

“Intersectionality in action: A deep dive with policymakers & practitioners on AI, health workforce, and serving vulnerable Indonesian workers,” Jakarta, 26 June 2026

Provisional agenda

Time	Session
12.00– 13.00	Registration and lunch
13.00 – 13.10	Opening
13.10 – 13.15	Remarks	Simrin C. Singh ILO Director for Indonesia and Timor Leste
13.15 –13.30	Welcome remarks Topic: AI and the Indonesian health system – Policy development, opportunities and pitfalls.	Eko Sulistijo , Head of the Centre for Data and Information Technology, Ministry of Health of the Republic of Indonesia
13.30 – 13.35	Photo taking Minister, director and keynote speaker, speakers, moderator group photo.
13.35 –13.55	Keynote speech Impact of AI on Doctor’s and Nurses work and implications for the labour force. Evidence from Indonesia and ILO Research.	Janine Berg , Senior Economist ILO Research Department, Geneva
13.55 – 15.10	Panel discussion: AI for the health industry and workforce. Perspectives from practitioners. --followed with Question-and-answer session [note: click on the panellist’s name to get his/her presentation]	• Dr. Naurah Zainar Aufaria, PT. Tintin Boyok Sawit Makmur, Sekadau, West Kalimantan. • Dr. Adiwan Qodar, Assistant Deputy Healthcare Facility Partnership, BPJS Kesehatan (Health). • Dr. Laili Fathiyah, Director General, PELNI Hospital. • Dr. Muhammad Dzaky Darmawan, Center for Indonesian Medical Students' Activities (CIMSIA) Indonesia. Moderator: Dr. Rafael Nanda Raudranisala, Occupational health doctor practitioner and consultant.
15.10-15-20	Commentary session	Afif Johan , Health Supervisory Board, BPJS Kesehatan (Health). Doddy Darmawan , Committee on Digital Health, Apindo
15.20 – 15.25	Reflection and way forward	ILO