

ILO Strategic Policy Framework and Programme and Budget

The work of IPEC contributes to the strategic objectives of the ILO, specifically those concerned with fundamental principals and rights at work. For 2010-2011 IPEC's result-based framework, the following table highlights outcome, indicators and criteria as outlined in the ILO's Programme and Budget for the biennium.

ILO's Programme and Budget 2010-2011 (pages 62-64)

Outcome 16: Child labour is eliminated with priority being given to its worst forms
Indicator 16.1	Number of member States in which constituents, with ILO support, take significant policy and programme actions to eliminate child labour in line with ILO Conventions and Recommendations
Measurement criteria	To be counted as reportable, results must meet at least one of the following criteria: • Policies, programmes and/or action plans are adopted or implemented by one or more of the ILO's Constituents, to bring them in line with international labour standards to prohibit and eliminate child labour. • Time-bound measures to eliminate the worst forms of child labour as a matter of urgency are implemented by one or more of the ILO's Constituents. • Child labour concerns, considering the special situation of the girl child, are included in relevant development, social and/or anti-poverty policies and programmes. • Policies that address child labour are adopted and promoted through global, regional or sub-regional economic and social inter-governmental organizations or groupings.
Indicator 16.2	Number of Member States in which Constituents, with ILO support, take action to adopt or modify their legislation or reinforce their knowledge base on child labour
Measurement criteria	To be counted as reportable, results must meet at least one of the following criteria: • Either Convention No. 138 or No. 182 is ratified. • The ILO supervisory bodies have noted with satisfaction or interest progress in the application of the relevant Conventions. • Mechanisms and systems are established or strengthened so that up-to-date sex-disaggregated data and statistics concerning the situation of child labourers are available. • Targeted data collection and analysis and research are undertaken by constituents and other national partners to expand the knowledge base on child labour and to document lessons learned.
