Anti-People Smuggling and Other Measures Act 2010

No. 50, 2010

An Act to combat people smuggling, and for other purposes

[Assented to 31 May 2010]

The Parliament of Australia enacts:

1 Short title

This Act may be cited as the Anti-People Smuggling and Other Measures Act 2010.

2 Commencement

This Act commences on the day after this Act receives the Royal Assent.

3 Schedule(s)

Each Act that is specified in a Schedule to this Act is amended or repealed as set out in the applicable items in the Schedule concerned, and any other item in a Schedule to this Act has effect according to its terms.

Schedule 1—Amendments relating to people smuggling

Part 1—Main amendments

Criminal Code Act 1995

1 Paragraph 73.1(1)(c) of the Criminal Code

Omit “and”.

2 Paragraph 73.1(1)(d) of the Criminal Code

Repeal the paragraph.

3 Subsection 73.2(1) of the Criminal Code

Repeal the subsection, substitute:

- (1) A person (the first person) commits an offence against this section if the first person commits the offence of people smuggling (the underlying offence) in relation to another person (the victim) and any of the following applies:
 - (a) the first person commits the underlying offence intending that the victim will be exploited after entry into the foreign country (whether by the first person or another);
 - (b) in committing the underlying offence, the first person subjects the victim to cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment;
 - (c) in committing the underlying offence:
 - (i) the first person’s conduct gives rise to a danger of death or serious harm to the victim; and
 - (ii) the first person is reckless as to the danger of death or serious harm to the victim that arises from the conduct.

Penalty: Imprisonment for 20 years or 2,000 penalty units, or both.

- (2) There is no fault element for the physical element of conduct described in subsection (1), that the first person commits the underlying offence, other than the fault elements (however described), if any, for the underlying offence.

Schedule 1 Amendments relating to people smuggling
Part 1 Main amendments

(2A) To avoid doubt, the first person may be convicted of an offence against this section even if the first person has not been convicted of the underlying offence.

Note: The heading to section 73.2 is replaced by the heading “Aggravated offence of people smuggling (exploitation, or danger of death or serious harm etc.)”.

4 Paragraph 73.3(1)(c) of the Criminal Code

Omit “and”.

5 Paragraph 73.3(1)(d) of the Criminal Code

Repeal the paragraph.

6 After section 73.3 of the Criminal Code

Insert:

73.3A Supporting the offence of people smuggling

- (1) A person (the first person) commits an offence if:
- (a) the first person provides material support or resources to another person or an organisation (the receiver); and
 - (b) the support or resources aids the receiver, or a person or organisation other than the receiver, to engage in conduct constituting the offence of people smuggling.

Penalty: Imprisonment for 10 years or 1,000 penalty units, or both.

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply if the conduct constituting the offence of people smuggling relates, or would relate, to:
- (a) the first person; or
 - (b) a group of persons that includes the first person.
- (3) To avoid doubt, the first person commits an offence against subsection (1) even if the offence of people smuggling is not committed.

Migration Act 1958

7 Subdivision A of Division 12 of Part 2 (heading)

Repeal the heading, substitute:

Subdivision A—People smuggling and related offences

8 Sections 232A to 233C

Repeal the sections, substitute:

233A Offence of people smuggling

- (1) A person (the first person) commits an offence if:
- (a) the first person organises or facilitates the bringing or coming to Australia, or the entry or proposed entry into Australia, of another person (the second person); and
 - (b) the second person is a non-citizen; and
 - (c) the second person had, or has, no lawful right to come to Australia.

Penalty: Imprisonment for 10 years or 1,000 penalty units, or both.

- (2) Absolute liability applies to paragraph (1)(b).

Note: For absolute liability, see section 6.2 of the Criminal Code.

- (3) For the purposes of this Act, an offence against subsection (1) is to be known as the offence of people smuggling.

233B Aggravated offence of people smuggling (exploitation, or danger of death or serious harm etc.)

- (1) A person (the first person) commits an offence against this section if the first person commits the offence of people smuggling (the underlying offence) in relation to another person (the victim) and any of the following applies:
- (a) the first person commits the underlying offence intending that the victim will be exploited after entry into Australia (whether by the first person or another);
 - (b) in committing the underlying offence, the first person subjects the victim to cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment (within the ordinary meaning of that expression);
 - (c) in committing the underlying offence:
 - (i) the first person's conduct gives rise to a danger of death or serious harm to the victim; and

- (ii) the first person is reckless as to the danger of death or serious harm to the victim that arises from the conduct.

Penalty: Imprisonment for 20 years or 2,000 penalty units, or both.

Note: Sections 236A and 236B limit conviction and sentencing options for offences against this section.

- (2) There is no fault element for the physical element of conduct described in subsection (1), that the first person commits the underlying offence, other than the fault elements (however described), if any, for the underlying offence.
- (3) To avoid doubt, the first person may be convicted of an offence against this section even if the first person has not been convicted of the underlying offence.
- (4) In this section:

exploit has the same meaning as in the Criminal Code.

forced labour has the same meaning as in section 73.2 of the Criminal Code.

serious harm has the same meaning as in the Criminal Code.

sexual servitude has the meaning given by section 270.4 of the Criminal Code.

slavery has the meaning given by section 270.1 of the Criminal Code.

233C Aggravated offence of people smuggling (at least 5 people)

- (1) A person (the first person) commits an offence if:
- (a) the first person organises or facilitates the bringing or coming to Australia, or the entry or proposed entry into Australia, of a group of at least 5 persons (the other persons); and
 - (b) at least 5 of the other persons are non-citizens; and
 - (c) the persons referred to in paragraph (b) who are non-citizens had, or have, no lawful right to come to Australia.

Penalty: Imprisonment for 20 years or 2,000 penalty units, or both.

Note: Sections 236A and 236B limit conviction and sentencing options for offences against this section.

- (2) Absolute liability applies to paragraph (1)(b).

Note: For absolute liability, see section 6.2 of the Criminal Code.

- (3) If, on a trial for an offence against subsection (1), the trier of fact:
- (a) is not satisfied that the defendant is guilty of that offence; and
 - (b) is satisfied beyond reasonable doubt that the defendant is guilty of the offence of people smuggling;
- the trier of fact may find the defendant not guilty of an offence against subsection (1) but guilty of the offence of people smuggling, so long as the defendant has been accorded procedural fairness in relation to that finding of guilt.

233D Supporting the offence of people smuggling

- (1) A person (the first person) commits an offence if:
- (a) the first person provides material support or resources to another person or an organisation (the receiver); and
 - (b) the support or resources aids the receiver, or a person or organisation other than the receiver, to engage in conduct constituting the offence of people smuggling.

Penalty: Imprisonment for 10 years or 1,000 penalty units, or both.

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply if the conduct constituting the offence of people smuggling relates, or would relate, to:
- (a) the first person; or
 - (b) a group of persons that includes the first person.
- (3) To avoid doubt, the first person commits an offence against subsection (1) even if the offence of people smuggling is not committed.

233E Concealing and harbouring non-citizens etc.

- (1) A person (the first person) commits an offence if:
- (a) the first person conceals another person (the second person); and
 - (b) the second person is a non-citizen; and

- (c) the first person engages in the conduct with the intention that the second person will enter Australia in contravention of this Act.

Penalty: Imprisonment for 10 years or 1,000 penalty units, or both.

- (2) A person (the first person) commits an offence if:
 - (a) the first person conceals another person (the second person); and
 - (b) the second person is an unlawful non-citizen or a deportee; and
 - (c) the first person engages in the conduct with the intention of preventing discovery by an officer of the second person.

Penalty: Imprisonment for 10 years or 1,000 penalty units, or both.

- (3) A person (the first person) commits an offence if:
 - (a) the first person harbours another person (the second person); and
 - (b) the second person is an unlawful non-citizen, a removee or a deportee.

Penalty: Imprisonment for 10 years or 1,000 penalty units, or both.

Note: The heading to section 234 is replaced by the heading “False documents and false or misleading information etc. relating to non-citizens”.

9 After section 234

Insert:

234A Aggravated offence of false documents and false or misleading information etc. relating to non-citizens (at least 5 people)

- (1) A person must not, in connection with:
 - (a) the entry or proposed entry into Australia, or the immigration clearance, of a group of 5 or more non-citizens (which may include that person), or of any member of such a group; or
 - (b) an application for a visa or a further visa permitting a group of 5 or more non-citizens (which may include that person), or any member of such a group, to remain in Australia;

do any of the following:

- (c) present, or cause to be presented, to an officer or a person exercising powers or performing functions under this Act a document that the person knows is forged or false;
- (d) make, or cause to be made, to an officer or a person exercising powers or performing functions under this Act a statement that the person knows is false or misleading in a material particular;
- (e) deliver, or cause to be delivered, to an officer or a person exercising powers or performing functions under this Act, or otherwise give, or cause to be given, for official purposes of the Commonwealth, a document containing a statement or information that the person knows is false or misleading in a material particular.

Penalty: Imprisonment for 20 years or 2,000 penalty units, or both.

Note: Sections 236A and 236B limit conviction and sentencing options for offences against this section.

- (2) A person must not transfer or part with possession of a document or documents:
 - (a) with the intention that the document or documents be used to help a group of 5 or more people, none of whom are entitled to use the document or documents, or any member of such a group, to gain entry into or remain in Australia, or to be immigration cleared; or
 - (b) if the person has reason to suspect that the document or documents may be so used.

Penalty: Imprisonment for 20 years or 2,000 penalty units, or both.

Note: Sections 236A and 236B limit conviction and sentencing options for offences against this section.

10 After section 236

Insert:

236A No discharge of offenders without proceeding to conviction for certain offences

The court may make an order under section 19B of the Crimes Act 1914 in respect of a charge for an offence against section 233B, 233C or 234A only if it is established on the balance of probabilities that the person charged was aged under 18 years when the offence was alleged to have been committed.

236B Mandatory minimum penalties for certain offences

- (1) This section applies if a person is convicted of an offence against section 233B, 233C or 234A.
- (2) This section does not apply if it is established on the balance of probabilities that the person was aged under 18 years when the offence was committed.
