

Agenda

Regional training and peer-to-peer knowledge sharing event on production of strengthening labour migration statistics for countries in EHoA

21 - 25 October 2024

Ramada Resort, Dar es Salaam, Tanzania

Day 1 – 21 October 2024

Guidelines on International Labour Migration statistics

Time	Session	Session content overview	Methodology /Facilitator	Moderator
08.30-9.00		Registration		Selamawit Seifu, FAA, ILO
09:00 – 10:00	Getting to know each other & objective: Introduction, Agenda and Objective of the w/shop	- Getting to know one another - Participants are aware of the objective and expected results of the workshop	Participatory Plenary session: - Ask everyone to introduce themselves, their name, one thing they understand about social protection and labour migration and what they are doing now. - Presentation of the agenda and objective Facilitator: Yonas Zewdie, National Communications Officer, BRMM, ILO	Yonas Zewdie, National Communications Officer, BRMM, ILO
09:00 – 10:00	Welcoming and opening Remarks By ILO, Workers, Employers & Government	Deliver key messages from organizers and partners of the program	Welcoming and Opening remarks by: - Ms. Aida Awel, Chief Technical Advisor, BRMM Program, ILO - Mr. Renatus Mbamilo, Head of Research & Policy Advocacy, Association of Tanzania Employers (ATE) - Ms. Nasra Shargy, Director of Gender, Youth and Persons with Disability, Trade Union Congress of Tanzania (TUCTA) - Mr. Denniss Assey, Senior Community Development Officer, Prime Minister's Office, Labour, Youth, Employment and Persons with Disability - Official opening by Dr Albina Chuwa, Statistician General, Tanzania National Bureau of Statistics (NBS)	Yonas Zewdie, National Communications Officer, BRMM, ILO

10:00-10:30	Health Break
10:30 – 11:30	Session 1: ICLS Guidelines on International Labour Migration Statistics	Draft revised Guidelines on International Labour Migration statistics, indicators and data sources.	Presentation followed by a Q&A Session Objective: Participants are introduced to the most recent guidelines regarding the production of Labour migration statistics and other labour market statistics Facilitator: Elisa Benes, Head, Rights, Migration & Skills Statistics Unit, ILO	Mr. Joseph Njue, Ag Director, Labour Migration, National Employment Authority, Republic of Kenya
11:30 – 12:30	Session 2: Recruitment costs for migrant workers	- Indicator 10.7.1: Recruitment costs of migrant workers; case studies - Country experience with collecting data on cost recruitment.	Presentation followed by a Q&A Session and Country Presentation Objective: To share knowledge about the indicator on Recruitment costs borne by the Migrant worker, as an indicator of Fair recruitment Facilitators: Nadia Touihri, Regional Labour Statistician & Elisa Benes, Head, Rights, Migration & Skills Statistics Unit, ILO	Mr. Mahdi Mohamoud Ali, Sr. Advisor for TVET and Labour Migration, Ministry of Labor and Social Affairs, Republic of Somalia
12.30-13.30	Lunch Break
13.30-15.00	Session 3: Global estimates and the ILMS Questionnaire	- Global estimate of international migrant workers - ILO-AU annual ILMS questionnaire, relevance and national reporting - Reporting using national data -Ethiopia – Million Taye, Ethiopian Statistics Service (ESS) -Tanzania –Hashim Njowele National Bureau of Statistics	Virtual Presentations followed by a Q&A session Objective: Participants to gain knowledge about the content and uses of the ILMS database, and appreciate the importance of submitting timely and accurate national data Facilitator: Andonirina Rakotonarivo, Labour Statistician, ILO	Eng. Getahun Hussein, President, Confederation of Ethiopian Employers' Federation (CEEFF), Republic of Ethiopia
15.00-17.00	Session 4: Handson exercise	Complete ILMS questionnaire using available national data	Participants are grouped by country, and they will update the ILMS questionnaire using latest data from their respective institutions Objective: Participants to gain experience in using national data to populate the ILMS database Facilitator: Nadia Touihri, Regional Labour Statistician, ILO	Mr. Adwok Bol, Ministry of Labour, Republic of South Sudan
17.00hrs	Health Break & End of Day 1

Day 2 - 22 October 2024

Mapping and Assessment of International Labour Migration Data Sources

Time	Session	Session Content Overview	Methodology	Moderator
09.00-10.30	Session 5: Overview of the Guide on Mapping and Assessment of Data Sources	- Complementarity of data sources - Guide objective, structure, and templates - Mapping and assessing process; step by step. - National adaptation and priority indicator - Presentation of regional experience in assessment of data sources, Charles Ogolla, IGAD	Presentation followed by a Q&A session Objective: Participants to gain a better appreciation of the importance, and the process of undertaking an assessment of ILM data sources, and its contribution to improving the quality and availability of LM statistics. Facilitator: Elisa Benes, Head, Rights, Migration & Skills Statistics Unit, ILO	Mr. Abdirahman Mohamud Mohamed, Secretary General, Federation of Somali Trade Unions (FETSU), Republic of Somalia
10.30-11.00	Health Break
11.00-12.30	Session 6: Country presentation	- Ethiopia – Sehin Mewawi Helinaab, Ethiopian Statistics Service (ESS) - Uganda – Ms. Diana Nabukalu, Senior Statistician, Labour Statistics, Uganda Bureau of Statistics (UBOS) - Tanzania – Ms. Ms Rainer Kiama, Senior Statistician, National Bureau of Statistics - Djibouti – Mr. Hamza Abdi Moussa, Institut de la Statistique de Djibouti (INSTAD)	Participants are grouped by country, and they will carry out a mapping of the various data sources in the country Objective: Sharing of country experiences about the known data sources in their countries, strengths and weaknesses Facilitator: Andrew Mukulu, Technical Specialist, Labour Migration Statistics, BRMM, ILO	Mr. Omar Aroun, Ministry of Labour in Charge of Formalization and Social Protection, Republic of Djibouti

12.30-13.30	Lunch Break
13.30-15.00	Session 7: Assessment by type of data source	- Population Censuses - Household surveys - Administrative sources	Presentations followed by a Q&A session Objective: Participants to gain a better appreciation of the importance, and the process of undertaking an assessment of ILM data sources, and its contribution to improving the quality and availability of LM statistics. Facilitators: Elisa Benes, Head, Rights, Migration & Skills Statistics Unit, & Andrew Mukulu, Technical Specialist, Labour Migration Statistics, BRMM, ILO	Mr. Bol Andrew Wieu, Chairperson, Employers Association of South Sudan (EASS), Republic of South Sudan
15.00 – 17.00	Session 8: Group work	Group exercise in mapping priority indicators, relevant institutions and data sources, and a preliminary assessment by source based on what they may know about the sources in their country.	Participants are grouped by country, and they undertake a mapping of data sources and an assessment of at least one data source from their respective countries. Objective: Participants get hands-on experience on use of the ILO Guide to carry out a mapping and assessment of data sources from their institutions Facilitator: Andrew Mukulu, Technical Specialist, Labour Migration Statistics, BRMM, ILO	Ms. Teresa Wabuko, COTU-K, Republic of Kenya
17:00	Health Break& End of Day 2

Day 3 - 23 October 2024

Analysis of population census data on international labour migration

09.00-10.30	Session 9: Guide on census data analysis	- Guide objective and structure - Population census as a source of data on international labour migration - Census design considerations for International Labour Migration - Tabulation Analysis and dissemination	Presentation followed by a Q&A session Objective: Participants get to appreciate the value of census data in capturing detailed demographic and socio-economic characteristics of international labour migrants. Facilitators: Nadia Touibri, Regional Labour Statistician & Andrew Mukulu, Technical Specialist, Labour Migration Statistics, BRMM, ILO	Ms. Nasra Shargy, Director of Gender, Youth and Persons with Disability, Trade Union Congress of Tanzania (TUCTA), United Republic of Tanzania
10.30 – 11.00	Health break

11.00 – 12.30	Session 10: Country illustrations on analysis of census data on labour migration	- Djibouti – Hamza Abdi Moussa, Institut de la Statistique de Djibouti (INSTAD) - Kenya –Benson Karugu, Kenya National Bureau of Statistics (KNBS) - Tanzania- Hashim Njowe, Senior Statistician, National Bureau of Statistics	Presentations with country-specific illustrations from the 2020 census, followed by a Q&A session Objective: to share country in the use of population census data Facilitators: Nadia Touibri, Regional Labour Statistician, ILO	Mr. Kabi Geoffrey, Employment Relations Officer, Federation of Uganda Employers (FUE), Republic of Uganda
12.30-13.30	Lunch Break
13.30- 16.30	Session 11: Group work	Group exercises on population census and/or sample household survey data analysis.	Participants are grouped by country, and they identify LM indicators that can be obtained from their respective most recent population census ✓ Identify the different categories of international labour migrants ✓ Identify a core labour market characteristics of the migrant workers ✓ Map census questions that can be used to generate that indicator Objective: Participants are able to use the knowledge gained to identify possible LM indicators from their most recent population census. Facilitators: Nadia Touibri, Regional Labour Statistician & Andrew Mukulu, Technical Specialist, Labour Migration Statistics, BRMM, ILO	Mr. Pasqueala Michael Apai, Secretary for Foreign affairs, South Sudan Workers Trade Union Federation (SSWTUF), Republic of South Sudan
16:30	Health Break& End of Day 3

Day 4 - 24 October 2024

Implementation of a national Labour Market Information System

9.00-10.30	Session 12: LMIS Guide	- Guide objective and structure - Dissemination of Labour Migration information; The case of using the Labour	Presentation followed by a Q&A session Objective: To appreciate the Labour Market Information System (LMIS) as a vital tool for improving the dissemination of Labour Market Information for evidence-based decision-making	Mr. Bezawork Ketema Betemariam, Ministry of Labour and Social Affairs, Republic of Ethiopia
------------	-------------------------------	--	---	---

		Market Information System (LMIS)	Facilitator: Weichen Lei, Statistical Knowledge Management Officer, ILO
10.30- 11.00	Health Break
11.00-12.30	Session 13: Country presentations on the implementation of a national LMIS	- Uganda – Lilian Nangendo, Principal Labour Officer, Ministry of Gender, Labour and Social Development - Djibouti – Omar Aroun, Ministry of Labour in Charge of Formalization and Social Protection - Kenya – Kephass Odhiambo, Ministry of Labour and Social Protection	Presentations with country-specific illustrations, followed by a Q&A session Objective: To share country experience in implementing an LMIS, challenges faced and proposed mitigation measures	Mr. Stephen Obiro, Head of Advocacy, Consulting, and Partnership, Federation of Kenya Employers (FKE), Republic of Kenya
12.30-13.30	Lunch Break
13.30-16.00	Session 14: Group work	Group exercises on the implementation of a national LMIS	Group the participants by country. Each group should carry out a review of the LMIS and Implementation plan, specifically focusing on ✓ Assess current status ✓ Available information that can feed into a national LMIS ✓ Identify data gaps ✓ Propose improvements	Ms. Brenda Oyuga, National Organization of Trade Unions (NOTU), Republic of Uganda
13:00hrs	Health Break & End of Day 4

Day 5 - 25 October 2024

Policy linkages

9.00-10.30	Session 15: Linkages between labour migration statistics and labour migration governance	Use of statistics for labour migration policy development and implementation	Presentation followed by a Q&A session Objective: To get a better appreciation of the relationship between quality and evidence-based decision-making for better labour migration governance Facilitator: Theodoor Sparreboom, Labour Migration Specialist, ILO	Brian Onsase Okengo, AUC
10.30- 11.00	Health Break

11.00-12.30	Session 16: Plenary discussion	Initiatives for improving the production of labour migration statistics in the EHoA	Plenary discussion triggered by the lead facilitator. Objective: Participants to obtain a near-to-common understanding of what needs to be done to improve the production of LMS during the 2030 RPHCs	Charles Ogolla, Intergovernmental Authority on Development (IGAD)
13.30-16.00	Closing Session		- Remarks by the ILO - Official closing by the Tanzania NBS	Yonas Zewdie, National Communications Officer, BRMM, ILO
13:00hrs	Lunch & End of the Training

BETTER
REGIONAL
MIGRATION
MANAGEMENT