

Pakistan Citizenship Act, 1951 (Bangladesh)

An Act to provide for Pakistan Citizenship

Whereas it is expedient to make provision for citizenship of Pakistan;

It is hereby enacted as follows:-

1.Short title and commencement.

(1)This Act may be called the Pakistan Citizenship Act, 1951.

(2)It shall come into force at once.

2.Definitions.

In this Act -

“alien” means a person who is not a citizen of Pakistan or a Commonwealth citizen;

“Indo-Pakistan sub-continent” means India as defined in the Government of India Act, 1935, as originally enacted;

“minor” means, notwithstanding anything in the Majority Act, 1875, any person who has not completed the age of twenty-one years;

“prescribed” means prescribed by rules made under this Act;

“Commonwealth citizen” means a person who has the status of a Commonwealth citizen under the British Nationality Act, 1948;

“British protected person” means a person who has the status of a British Protected person for the purposes of the British Nationality Act, 1948.

3.Citizenship at the date of commencement of this Act.-

At the commencement of this Act every person shall be deemed to be a citizen of Pakistan-

(a)Who or any of whose parents or grandparents was born in the territory now included in Pakistan and who after the fourteenth day of August, 1947, has not been permanently resident in any country outside Pakistan; or

(b)Who or any of whose parents or grandparents was born in the territories included in India on the thirty first day of March, 1937, and who, except in the case of a person who was in the service of Pakistan or of any Government or Administration in Pakistan at the commencement of this Act has or had his domicile within the meaning of Part II of the Succession Act, 1925, as in force at the commencement of this Act, in Pakistan or in the territories now included in Pakistan; or

(c)who is a person naturalised as a British subject in Pakistan; and who, if before the date of the commencement of this Act he has acquired the citizenship of any foreign State, has before that date renounced the same by depositing a declaration in writing to that effect with an authority appointed or empowered to receive it; or

(d)who before the commencement of this Act migrated to the territories now included in Pakistan from any territory in the Indo-Pakistan sub-continent outside those territories with the intention of residing permanently in those territories.

4. Citizenship by birth.

Every person born in Pakistan after the commencement of this Act shall be a citizen of Pakistan by birth:

Provided that a person shall not be such a citizen by virtue of this section if at the time of his birth-

(a)his father possesses such immunity from suit and legal process as is accorded to an envoy of an external sovereign power accredited in Pakistan and is not a citizen of Pakistan; or

(b)his father is an enemy alien and the birth occurs in a place then under occupation by the enemy.

5.Citizenship by descent.

Subject to the provisions of section 3 a person born after the commencement of this Act, shall be a citizen of Pakistan by descent if his father is a citizen of Pakistan at the time of his birth:

Provided that if the father of such person is a citizen of Pakistan by descent only, that person shall not be a citizen of Pakistan by virtue of this section unless-

(a)that person's birth having occurred in a country outside Pakistan the birth is registered at a Pakistan Consulate or Mission in that country, or where there is no Pakistan Consulate or Mission in that country at the prescribed Consulate or Mission or at a Pakistan Consulate or Mission in the country nearest to that country; or

(b)that person's father is, at the time of the birth, in the service of any Government in Pakistan.

6.Citizenship by migration.-

(1)The Central Government may, upon his obtaining a certificate of domicile under this Act, register as a citizen of Pakistan by migration any person who after the commencement of this Act and before the first day of January 1952 has migrated to the territories now included in Pakistan from any territory in the Indo-Pakistan sub-continent outside those territories, with the intention of residing permanently in those territories:

Provided that the Central Government may, by general or special order, exempt any person or class of persons from obtaining a certificate of domicile required under this sub-section.

(2)Registration granted under the preceding sub-section shall include, besides the person himself, his wife, if any, unless his marriage with her has been dissolved, and any minor child of his dependent whether wholly or partially upon him.

7. Persons migrating from the territories of Pakistan.-

Notwithstanding anything in sections 3, 4 and 6, a person who has after the first day of March, 1947, migrated from the territories now included in Pakistan to the territories now included in India has returned to the territories now included in Pakistan under a permit for resettlement or permanent return issued by or under the authority of any law for the time being in force.

8.Rights of Citizenship of certain persons residence abroad.

The Central Government may, upon application made to it in this behalf, register as a citizen of Pakistan any person who, or whose father or whose father's father, was born in the Indo-Pakistan sub-continent and who is ordinarily resident in a country outside Pakistan at the commencement of this Act, if he has, unless exempted by the Central Government in this behalf, obtained a certificate of domicile:

Provided that a certificate of domicile shall not be required in the case of any such person who is out of Pakistan under the protection of a Pakistan passport, or in the case of any such person whose father or whose father's father is at the commencement of this Act residing in Pakistan or becomes, before the aforesaid application is made, a citizen of Pakistan.

9.Citizenship by naturalisation.

The Central Government may, upon an application made to it in that behalf by any person who has been granted a certificate of naturalisation under the Naturalisation Act, 1926, register that person as a citizen of Pakistan by naturalisation:

Provided that the Central Government may register any person as a citizen of Pakistan without his having obtained a certificate of naturalisation as aforesaid.

10.Married Women.-

(1)Any woman who by reason of her marriage to a British subject before the first day of January, 1949, has acquired the status of a British subject shall, if her husband becomes a citizen of Pakistan, be a citizen of Pakistan.

(2)Subject to the provisions of sub-section (1) and sub-section (4) a woman who has been married to a citizen of Pakistan or to a person who but for his death would have been a citizen of Pakistan under sections 3, 4 or 5 shall be entitled, on making application therefor to the Central Government in the prescribed manner, and, if she is an alien, on obtaining a certificate of domicile and taking the oath of allegiance in the form set out in the Schedule to this Act, to be registered as a citizen of Pakistan whether or not she has completed twenty-one years of her age and is of full capacity.

(3) Subject as aforesaid, a woman who has been married to a person who, but for his death, could have been a citizen of Pakistan under the provisions of sub-section (1) of section 6 (whether he migrated as provided in that sub-section or is deemed under the proviso to section 7 to have so migrated) shall be entitled as provided in sub-section (2) subject further, if she is an alien, to her obtaining the certificate and taking the oath therein mentioned.

(4) A person who has ceased to be a citizen of Pakistan under section 14 or who has been deprived of citizenship of Pakistan under this Act shall not be entitled to be registered as a citizen thereof under this section but may be so registered with the previous consent of the Central Government.

11. Registration of minors.-

(1) The Central Government may, upon application to it in this behalf made in the prescribed manner by a parent or guardian of a minor child of a citizen of Pakistan, register the child as a citizen of Pakistan.

(2) The Central Government may, in such circumstances as it thinks fit, register any minor as a citizen of Pakistan.

12. Citizenship by registration to begin on date of registration.

Any person registered as a citizen of Pakistan shall be such a citizen from the date of his registration.

13. Citizenship by incorporation of territory.

If any territory becomes a part of Pakistan the Governor-General may, by order, specify the persons who shall be citizens of Pakistan by reason of their connection with that territory; and those persons shall be citizens of Pakistan from such date and upon such condition, if any, as may be specified in the order.

14. Dual Citizenship or nationality not permitted.

(1) Subject to the provisions of this section if any person is a citizen of Pakistan under the provisions of this Act, and is at the same time a citizen or national of any other country, he shall, unless [1]***he makes a declaration according to the laws of that other country renouncing his status as citizen or national thereof, cease to be a citizen of Pakistan.

(1A) Nothing in this sub-section (1) applies to a person who has not attained twenty-one years of his age.

(2) Nothing in sub-section (1) shall apply to any person who is a subject of an Acceding State so far as concerns his being a subject of that State.

15. Persons becoming citizens to have the status of Commonwealth citizens.

Every person becoming a citizen of Pakistan under this Act shall have the status of a Commonwealth citizen.

16. Deprivation of citizenship.

(1) A citizen of Pakistan shall cease to be a citizen of Pakistan if he is deprived of that citizenship by an order under the next following sub-sections.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this section the Central Government may by order deprive any such citizen of his citizenship if it is satisfied that he obtained his certificate of domicile or certificate of naturalisation under the Naturalisation Act, 1926 by means of fraud, false representation or the concealment of any material fact, or if his certificate of naturalisation is revoked.

(3) Subject to the provisions of this section the Central Government may by order deprive any person who is a citizen of Pakistan by naturalisation of his citizenship of Pakistan if it is satisfied that that citizen-

(a)has shown himself by any act or speech to be disloyal or disaffected to the Constitution of Pakistan; or

(b)has, during a war in which Pakistan is or has been engaged, unlawfully traded or communicated with the enemy or engaged in or associated with any business that was to his knowledge carried on in such a manner as to assist the enemy in that war; or

(c)has within five years of being naturalised been sentenced in any country to imprisonment for a term of not less than twelve months.

(4)The Central Government may on an application being made or on its own motion by order deprive any citizen of Pakistan of his citizenship if it is satisfied that he has been ordinarily resident in a country outside Pakistan for a continuous period of seven years beginning not earlier than the commencement of this Act and during that period has neither-

(i)been at any time in the service of any Government in Pakistan or of an international organisation of which Pakistan has, at any time during that period been a member; or

(ii)registered annually in the prescribed manner at a Pakistan Consulate or Mission or in a country where there is no Pakistan Consulate or Mission at the prescribed Consulate or Mission or at a Pakistan Consulate or Mission in a country nearest to the country of his residence his intention to retain Pakistan citizenship.

(5)The Central Government shall not make an order depriving a person of citizenship under this section unless it is satisfied that it is in the public interest that that person should not continue to be a citizen of Pakistan.

(6)Before making an order under this section the Central Government shall give the person against whom it is proposed to make the order notice in writing informing him of the grounds on which it is proposed to make the order and calling upon him to show cause why it should not be made.

(7)If it is proposed to make the order on any of the grounds specified in sub-section (2) and (3) of this section and the person against whom it is proposed to make the order applies in the prescribed manner for an inquiry, the Central Government shall, and in any other case may, refer the case to a committee of inquiry consisting of a chairman, being a person possessing judicial experience, appointed by the Central Government and of such other members appointed by the Central Government as it thinks proper.

17.Certificate of Domicile.

The Central Government may upon an application being made to it in the prescribed manner containing the prescribed particulars grant a certificate of domicile to any person in respect of whom it is satisfied that he has ordinarily resided in Pakistan for a period of no less than one year immediately before the making of the application, and has acquired a domicile therein.

18.Delegation of Powers.

The Central Government may, by order notified in the Official Gazette, direct that any power conferred upon it or duty imposed not it by this Act shall, in such circumstances, and under such conditions, if any, as may be specified in the direction, be exercised or discharged by such authority or officer as may be specified.

19. Cases of doubt as to citizenship.

(1)Where a person with respect to whose citizenship a doubt exists, whether on a question of law or fact, makes application in that behalf to the Central Government, the Central Government may grant him a certificate that at the date of the certificate he is a citizen of Pakistan.

(2)The certificate, unless it is proved to have been obtained by fraud, false representation or concealment of any material fact, shall be conclusive evidence of the fact recorded in it.

20.Acquisition of Pakistan citizenship by citizens of Commonwealth countries.-

The Central Government may upon such terms and conditions as it may by general or special order specify register a Commonwealth citizen or a British protected person as a citizen of Pakistan
