

World Day for Safety and Health at Work 2024

Climate Change and the World of Work: Challenges and Perspectives for Occupational Safety and Health in Latin America and the Caribbean

Agenda (Lima time):

|               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
|---------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 10.00 –10.05  | Welcome <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Tzvetomira Radoslavova, ILO Regional Occupational Safe and Health Specialist</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| 10.05 – 10.10 | Introductory notes from the Regional Bureau of the ILO Office for Latin America and the Caribbean. <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Ana Virginia Moreira Gomes, ILO Regional Director for Latin America and the Caribbean</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| 10.10 – 10.25 | Risks in the work environment caused and exacerbated by climate change. <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Ana Catalina Ramírez, Occupational Safety and Health Specialist, Labour Administration, Labour Inspection and Occupational Safety and Health Service (LABADMIN/OSH), ILO (Geneva)</li><li>• Ana Claudia Gastal Fassa, International Consultant on Workers' Health, Promotion and Social Determinants Unit, PAHO (Washington, D.C.)</li></ul>              |
| 10.25 – 10.50 | Measures and interventions to control risks in the work environment related to climate change: Ministers of Labour or Heads of OSH Departments, social insurances, labour inspections. <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Omar Nacib Estefan – General Director of Social Welfare, Ministry of Labour and Social Welfare (STPS -Mexico)</li><li>• Pamela Gana – Superintendent of Social Security, Ministry of Labour and Social Security (SUSESO) – Chile</li></ul> |

- Alexander Astorga – Vice Minister of Labour – Ministry of Labour and Social Security (MTSS) – Costa Rica
- Cristian Sergio Gatti – Technical Advisor, Prevention Management, Superintendence of Labour Risks (SRT) – Argentina
- Tomás Teijeiro – Inspector General of Labour and Social Security ministry of Labour and Social Security, Uruguay

10.50 – 11.10

The role of the social partners in the management of risks in the working environment related to climate change: Workers' Representatives and Employers' Representatives.

- Kaira Reece – Secretary for Sustainable Development – Trade Union Confederation of the Americas (TUCA)
- Michael Annisette – General Secretary – National Trade Union Center of Trinidad and Tobago (NATUC)
- Rafael Ernesto Kieckbusch – Director of Occupational Safety and Health – National Confederation of Industry (CNI)
- Ronald Ramlogan – Executive Director – Employers' Consultative Association of Trinidad and Tobago (ECATT)

11.10 – 11.20

Financing for adaptation to climate change: Financial Institutions.

- Bibiam Diaz – Education Specialist, Senior Executive, Management of Social Development Projects – Development Bank of Latin America (CAF) Education Specialist, Senior Executive, Director
- Paul Saunders – Operations Officer, Environmental Sustainability – Caribbean Development Bank (CDB)

11.20 – 11.25

Research on the impact of climate change on workers.

- Yéssica Calvario – Project Coordinator “Improving Occupational Safety and Health in selected supply chains in Mexico” – Vision Zero Fund, ILO

11.25 – 11.30

Q&

11.30

Closing

Language

Spanish and English with simultaneous translation.

Date

April 30, 2024.

Event format

The format of the event is online (webinar), through Zoom.

Schedule

09:00h (San José), 10:00h (Lima), 11:00h (Port of Spain), 12:00h (Santiago).