

International
Labour
Organization

► GB.352/INS/INF/2

For information

Governing Body

352nd Session, Geneva, 10–20 March 2025

Institutional Section

INS

Date: 11 October 2024

Original: English

Report on the status of pending representations submitted under article 24 of the ILO Constitution

Summary: As requested by the Governing Body, this document provides information on the status of pending representations submitted under article 24 of the ILO Constitution.

Author unit: International Labour Standards Department (NORMES).

Related documents: GB.334/PV, GB.349/INS/7.

1. At its 334th Session (October–November 2018), the Governing Body approved a series of measures concerning the operation of the procedure for the representations submitted under article 24 of the ILO Constitution and asked the Office to make available an information document on the status of pending representations at each March and November session of the Governing Body.<sup>1</sup> At its 349th Session (October–November 2023), the Governing Body reviewed certain measures based on experience accumulated in the meantime. Drawing on this experience, the Governing Body adopted at its 350th Session (March 2024), amendments to the Standing Orders concerning the procedure for the examination of representations under articles 24 and 25 of the Constitution and corresponding modifications to its Introductory note.<sup>2</sup>
2. The table below lists the representations submitted under article 24 of the ILO Constitution that are currently pending before the Governing Body. Taking into account, inter alia, the time elapsed since the submissions of certain representations and the change in membership of the Governing Body which resulted in a need to reconstitute a number of ad hoc committees, including for representations before the Committee on Freedom of Association (CFA), the designation of members is urgently awaited in 12 ad hoc tripartite committees.
3. In particular:
  - The designation of a Government member is urgently awaited in 11 committees:
    - Argentina (Indigenous and Tribal Peoples Convention, 1989 (No. 169));
    - Chile (Maritime Labour Convention, 2006, as amended, and Promotional Framework for Occupational Safety and Health Convention, 2006 (No. 187));
    - Dominican Republic (Protection of Wages Convention, 1949 (No. 95), the Social Security (Minimum Standards) Convention, 1952 (No. 102), the Discrimination (Employment and Occupation) Convention, 1958 (No. 111), and the Equality of Treatment (Social Security) Convention, 1962 (No. 118));
    - Ecuador (Indigenous and Tribal Peoples Convention, 1989 (No. 169));
    - Mexico (Social Security (Minimum Standards) Convention, 1952 (No. 102), Labour Administration Convention, 1978 (No. 150), Occupational Safety and Health Convention, 1981 (No. 155), and Chemicals Convention, 1990 (No. 170));
    - Portugal (Nursing Personnel Convention, 1977 (No. 149));
    - Romania (Social Security (Minimum Standards) Convention, 1952 (No. 102));
    - Serbia (two representations, Conventions Nos 29, 81, 87, 94, 97, 98, 143, 150, 155, 167, 187);
    - Serbia (Minimum Wage Fixing Convention, 1970 (No. 131));
    - Sri Lanka (Tripartite Consultation (International Labour Standards) Convention, 1976 (No. 144)); and
    - Uruguay (Occupational Safety and Health Convention, 1981 (No. 155), and Occupational Health Services Convention, 1985 (No. 161)).

---

<sup>1</sup> GB.334/PV, para. 288(1)(b).

<sup>2</sup> GB.350/PV, para. 919, as amended by the Governing Body.

- The designation of an Employer member is urgently awaited in eight committees:
  - Chile (Indigenous and Tribal Peoples Convention, 1989 (No. 169));
  - Chile (Maritime Labour Convention, 2006, as amended, and Promotional Framework for Occupational Safety and Health Convention, 2006 (No. 187));
  - Dominican Republic (Protection of Wages Convention, 1949 (No. 95), the Social Security (Minimum Standards) Convention, 1952 (No. 102), the Discrimination (Employment and Occupation) Convention, 1958 (No. 111), and the Equality of Treatment (Social Security) Convention, 1962 (No. 118));
  - Ecuador (Indigenous and Tribal Peoples Convention, 1989 (No. 169));
  - Portugal (Nursing Personnel Convention, 1977 (No. 149));
  - Serbia (two representations), Conventions Nos 29, 81, 87, 94, 97, 98, 143, 150, 155, 167, 187);
  - Sri Lanka (Tripartite Consultation (International Labour Standards) Convention, 1976 (No. 144)); and
  - Uruguay (Occupational Safety and Health Convention, 1981 (No. 155), and Occupational Health Services Convention, 1985 (No. 161)).
- The designation of a Worker member is urgently awaited in two committees:
  - Chile (Maritime Labour Convention, 2006, as amended, and Promotional Framework for Occupational Safety and Health Convention, 2006 (No. 187));
  - Sri Lanka (Tripartite Consultation (International Labour Standards) Convention, 1976 (No. 144)).
- Voluntary conciliation is underway in 10 cases:
  - Argentina (Indigenous and Tribal Peoples Convention, 1989 (No. 169));
  - Argentina (Labour Inspection Convention, 1947 (No. 81), Occupational Cancer Convention, 1974 (No. 139), Occupational Safety and Health Convention, 1981 (No. 155) and its 2002 Protocol, and Promotional Framework for Occupational Safety and Health Convention, 2006 (No. 187));
  - Chile (Forced Labour Convention, 1930 (No. 29), Employment Policy Convention, 1964 (No. 122), and Promotional Framework for Occupational Safety and Health Convention, 2006 (No. 187));
  - Chile (Freedom of Association and Protection of the Right to Organise Convention, 1948 (No. 87), and Right to Organise and Collective Bargaining Convention, 1949 (No. 98));
  - Chile (two representations, Freedom of Association and Protection of the Right to Organise Convention, 1948 (No. 87), Right to Organise and Collective Bargaining Convention, 1949 (No. 98), Discrimination (Employment and Occupation) Convention, 1958 (No. 111), and Labour Relations (Public Service) Convention, 1978 (No. 151));
  - Chile (Maritime Labour Convention, 2006, as amended, and Promotional Framework for Occupational Safety and Health Convention, 2006 (No. 187));
  - Namibia (Forced Labour Convention, 1930 (No. 29), Labour Inspection Convention, 1947 (No. 81), Termination of Employment Convention, 1982 (No. 158), and Work in Fishing Convention, 2007 (No. 188));

- Sri Lanka (Tripartite Consultation (International Labour Standards) Convention, 1976 (No. 144)); and
- Uruguay (Hours of Work (Industry) Convention, 1919 (No. 1), Hours of Work (Commerce and Offices) Convention, 1930 (No. 30), and Occupational Safety and Health Convention, 1981 (No. 155)).

| Country   | Convention                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | Complainant organizations                                                                                                                                                                                   | Representation status                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|-----------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Argentina | Freedom of Association and Protection of the Right to Organise Convention, 1948 (No. 87), Right to Organise and Collective Bargaining Convention, 1949 (No. 98), Labour Relations (Public Service) Convention, 1978 (No. 151), and Collective Bargaining Convention, 1981 (No. 154) | Two representations submitted by the Federation of Trade Unions of Municipal Workers of Santa Fe Province (FESTRAM) and the Federation of Municipal Trade Unions of Santa Fe Province (FESIM), respectively | At its 342nd Session (June 2021), the Governing Body decided that both representations were receivable and, as they relate to Conventions dealing with trade union rights, to transmit them to the Committee on Freedom of Association (CFA) for examination as per the procedures set out in the Standing Orders on articles 24 and 25 of the Constitution (GB.342/INS/9/6, paragraph 7). Both representations are pending at the CFA.                                                                                             |
| Argentina | Indigenous and Tribal Peoples Convention, 1989 (No. 169)                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | Association of State Workers (ATE) of the Province of Córdoba and the Press Trade Union Centre (CISPREN) of the Province of Córdoba                                                                         | At its 346th Session (October–November 2022), the Governing Body decided that the representation was receivable and to set up a tripartite committee to examine it (GB.346/INS/18/8, paragraph 5). The parties jointly accepted voluntary conciliation with ILO assistance which is in process. The ad hoc tripartite committee was established but following Governing Body elections, designation of a new Government member is awaited.                                                                                          |
| Argentina | Labour Inspection Convention, 1947 (No. 81), Occupational Cancer Convention, 1974 (No. 139), Occupational Safety and Health Convention, 1981 (No. 155) and its 2002 Protocol, and Promotional Framework for Occupational Safety and Health Convention, 2006 (No. 187)               | Confederation of Workers of Argentina (CTA) y Trade Union Association of Subway and Light Rail Workers (AGTSyP)                                                                                             | At its 349th Session (October–November 2023), the Governing Body decided:(a) that the complaint was not receivable in relation to the Protocol of 2002 to Convention No. 155;(b) that the complaint was receivable in relation to Conventions Nos 81, 139, 155 and 187, and that it would set up a tripartite committee to examine it (GB.349/INS/19/7, paragraph 5).In the process of designating members of the ad hoc tripartite committee. The parties jointly accepted voluntary conciliation which is in process. |

| Country   | Convention                                                                                                                                                          | Complainant organizations                                                                                                                                     | Representation status                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
|-----------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Argentina | Freedom of Association and Protection of the Right to Organise Convention, 1948 (No. 87), and Right to Organise and Collective Bargaining Convention, 1949 (No. 98) | Industrial Organization of Argentina (UIA)                                                                                                                    | At its 349th Session (October–November 2023), the Governing Body decided that the representation was receivable and, as it relates to Conventions dealing with trade union rights, to refer it to the Committee on Freedom of Association (CFA) for examination in accordance with articles 24 and 25 of the ILO Constitution (GB.349/INS/19/8, paragraph 5). The representation is pending at the CFA.  |
| Brazil    | Labour Relations (Public Service) Convention, 1978 (No. 151)                                                                                                        | Confederation of Brazilian Trade Unions (CSB) and Union of Civil Servants of the Federal Legislative Authority and the Federal Court of Auditors (SINDILEGIS) | At its 346th Session (October–November 2022), the Governing Body decided that the representation was receivable and, as it relates to a Convention dealing with trade union rights, to refer it to the Committee on Freedom of Association (CFA) for examination in accordance with articles 24 and 25 of the ILO Constitution (GB.346/INS/18/9, paragraph 5). The representation is pending at the CFA. |
| Chile     | Old-Age Insurance (Industry, etc.) Convention, 1933 (No. 35), and Invalidity Insurance (Industry, etc.) Convention, 1933 (No. 37)                                   | National Federation of Municipal Workers of Chile (FENTRAMUCH)                                                                                                | At its 340th Session (October–November 2020), the Governing Body decided that the representation was receivable and to set up an ad hoc tripartite committee to examine it (GB.340/INS/19/1, paragraph 5). The ad hoc tripartite committee has been established and has adopted its report which will be presented to the Governing Body at its 352nd Session (October–November 2024).                   |
| Chile     | Old-Age Insurance (Industry, etc.) Convention, 1933 (No. 35), and Invalidity Insurance (Industry, etc.) Convention, 1933 (No. 37)                                   | National Federation of Municipal Workers of Chile (FENTRAMUCH)                                                                                                | At its 349th Session (October–November 2023), the Governing Body decided that the representation was receivable and, considering that it concerns issues similar to those raised in another representation (GB.340/INS/19/1), it should be examined jointly by the same tripartite committee. (GB.349/INS/19/13, paragraph 6). See above for information on the current status.                          |

| Country | Convention                                                                                                                                                                     | Complainant organizations                                                                                                                                    | Representation status                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
|---------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Chile   | Maritime Labour Convention, 2006, as amended, and Promotional Framework for Occupational Safety and Health Convention, 2006 (No. 187)                                          | National Federation of Unions of Officers of Merchant and Special Vessels of Chile (FENASIOMECHI) and Federation of Maritime and Seafarers' Unions (FESIMAR) | At its 351st Session (June 2024), the Governing Body decided that the representation was receivable and to set up an ad hoc tripartite committee to examine it while granting a suspension of the examination of the merits of the representation under the conditions set out in article 5, paragraph 1 of the Standing Orders concerning the procedure for the examination of representations under articles 24 and 25 (GB.351/INS/12/1, paragraph 5). The parties jointly accepted voluntary conciliation with ILO assistance which is in process.In the process of designating members of the ad hoc tripartite committee.Designation of the Government, Employer and Worker members is urgently awaited. |
| Chile   | Indigenous and Tribal Peoples Convention, 1989 (No. 169)                                                                                                                       | National Federation of Education Workers (FENATED) and Ruka Pillán Enterprise Trade Union of the Araucanía Teaching Foundation (FMDA)                        | At its 348th Session (June 2023), the Governing Body decided that the representation was receivable and to set up an ad hoc tripartite committee to examine it (GB.348/INS/6/3, paragraph 5).In the process of designating members of the ad hoc tripartite committee.Designation of the Employer member is urgently awaited.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| Chile   | Forced Labour Convention, 1930 (No. 29), Employment Policy Convention, 1964 (No. 122), and Promotional Framework for Occupational Safety and Health Convention, 2006 (No. 187) | Líder Inter-Enterprise Union of Workers of Walmart Chile (SIL)                                                                                               | At its 349th Session (October–November 2023), the Governing Body decided that the representation was receivable and to set up a tripartite committee to examine it (GB.349/INS/19/6, paragraph 5). In the process of designating members of the ad hoc tripartite committee. The parties jointly accepted voluntary conciliation with ILO assistance which is in process.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |

| Country | Convention                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | Complainant organizations                                                                                                                  | Representation status                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
|---------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Chile   | Freedom of Association and Protection of the Right to Organise Convention, 1948 (No. 87), Right to Organise and Collective Bargaining Convention, 1949 (No. 98), Discrimination (Employment and Occupation) Convention, 1958 (No. 111), and Labour Relations (Public Service) Convention, 1978 (No. 151) | National Association of Officials of the Civil Registry and Identification Service of Chile (ANFURCICH)                                    | At its 349th Session (October–November 2023), the Governing Body decided: (a) that the representations were not receivable in respect of Convention No. 111; (b) that they were receivable in respect of Conventions Nos 87, 98 and 151, and as they related to Conventions dealing with trade union rights, to transmit them to the Committee on Freedom of Association (CFA) for examination in accordance with articles 24 and 25 of the ILO Constitution. Furthermore, given that the two representations made by ANFURCICH contained similar allegations, it was decided that they should be examined together in the framework of a single representation (GB.349/INS/19/10, paragraph 6). The representations are pending at the CFA. The parties jointly accepted voluntary conciliation with ILO assistance which is in process. |
| Chile   | Freedom of Association and Protection of the Right to Organise Convention, 1948 (No. 87), Right to Organise and Collective Bargaining Convention, 1949 (No. 98), Discrimination (Employment and Occupation) Convention, 1958 (No. 111), and Labour Relations (Public Service) Convention, 1978 (No. 151) | National Federation of Municipal Workers of Chile (FENTRAMUCH)                                                                             | At its 349th Session (October–November 2023), the Governing Body decided: (a) that the representation was not receivable in relation to Convention No. 111; (b) that it was receivable in relation to Conventions Nos 87, 98 and 151, and as it relates to Conventions dealing with trade union rights, to transmit it to the Committee on Freedom of Association (CFA) for examination in accordance with articles 24 and 25 of the ILO Constitution (GB.349/INS/19/11, paragraph 5). The representation is pending at the CFA. The parties jointly accepted voluntary conciliation with ILO assistance which is in process.                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| Chile   | Freedom of Association and Protection of the Right to Organise Convention, 1948 (No. 87), and Right to Organise and Collective Bargaining Convention, 1949 (No. 98)                                                                                                                                      | Caletones Workers' Union, Chuquicamata Workers' Union, Potrerillos Workers' Union No. 2 and the Single Confederation of Trade Unions (CUT) | At its 349th Session (October–November 2023), the Governing Body decided that the representation was receivable and, as it relates to Conventions dealing with trade union rights, to refer it to the Committee on Freedom of Association (CFA) for examination in accordance with articles 24 and 25 of the ILO Constitution (GB.349/INS/19/12, paragraph 5). The representation is pending at the CFA. The parties jointly accepted voluntary conciliation with ILO assistance which is in process.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |

| Country            | Convention                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | Complainant organizations                                                                                                                                                                       | Representation status                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
|--------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Costa Rica         | Freedom of Association and Protection of the Right to Organise Convention, 1948 (No. 87), Right to Organise and Collective Bargaining Convention, 1949 (No. 98), and Workers' Representatives Convention, 1971 (No. 135)                                     | Rerum Novarum Confederation of Workers (CTRN), Costa Rican Workers' Movement Confederation (CMTC), Unitary Confederation of Workers (CUT), and Juanito Mora Porras Social Confederation (CSJMP) | At its 328th Session (October–November 2016), the Governing Body decided that the representation was receivable and, by virtue of article 3(2) of the Standing Orders, and since the representation related to a Convention dealing with trade union rights, it was referred to the Committee on Freedom of Association (CFA) for examination in accordance with articles 24 and 25 of the Constitution (GB.328/INS/18/3, paragraph 5).The case is currently pending before the CFA.                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Dominican Republic | Protection of Wages Convention, 1949 (No. 95), Social Security (Minimum Standards) Convention, 1952 (No. 102), Discrimination (Employment and Occupation) Convention, 1958 (No. 111), and Equality of Treatment (Social Security) Convention, 1962 (No. 118) | Union for Career Diplomats of the Dominican Republic (UDICARD)                                                                                                                                  | At its 351st Session (June 2024), the Governing Body decided:(a) that the representation was not receivable in relation to Equality of Treatment (Social Security) Convention, 1962 (No. 118);(b) that it was receivable in relation to Protection of Wages Convention, 1949 (No. 95), Social Security (Minimum Standards) Convention, 1952 (No. 102), and Discrimination (Employment and Occupation) Convention, 1958 (No. 111), and to set up a tripartite committee to examine it (GB.351/INS/12/2, paragraph 10).In the process of designating members of the ad hoc tripartite committee.Designation of the Government and Employer members is urgently awaited. |
| Ecuador            | Indigenous and Tribal Peoples Convention, 1989 (No. 169)                                                                                                                                                                                                     | Ecuadorian Confederation of Free Trade Union Organizations (CEOSL)                                                                                                                              | At its 351st Session (June 2024), the Governing Body decided that the presentation was receivable and to appoint a tripartite committee to examine it (GB.351/INS/12/3, paragraph 5). In the process of designating members of the ad hoc tripartite committee.Designation of the Government and Employer members is urgently awaited.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| Mexico             | Social Security (Minimum Standards) Convention, 1952 (No. 102), Labour Administration Convention, 1978 (No. 150), Occupational Safety and Health Convention, 1981 (No. 155), and Chemicals Convention, 1990 (No. 170)                                        | National Union of Mining and Metallurgy Industry Workers (CTM)                                                                                                                                  | At its 345th Session (June 2022), the Governing Body decided:(a) that the representation was not receivable in relation to Conventions Nos 150 and 170;(b) that it was receivable in relation to Conventions Nos 102 and 155, and to set up a tripartite committee to examine it (GB.345/INS/6/2, paragraph 5).The deadline for suspension due to conciliation procedure has expired.In the process of designating members of the ad hoc tripartite committee.Designation of the Government member is urgently awaited.                                                                                                                                           |

| Country  | Convention                                                                                                                                                                                 | Complainant organizations                                            | Representation status                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|----------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Namibia  | Forced Labour Convention, 1930 (No. 29), Labour Inspection Convention, 1947 (No. 81), Termination of Employment Convention, 1982 (No. 158), and Work in Fishing Convention, 2007 (No. 188) | Namibia Fisherman United Association (United Seafarer's Association) | At its 350th Session (March 2024), the Governing Body decided that the representation was receivable and to set up a tripartite committee to examine it (GB.350/INS/18/4, paragraph 7).In the process of designating members of the ad hoc tripartite committee.The parties jointly accepted voluntary conciliation with ILO assistance which is in process.                                                            |
| Portugal | Nursing Personnel Convention, 1977 (No. 149)                                                                                                                                               | Portuguese Nurses' Union (SEP)                                       | At its 340th Session (October–November 2020), the Governing Body decided that the representation was receivable and to set up an ad hoc tripartite committee to examine it (GB.340/INS/19/10, paragraph 5).The Government has communicated its observations.In the process of designating members of the ad hoc tripartite committee.Designation of the Government and Employer members is urgently awaited. |
| Romania  | Social Security (Minimum Standards) Convention, 1952 (No. 102)                                                                                                                             | National Trade Union Confederation – Cartel Alfa (NTUC-Cartel-Alfa)  | At its 346th Session (October–November 2022), the Governing Body decided that the representation was receivable and to set up a tripartite committee to examine it (GB.346/INS/18/4, paragraph 5).The Government has communicated its observations.In the process of designating members of the ad hoc tripartite committee.Designation of the Government member is urgently awaited.                        |
| Serbia   | Minimum Wage Fixing Convention, 1970 (No. 131)                                                                                                                                             | The Association of Teachers' Syndicates of Vojvodina                 | At its 346th Session (October–November 2022), the Governing Body decided that the representation was receivable and to set up a tripartite committee to examine it (GB.346/INS/18/7, paragraph 5).In the process of designating members of the ad hoc tripartite committee.Designation of the Government member is urgently awaited.                                                                             |

| Country | Convention                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | Complainant organizations                                                                                                                            | Representation status                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
|---------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Serbia  | Forced Labour Convention, 1930 (No. 29), Labour Inspection Convention, 1947 (No. 81), Freedom of Association and Protection of the Right to Organise Convention, 1948 (No. 87), Labour Clauses (Public Contracts) Convention, 1949 (No. 94), Migration for Employment Convention (Revised), 1949 (No. 97), Right to Organise and Collective Bargaining Convention, 1949 (No. 98), Migrant Workers (Supplementary Provisions) Convention, 1975 (No. 143), Labour Administration Convention, 1978 (No. 150), Occupational Safety and Health Convention, 1981 (No. 155), Safety and Health in Construction Convention, 1988 (No. 167), and Promotional Framework for Occupational Safety and Health Convention, 2006 (No. 187) | Building and Wood Workers' International (BWI), the Construction Labour Union (CLU) and the Thamizhaga Kattida Thozhilalargal Mathiya Sangam (TKTMS) | At its 347th Session (March 2023), the Governing Body decided: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>(a) that the representation was receivable and to set up an ad hoc tripartite committee to examine it;</li> <li>(b) that, considering that the representation concerns issues similar to those raised in another representation, the two cases should be examined jointly by the same tripartite committee;</li> <li>(c) to refer the elements of the representation regarding non-observance of Convention No. 87 to the Committee on Freedom of Association (CFA) for examination in accordance with the procedure set out in the Standing Orders on articles 24 and 25 of the ILO Constitution (GB.347/INS/19/5, paragraph 6).</li> </ul> The elements concerning trade union rights are pending before the CFA. In the process of designating members of the ad hoc tripartite committee. Designation of the Government and Employer members is urgently awaited. |

| Country | Convention                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | Complainant organizations                                                                                                                      | Representation status                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
|---------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Serbia  | Forced Labour Convention, 1930 (No. 29), Labour Inspection Convention, 1947 (No. 81), Freedom of Association and Protection of the Right to Organise Convention, 1948 (No. 87), Labour Clauses (Public Contracts) Convention, 1949 (No. 94), Migration for Employment Convention (Revised), 1949 (No. 97), Right to Organise and Collective Bargaining Convention, 1949 (No. 98), Migrant Workers (Supplementary Provisions) Convention, 1975 (No. 143), Labour Administration Convention, 1978 (No. 150), and Safety and Health in Construction Convention, 1988 (No. 167) | Building and Wood Workers' International (BWI) and the Trade Union of Construction and Building Material Industry Workers of Serbia (TUCBMIWS) | At its 347th Session (March 2023), the Governing Body decided: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>(a) that the representation was receivable and to set up an ad hoc tripartite committee to examine it;</li> <li>(b) that, considering that the representation concerns issues similar to those raised in another representation, the two cases should be examined jointly by the same tripartite committee; see above for information on the current status.</li> <li>(c) to refer the elements of the representation regarding non-observance of Convention No. 87 to the Committee on Freedom of Association (CFA) for examination in accordance with the procedure set out in the Standing Orders on articles 24 and 25 of the ILO Constitution (GB.347/INS/19/4, paragraph 6).</li> </ul> The elements concerning trade union rights are pending before the CFA. |

| Country   | Convention                                                                          | Complainant organizations                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | Representation status                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
|-----------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Sri Lanka | Tripartite Consultation (International Labour Standards) Convention, 1976 (No. 144) | Free Trade Zones & General Services Employees' Union (FTZ & GSEU), Ceylon Estates Staffs' Union (CESU), United Federation of Labour, Sri Lanka National Union of Seafarers, Lanka Jathika Estate Workers' Union, Ceylon Bank Employees' Union (CBEU), Ceylon Federation of Trade Unions, Sri Lanka Nidahas Sewaka Sangamaya, Inter-Company Employees Union (ICEU), Ceylon Mercantile Industrial & General Workers Union (CMU) | At its 348th Session (June 2023), the Governing Body decided that the representation was receivable and to set up an ad hoc tripartite committee to examine it (GB.348/INS/6/4, paragraph 6).In the process of designating members of the ad hoc tripartite committee. The parties accepted voluntary conciliation which is in process.Designation of the Government, Employer and Worker members of the tripartite committee is urgently awaited. |
| Sudan     | Discrimination (Employment and Occupation) Convention, 1958 (No. 111)               | Sudan Workers Trade Union Federation (SWTUF)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | At its 342nd Session (June 2021), the Governing Body decided that the representation was receivable and to set up a tripartite committee to examine it (GB.342/INS/9/3, paragraph 5).The ad hoc tripartite committee has been established and has adopted its report which will be presented to the Governing Body at its 352nd Session (October–November 2024).                                                                                              |
| Sudan     | Discrimination (Employment and Occupation) Convention, 1958 (No. 111)               | Sudanese Independent Trade Union Organizations (SITUO)                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | At its 345th Session (June 2022), the Governing Body decided that the representation was receivable and that it would be examined by the same tripartite committee that is examining the representation submitted by the Sudan Workers Trade Union Federation (SWTUF) (GB.345/INS/6/1, paragraph 6).See above for information on the current status.                                                                                                          |

| Country | Convention                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | Complainant organizations                                                                                                    | Representation status                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
|---------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Sudan   | Freedom of Association and Protection of the Right to Organise Convention, 1948 (No. 87)                                                                                                                                                   | Sudan Journalists Syndicate                                                                                                  | At its 348th Session (June 2023), the Governing Body decided that the representation was receivable and, as it relates to a Convention dealing with trade union rights, to transmit the representation to the Committee on Freedom of Association (CFA) for examination as per the procedures set out in the Standing Orders on articles 24 and 25 of the ILO Constitution (GB.348/INS/6/1, paragraph 5).The representation is currently pending at the CFA.                                                                                                                                     |
| Uruguay | Freedom of Association and Protection of the Right to Organise Convention, 1948 (No. 87), Right to Organise and Collective Bargaining Convention, 1949 (No. 98), and Discrimination (Employment and Occupation) Convention, 1958 (No. 111) | Association of Locally Employed Functionaries of the Diplomatic Missions and Consular Offices of Uruguay Abroad (ASFUCOUREX) | At its 344th Session (March 2022), the Governing Body decided that the representation was not receivable in relation to Convention No. 111. The Governing Body decided that the representation was receivable in relation to Conventions Nos 87 and 98, and as it relates to Conventions dealing with trade union rights. It referred it to the Committee on Freedom of Association (CFA) for examination in accordance with the procedure set out in the Standing Orders on articles 24 and 25 of the ILO Constitution (GB.344/INS/17/2, paragraph 5).The representation is pending at the CFA. |
| Uruguay | Occupational Safety and Health Convention, 1981 (No. 155), and Occupational Health Services Convention, 1985 (No. 161)                                                                                                                     | Association of Public Servants of the Ministry of Livestock, Agriculture and Fisheries (AFGAP)                               | At its 350th Session (March 2024), the Governing Body decided that the representation was receivable and to set up a tripartite committee to examine it (GB.350/INS/18/2, paragraph 5).In the process of designating members of the ad hoc tripartite committee.Designation of the Government and Employer members is urgently awaited.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |