CHAPTER II

GENERAL PRINCIPLES AND CHILDREN'S RIGHTS

1984, c. 4, s. 4.

2.2. The primary responsibility for the care, maintenance and education of a child and for ensuring his supervision rests with his parents.

1984, c. 4, s. 4; 1994, c. 35, s. 2.

2.3. Any intervention in respect of a child and the child's parents under this Act

(a) must be designed to put an end to and prevent the recurrence of a situation in which the security or the development of the child is in danger; and

(b) must, if the circumstances are appropriate, favour the means that allow the child and the child's parents to take an active part in making decisions and choosing measures that concern them.

Every person, body or institution having responsibilities under this Act towards a child and the child's parents must encourage the participation of the child and the parents, and the involvement of the community.

The parents must, whenever possible, take an active part in the application of the measures designed to put an end to and prevent the recurrence of the situation in which the security or development of their child is in danger.

1984, c. 4, s. 4; 1994, c. 35, s. 3; 2006, c. 34, s. 3.

2.4. Every person having responsibilities towards a child under this Act, and every person called upon to make decisions with respect to a child under this Act shall, in their interventions, take into account the necessity

(1) of treating the child and the child's parents with courtesy, fairness and understanding, and in a manner that respects their dignity and autonomy;

(2) of ensuring that any information or explanation that must be furnished to a child under this Act is presented in language appropriate to the child's age and understanding;

(3) of ensuring that the parents have understood the information or explanations that must be furnished to them under this Act;

(4) of giving the child and the child's parents an opportunity to present their points of view, express their concerns and be heard at the appropriate time during the intervention; and

(5) of opting for measures, in respect of the child and the child's parents, which allow action to be taken diligently to ensure the child's protection, considering that a child's perception of time differs from that of adults, and which take into consideration the following factors:

(a) the proximity of the chosen resource;

(b) the characteristics of cultural communities;

(c) the characteristics of Native communities.

1994, c. 35, s. 3.

3. Decisions made under this Act must be in the interest of the child and respect his rights.

In addition to the moral, intellectual, emotional and material needs of the child, his age, health, personality and family environment and the other aspects of his situation must be taken into account.

1977, c. 20, s. 3; 1984, c. 4, s. 5; 1994, c. 35, s. 4.

4. Every decision made under this Act must aim at keeping the child in the family environment.

If, in the interest of the child, it is not possible to keep the child in the family environment, the decision must aim at ensuring that the child benefits, insofar as possible with the persons most important to the child, in particular the grandparents or other members of the extended family, from continuity of care, stable relationships and stable living conditions corresponding to the child's needs and age and as nearly similar to those of a normal family environment as possible. Moreover, the parents' involvement must always be fostered, with a view to encouraging and helping them to exercise their parental responsibilities.

If, in the interest of the child, returning the child to the family is impossible, the decision must aim at ensuring continuity of care, stable relationships and stable living conditions corresponding to the child's needs and age on a permanent basis.

1977, c. 20, s. 4; 1984, c. 4, s. 5; 2006, c. 34, s. 4.

5. Persons having responsibilities regarding a child under this Act must inform him and his parents as fully as possible of their rights under this Act and in particular, of the right to consult an advocate and of the rights of appeal provided for in this Act.

In the case of an intervention under this Act, a child as well as his parents must obtain a description of the means and stages of protection and rehabilitation envisaged towards ending the intervention.

1977, c. 20, s. 5; 1984, c. 4, s. 6.

6. The persons and courts called upon to take decisions respecting a child under this Act must give this child, his parents and every person wishing to intervene in the interest of the child an opportunity to be heard.

1977, c. 20, s. 6.

7. Before a child is transferred from one foster family or facility maintained by an institution operating a rehabilitation centre to another foster family or facility maintained by another institution operating a rehabilitation centre, the child's parents and the child himself, if he is capable of understanding, must be consulted.

The child must receive the information and preparation necessary for his transfer.

1977, c. 20, s. 7; 1992, c. 21, s. 211; 1994, c. 35, s. 6.

8. The child and the parents are entitled to receive, with continuity and in a personalized manner, health services and social services that are appropriate from a scientific, human and social standpoint, taking into account the legislative and regulatory provisions governing the organization and operation of the institution providing those services, as well as its human, material and financial resources.

The child is also entitled to receive, on the same conditions, appropriate educational services from an educational body.

Furthermore, the child and the parents are entitled to be supported and assisted by a person of their choice if they wish to obtain information or when meeting the director or any person the director authorizes.

1977, c. 20, s. 8; 1981, c. 2, s. 2; 1992, c. 21, s. 375; 1994, c. 35, s. 7; 2006, c. 34, s. 5.

9. Any child placed in a foster family or by an institution which operates a rehabilitation centre or a hospital centre has the right to communicate in all confidentiality with his advocate, the director who has taken charge of his situations, the Commission and the judges and clerks of the tribunal.

He may also communicate in all confidentiality with his parents, brothers and sisters, unless the tribunal decides otherwise.

He may also communicate in all confidentiality with any other person unless the tribunal decides otherwise or the executive director of the institution operating the rehabilitation centre, the hospital centre or the person he authorizes in writing considers it to be in the best interests of the child to prevent him from communicating with that person. The decision of the executive director must give reasons, be rendered in writing and be given to the child and, whenever possible, to the child's parents.

The child or his parents may refer to the tribunal any decision of the executive director preventing him from communicating with any person. The application is heard and decided by preference.

The tribunal shall confirm or quash the decision of the executive director. It may, in addition, order the executive director to take certain measures relating to the right of the child to communicate thenceforth with the person contemplated in the decision of the executive director or with any other person.

10. Every disciplinary measure taken by an institution operating a rehabilitation centre in respect of a child must be taken in the child's interest and in conformity with internal rules that must be approved by the board of directors and posted in a conspicuous place in the facilities of the institution. The institution must ensure that the rules are explained to the child and to the child's parents.

A copy of the internal rules must be given to the child, if he is capable of understanding, and to the child's parents. A copy of the rules must also be sent to the Commission, to the Minister of Health and Social Services, to the agency and to the institution operating the child and youth protection centre.

The measures provided for in section 118.1 of the Act respecting health services and social services (chapter S-4.2), in particular isolation, and the placement in an intensive supervision unit provided for in section 11.1.1 of this Act may never be used as disciplinary measures.

11.1. Any child to whom foster care is provided by an institution under this Act shall be placed in premises appropriate to his needs and rights, taking into account the legislative and regulatory provisions governing the organization and operation of the institution and the human, material and financial resources at its disposal.

1984, c. 4, s. 9; 1992, c. 21, s. 214, s. 375; 1994, c. 35, s. 10.

11.1.1. If a child is provided with foster care in compliance with an immediate protective measure or an order issued by the tribunal under this Act, and there is a serious risk that the child represents a danger to himself or to others, the child may be placed in an intensive supervision unit maintained by an institution operating a rehabilitation centre that allows close supervision of the child's behaviour and movements due to its more restrictive layout and special living conditions.

The placement must end as soon as the grounds for it no longer exist. In the case of an immediate protective measure, the placement may not exceed the period provided for in section 46.

The placement must be based on a decision of the executive director of the institution or the person the executive director authorizes in writing, and must respect the conditions prescribed by regulation; a detailed report of the placement must be entered in the child's record, mentioning the grounds for it and the duration. The information contained in the regulation must be given and explained to both the child, if the child is able to understand it, and the child's parents.

The child or the parents may refer the executive director's decision to the tribunal. The application is heard and decided by preference.

11.2. Any information collected under this Act concerning a child or his parents that would allow their identification is confidential and may not be disclosed by anyone except to the extent provided for in Chapter IV.1.

1984, c. 4, s. 9; 1994, c. 35, s. 11.

11.2.1. Within the framework of this Act, no person may publish or broadcast information allowing a child or the child's parents to be identified, unless the tribunal so orders or the publication or broadcast is necessary for the purposes of this Act or a regulation made under it.

Furthermore, in special cases, the tribunal may prohibit or restrict the publication or broadcast of information on a hearing of the tribunal, on the conditions it prescribes.

2006, c. 34, s. 9.

11.3. Sections 7 to 10 apply also to any child who has committed an offence against an Act or a regulation in force in Québec.

DIVISION II

DIRECTOR OF YOUTH PROTECTION

31. A director of youth protection shall be appointed for each institution operating a child and youth protection centre.

The director shall be appointed by the board of directors of the institution on the recommendation of the executive director, after consultation with the agency, the bodies and the institutions operating a local community service centre or a rehabilitation centre in the territory served by the institution operating a child and youth protection centre. The director shall act under the direct authority of the executive director.

1977, c. 20, s. 31; 1984, c. 4, s. 13; 1992, c. 21, s. 216; 1994, c. 35, s. 16; 2005, c. 32, s. 308.

31.1. If the director is absent or unable to act, he is replaced by a person designated by the board of directors who appointed him.

1981, c. 2, s. 7; 1999, c. 40, s. 226.

31.2. The board of directors of an institution operating a child and youth protection centre may not dismiss a director or reduce his salary except by a resolution adopted, at a meeting called for that purpose, by not less than two-thirds of the votes of all its members.

1984, c. 4, s. 14; 1992, c. 21, s. 217; 1994, c. 35, s. 18.

32. The director and the members of his staff authorized by him for that purpose have the following exclusive duties:

- (a) to receive reports regarding children, analyze them briefly and decide whether they must be evaluated further;
- (b) to assess a child's situation and living conditions and decide whether the child's security or development is in danger;
- (c) to decide on the direction of a child;
- (d) to review the situation of a child;
- (e) to put an end to the intervention if a child's security or development is not or is no longer in danger;
- (f) to exercise tutorship or, in the cases provided for in this Act, apply to the tribunal for the appointment or replacement of a tutor;
- (g) to receive the general consents required for adoption;
- (h) to apply to the tribunal for a declaration of eligibility for adoption;
- (i) to decide to file an application for an order for the disclosure of information under the second paragraph of section 72.5 or to disclose information under the second or third paragraph of section 72.6 or under section 72.7.

Despite the first paragraph, the director may, if the director considers that the situation warrants it, authorize, in writing and to the extent the director specifies, a person who is not a member of the director's staff to assess a child's situation and living conditions as provided for in subparagraph b of the first paragraph if the person is

- (a) a member of the personnel of an institution operating a child and youth protection centre;
- (b) a member of the personnel of an institution operating a rehabilitation centre for young persons with adjustment problems; or
- (c) a member of a Native community designated by the director within the scope of an agreement between an institution operating a child and youth protection centre and the Native community.

Authorization granted to a person who is not a member of the director's staff is valid only for the purposes of the assessment and not for the purpose of deciding whether the child's security or development is in danger. The director may withdraw the authorization at any time.

Where a decision regarding the directing of a child involves the application of voluntary measures, the director may decide personally to reach an agreement on the voluntary measures with only one of the parents in accordance with the second paragraph of section 52.1.

DIVISION III

NATIVE COMMUNITIES

2001, c. 33, s. 1.

37.5. In order to better adapt the application of this Act to the realities of Native life, the Government is authorized, subject to the applicable legislative provisions, to enter into an agreement with a first nation represented by all the band councils of the communities making up that nation, with a Native community represented by its band council or by the council of a northern village, with a group of communities so represented or, in the absence of such councils, with any other Native group, for the establishment of a special youth protection program applicable to any child whose security or development is or may be considered to be in danger within the meaning of this Act.

The program established by such an agreement must be compatible with the general principles stated in this Act and with children's rights thereunder, and is subject to the provisions of Division I of Chapter III thereof. In particular, the powers provided for in section 26 may be exercised with respect to the record relating to the case of a child to whom such an agreement applies.

The agreement shall specify the persons to whom it applies and define the territory in which the services are to be organized and provided. It shall identify the persons or authorities that will be entrusted with exercising, with full authority and independence, all or part of the responsibilities assigned to the director, and may provide, as regards the exercise of the entrusted responsibilities, procedures different from those provided for in this Act. The agreement shall contain provisions determining the manner in which a situation is to be taken in charge by the youth protection system provided for in this Act.

The agreement shall also provide measures to evaluate its implementation, and specify the cases, conditions and circumstances in which the provisions of the agreement cease to have effect.

To the extent that they are in conformity with the provisions of this section, the provisions of an agreement shall have precedence over any inconsistent provision of this Act and, as regards the organization and provision of services, of the Act respecting health services and social services (chapter S-4.2) or of the Act respecting health services and social services for Cree Native persons (chapter S-5).

Any agreement entered into under this section shall be tabled in the National Assembly within 15 days of being signed, or, if the Assembly is not in session, within 15 days of resumption. It shall also be published in the Gazette officielle du Québec.

38. For the purposes of this Act, the security or development of a child is considered to be in danger if the child is abandoned, neglected, subjected to psychological ill-treatment or sexual or physical abuse, or if the child has serious behavioural disturbances.

In this Act,

(a) “abandonment” refers to a situation in which a child’s parents are deceased or fail to provide for the child’s care, maintenance or education and those responsibilities are not assumed by another person in accordance with the child’s needs;

(b) “neglect” refers to

(1) a situation in which the child’s parents or the person having custody of the child do not meet the child’s basic needs,

i. failing to meet the child’s basic physical needs with respect to food, clothing, hygiene or lodging, taking into account their resources;

ii. failing to give the child the care required for the child’s physical or mental health, or not allowing the child to receive such care; or

iii. failing to provide the child with the appropriate supervision or support, or failing to take the necessary steps to provide the child with schooling; or

(2) a situation in which there is a serious risk that a child’s parents or the person having custody of the child are not providing for the child’s basic needs in the manner referred to in subparagraph 1;

(c) “psychological ill-treatment” refers to a situation in which a child is seriously or repeatedly subjected to behaviour on the part of the child’s parents or another person that could cause harm to the child, and the child’s parents fail to take the necessary steps to put an end to the situation. Such behaviour includes in particular indifference, denigration, emotional rejection, excessive control, isolation, threats, exploitation, particularly if the child is forced to do work disproportionate to the child’s capacity, and exposure to conjugal or domestic violence;

(d) “sexual abuse” refers to

(1) a situation in which the child is subjected to gestures of a sexual nature by the child’s parents or another person, with or without physical contact, and the child’s parents fail to take the necessary steps to put an end to the situation; or

(2) a situation in which the child runs a serious risk of being subjected to gestures of a sexual nature by the child’s parents or another person, with or without physical contact, and the child’s parents fail to take the necessary steps to put an end to the situation;

(e) “physical abuse” refers to

(1) a situation in which the child is the victim of bodily injury or is subjected to unreasonable methods of upbringing by his parents or another person, and the child’s parents fail to take the necessary steps to put an end to the situation; or

(2) a situation in which the child runs a serious risk of becoming the victim of bodily injury or being subjected to unreasonable methods of upbringing by his parents or another person, and the child’s parents fail to take the necessary steps to put an end to the situation;

(f) “serious behavioural disturbance” refers to a situation in which a child behaves in such a way as to repeatedly or seriously undermine the child’s or others’ physical or psychological integrity, and the child’s parents fail to take the necessary steps to put an end to the situation or, if the child is 14 or over, the child objects to such steps.

38.1. The security or development of a child may be considered to be in danger where

(a) he leaves his own home, a foster family, a facility maintained by an institution operating a rehabilitation centre or a hospital centre without authorization while his situation is not under the responsibility of the director of youth protection;

(b) he is of school age and does not attend school, or is frequently absent without reason;

(b) the child’s age and personal characteristics;

(c) the capacity and the will of the parents to put an end to the situation in which the security or development of the child is in danger;

(d) the community resources available to help the child and the child’s parents.

38.3. No ideological or other consideration, including one based on a concept of honour, can justify any situation described in sections 38 and 38.1.

2016, c. 12, s. 37

39. Every professional who, by the very nature of his profession, provides care or any other form of assistance to children and who, in the practice of his profession, has reasonable grounds to believe that the security or development of a child is or may be considered to be in danger within the meaning of section 38 or 38.1, must bring the situation to the attention of the director without delay. The same obligation is incumbent upon any employee of an institution, any teacher, any person working in a childcare establishment or any policeman who, in the performance of his duties, has reasonable grounds to believe that the security or development of a child is or may be considered to be in danger within the meaning of the said provisions.

Any person, other than a person referred to in the first paragraph, who has reasonable grounds to believe that the security or development of a child is considered to be in danger within the meaning of subparagraphs d and e of the second paragraph of section 38 must bring the situation to the attention of the director without delay.

DIVISION II

RECEIVING AND PROCESSING REPORTS

2006, c. 34, s. 19.

45. Any report to the effect that the security or development of a child is or may be considered to be in danger must be transmitted to the director. The director must consider the report, analyze it briefly and decide whether it is to be accepted for evaluation.

1977, c. 20, s. 45; 1984, c. 4, s. 21; 2006, c. 34, s. 20, s. 74.

45.1. If the director decides not to accept a report, he must notify the person who reported the situation.

45.2. If the director decides not to accept a report but is of the opinion that the child or one or both of the child's parents require assistance, the director must inform them of the services and resources available in their community. If they consent to it, the director must, in a personalized manner, advise them and direct them to the institutions, bodies or persons best suited to assist them and come to an agreement with the service provider on the terms of access to such service, in particular, on the time limit. In addition, if they consent to it, the director must forward the information relevant to the situation to the service provider.

Information on the services and resources available to them is given to the person requiring assistance and, in the case of a child under 14 years of age, to one or both of the child's parents. The required consents are also given by the person requiring assistance, except those for a child under 14 years of age, which are given by one of the child's parents.

Where the child requiring assistance is 14 years of age or older, the director may, if the child consents to it, inform one or both of the child's parents of the services and resources available in their community. In addition, where the child is directed to an institution, body or person in accordance with the first paragraph, the director may, if the child consents to it, inform one or both of the parents. Where the director directs the child without informing the parents, the director must meet with the child and the service provider.

2016, c. 12, s. 39

DIVISION II.1

IMMEDIATE PROTECTIVE MEASURES

2006, c. 34, s. 21.

46. If the director accepts the report, he may take immediate protective measures to ensure the security of the child for a maximum period of 48 hours even before making an assessment to determine if the security or development of the child is in danger in accordance with section 49.

If the circumstances warrant it, the director may also take immediate protective measures for a maximum period of 48 hours at any point during the intervention, whether or not a new report has been made.

As far as possible, the child and the child's parents must be consulted with respect to the application of immediate protective measures.

The director may apply the following, as immediate protective measures:

- (a) immediate removal of the child from his present environment;
- (b) entrusting the child to an institution operating a rehabilitation centre or a hospital centre, to one of the child's parents, to a person who is important to the child, in particular a grandparent or another member of the extended family, to a foster family, to an appropriate body or to any other person without delay;

- (c) (subparagraph repealed);
- (d) restricting contact between the child and his parents;
- (e) prohibiting the child from contacting certain persons designated by the director, or prohibiting those persons from contacting the child;
- (e.1) prohibiting the disclosure of specific information to one or both of the parents or any other person designated by the director;
- (f) requiring a person to ensure that the child and his parents comply with the conditions imposed on them and to inform the director if the conditions are not complied with;
- (g) applying any other measure he considers necessary in the interest of the child.

Where it is decided to entrust the child to an institution referred to in subparagraph b of the fourth paragraph, the director shall specify whether or not foster care is included in the measure. The designated institution is bound to receive the child.

47. If the director proposes that immediate protective measures be extended and a child 14 years of age or over or the child's parents object, the director must submit the case to the tribunal to obtain an order attesting that the extension is necessary. Such an order may be issued by the clerk if the judge is absent or unable to act and if a delay could cause serious harm to the child. The decision of the tribunal or the clerk may not have effect for more than five working days.

If the 48-hour period ends on a Saturday or a holiday, the judge and the clerk are absent or unable to act and the interruption of immediate protective measures could cause serious harm to the child, the director may extend the period until the following working day without an order.

1977, c. 20, s. 47; 1979, c. 42, s. 12; 1984, c. 4, s. 23; 1988, c. 21, s. 119; 1989, c. 53, s. 11; 1999, c. 40, s. 226; 2006, c. 34, s. 23; I.N. 2016-01-01 (NCCP).

47.1. If a child 14 years of age or over and the child's parents do not object to the extension of immediate protective measures, the director may propose the application of a provisional agreement until he determines whether the security or development of the child is in danger and, if applicable, enters into an agreement on voluntary measures or refers the matter to the tribunal.

However, such an agreement may not be renewed and may not cover more than 30 days, including the 10-day period provided for in section 52.

2006, c. 34, s. 23.

47.2. If the director proposes a provisional agreement to the child and his parents, he must inform them that a child 14 years of age or over and the child's parents may refuse to consent to such an agreement. However, if the parents of a child under 14 years of age accept the application of a provisional agreement, the director must encourage the child to adhere to it.

The director must also inform them that they may terminate the agreement at any time and that their consent does not constitute an acknowledgement that the security or development of the child is in danger.

2006, c. 34, s. 23.

47.3. The director may reach a provisional agreement with only one of the parents if the other parent cannot be found or is unable to express an opinion.

However, if the other parent comes forward during the application of the agreement, the director must allow that parent to submit observations, following which, with the consent of the parents and of the child, if 14 years of age or over, the director may make certain changes to the agreement if it is in the interest of the child to do so.

47.4. The provisional agreement must be recorded in writing and may contain one or more of the measures applicable under section 54.

---

2006, c. 34, s. 23.

47.5. A provisional agreement may also be proposed by the director, on the same conditions, without immediate protective measures having been taken beforehand.

---

2006, c. 34, s. 23.

48. Expenses of transportation and bed and board for a child provisionally entrusted to a foster family or an institution other than an establishment shall be charged to the institution operating the child and youth protection centre whose director has taken charge of the situation of the child.

During the period in which immediate protective measures are applied, the director may, if urgent, authorize the provision of medical services and other care he deems necessary to the child without the consent of the parents or an order of the tribunal. Every institution operating a hospital centre is then bound to admit the child entrusted to it by the director.

48.1. For the purposes of this division, an institution which operates a hospital centre to which the director has entrusted a child shall notify the director before the child is released in accordance with the Act respecting health services and social services (chapter S-4.2) or the Act respecting health services and social services for Cree Native persons (chapter S-5).

51. Where the director is of the opinion that the security or development of a child is in danger, he shall take charge of the situation of the child and decide whereto he is to be directed. For that purpose, before proposing the application of voluntary measures or referring the matter to the tribunal, the director shall favour the means that encourage the active participation of the child and the child's parents, if the circumstances are appropriate.

The director informs the person referred to in the first paragraph of section 39 who had brought the situation of the child to his attention that the situation has been taken in charge.

52. The director, when proposing to a child and to the child's parents the application of voluntary measures, must, before reaching an agreement with them, inform them of the right of a child 14 years of age or over and of a child's parents to refuse the application of voluntary measures. However, where the parents of a child under 14 years of age accept the application of voluntary measures, the director must encourage the child to adhere to the agreement.

Any agreement on voluntary measures must contain the measures most appropriate to put an end to and prevent the recurrence of the situation in which the security or development of the child is in danger.

The director must refer the child's situation to the tribunal if no agreement is reached within 10 days and the security or development of the child remains in danger.

52.1. The director may reach an agreement on voluntary measures with only one of the parents where the other parent is deceased or is deprived of parental authority.

The director may also decide to reach such an agreement with only one of the parents where the other parent is unable to express his will or cannot be found despite serious efforts to locate him, or where the latter, having not, in fact, assumed responsibility for the care, maintenance and education of the child, abstains from becoming involved owing to indifference. Such a decision may only be taken by the director personally, and must be in writing and give reasons.

If, however, during the application of the agreement, the other parent comes forward, the director must allow that parent to present his views, following which the director may, with the consent of the parents and of the child, if 14 years of age or over, make certain changes to the agreement if it is in the interest of the child.

1994, c. 35, s. 32.

53. An agreement on voluntary measures must be recorded in writing and not exceed one year. The director may reach one or more consecutive agreements with a total term of up to two years.

However, if the last agreement containing a foster care measure referred to in subparagraph j of the first paragraph of section 54 ends during a school year, the agreement may be extended until the end of the school year if a child 14 years of age or over consents to the extension; if the child is under 14 years of age, the last agreement may be extended for the same period with the consent of the parents and the director.

An institution that operates a rehabilitation centre that is designated by the director must admit the child.

53.0.1. If one or more agreements on voluntary measures under section 53 include a foster care measure provided for in subparagraph j of the first paragraph of section 54, the total period of the placement may not exceed

- (a) 12 months if the child is under two years of age;
- (b) 18 months if the child is from two to five years of age; or
- (c) 24 months if the child is six years of age or over on the date the first agreement containing a foster care measure is entered into.

If the security or development of the child is still in danger at the expiry of the period of foster care provided for in the first paragraph, the director shall refer the matter to the tribunal.

1994, c. 35, s. 32; 2006, c. 34, s. 28.

53.1. The director shall refer the matter to the tribunal where the child, if 14 years of age or over or one of his parents, if party to the agreement, withdraws from an agreement and the child's security or development remains in danger.

The director must also refer the matter to the tribunal where an agreement or a new agreement has expired and the child's security or development remains in danger.

The director must, before reaching an agreement with the child and the child's parents, inform them of the circumstances described in this section in which he is required to refer the matter to the tribunal.

54. The director may propose as voluntary measures that may be included in an agreement

- (a) that the child remain with his family and that the child's parents report periodically to the director on the measures they apply in their own regard or in their child's regard to put an end to the situation in which the security or development of the child is in danger;
- (b) that the child and the child's parents undertake to take an active part in the application of the measures designed to put an end to the situation in which the security or development of the child is in danger;
- (c) that the parents ensure that the child not come into contact with certain persons or that certain persons not come into contact with the child;
- (d) that the child undertake not to come into contact with certain persons;
- (e) that the parents entrust the child to other persons;
- (f) that a person working for an institution or body provide aid, counselling or assistance to the child and the child's family;

- (g) that the parents entrust the child to an institution operating a hospital centre or a local community service centre or to another body so that he may receive the care and assistance he needs;
- (h) that the child or the child's parents report in person, at regular intervals, to the director to inform him of the current situation;
- (i) that the parents ensure that the child receive health services required by his situation;
- (j) that the parents entrust the child for a fixed period to an institution operating a rehabilitation centre or to a foster family, chosen by the institution operating a child and youth protection centre;
- (k) that the parents ensure that the child attend a school or another place of learning or participate in a program geared to developing skills and autonomy and that the child undertake to do so;
- (l) that the parents undertake to ensure that the child attend a childcare establishment.

For the purposes of this section, the director must, whenever possible, call upon persons or bodies active in the community where the child lives. He must also ensure that the required services are provided to the child or to the child's parents for the implementation of the voluntary measures.

Where the director proposes that the parents entrust the child to an institution operating a rehabilitation centre or a hospital centre, he must specify whether or not foster care is required.

He shall ensure that every measure is taken to return the child to his parents. ## DIVISION IV

COMPULSORY FOSTER CARE

62. Where the tribunal orders the compulsory foster care of a child, it shall require the director to designate an institution, to which the child may be entrusted, that operates a hospital centre or a rehabilitation centre or works in conjunction with foster families, and to see that foster care is provided under adequate conditions.

Every institution operating a rehabilitation centre or a hospital centre designated by the director in accordance with this section or paragraph b of section 46 is bound to admit the child contemplated by the order. Such order may be executed by any peace officer.

The institution operating a child and youth protection centre must send a copy of the record of the child to the executive director of the designated institution operating a rehabilitation centre.

If the tribunal orders the compulsory foster care of a child, the director may authorize the child to stay with his father or mother, a person who is important to the child, in particular the grandparents or other members of the extended family, or a foster family for periods of not more than 15 days, provided those periods are part of an intervention plan and respect the interest of the child.

With a view to preparing the child's return to his family or social environment, the director or a person authorized by the director under section 32 may authorize the child to stay with his father or mother, a person who is important to the child or a foster family for extended periods during the last 60 days of the period of compulsory foster care.

63. If a child is placed in an intensive supervision unit maintained by an institution operating a rehabilitation centre in accordance with section 11.1.1, the executive director of the institution must immediately send the Commission a notice specifying the child's name and the placement start date as well as the decision or order of the tribunal if the executive director's decision was referred to the tribunal.

1977, c. 20, s. 63; 1989, c. 53, s. 12; 2006, c. 34, s. 35.

64. Where a period of compulsory foster care terminates during a school year, the institution operating a rehabilitation centre must continue to provide the child with foster care until the end of the school year if the child, being 14 years of age or over, consents to it; when the child is less than 14 years of age, foster care shall continue with the consent of the parents and the director.

Where a period of compulsory foster care ends during a school year, the foster family may continue to provide foster care to the child on the same conditions.

An order for foster care ceases to have effect when the person to which it applies reaches the age of 18 years. However, foster care may continue in accordance with the Act respecting health services and social services (chapter S-4.2) or the Act respecting health services and social services for Cree Native persons (chapter S-5), if the person consents to it.

An institution must continue to provide foster care to a person having reached the age of 18 years if the person consents to it and if the person's condition does not allow his return to or reinsertion in his home environment. Foster care shall continue until the person's admission to another institution or any of its intermediate resources or to a family-type resource where he will receive the services required by his condition is assured.

71.16. The Minister may grant certification to a body whose mission is to defend children's rights, promote their interests and improve their living conditions, so that it may make arrangements on behalf of adopters domiciled in Québec for the adoption of children domiciled outside Québec.

71.17. A body applying for certification must be a legal person established under a statute of Québec for non-profit purposes and be directed and managed by persons who, by their ethical standards, training and experience, are qualified to work in the field of intercountry adoption. In addition, the body must demonstrate its ability to fulfil its mission effectively.

The Minister shall, by an order published in the Gazette officielle du Québec, determine the qualifications required of a body applying for certification or renewal of certification, and of the persons directing and managing the body, the requirements and terms and conditions the body and those persons must comply with as well as the documents, information and reports they must furnish.

2004, c. 3, s. 22.

71.18. The Minister may grant certification if the Minister considers it warranted in the public interest and in the interests of children and after considering such factors as

- (1) the number of certifications necessary to meet the needs in the State concerned; and
- (2) the situation in the State concerned and the guarantees given to the children, their parents and the future adopters.

The Minister may, in addition, impose any condition, restriction or prohibition the Minister considers necessary, and may at any time modify them or impose new conditions, restrictions or prohibitions.

2004, c. 3, s. 22.

71.19. The certification shall indicate the place for which it is issued, its period of validity and any conditions, restrictions or prohibitions attached. The certification may not be transferred.

---

2004, c. 3, s. 22.

71.20. The certification shall be issued for an initial two-year period. It may be renewed for a three-year period and thereafter for the same period on the conditions determined by this Act and by an order of the Minister published in the Gazette officielle du Québec.

The Minister may issue or renew certification for a shorter period where the Minister considers that the circumstances so warrant.

Upon renewal of certification, the Minister may consider the factors mentioned in section 71.18 and modify any condition, restriction or prohibition imposed on the certification holder. The Minister may, at any time, modify the conditions, restrictions or prohibitions or impose new ones.

2004, c. 3, s. 22.

71.21. The Minister shall, by an order published in the Gazette officielle du Québec, determine the conditions, responsibilities and obligations that a certified body must comply with to maintain certification, and the documents, information and reports it must furnish.

---

71.22. A certification holder wishing to terminate activities in the place for which the certification was issued must first notify the Minister in writing and comply with the conditions determined by the Minister.

---

2004, c. 3, s. 22.

71.23. The Minister may suspend, revoke or refuse to renew certification

- (1) if the body no longer meets the requirements for certification or has failed to comply with a condition, restriction or prohibition specified in the certification;

- (2) if the Minister considers it warranted in the public interest, in the interests of children or owing to urgent circumstances;
- (3) if the Minister considers it necessary, in view of the situation in the State concerned to suspend, revoke or refuse to renew the certification;
- (4) if the competent authorities of the place for which the certification is issued no longer authorize adoption or, where applicable, have withdrawn the authorization they had granted to the body;
- (5) if the Minister considers that the body is not complying with this Act or a regulation or a ministerial order under this Act; or
- (6) if the body or any of its officers, managers or directors has been convicted of an offence under a ministerial order made under the second paragraph of section 71.17 or under section 71.21 or of an offence under any of sections 135.1, 135.1.1 and 135.1.2.

The Minister may decide that the revocation or suspension of certification or the refusal to renew certification will only take effect on the expiry of a period determined by the Minister during which the body may continue its activities so as to complete the adoption processes it has begun.

The Minister may also, where the Minister considers it expedient, complete the adoption processes begun by a certified body.

2004, c. 3, s. 22.

71.24. The Minister may, instead of suspending, revoking or refusing to renew a body's certification, order the body to take the necessary corrective measures within the time the Minister specifies.

If the body fails to comply with the Minister's order within the specified time, the Minister may suspend, revoke or refuse to renew the certification.

2004, c. 3, s. 22.

71.25. Except in urgent cases, the Minister shall, before refusing to issue certification or before suspending, revoking or refusing to renew certification, notify the body in writing as prescribed by section 5 of the Act respecting administrative justice (chapter J-3) and allow the body at least 10 days to present observations.

---

2004, c. 3, s. 22.

71.26. Any body whose certification has been suspended or revoked or has not been renewed may appeal to the court by application within 30 days after receiving the decision to be appealed. The decision may be overturned if the grounds of law or fact invoked therein are manifestly erroneous or if there is a serious procedural irregularity.

The application shall be heard and decided by preference and the judgment is final.

The appeal does not suspend execution of the Minister's decision, unless the court decides otherwise.

The judgment of the court must be in writing and give reasons. The clerk shall transmit a copy of the judgment to each of the parties.

2004, c. 3, s. 22; I.N. 2016-01-01 (NCCP).

71.27. A certified body must send the Minister the file respecting the adoption of a child domiciled outside Québec

- (1) upon ceasing its activities or if its certification is revoked or not renewed; or
- (2) within two years after the arrival of the child in Québec or withdrawal from the adoption process.

The Minister may, in the situations and on the conditions the Minister determines, authorize a body to consult a file it has sent to the Minister.

---

2004, c. 3, s. 22.

§ 4. — *Inspections and inquiries

---

2004, c. 3, s. 22.

71.28. A person authorized in writing by the Minister to make an inspection may at any reasonable time enter any premises in which the person has grounds to believe that operations or activities for which certification is required by this Act are carried on, in order to ascertain whether this Act, the regulations and any ministerial order, and the laws and regulations governing the adoption of a child domiciled outside Québec, are being complied with.

That person may, during an inspection,

- (1) examine and make a copy of any document relating to operations and activities for which certification is required under this Act; and
- (2) require any information relating to the application of this Act or any law governing the adoption of a child domiciled outside Québec, and the production of any document connected therewith.

Any person having custody, possession or control of such documents shall, on request, make them available to the person making the inspection.

A person making an inspection shall, if so required, produce a certificate signed by the Minister attesting to the person's capacity.

2004, c. 3, s. 22.

72. No person may, in any manner whatsoever, hinder an inspector performing inspection duties, mislead the inspector through concealment or false statements or refuse to provide a document or information the inspector is entitled to obtain under this Act, a regulation or a ministerial order.

CHAPTER IV.1

CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

---

1994, c. 35, s. 45.

72.5. Notwithstanding subparagraph 1 of the first paragraph of section 53 of the Act respecting Access to documents held by public bodies and the Protection of personal information (chapter A-2.1), no information collected under this Act in respect of a child or his parents that would allow the identification of the child or parents may be disclosed except with the authorization of the child himself if he is 14 years of age or over, where the information relates to him, or with the authorization of one of his parents where the information relates to a child under 14 years of age. However, where the information relates solely to the parents, it may not be disclosed except with the authorization of the parent to whom it relates.

Such information may, on application, be disclosed by order of the tribunal where the disclosure is intended to ensure the protection of the child to whom the information relates or the protection of another child. Only the director or the Commission, according to their respective powers, may apply to the tribunal for an order for the disclosure of such information.

This section shall not be construed as limiting the power of a court to order of its own motion or on application the disclosure of such information in the exercise of its powers and functions.

1994, c. 35, s. 45.

72.6. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 72.5, confidential information may be disclosed without the authorization of the person to whom it relates or an order of the tribunal to any person, body or institution having responsibilities under this Act and to every court of justice called upon, under this Act, to make decisions respecting a child, where the disclosure is necessary for the purposes of this Act.

Notwithstanding the provisions of section 72.5, confidential information may also be disclosed by the director or the Commission, according to their respective powers, without it being necessary to obtain the authorization of the person to whom it relates or an order of the tribunal,

(1) to the members of the personnel of the Ministère de la Justice to whom the Minister of Justice has delegated the exercise of his powers under the Act respecting assistance and compensation for victims of crime (1993, chapter 54), where the disclosure is necessary for the purposes of the said Act in respect of a claim relating to a child whose situation has been brought to the attention of the director under this Act;

(2) to the Director of Criminal and Penal Prosecutions, where the information is required for the prosecution of an offence under a provision of this Act.

Furthermore, notwithstanding section 72.5, the director may disclose confidential information to a person who acts as director outside of Québec, without the consent of the person concerned or an order from the tribunal, if there is reasonable cause to believe that the security or development of a child is or may be considered to be in danger.

A disclosure of information under this section must take place in a manner that will ensure its confidentiality.

1994, c. 35, s. 45; 2005, c. 34, s. 85; 2006, c. 34, s. 37.

72.7. If there is reasonable cause to believe that the security or development of a child is in danger on any of the grounds set out in subparagraph b, if the physical or mental health of the child is concerned, d or e of the second paragraph of section 38, the director or the Commission, according to their respective powers, may, to ensure the protection of the child or of another child, report the situation to the Director of Criminal and Penal Prosecutions or to a police force without it being necessary to obtain the consent of the person to whom it relates or an order of the tribunal. Upon deciding it is appropriate to do so, the director or the Commission may also provide information to an institution or a body exercising a responsibility in respect of the child concerned.

The provisions of this section apply notwithstanding section 72.5 of this Act and notwithstanding subparagraphs 1, 3 and 4 of the second paragraph of section 59 of the Act respecting Access to documents held by public bodies and the Protection of personal information (chapter A-2.1).

For the purposes of this section, a home childcare coordinating office within the meaning of the Educational Childcare Act (chapter S-4.1.1) is considered a body.

1994, c. 35, s. 45; 2001, c. 78, s. 11; 2005, c. 34, s. 85; 2006, c. 34, s. 38.

72.8. Notwithstanding section 72.5, the director or the Commission, as the case may be, may, in addition, in order to prevent an act of violence, including a suicide, communicate confidential information without it being necessary to obtain the consent of the person or persons concerned or an order of the tribunal, where there are reasonable grounds to believe that there is an imminent danger of death or serious bodily injury to a person or an identifiable group of persons.

The information may in that case be communicated to any person exposed to the danger or that person's representative, and to any person who can come to that person's aid.

The director or the Commission, as the case may be, may only communicate such information as is necessary to achieve the purposes for which the information is communicated.

The provisions of this section apply notwithstanding section 59.1 of the Act respecting Access to documents held by public bodies and the Protection of personal information (chapter A-2.1).

The executive director of an institution operating a child and youth protection centre must, by a directive, determine the terms and conditions according to which the information may be communicated by the director, the director's personnel and the persons authorized to act under section 33. Those persons are required to comply with the directive.

The president of the Commission exercises the same powers in respect of the members of the personnel of the body, who are required to comply with the directive of the president.

2001, c. 78, s. 12.

72.9. In order to allow only the Commission and the director or a person authorized by the director under section 32 to check if a report has already been made with respect to a child under this Act, the Government may, by regulation, establish a register in which the personal information contained in the child's record and which the director may disclose under section 72.6 is registered.

The regulation must indicate which personal information will be entered in the register and on what conditions, as well as who will be in charge of the register.

Each director is required to register the information prescribed in the regulation, under the conditions specified therein.

The time periods prescribed in sections 37.1 to 37.4 apply to the information entered in the register.

---

2006, c. 34, s. 39.

72.10. The register referred to in section 72.9 may also contain information on a child forwarded by youth protection services outside Québec.

2006, c. 34, s. 39.

72.11. Despite section 19 of the Act respecting health services and social services (chapter S-4.2), an institution operating a child and youth protection centre may communicate information contained in the record of a minor user who has been placed or provided with foster care to Retraite Québec if that information is necessary to establish a person's entitlement to the payment of a benefit under the Act respecting family benefits (chapter P-19.1) for the purposes of section 323 of chapter 1 of the statutes of 2005, a tax credit for child assistance in accordance with Division II.11.2 of Chapter III.1 of Title III of Book IX of Part I of the Taxation Act (chapter I-3) or a benefit under the Act respecting the Québec Pension Plan (chapter R-9).

CHAPTER V JUDICIAL INTERVENTION

DIVISION I JURISDICTION

§ 1. — Hearing

I.N. 2016-01-01 (NCCP).

73. The tribunal shall hear the case of a child in the district where the domicile or residence of the child is situated, unless, due to the circumstances, the tribunal decides that it is advisable to hear it in another district.

When the child has no known domicile or residence in Québec, applications are brought before the tribunal where the director who received the report exercises his responsibilities.

1977, c. 20, s. 73; 1984, c. 4, s. 37; 1988, c. 21, s. 119; 1989, c. 53, s. 11; 2006, c. 34, s. 74.

73.1. After taking into consideration the opinion of the parties, the tribunal may hear the cases of several children of a same parent at the same time, if in doing so there is no risk of prejudice to any of them. However, the tribunal shall give separate orders for each child in accordance with section 91.

---

2006, c. 34, s. 40.

74. The director shall refer the matter to the tribunal where the parents or the child are opposed to the application of an immediate protective measure.

---

1977, c. 20, s. 74; 1979, c. 42, s. 14; 1981, c. 2, s. 18; 1984, c. 4, s. 38; 1988, c. 21, s. 119; 1989, c. 53, s. 11; 2006, c. 34, s. 41.

74.0.1. The tribunal may use any technological means at its disposal to hear and decide applications filed under sections 11.1.1, 11.2.1, 36, 47, 72.5, 76.1 and 79.

For the purpose of granting the authorizations provided for in sections 25, 35.2 and 35.3, the justice of the peace may also use any technological means available. The declaration under oath required under those provisions may be made orally, by telephone or using another mode of telecommunication, and it is deemed to be made under oath.

2006, c. 34, s. 42.

74.1. The director or the Commission may refer to the tribunal the case of a child whose security or development is considered to be in danger.

The Commission may also refer to the tribunal any situation where it has reason to believe that the rights of the child have been wronged by persons, bodies or institutions.

74.2. A child or his parents may apply to the tribunal where they disagree with

(a) the decision of the director as to whether or not the security or development of the child is in danger;

(b) the decision of the director as to the directing of the child;

(c) the decision whether or not to prolong the period of voluntary foster care by a foster family or an institution operating a rehabilitation centre;

- (d) the decision of the director on review;
- (e) the decision of the executive director, in accordance with section 9 or 11.1.1.

75. The tribunal takes cognizance by the filing of an application containing, if possible, the names of the child and of his parents, their address, their ages and a summary of the facts justifying the intervention of the tribunal.

Every officer of the tribunal and every person working for an institution shall, when so required, assist a person who wishes to file an application under this chapter.

1977, c. 20, s. 75; 1984, c. 4, s. 38; 1988, c. 21, s. 119; 1989, c. 53, s. 11; 1992, c. 21, s. 235, s. 375; 2006, c. 34, s. 44; I.N. 2016-01-01 (NCCP).

76. If made by a person other than the child or his parents, the application, together with notice of the filing date, must be served on the parents, on the child if 14 years of age or over, on the director and on the advocates of the parties in one of the modes provided for in the Code of Civil Procedure (chapter C-25.01), not less than 10 days or more than 60 days before the hearing.

If the application made by a parent or a child, it must be served, along with the notice, on the director and on the advocates of the parties.

The notice need not be sent

- (a) if all the parties are present before the tribunal and waive it;
- (b) if the tribunal, in an emergency, prescribes a special manner of notifying the parties; or
- (c) if the tribunal dispenses with service on exceptional grounds.

The tribunal may allow untimely service for exceptional reasons. It may also reduce the period for filing the application if it is in the interest of the child and if doing so does not infringe on the parties' right to be heard.

If the application is made with respect to an encroachment of rights, service must be made on the Commission.

1977, c. 20, s. 76; 1988, c. 21, s. 119; 1989, c. 53, s. 5, s. 11; 1989, c. 53, s. 12; 1994, c. 35, s. 67; 2006, c. 34, s. 45; I.N. 2016-01-01 (NCCP).

76.1. The tribunal may, if it considers it necessary for the security or development of the child, give any order for the execution, while proceedings are in progress, of one or several of the measures applicable under section 91.

The tribunal may review its decision at any time.

1981, c. 2, s. 19; 1984, c. 4, s. 39; 1988, c. 21, s. 119; 1989, c. 53, s. 11.

76.2. After the filing of the application and, if applicable, the hearing on the provisional measures, the tribunal may order the holding of a pre-hearing conference if it considers it useful or if it is requested by one of the parties. Whenever possible, the conference is presided over by the judge assigned to hear the case.

The purpose of the pre-hearing conference is to rule on appropriate means of simplifying and shortening the hearing, including the advisability of amending the application, obtaining admissions, defining the questions of law and fact at issue, providing a list of witnesses and providing access to the originals of the documents the parties intend to file at the hearing.

Agreements and decisions made at the conference are recorded in minutes signed by the attorneys or the parties not represented by an attorney, and countersigned by the judge who presided over the conference. The agreements and decisions govern the hearing, unless the tribunal permits a departure from them in order to prevent an injustice.

2006, c. 34, s. 46; I.N. 2016-01-01 (NCCP).

76.3. At any time after the filing of the application, the parties to the proceedings may acknowledge the facts showing that the security or development of the child is in danger and submit a draft agreement on measures to put an end to the situation to the tribunal.

The tribunal verifies whether the parties gave their consent in a free and enlightened manner and, if warranted, hears them together, or hears them separately but in the presence of the other parties' attorneys.

2006, c. 34, s. 46; I.N. 2016-01-01 (NCCP).

76.4. After establishing that the security or development of the child is in danger and verifying that the measures proposed in the draft agreement respect the rights and interest of the child, the tribunal may order the implementation of those measures or any other measure it considers appropriate.

---

2006, c. 34, s. 46.

76.5. The clerk may accept an incidental application outside the presence of the parties if it need not be served, including one for a different mode of notification, for permission to give untimely notification or for a shorter period for filing the application.

---

2006, c. 34, s. 46; I.N. 2016-01-01 (NCCP).

77. The tribunal must itself hear all the evidence before reaching a decision.

Testimony shall be taken by stenography or recorded in any other manner authorized by the Government.

The expenses incurred under the second paragraph shall be at the expense of the Minister of Justice.

The stenographer's notes shall be transcribed only when the tribunal so orders or in case of appeal; the cost of such transcription shall be at the expense of the Minister of the Justice.

To assist in the cross-examination of a witness, the tribunal may retain the services of an interpreter, whose remuneration shall be paid by the Minister of Justice.

78. The tribunal must inform the parents and the child of their right to be represented by an advocate.

1977, c. 20, s. 78; 1988, c. 21, s. 119; 1989, c. 53, s. 11.

79. In application of section 76.1, the tribunal shall order the provisional compulsory foster care of a child by a foster family or an institution operating a rehabilitation centre if, after an assessment of the situation, it concludes that the child's remaining with or returning to his parents or to his residence is likely to cause him serious prejudice.

The tribunal shall without delay notify the parents of the child who is the subject of a measure carried out under this section.

No provisional compulsory foster care measure may exceed 30 days. However, where justified by the facts, the tribunal may order a single extension for a period of not over 30 days.

80. Where the tribunal establishes that the interests of the child are opposed to those of his parents, it must see that an advocate is specifically assigned to counsel and represent the child and that he does not act, at the same time, as counsel or attorney for the parents.

1977, c. 20, s. 80; 1988, c. 21, s. 119; 1989, c. 53, s. 11; 2006, c. 34, s. 48.

81. The tribunal shall hear the persons concerned and the advocates representing them.

The child, the child's parents and the director are parties to the hearing.

The Commission may, ex officio, intervene at the hearing as if it were a party to it. The same applies to the Public Curator if a tutorship is concerned

For the requirements of the hearing, the tribunal may grant any other person the status of party to the hearing if it considers it expedient to do so in the interest of the child. The status of party remains valid until withdrawn by a decision or order of the tribunal.

A person who has information likely to enlighten the tribunal in the interest of the child may, on request, be heard by the tribunal and be assisted by an advocate.

82. Notwithstanding section 23 of the Charter of human rights and freedoms (chapter C-12), the hearings are held in camera.

Nevertheless, the tribunal must at all times admit to its hearings a member or an employee of the Commission and any journalist who requests admission, unless it believes the journalist's presence would cause prejudice to the child. In no case may images be recorded.

The tribunal may exceptionally and for a serious reason admit to its hearings any other person whose presence is compatible with respect for the interests and rights of the child. It may also, on request, admit to its hearings any other person for the purposes of study, teaching or research.

The parties, their advocates and all other persons admitted to the hearings must conduct themselves in a respectful and restrained manner and must obey the orders of the tribunal, under pain of contempt of tribunal.

No person admitted to a hearing may make a recording of the proceedings or of the decision, unless authorized by the tribunal subject to the conditions it determines. In no case may images be recorded.

84. The tribunal may exclude the child or any other person from the hearing when the information produced could, in the opinion of the tribunal, cause prejudice to the child, if it were produced in the presence of the child or such other person. The advocate of the child must however remain at the hearing to represent him. If the child has no advocate, the tribunal shall appoint one to him ex officio.

The advocate of any other person excluded from the hearing may remain present to represent him.

84.1. If, after the filing of the application, a document relating to the proceedings is found to be in the possession of a third party, the third party may be ordered, upon summons authorized by the tribunal, to communicate it to the other parties, unless he shows cause why he should not do so.

The tribunal may, at any time after the filing of the application, order a party or a third person to exhibit, preserve or submit to an expert's appraisal any real evidence relating to the proceedings he has in his possession on the conditions, at the time and place and in the manner it considers expedient.

84.2. A party wishing to produce an analysis, report, study or expert opinion before the tribunal must file the document in the record and give a copy to the advocate of each of the parties, and to each party that is not represented, at least three working days before the hearing, unless the tribunal grants an exemption from this obligation.

The filing in the record of the whole or simply of abstracts of the out of court testimony of an expert witness may stand in lieu of a written report.

85.1. A child under 14 years of age is presumed to be competent to testify. The child may not be sworn in or make a solemn affirmation, but, before receiving the child's testimony, the tribunal shall have the child promise to tell the truth. The testimony has the same effect as if the child had taken the oath. Such testimony does not require corroboration.

If a party expresses a doubt as to the child's competence to testify, the party must convince the tribunal that the child is not able to understand and answer the questions. The tribunal itself shall question the child to determine whether or not the child is competent to testify.

A child declared not competent to testify may not testify.

85.4. The tribunal may, by way of exception and if it believes that it is warranted in the circumstances, hear a child outside the presence of any person who is a party to the proceedings after having so notified that person.

However, the advocate of any person excluded from the court-room may remain in the court-room to represent his client.

Any person in the absence of whom testimony is given may take cognizance of it. The tribunal may, however, make any order which appears necessary to ensure that the confidential nature of the information the person may take cognizance of is respected.

1989, c. 53, s. 8.

85.5. The declaration made by a child who is not competent to testify at the proceedings or who has been dispensed therefrom by the tribunal is admissible as evidence of the existence of the facts stated therein.

However, the tribunal shall not rule that the security or development of the child is endangered on the strength of the declaration unless the reliability of the declaration is sufficiently guaranteed.

Where the declaration was recorded on magnetic tape or by any other reliable means, it may also be proved by that means provided the authenticity of the recording is established separately.

1989, c. 53, s. 8.

86. Before rendering a decision on the measures applicable, the tribunal shall take cognizance of the director's analysis of the child's social situation and the recommendations made.

The director may, at his discretion, or must, if the tribunal so requires, attach to it a psychological or medical assessment of the child and of the members of his family or any other expert opinion that may be useful.

The cost of such studies, assessments or expert opinions shall be at the expense of the institution operating the child and youth protection centre.

87. The parents of the child or the child himself, if he is 14 years of age or over, may refuse to submit to a study, an assessment or any other expert opinion contemplated in section 86. In the case of refusal by the child, the study, assessment or expert opinion shall not take place and the refusal by the child and, as the case may be, the refusal by the parents shall be recorded in a report sent to the tribunal. When the child, if he is 14 years of age or over, consents to submit to such a study, assessment or expert opinion, it shall take place although the parents refuse to submit to it; in such a case, the refusal by the parents shall be recorded in a report sent to the tribunal.

However, the parents and the child shall not refuse to submit to such study, assessment or expert opinion when it is required with regard to a situation contemplated in subparagraphs d and e of the second paragraph of section 38.

88. The contents of a study, assessment or expert opinion contemplated in section 86 must be sent to the parties, who may dispute the data or the conclusions contained in such study, assessment or expert opinion.

However, where the author of the study, assessment or expert opinion believes that the contents or part of the contents should not be communicated to the child, the tribunal may, by exception, prohibit the transmission of it. The tribunal must then see that the child is represented by an advocate who may examine the study, assessment or expert opinion and dispute it.

Where the study, assessment or expert opinion is disputed, the tribunal may require the director to procure a second one. The tribunal shall determine who must pay for such second study, assessment or opinion.

§ 2. — Decision

90. A decision or order of the tribunal must be rendered as soon as possible. It may be rendered verbally if the reasons for doing so are given. With the exception of a decision relating to provisional measures, a decision or an order must be rendered in writing not later than 60 days after being pronounced, barring exceptional circumstances.

91. Where the tribunal concludes that the security or development of the child is in danger, it may, for the period it determines, order the implementation of one or more of the following measures:

(a) that the child remain with his family or be entrusted to one of his parents and that the child's parents report periodically to the director on the measures they apply in their own regard or in their child's regard to put an end to the situation in which the security or development of the child is in danger;

(b) that the child and the child's parents take an active part in the application of any of the measures ordered by the tribunal;

(c) that certain persons designated by the tribunal not come into contact with the child;

(d) that the child not come into contact with certain persons designated by the tribunal;

- (e) that the child be entrusted to other persons;
- (f) that a person working for an institution or body provide aid, counselling or assistance to the child and the child's family;
- (g) that the child be entrusted to an institution operating a hospital centre or local community service centre or to another body so that he may receive the care and assistance he needs;
- (h) that the child or the child's parents report in person, at regular intervals, to the director to inform him of the current situation;
- (i) that the child receive specific health care and health services;
- (j) that the child be entrusted to an institution operating a rehabilitation centre or to a foster family, chosen by the institution operating a child and youth protection centre;
- (k) that the child attend a school or another place of learning or participates in a program geared to developing skills and autonomy;
- (l) that the child attend a childcare establishment;
- (l.1) that specific information not be disclosed to one or both of the parents or any other person designated by the tribunal;
- (m) that a person ensure that the child and his parents comply with the conditions imposed on them and that that person periodically report to the director;
- (n) that the exercise of certain attributes of parental authority be withdrawn from the parents and granted to the director or any other person designated by the tribunal;
- (o) that a period over which the child will be gradually returned to his family or social environment be determined.

The tribunal may make any recommendation it considers to be in the interest of the child.

The tribunal may include several measures in the same order, provided those measures are consistent with each other and in the interest of the child. It may thus authorize that personal relations between the child and the child's parents, grandparents or another person be maintained, in the manner determined by the tribunal; it may also provide for more than one place where the child may be provided with foster care and state how long the child is to stay at each of those places.

Where the tribunal concludes that the rights of a child in difficulty have been wronged by persons, bodies or institutions, it may order the situation to be corrected.

91.1. If the tribunal orders a foster care measure under subparagraph j of the first paragraph of section 91, the total period of the foster care may not exceed

- (a) 12 months if the child is under two years of age on the date the order is made,
- (b) 18 months if the child is from two to five years of age on the date the order is made, or
- (c) 24 months if the child is six years of age or over on the date the order is made.

When determining the duration of foster care, the tribunal must take into account the duration of any foster care measure applied to the same situation in an agreement on voluntary measures referred to in subparagraph j of the first paragraph of section 54, as well as the duration of any prior foster care measure it ordered under the first paragraph. It may also take into account any prior period during which the child was placed or provided with foster care under this Act.

If the security or development of the child is still in danger at the expiry of the periods specified in the first paragraph, the tribunal must make an order aimed at ensuring continuity of care, stable relationships and stable living conditions corresponding to the child's needs and age on a permanent basis.

However, the tribunal may disregard the periods specified in the first paragraph if it is expected that the child will be returned to his family in the short term, if the interest of the child requires it or for serious reasons, such as failure to provide the services agreed upon.

At any time during a period specified in the first paragraph, if the security or development of the child is still in danger, the tribunal may make an order aimed at ensuring continuity of care, stable relationships and stable living conditions corresponding to the child's needs and age on a permanent basis.

2006, c. 34, s. 63.

91.2. The periods specified in the first paragraph of section 91.1 do not apply if the tribunal orders a foster care measure under subparagraph j of the first paragraph of section 91 and an order aimed at ensuring continuity of care, stable relationships and stable living conditions corresponding to the child's needs and age on a permanent basis has already been made.

---

2006, c. 34, s. 63.

92. Where the tribunal orders the carrying out of a measure with regard to a child, it shall entrust the situation of the child to the director, who shall then see that the measure is carried out.

Every institution and every educational body is required to take all available means to provide the services required to carry out the measures ordered. The same applies to every person and to every other body that agrees to apply such measures.

92.1. At the expiry of the order of the tribunal, the director or a person authorized by the director under section 32 may, with the consent of the parties and over a maximum period of one year, continue the protective measures or amend them with a view to the child's gradual return to his family or social environment.

94. A copy of a decision or an order of the tribunal relating to a matter concerning a child shall be sent forthwith to the director, the parents, to the child himself, when he is 14 years of age or over, and to the advocates of the parties.

The Commission may obtain a copy, free of charge, of a decision or order of the tribunal in respect of a child.

The original shall be filed in the record of the tribunal and shall be kept by the clerk.

94.1. A copy of a decision or an order of the tribunal relating to a matter concerning a child must also be sent without delay to the Société québécoise d'information juridique, which ensures, in the exercise of the duties conferred on it by its constituting Act, that sections 11.2 and 11.2.1 of this Act are complied with.

---

2015, c. 26, s. 30.

95. The child, his parents, the director and any party to the proceedings may apply to the tribunal for the review of a decision or an order, when new facts have arisen since it was rendered.

They may also apply to the tribunal for the extension of a decision or an order if the child's situation so requires.

If the application for a review or an extension seeks a measure that is less restrictive for the child, or one that is more restrictive and that is agreed on by all the parties involved, the following rules apply:

- (a) the application must be served on the parties at least 10 days before it is filed;
- (b) if the parties do not contest, the tribunal may accept the application without a hearing or proceed to hear the application;
- (c) if one of the parties requests it, the tribunal must hear the parties.

However, if the tribunal finds that the notice has not been served, it shall adjourn the hearing and order that the notice be served on the conditions and in the manner it indicates.

95.0.1. If a child is declared eligible for adoption, all inconsistent conclusions in the order issued for the child's protection become inoperative after the expiry of the time limit for filing an appeal from the judgment declaring the child eligible for adoption.

However, if the child's parents consent to the adoption, any inconsistent conclusions in the order issued for the child's protection become inoperative when the order to place the child is issued.

2006, c. 34, s. 68.

95.1. An application for revision or extension is presented to the judge who pronounced the first judgment. If the judge is absent or unable to act, the application is presented before another judge of the tribunal.

If the child no longer lives in the district where the decision or order was rendered, the application may be brought before the tribunal of his domicile or residence.

1984, c. 4, s. 47; 1988, c. 21, s. 119; 1989, c. 53, s. 11.

95.2. Where the initial decision or order and that granting an application for review or extension are rendered in different districts, the clerk of the district in which the decision or the order for review or extension is rendered shall send a copy thereof to the clerk of the other district so that he may add it to the record.

---

1984, c. 4, s. 47.

96. Every record of the tribunal is confidential. No person may take cognizance of it or receive a copy or duplicate of it except:

- (a) the child, if he is 14 years of age or over;
- (b) the parents of the child;
- (c) the advocates of the parties;
- (c.1) the Attorney General, the Director of Criminal and Penal Prosecutions or a person either of them has authorized;

- (k) the Public Curator, with regard to the record of the tribunal kept under sections 70.1 to 70.6.

However, no person excluded from the court-room of the tribunal under section 84 may take cognizance of a record, unless the tribunal limits such prohibition to the documents it specifies.
