that arises in an appeal under subsection (1) and may,

- (a) make any decision or order that could have been made by the discipline committee;
- (b) order a new hearing before the discipline committee; or
- (c) dismiss the appeal. 2013, c. 6, s. 36 (2).

Effect

(3) A decision or order of the appeal committee under clause (2) (a) takes effect on the day specified by the by-laws, unless the committee orders otherwise. 2013, c. 6, s. 36 (3).

Decision, order final

(4) A decision or order of the appeal committee under subsection (2) is final. 2013, c. 6, s. 36 (4).

Costs

37 (1) The discipline committee may award the costs of a proceeding before it under section 34 against the member who or firm that is the subject of the proceeding, in accordance with its procedural rules. 2013, c. 6, s. 37 (1).

Same

(2) The appeal committee may award the costs of a proceeding before it under section 36 against the member who or firm that is the subject of the proceeding, in accordance with its procedural rules. 2013, c. 6, s. 37 (2).

Inclusion of Association's costs

(3) The costs ordered under subsection (1) or (2) may include costs incurred by the Association arising from the investigation, prosecution, hearing and, if applicable, appeal of the matter that is the subject of the proceeding and any other costs specified by the by-laws. 2013, c. 6, s. 37 (3).

Application

(4) This section applies despite section 17.1 of the Statutory Powers Procedure Act. 2013, c. 6, s. 37 (4).

Power of Board to rescind or alter orders

38 (1) At any time after an order of the discipline committee under subsection 34 (4) or of the appeal committee under clause 36 (2) (a) to suspend or revoke a member's membership or a firm's registration has become effective, the Board may by special resolution rescind or alter the order. 2013, c. 6, s. 38 (1).

Notice

(2) The Board shall give notice of a special resolution under subsection (1), with reasons, to the members of the Association. 2013, c. 6, s. 38 (2).

Application to former members

39 Subject to subsection 20 (2), sections 31 to 38 apply with necessary modifications in respect of an individual who resigns as a member of the Association or whose membership is revoked or otherwise terminated. 2013, c. 6, s. 39.

BANKRUPTCY OR INSOLVENCY

Bankruptcy or insolvency event

40 (1) Any of the following is a bankruptcy or insolvency event for the purposes of this section and sections 41 and 42:

1. A member of the Association becomes a bankrupt within the meaning of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act (Canada).
2. A member of the Association makes a proposal, within the meaning of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act (Canada), to his or her creditors.
3. A proceeding is brought against a member of the Association as an insolvent debtor.
4. A receiving order is made against a firm.
5. Any other event specified by the by-laws. 2013, c. 6, s. 40 (1).

Notice

(2) A member who or firm that experiences a bankruptcy or insolvency event shall notify the Registrar in accordance with the by-laws. 2013, c. 6, s. 40 (2).

Requirement to provide documents, etc.

(3) The Registrar may require a member who or firm that gives notice under subsection (2) to provide to the Registrar any of the following:

1. Documents relating to the bankruptcy or insolvency event.
2. Documents respecting the member's or firm's financial circumstances, as specified by the by-laws.
3. A declaration granting the Association permission to access documents or information relating to the bankruptcy or insolvency event, directly or indirectly, from a trustee in bankruptcy, the Superintendent of Bankruptcy or an official receiver, as the case may be.
4. Any other document or information specified by the by-laws. 2013, c. 6, s. 40 (3).

Same

(4) A member or firm required to provide a document, declaration or information under subsection (3) shall do so within the time and in the manner specified by the Registrar. 2013, c. 6, s. 40 (4).

Referral

(5) The Registrar shall refer every notice and related documents and information provided under this section to the review committee. 2013, c. 6, s. 40 (5).

Review committee

41 (1) The review committee shall review every matter referred to it by the Registrar under section 40. 2013, c. 6, s. 41 (1).

Requirement to provide documents, etc.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), the review committee may require a member who or firm that is the subject of the matter to provide to the committee any document or information referred to in subsection 40 (3), and the member or firm shall do so within the time and in the manner specified by the committee. 2013, c. 6, s. 41 (2).

Investigation

(3) For the purposes of subsection (1), the review committee may direct the Registrar to investigate any matter that is referred to the committee under section 40. 2013, c. 6, s. 41 (3).

Same

(4) The Registrar shall report the results of an investigation under subsection (3) to the review committee. 2013, c. 6, s. 41 (4).

Powers

(5) Following the review of a matter under subsection (1), the review committee may,

- (a) hold a hearing on the matter;
- (b) require the member or firm to provide to the committee, on an on-going basis, any document or information described in subsection 40 (3), for the time and in the manner specified by the committee; or
- (c) take no further action. 2013, c. 6, s. 41 (5).

Same

(6) If the review committee receives any document or information under clause (5) (b) suggesting that the member or firm's bankruptcy or insolvency event may pose a risk of harm to any person, it may hold a hearing on the matter. 2013, c. 6, s. 41 (6).

Parties

(7) The parties to a hearing under clause (5) (a) or subsection (6) are the Association and the member or firm. 2013, c. 6, s. 41 (7).

Powers following hearing

(8) If, following a hearing under clause (5) (a) or subsection (6), the review committee determines that there are reasonable grounds for believing that the member or firm's bankruptcy or insolvency event poses or may pose a risk of harm to any person, it may by order do one or more of the following:

1. Suspend the member's membership or the firm's registration.
2. Impose restrictions or conditions on the right of the member or firm to practise in the field of human resources.
3. Make any other order, other than revoking the member's membership or the firm's registration, that the committee considers appropriate in the circumstances. 2013, c. 6, s. 41 (8).

Appeal committee

42 (1) A party to a proceeding before the review committee may appeal a final decision or order of the committee under section 41 to the appeal committee by filing a notice of appeal within the time and in the manner set out in the by-laws. 2013, c. 6, s. 42 (1).

Jurisdiction, powers

(2) The appeal committee may determine any question of law or mixed fact and law that arises in an appeal under subsection (1) and may,

- (a) make any decision or order that could have been made by the review committee;
- (b) order a new hearing before the review committee; or
- (c) dismiss the appeal. 2013, c. 6, s. 42 (2).

Decision, order final

(3) A decision or order of the appeal committee under subsection (2) is final. 2013, c. 6, s. 42 (3).

PRACTICE INSPECTIONS

Practice inspections

43 The Association may conduct inspections respecting the practices of members of the Association and firms in accordance with the by-laws. 2013, c. 6, s. 43.

Costs

44 The costs to the Association of an inspection respecting the practice of a member or firm shall be borne by the member or firm in accordance with the by-laws. 2013, c. 6, s. 44.

CAPACITY

Interpretation – “incapacitated”

45 A member of the Association is incapacitated for the purposes of sections 46 to 48 if, by reason of physical or mental illness, condition or disorder, other infirmity or addiction to or excessive use of alcohol or drugs, he or she is incapable of meeting his or her obligations under this Act. 2013, c. 6, s. 45.

(2) Every person who contravenes subsection (1) is guilty of an offence and on conviction is liable to a fine of not more than $25,000. 2013, c. 6, s. 53 (2).

Application to corporation

(3) If a corporation is guilty of an offence under subsection (2), every director or officer of the corporation who authorized, permitted or acquiesced in the commission of the offence is deemed to be a party to and guilty of the offence and on conviction is liable to a fine of not more than $25,000. 2013, c. 6, s. 53 (3).

CUSTODIANSHIPApplication

54 (1) Sections 55 to 58 apply to property, wherever it may be located, that is or should be in the possession or control of a member of the Association in connection with,

- (a) the business operations relating to the member's practice;
- (b) the business or affairs of a client or former client of the member;
- (c) an estate for which the member is or was executor, administrator or administrator with the will annexed;
- (d) a trust of which the member is or was a trustee;
- (e) a power of attorney under which the member is or was the attorney; or
- (f) a guardianship under which the member is or was the guardian. 2013, c. 6, s. 54 (1).

Same

(2) An order under subsection 55 (1) applies to property that is or should be in the possession or control of the member before or after the order is made. 2013, c. 6, s. 54 (2).

Interpretation

(3) For the purposes of sections 55 to 58, property includes client files and other documents. 2013, c. 6, s. 54 (3).

Custodianship order

55 (1) On application by the Association, the Superior Court of Justice may order that all or part of the property that is or should be in the possession or control of a member of the Association be given into the custody of a custodian appointed by the court. 2013, c. 6, s. 55 (1).

Application without notice

(2) An application for an order under subsection (1) may be made without notice. 2013, c. 6, s. 55 (2).

Grounds for order

(3) An order may be made under subsection (1) if,

- (a) the member's membership has been suspended or revoked or otherwise terminated;
- (b) the member has died or disappeared;
- (c) the member is incapacitated within the meaning of section 45;
- (d) the member has neglected or abandoned his or her practice without making adequate provision for the protection of his or her clients' interests;
- (e) the member has failed to conduct his or her practice in accordance with any restriction or condition to which he or she is subject under this Act; or
- (f) there are reasonable grounds for believing that other circumstances exist in respect of the member or his or her practice that make an order under subsection (1) necessary for the protection of the public. 2013, c. 6, s. 55 (3).

Purpose of order

(4) An order may be made under subsection (1) only for one or more of the following purposes, as specified in the order:

- 1. Preserving the property.
- 2. Distributing the property.
- 3. Preserving or carrying on the member's practice.
- 4. Winding up the member's practice. 2013, c. 6, s. 55 (4).

Custodian

(5) The court may appoint as custodian,

- (a) the Association;
- (b) a person selected by the Association who consents to acting as custodian; or
- (c) any other suitable person who consents to acting as custodian. 2013, c. 6, s. 55 (5).

Use of agent

(6) If the Association is appointed as custodian, it may appoint an agent to act on its behalf. 2013, c. 6, s. 55 (6).

Powers of court

(7) An order under subsection (1) may,

- (a) authorize the custodian to employ or engage any professional or other assistance that is required to carry out the custodian's duties;
- (b) authorize the custodian or the sheriff or any police officer or other person acting on the direction of the custodian or the sheriff to,
 - (i) enter, by force if necessary, any building, dwelling or other premises, or any vehicle or other place, where there are reasonable grounds for believing that property that is or should be in the possession or control of the member may be found,
 - (ii) search the building, dwelling, premises, vehicle or place,
 - (iii) open, by force if necessary, any safety deposit box or other receptacle,
 - (iv) require any person to provide access to any property that is or should be in the possession or control of the member, and
 - (v) seize, remove and deliver to the custodian any property that is or should be in the possession or control of the member;
- (c) give directions to the custodian regarding the manner in which the custodian should carry out the purposes of the order;
- (d) require the member to account to the Association and to any other person named in the order for any property that the court may specify;
- (e) provide for the discharge of the custodian on completion of the custodian's duties under the order and any subsequent orders relating to the same matter; and
- (f) give any other directions that the court considers necessary in the circumstances. 2013, c. 6, s. 55 (7).

Compensation

56 In an order under subsection 55 (1) or on a subsequent application, the court may make such order as it considers appropriate for the compensation of the custodian and the reimbursement of the custodian's expenses by the member, whether out of the property held by the custodian or otherwise as the court may specify. 2013, c. 6, s. 56.

Application for directions

57 The Association, at the time of making an application for an order under subsection 55 (1), or the custodian appointed by an order made under that subsection, may apply to the Superior Court of Justice for the opinion, advice or direction of the court on any question affecting the property. 2013, c. 6, s. 57.

Variation or discharge

58 (1) The following persons may apply to the Superior Court of Justice to vary or discharge an order under subsection 55 (1):

1. The custodian.
2. The Association.
3. The member.
4. Any other person affected by the order. 2013, c. 6, s. 58 (1).

Notice

(2) If an application is brought under subsection (1) by a person referred to in paragraph 3 or 4 of that subsection, then, in addition to any person specified by the rules of court, notice of the application shall be given to,

- (a) the custodian; and
- (b) the Association, if it is not the custodian. 2013, c. 6, s. 58 (2).

Application to former members

59 (1) Sections 54 to 58 apply with necessary modifications in respect of an individual who resigns as a member of the Association or whose membership is revoked or otherwise terminated. 2013, c. 6, s. 59 (1).

Same, property

(2) Sections 54 to 58 apply to property that is or should be in the possession or control of an individual referred to in subsection (1), before or after he or she ceases to be a member. 2013, c. 6, s. 59 (2).

MISCELLANEOUS

Register

60 (1) The Registrar shall establish and maintain a register of the members of the Association, firms and students, and the register shall contain the information required by the by-laws to be included. 2013, c. 6, s. 60 (1).

Examination by public

(2) The register shall be open to examination by the public at the Association's head office during normal office hours. 2013, c. 6, s. 60 (2).

Registrar's certificate as evidence

61 Any statement containing information from the register purporting to be certified by the Registrar is admissible in evidence as proof, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, of the information in the statement, without proof of the Registrar's appointment or signature. 2013, c. 6, s. 61.

Duty of confidentiality

62 (1) Every person engaged in the administration of this Act and the by-laws shall preserve secrecy respecting information or material that comes to his or her knowledge or possession in the course of his or her duties under this Act, and shall not disclose any such information or material to any person except,

- (a) to his or her counsel;
- (b) with the consent of the person to whom the information or material relates;
- (c) to the extent that the information or material is available to the public;
- (d) as may be required in connection with the administration of this Act and the by-laws or with any proceeding under this Act; or
- (e) as may otherwise be required by law. 2013, c. 6, s. 62 (1).

Offence and penalty

(2) Every person who contravenes subsection (1) is guilty of an offence and on conviction is liable to a fine of not more than $25,000. 2013, c. 6, s. 62 (2).

Application to corporation

(3) If a corporation is guilty of an offence under subsection (2), every director or officer of the corporation who authorized, permitted or acquiesced in the commission of the offence is deemed to be a party to and guilty of the offence and on conviction is liable to a fine of not more than $25,000. 2013, c. 6, s. 62 (3).

Costs

(4) In addition to the fine, on conviction for an offence under this section, a court may order that the convicted person pay to the Association some or all of the costs reasonably incurred by it in prosecuting the offence and in undertaking any investigation related to the subject matter of the prosecution. 2013, c. 6, s. 62 (4).

Same

(5) Costs payable under subsection (4) are deemed to be a fine for the purpose of enforcing payment. 2013, c. 6, s. 62 (5).

Limitation

(6) No prosecution for a contravention of subsection (1) shall be commenced more than two years after the time when the subject matter of the prosecution arose. 2013, c. 6, s. 62 (6).

Disclosure to public authority

63 (1) The Association may apply to the Superior Court of Justice for an order authorizing the disclosure to a public authority of any information that a person to whom subsection 62 (1) applies would otherwise be prohibited from disclosing under that subsection. 2013, c. 6, s. 63 (1).

Restrictions

(2) The court shall not make an order under this section if the information sought to be disclosed came to the knowledge of the Association as a result of,

- (a) the making of an oral or written statement by a person in the course of an investigation, inspection or proceeding that may tend to criminate the person or establish the person's liability to civil proceedings, unless the statement was made at a hearing held under this Act;
- (b) the making of an oral or written statement disclosing matters that the court determines to be subject to solicitor-client privilege; or
- (c) the examination of a document that the court determines to be subject to solicitor-client privilege. 2013, c. 6, s. 63 (2).

Documents and other things

(3) An order under this section that authorizes the disclosure of information may also authorize the delivery of documents or other things that are in the Association's possession and that relate to the information. 2013, c. 6, s. 63 (3).

Non-compellability

64 The following persons are not compellable witnesses in any civil proceeding, other than a proceeding under this Act or a judicial review relating to a proceeding under this Act, respecting any information or material obtained by them while acting within the scope of their duties under this Act:

1. Members of the Board or of a committee.
2. Officers, employees and agents of the Association or of the Board. 2013, c. 6, s. 64.

Documents not admissible

65 No record of a proceeding under this Act and no document or thing prepared for or statement given at such a proceeding and no decision or order made in such a proceeding is admissible in any civil proceeding, other than a proceeding under this Act or a judicial review relating to a proceeding under this Act. 2013, c. 6, s. 65.

Protection from liability

66 No action or other proceeding may be instituted against the Association, the Board or any committee, any member or former member of the Association, of the Board or of a committee, or any officer, employee or agent of the Association or of the Board for any act done in good faith in the exercise or performance or the intended exercise or performance of any power or duty of the Association under this Act or for any alleged neglect or default in the exercise or performance in good faith of such power or duty. 2013, c. 6, s. 66.

BY-LAWSBy-laws

67 (1) The Board may make by-laws necessary or desirable to conduct the business and carry out the objects of the Association. 2013, c. 6, s. 67 (1).

Same

(2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), the Board may make by-laws with respect to the following matters:

1. Governing the admission of individuals to membership in the Association, including specifying the requirements and qualifications for membership and governing applications for membership.
2. Governing members of the Association, including,
 - i. establishing standards of practice,
 - ii. governing the imposition of restrictions and conditions on a member's right to practise in the field of human resources,
 - iii. establishing classes of members,
 - iv. governing the renewal, suspension and revocation of memberships,
 - v. respecting the ways in which members may advertise their services to the public,
 - vi. prescribing operating requirements for members such as record-keeping requirements,
 - vii. respecting mandatory reporting of acts prohibited under this Act to the Registrar, and
 - viii. specifying information that members are required to provide to the Registrar for the purposes of this Act.
3. Governing the use of terms, titles, initials, designations and descriptions by members of the Association and firms, and by individuals for the purposes of paragraph 2 of subsection 26 (2), including specifying the requirements and qualifications for authorization by the Board to use the designations.

4. Governing the appointment, nomination and election of members of the Association to the Board, including fixing the number of appointed and elected members, setting out the qualifications that a member must meet in order to be appointed or elected to and serve on the Board and setting out terms of office.
5. Governing the election and appointment of officers of the Association and setting out their powers and duties.
6. Establishing the committees required by this Act and any additional committees, governing the names, composition, powers, duties and quorums of the committees, governing the appointment of individuals to the committees, and authorizing and governing the formation of panels of committees.
7. Delegating any of the Board's powers or duties under this Act to one or more committees or to the Registrar or any other officer of the Association, and specifying restrictions or conditions on the delegation.
8. Governing the registration of members of the Association as sole proprietorships, including requiring the registration of sole proprietorships, specifying the requirements and qualifications for registration, governing applications for registration and governing the renewal, suspension and revocation of registrations.
9. Governing the registration of entities as firms, including requiring the registration of firms, specifying additional entities that may register as a firm, specifying the requirements and qualifications for registration, governing applications for registration and governing the renewal, suspension and revocation of registrations.
10. Governing firms, including establishing standards of practice, governing the imposition of restrictions and conditions on a firm's practice, governing the names of firms, governing firms that are limited liability partnerships and, in the case of a firm that is a corporation, requiring notification of a change in the shareholders of the corporation and specifying the time and manner of the notification.
11. Respecting any person, partnership or other entity that, in addition to practising in the field of human resources, also practises another profession or provides other services, including requiring that the persons, partnerships and other entities be registered to engage in such activities, governing the registrations and their renewal, suspension and revocation and governing the restrictions and conditions that may be imposed on the registered persons, partnerships and other entities.
12. Governing the resignation of members of the Association.
13. Governing the reinstatement or readmission of individuals who have resigned or whose membership is suspended or revoked and firms whose registration is suspended or revoked.
14. Governing the conduct of members of the Association and firms, including,
 - i. establishing a code of ethics,
 - ii. providing for rules of professional conduct, and
 - iii. governing complaints and discipline, including defining professional misconduct for the purposes of this Act and the by-laws, specifying requirements for the making of complaints and specifying orders that may be made under subsection 34 (4).
15. Respecting bankruptcy and insolvency events for the purposes of sections 40 to 42.
16. Governing investigations and practice inspections under this Act, including respecting the payment of the costs of an inspection.
17. Governing continuing education and professional development, including providing for the development or approval of continuing education and professional development programs for members of the Association and requiring members to successfully complete or participate in such programs, and governing the provision of professional development and related services to members and to non-members.
18. Governing individuals as students, including,
 - i. requiring the registration of individuals as students, specifying the requirements and qualifications for registration and governing applications for registration,
 - ii. respecting the rights and duties of students,
 - iii. providing for the development or approval of preparatory and qualifying programs, including courses of study, classes, lectures, professional programs, practical experience and mentored practice programs and examinations or evaluations, and requiring students to successfully complete them, and
 - iv. providing that any provision of this Act or the by-laws apply to students with necessary modifications or subject to such modifications as may be specified by the by-laws.
19. Respecting the minimum requirements for professional liability insurance that must be carried by members of the Association and by firms, including requiring proof of the insurance.
20. Establishing and governing the payment of fees, fines and other amounts that must be paid to the Association and exempting any class of individual or entity from all or part of any fee, fine or amount.
21. Respecting matters of procedure for any meeting, process or proceeding under this Act, including,
 - i. providing for procedural rules for proceedings before committees under this Act,
 - ii. governing the process for making, amending and revoking by-laws,
 - iii. prescribing the ways in which and the time within which notice must be given of meetings held under this Act, and

iv. prescribing and governing how information and documents are to be given or served under this Act, such as prescribing rules governing deemed receipt of documents.

22. Governing the organization of members into local groups for purposes including holding local meetings and organizing activities for members.

23. Providing for the training and recognition of members as specialists, including,

i. specifying the requirements and qualifications for recognition of specialist status,

ii. respecting the applications for recognition of specialist status, and

iii. respecting the renewal, expiration, suspension and revocation of the recognition of specialist status.

24. Providing for the affiliation of the Association with a university, college, school, corporation or other entity that supports the Association's objects.

25. Governing the participation of the Association in the establishment and maintenance of foundations or other entities whose work supports the Association's objects, including providing for the payment of funds by the Association to such a foundation or other entity.

26. Providing for the making of grants or donations by the Association to any individual or entity for any purpose that may tend to advance knowledge and education in human resources, improve standards of practice in the field of human resources, or support or encourage public information about and interest in the past and present roles of human resources professionals and the human resources profession in society.

27. Governing the retention and destruction of information and documents in the possession of the Association or any officer of the Association, the Board or any committee.

28. Governing the register that the Association is required to establish and maintain, including prescribing information that the register must contain.

29. Authorizing the Registrar to conduct quality assurance programs in relation to the administration of this Act or the by-laws and to use the information collected under this Act for the purpose of those programs.

30. Respecting the Association's newsletters or other publications.

31. Prescribing a code of conduct for Board members and committee members.

32. Respecting the remuneration and expenses of the Board members and committee members.

33. Governing the acquisition and disposition of the Association's real and personal property.

34. Respecting other administrative matters of the Association, including use of the corporate seal, execution of documents, banking arrangements and the selection of auditors.

35. Respecting any matter that this Act refers to as a matter that the by-laws may specify, set out, determine or otherwise deal with.

36. Addressing any transitional issues that arise from the repeal of the Human Resources Professionals Association of Ontario Act, 1990. 2013, c. 6, s. 67 (2).

General or particular

(3) A by-law made under this section may be general or particular in its application. 2013, c. 6, s. 67 (3).

Publicly available

(4) The Board shall ensure that every by-law made under this section is available to the public for as long as it remains in effect. 2013, c. 6, s. 67 (4).

Examinations permitted

(5) A by-law made under paragraph 1 of subsection (2) may authorize the Registrar to assess the qualifications or competency of potential members by examinations or other means. 2013, c. 6, s. 67 (5).

When by-law effective

68 (1) A by-law made by the Board shall be posted on the Association's website and is effective after it has been posted for 30 days. 2013, c. 6, s. 68 (1).

Approval of by-law by members

(2) Despite subsection (1), a by-law made by the Board does not continue to have effect unless it is approved by the members of the Association at the earlier of the first annual meeting of the Association following the making of the by-law and any general meeting at which the by-law is considered. 2013, c. 6, s. 68 (2).

Effect of rejection

(3) A by-law that is not approved by the members of the Association in accordance with subsection (2) ceases to have effect on the day on which the approval is withheld. 2013, c. 6, s. 68 (3).

Same, validity

(4) The rejection of a by-law by the members of the Association does not affect the validity of any action taken under the by-law while it was in effect. 2013, c. 6, s. 68 (4).

TRANSITIONAL ISSUES

Definition

69 In sections 70 to 72,

"transition day" means the day on which this section comes into force. 2013, c. 6, s. 69.

Registered members

70 (1) Every individual who is a registered member of the Association immediately before the transition day is deemed on the transition day to become a member of the Association under this Act. 2013, c. 6, s. 70 (1).

Student members

(2) Every individual who is a student member of the Association immediately before the transition day is deemed on the transition day to become a student. 2013, c. 6, s. 70 (2).

Board members

71 Despite subsection 8 (2), the members of the Board who are in office immediately before the transition day shall continue in office as members of the Board until the expiration of the terms for which they were elected or appointed or until the office otherwise becomes vacant. 2013, c. 6, s. 71.

By-laws

72 Every by-law made by the Board under the Human Resources Professionals Association of Ontario Act, 1990 that is in force immediately before the transition day is deemed on the transition day to be a by-law of the Association under this Act and shall remain in force, to the extent that it does not conflict with this Act, until it is amended or revoked by by-law under this Act. 2013, c. 6, s. 72.
